INTRODUCTION

Franklin County was organized in 1803 from Ross County, portions of Licking and Fairfield Counties being added to it later. After 1803 parts of Franklin County were used to form present day Delaware, Madison, Pickaway and Union Counties. Graham's 1856 map shows properties in some of the surrounding counties.

The eighteen townships in Franklin County are located on four different types of land denominations: Refugee Tract (Montgomery and Truro); U.S. Congress Lands (Hamilton and Madison); U.S. Military Lands (Plain, Blendon, Sharon, Perry, Mifflin, Clinton, Jefferson); and the Virginia Military Lands (Washington, Brown, Norwich, Pleasant, Prairie, Franklin, Jackson).

The names on the original map copies are difficult to read due to the small print and the frequently blurry writing. To assist persons who desire to find the location of the names on the plat maps the following information is noted:

- "A" the approximate number of acres, when given
- "V" plus a number--indicates Virginia Military land warrant
- "Sec" plus a number--indicates land in Refugee Tract or Congress Lands
- "Sec" plus a number and (S)--applies mainly to Madison Twp. Where there are duplicate section nos.; (S) indicates southern part of the township
- "NE" "SE" "NW" "SW"--one of these used indicates in which quarter of the township to search--U.S. Military Lands

"BL" Blendon Twp	"MD" Madison Twp	"PN" Plain Twp
"BR" Brown Twp	"MF" Mifflin Twp	"PR" Prairie Twp
"CL" Clinton Twp	"MR" Marion Twp	"PY" Perry Twp
"FR" Franklin Twp	"MY" Montgomery Twp	"SH" Sharon Twp
"HM" Hamilton Twp	"NH" Norwich Twp	"TR" Truro Twp
"JF" Jefferson	"PL" Pleasant Twp	"WN" Washington Twp
"JK" Jackson

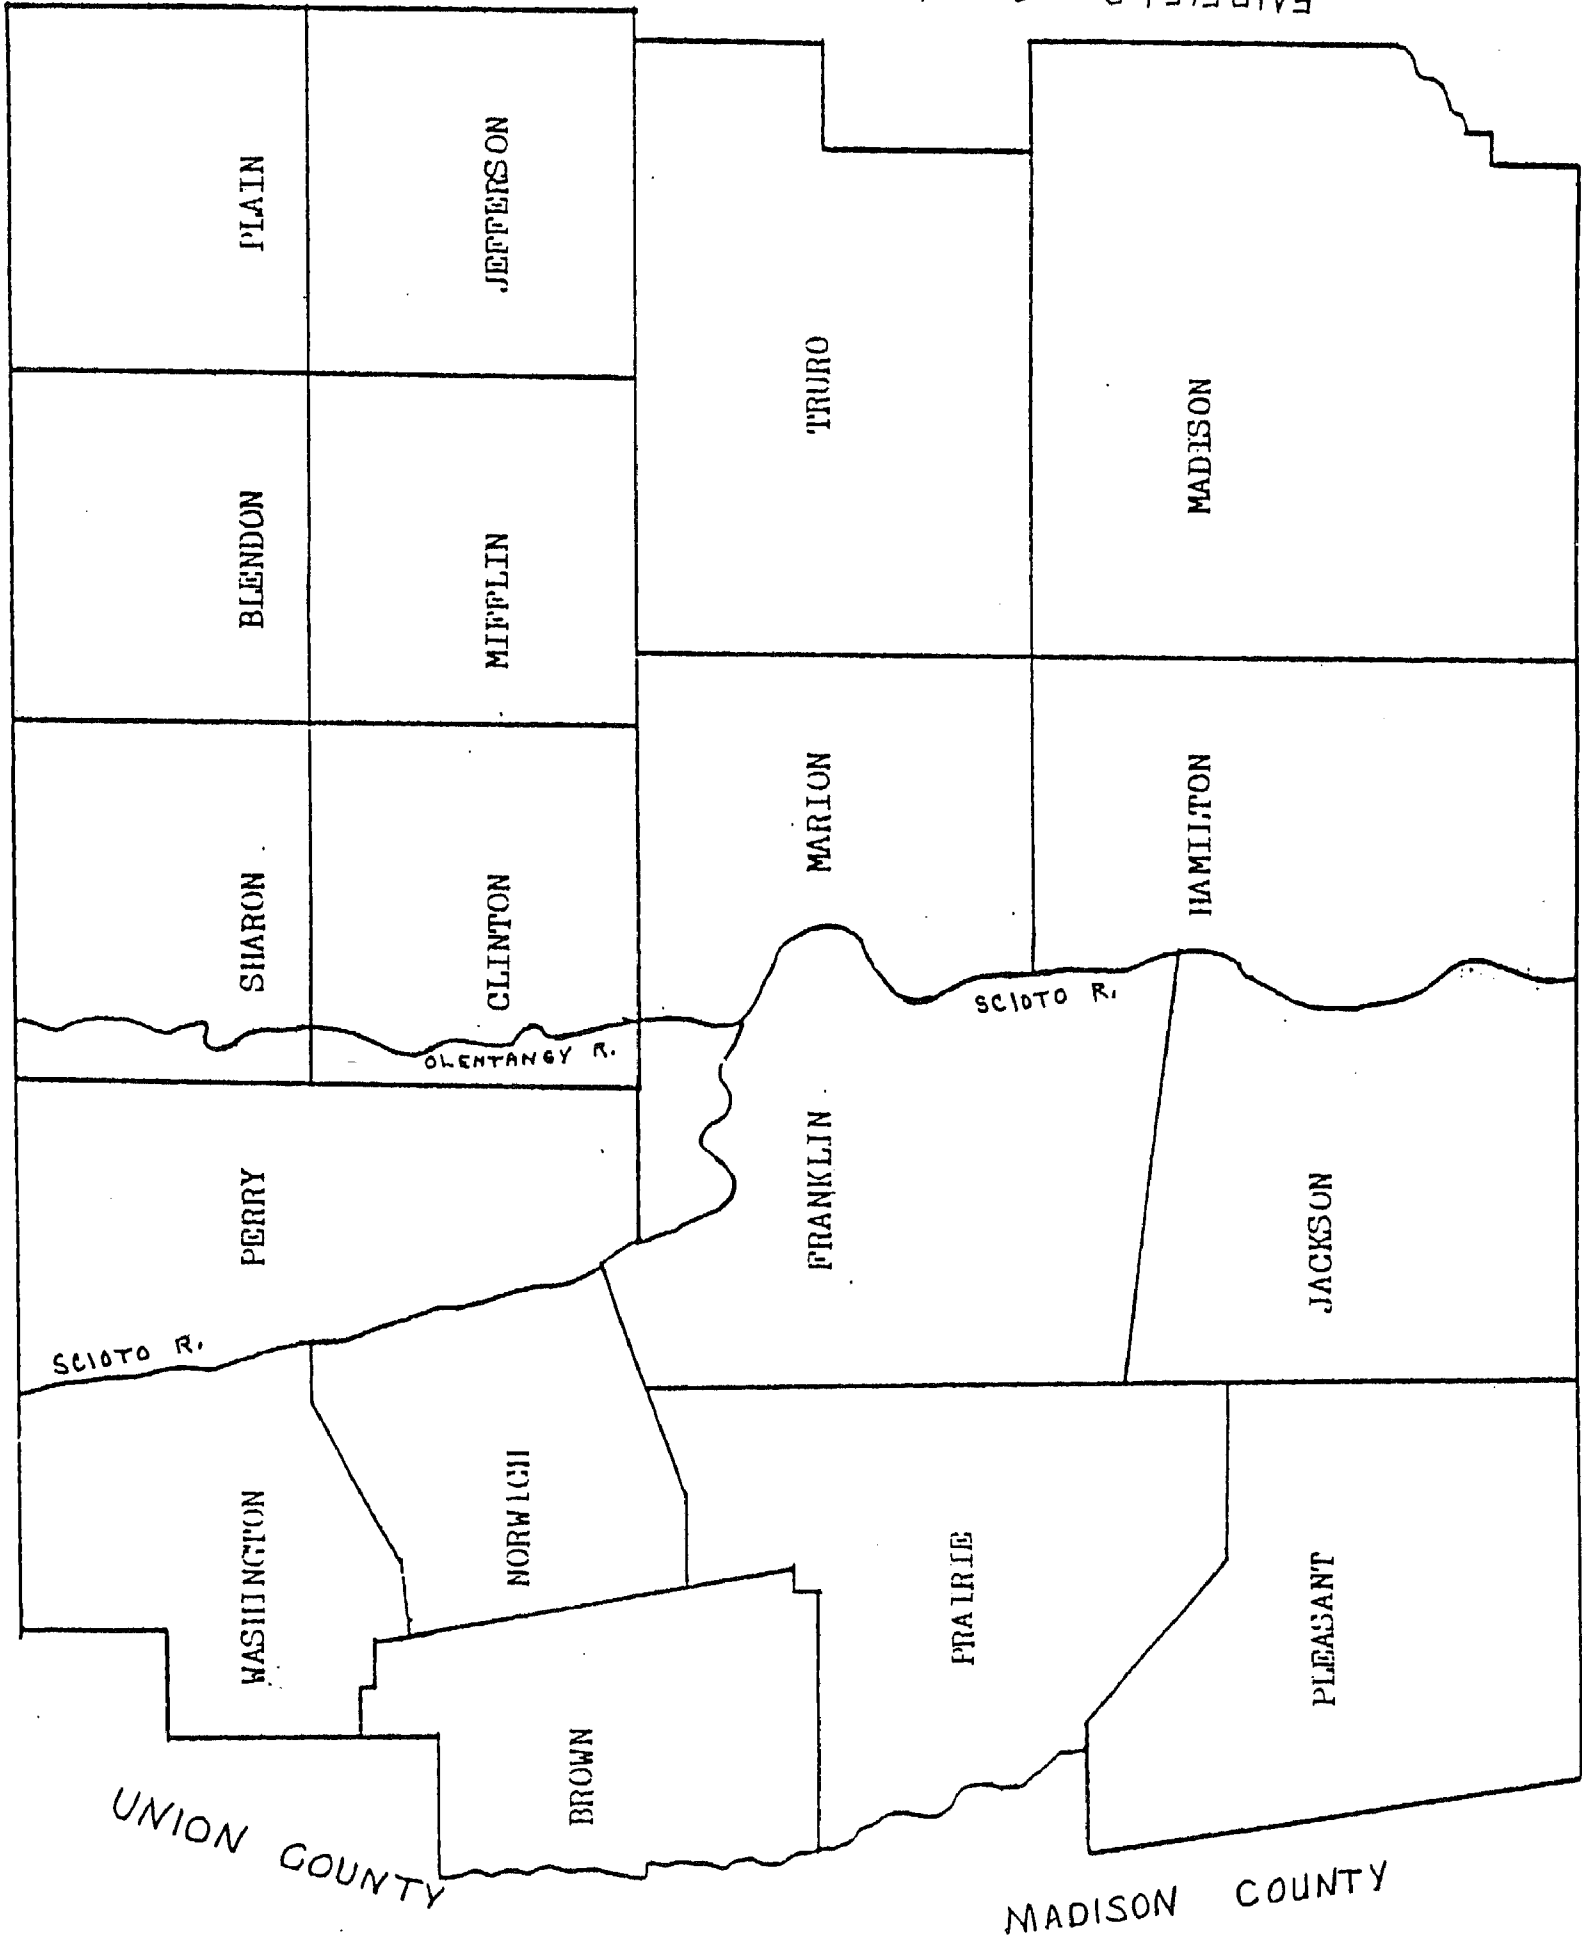

Note: Not every name listed in this index was a landowner; however, all names listed were noted with the map maker's notation as to resident, occupant, merchant, etc.

Note: Montgomery Township ceased to exist when Marion Township was formed from Montgomery and Hamilton Townships in 1873; hence, a man might be located in Montgomery Twp in 1856 and although he did not move, he will be located in Marion Twp in 1883.

Copies of the original maps may be ordered. For information write to:
