

Newark Open House

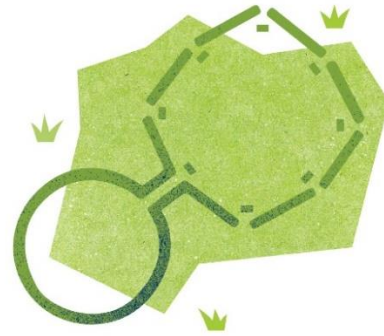

Sunday, April 16th

The Octagon

| | |
|-----------------|--|
| 12:00 PM – 4:00 | Learn about Ohio's Earthworks and Historic Sites Join Ohio History Connection staff and our partners in historic preservation and education to learn about American Indian Connections to Ohio through the landscapes and material culture that they created! Participants: Hopewell Culture National Historical Park, Heartland Earthworks Conservancy, the Great Circle Alliance. |
| 12:00 – 12:15 | The Newark Earthworks and World Heritage Join us at the World Heritage table to hear about why the Newark Earthworks and eight other earthworks sites are nominated for World Heritage status and the current progress toward inscription. |
| 12:30 – 1:30 | Tour of the Octagon Earthwork Join World Heritage Archaeologist Brad Lepper on a tour of the Octagon Earthwork. |
| 2:00 – 2:15 | Earthworks in Licking County Join the Heartland Earthworks Conservancy at their table to learn about ongoing archaeological geophysical research of earthworks in Licking and adjacent counties. |
| 2:30 – 3:30 | Tour of the Octagon Earthwork Join Dr. John Low a citizen of the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi and Professor in Comparative Studies focusing on American Indian connections to identity, representation, material culture and landscapes for a tour of the Octagon Earthworks. |
| 4:00-5:00 | The Astronomy and Geometry of the Earthworks Join physicist Robert Neinast as he leads you through the Octagon Earthwork highlighting key elements of the earthwork that connect it to the lunar cycle and a discussion of what makes this landscape special. |

Newark Open House

Sunday, April 16th

The Great Circle

12:00 PM – 4:00

Learn about Ohio's Earthworks and Historic Sites

Join Ohio History Connection staff and our partners in historic preservation and education to learn about the history of the Newark Earthworks and their importance to local communities throughout history!

Participants: The Works, Licking County Library, and Flint Ridge

12:30 – 1:30

Tour of the Great Circle

Join Site Manager Sarah Hinkelman for a tour of the Great Circle.

2:00 – 2:30

Museum Talk – Jen Aultman

Join Jen Aultman, chief historic sites officer at the Ohio History Connection, to learn about what makes the Newark Earthworks eligible for World Heritage status and where we are in the process of achieving world recognition of the Hopewell Ceremonial Earthworks!

3:00-4:00

Tour of the Great Circle

Join Site Manager Sarah Hinkelman for a tour of the Great Circle.

4:00-4:30

Museum Talk – Dr. John Low

Join Dr. John Low to learn about present day American Indian connections to the Newark Earthworks and how these landscapes have always been and remain sacred.