

Ohio History Day

Youth Division Winners

Group Exhibits

Excellent Creativity: Brendan Heffernan, Nick Jannot, Henry Lumpe, Patrick McNamara “Theodore Roosevelt: American Lion” – St. Michael School, Worthington

Excellent Relation to Theme: Joshua Brobst, Charlie Spencer, Frank Jobko, Bryant Pratt “WW2: The Debate Over Dropping the Atomic Bomb” – St. Michael School, Worthington

Excellent Use of Primary Sources: Frannie Emerson, Morgan Martin “The Treaty of Greenville: Whose Land Is It?” – Dresden Elementary

Overall Excellence: Michael Asher, Matthew Roddy “The DH Debate: Should They Stay or Should They Go?” – Gilmour Academy, Gates Mills

Honorable Mentions:

Kiley Allen, Asia Baldwin, Julianna Burton “Abraham Lincoln: His Fight for Freedom” – Blanchester Intermediate School

Breanna Blaesing, Mara Ohlin, Ellie Greenwald “Slavery” – St. Michael School, Worthington

Shelly Bender, Colleen Rudy “German Immigration” – St. Michael School, Worthington

Kayla Gregg, Dakota Watters “The Exxon-Valdez Oil Spill” – Blanchester Intermediate School

Individual Exhibits

Excellent Creativity: Zachary Keenan “War of Wordcraft” – The Lillian and Betty Ratner School, Pepper Pike

Excellent Use of Primary Sources: Nick Roth “Black Sox Scandal” – Norwalk Catholic School

Excellent Relation to Theme: Caden Sauerbrey “Radiation and Its Discovery” – Dresden Elementary

Overall Excellence: Olivia Powers “Smaller Basketballs for Women” – Norwalk Catholic School

Honorable Mentions:

Nicholas Fenik “Dr. Sam Sheppard v. State of Ohio” – Norwalk Catholic School

Allison Brown “Mustangs: Why Horse Around?” – Norwalk Catholic School

Carissa Ledford “Rosa Parks” – Blanchester Intermediate School

Matthew Cheek “Debate and Diplomacy: The B17 Bomber” – Margaretta Elementary, Castalia

Individual Performance

Excellent Creativity: Audra Adams “Sacagawea” – North Union Elementary

Excellent Use of Primary Sources: Jacob Lu “Taiwan: The Hot Potato of International Diplomacy” - The Lillian and Betty Ratner School, Pepper Pike

Excellent Relation to Theme: Sebastian Williams “Korematsu vs. the United States: The Legalization of Racism” - The Lillian and Betty Ratner School, Pepper Pike

Overall Excellence: Tommy Anderson “Richard Nixon, Ping Pong, and China” - Margareta Elementary, Castalia