TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Historical Sketch of Ross County.

Ross county was formed by proclamation of Governor St. Clair, on the 20th of August, 1798, being the sixth county formed in the North Western territory.

It was named after the Hon. James Ross, of Alleghany county, Pennsylvania. The surface is most widely diversified, ranging from the beautiful valleys with their waving grain to immense ranges of rugged hills. The principal streams are the Scioto river and Paint creek. The latter empties into the Scioto a short distance below Chillicothe. Along these streams lies some of the finest farming lands in Ohio, with a soil from three to ten feet deep, and have been producing corn since 1796, and this season have produced eighty bushels per acre.

That part of Ross county which lies west of the Scioto river, comprising ten townships, is a part of the territory known as the Virginia military district. This district originally comprised the land bounded on the north and east by the Scioto river, on the west mainly by the Miami, and on the south by the Ohio. This entire district was ceded to the United States on the first day of March 1784, by the state of Virginia, as a common fund for the benefit of all the states, for the purpose of satisfying the Continental land warrants in case the Kentucky reserve should not be sufficient for that purpose.

On the 17th of December 1783, Col. Richard Clough Anderson of Virginia, was appointed Chief-Surveyor for the purpose of locating warrants. His fees were set at three shillings (or fifty cents in Virginia money) per thousand acres.

*On the 1st of August 1787, Col. Anderson opened the office for receiving the entries made in the North-Western territory. In this year many entries were made on the bottoms of the Ohio, Scioto and Miami rivers.

An Act of Congress in 1788, virtually prevented further entries till the repeal of this Act in 1790. Nathaniel Massie, who had been writing in Col. Anderson's office, was now sent out to enter and survey. As the risk in making surveys was great, the owners of warrants offered a fourth or third and sometimes even half to the surveyor. It was a contest for dominion—the land of the red man. Though the camp fires of the Indians have long since gone out, and their wigwams are seen no more, yet their ancient mounds will stand as a monument to the memory of an expiring race for ages yet to come.

In 1792 Col. Nathaniel Massie, who was born in Goochland county, Virginia, December 28th 1763, made the first land surveys in Ross county. The glowing description of the fertility of the soil, and the beauty of the scenery, having been circulated in Kentucky by Massie and others, induced a colony of Presbyterians under Rev. R. W. Finley to emigrate thither. Accordingly in March 1796, the party numbering about forty persons set out for the new location, they landed on the 1st day of April and settled just above the mouth of Paint creek three miles below Chillicothe, at what was known as "Prairie Station." Here they erected some log-houses and put out about 300 acres of corn the same year. Col. Massie laid out Chillicothe in August 1796. The town was incorporated January 4th 1802. The corporation now extends from the Scioto river on the north across the valley to Paint creek on the south.

The situation and plan of Chillicothe have been compared to Philadelphia, the Scioto river and Paint creek representing in this case the Delaware and Schuylkill rivers—both cities being level and regularly laid out. But the natural scenery is more beautiful here.

Chillicothe seems to have been a favorite S me among the Indians, for they had several towns by this name; one at Frankfort in this county, one on the site of Westfall in Pickaway county, one in Greene, one in Miami and one

In the preparation of the foregoing brief sketch, it has been our aim to collect as many facts and points of interest as possible, in the brief space allotted to this part of the work. And through the kindness of Mr. P. G. Griffin, Auditor, we have had free access to county records. Aside from this we have been materially aided by "McDonald's Sketches," Howe's Historical collections of Ohio, and Messrs. Finley and Putnam's "Pioneer Record."

Historical Sketch of Townships, Situated in Ross County, Ohio.

BUCKSKIN TOWNSHIP.—Buckskin township was made up from a part of Paxton and Concord townships, and organized as a separate township on the 10th of August, 1807. The township derived its name from the fact that a hollow sycamore was found full of deerskins in process of smoking, at the time the whites drove out a party of Indians.

The first election was held at the house of John Robbins.

The surface of the land is undulating—soil good. Buckskin creek is the principal stream. South Salem and Lyndon are two very nicely located little towns. The Salem Academy under the present system of management, with Mr. Dagge as principal, deserves a hearty support and liberal patronage. The farms in this township are nearer a uniform size than in either of the other townships west of the Scioto river. The father of Henry Hester emigrated from Pennsylvania in 1804, and settled in what is now Buckskin township. Other early settlers: James Wilson, John H. Wilson, Frederick Parrott, John Wallace, S. Scott, J. McGinnis. The first house built in South Salem was in 1846, by M. Douglas. Rev. Jas. Dickey was the first pastor at Salem, where he remained for twenty years.

Dr. Hamilton settled here in 1839, from Pennsylvania—was educated at Jefferson College, Penn. John Vandeman came from Pennsylvania in 1800, and served under General Washington in the revolution.

Ezra Lucas moved to Ross county in 1811; his father was at the battle of Bunker Hill.

Robert Wilson, born near Pittsburg, in 1781, bought his present farm in 1804, and has lived on it ever since.

CONCORD TOWNSHIP.—This is the largest township in the county. The towns of Frankfort, Roxabell and Lattaville are the principal trading points. The soil is good and well adapted to raising fruit and grain. This township was, in past ages, a favorite hunting ground of the Indians. "Here," says one writer, "the north-western tribes annually met to hold their convocations; here once burned their council fires; and here the clear shrill voices of their chiefs, braves and orators once were heard; here was their home alike in war and in peace." "Old Town," their ancient metropolis, on passing into the hands of the pale face, was called Frankfort. It was here that they collected in 1774, to prepare for the memorable battle of Point Pleasant. It was near Old Town that Daniel Boone made his escape from the Indians in 1773. Among the first settlers were S. Wiley, J. Southerland, R. Stewart, F. Wells, J. McNeill, P. Putnam, and Frederick Berley who was chief spy in Earl Dummore's war of 1774; was in the revolution of 1776, and in the Indian war of 1791.

COLERAIN TOWNSHIP.—Colerain township was formed from a part of Green, June 11, 1804.

The first election was held at the residence of David Dawes.

The surface is rolling, and watered by Walnut, and Kinnickinnick creeks, whose high and craggy banks afforded hiding places for bear, panther and wolves as late as 1805. Adelphi and Hallsville are flourishing little towns. Hon. Daniel Karshner settled in this township in 1796; he was a captain in the war of 1812, and represented Ross county in the state legislature in 1836—died in 1844 at the age of eighty-four, leaving three sons, Daniel, John and Eliasha. Among the early settlers were Elias Henton, Martin Dreshack, Jos. Aaron and Wm. Bookwalter, John May, Frederick Pontious, Henry Strausser, Capt. J. Patterson and Mayor Engle. John Beach was the first hotel-keeper. P. Marshall kept the first boot and shoe store in Colerain township.

DEERFIELD TOWNSHIP.—Deerfield township was formed from territory taken off from Union and Concord townships, July 7, 1804.

The first township election was held at the house of J. Davis.

The surface of this township is but slightly undulating and the soil is very rich. Clarksburg and Greenland are the trading points; the former took its name from Col. Wm. Clark, a veteran in the war of 1812. Among the early settlers were Capt. Clement Brown, who emigrated from Delaware in 1802, and settled on Deer creek, where he purchased a very large tract of land. He was married in 1803, and lived to the advanced age of eighty years.

In 1803 Edward Tiffin located in this township, and served in the war of 1812.

Rev. Stephen Timmons emigrated to Deerfield in 1802, and was the first minister to settle on Deer creek. It was said that Rev. Lorenzo Dow preached here in a barn in 1828. Levi Noble settled in 1800: Jas. Tempkin in 1795; John Foster in 1802, and taught the first school in Deerfield township. John and James Tootle were large land owners. David Jones was chaplain to General Wayne in 1793-5. Joseph Conrad had at one time three wives, and yet lived to the advanced age of ninety-nine years.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP.—Franklin township was taken off from Scioto and Peepee townships, September 9, 1806.

The Scioto river forms the eastern boundary. The Ohio and Erie canal passes through this township, following down the west side of the river. The land is broken and presents a group of almost endless hills, but the view is relieved by an occasional slope or valley of excellent land, indeed the slope off toward the Scioto, at the south-east corner of Franklin township, is a most beautiful scope of country, with some of fine farms as lie in Ross county.

Richard Foster was the first settler in this township. Colonel Foster's father came to Ohio in 1798; the colonel represented Ross county in legislature in 1848; John Foster has lived in Franklin township for seventy years; Lewis Foster was born December 26, 1760, his father was one of the two white men who first rowed a canoe up the Scioto river; T. C. Foster now owns a part of the bottom land in Franklin; also, Messrs. Highy, McGuire, Hays and Wright own fine farms here.

GREEN TOWNSHIP.—Green lies on the east side of the Scioto river, and is one of the most wealthy townships in the county. Kingston near the Pickaway line, is a thriving town and second largest in the county.

The surface is rolling, with some beautiful valleys of rich and productive soil; some of the finest farms in the entire valley may be seen in this township.

Among the first settlers here was Capt. John Boggs of Virginia, in 1798. He descended the Ohio to Portsmouth, then passed up the Scioto in a keel boat to Chillicothe and selected a farm at the base of the Pickaway plains, later known as the Crouse and Renick farms; here he erected his cabin near the elm tree under which the illustrious chief Logan delivered his celebrated speech in 1774.

John Crouse built the first mill on Kinnickinnick run. Edward Ostrand was the first physician.

HARRISON TOWNSHIP.—The township of Harrison was organized from a part of Jefferson, December 9, 1812.

The first township election was at the house of John Comber.

Mooresville and Charleston are located in this township, and are thriving little villages. Walnut creek and Sugar run are the principal streams. The surface is rolling, with some high elevations. Rattlesnake Knob I believe is the highest point. Mr. Hansoult is it said, here killed a racer snake sixteen feet long. The Indian chief "Big Foot" called this the bad ground—the habitation of bad spirits. In 1805 it was considered unsafe to pass over, either afoot or on horseback; but time brings its changes. Many good farms are now to be seen on the slope and in the valleys.

Among the early settlers were S. Harrison, Geo. Stanhope, Jos. Vangundy, G. Bishop, D. Ream, Colonel Wm. Johnson, Capt. A. Moore and Mayor Lewis. One McClundy, a companion of Daniel Boone, in a thirteen days hunt is said to have killed in this township, thirteen bears, nine wolves, six panthers and three wild cats.

HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP.—This township was erected March 5, 1811, out of a part of Scioto and Twin townships.

The first election was held at the house of Charles Mitchell.

Farmersville, located in the southern part, is the only village. This township has more hill land than any other township in Ross county. On some of these are valuable fruit farms. Many of the hills are very high and covered with second growth hickory, now becoming very valuable. Paint creek is the northern boundary; it was on this creek, near Rock Rapids, that Daniel Boone made a temporary encampment, September 7, 1789, when on his way from Manchester to Fort Clark on Mad river. This was once a great field for hunting.

Robert Bishop has been a citizen of this township for sixty-four years—he came from Virginia in 1805. Henry Wilt was in the war of 1812, still living. John Long was among the early settlers. Hon. I. J. Finley found his way from this retreat of hills to the legislature of Ohio in 1868-9.

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP.—This is the southeastern township of Ross county.

Richmond on the west bank of Salt creek is the only town.

The surface of the soil is very rolling, and in places broken and abrupt, but there are some excellent farms of bottom land on the west along the Scioto river. Pilot Knob, near the line of Jackson county is the highest elevation. The township was settled by Quakers from North Carolina. The Cox's settled near Richmond in 1798, though the town was not formally laid out till 1811. The Moffitts located the town. Meeker, Stratton and others were from Connecticut.

This township was once a favorite hunting ground—the game has mostly disappeared except rattlesnakes. This township too claims the tallest man in Ross county—his name is J. A. Stansiff, is six feet seven and a half inches high.

LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.—This township contains the village of Londonderry, and also a smaller village by the name of Londonderry Station, located on the Marietta & Cincinnati railroad.

The surface of the township is rolling and the soil generally good. Walnut and Dry creek pass through this township to the Scioto river.

There is a high table-land in this township, originally called "The High-bank Prairie," on which some of the very first settlements in Ross county were made. Corn was raised on this prairie as early as 1789, by James Kilgore, Thos. and Zebulon Orr. The land was still owned by the Government, but many settled here with a view of buying the land when offered for sale. That portion along Walnut creek was covered with a heavy growth of walnut, hickory, ash and yellow poplar trees, these were often from two to six feet in diameter.

Thos. Jones, A. Claypool and Amos Taylor were among the earliest settlers.

PAXTON TOWNSHIP.—Paxton is the southwest township of Ross county. Bainbridge the only town, is located on the south bank of Paint creek, and is the largest town, except Chillicothe, in Ross county. Paint valley at this point is about a mile wide and reaches the entire length of the township. The soil is deep and in fertility has hardly a parallel in Ohio. Back from the valley the land rises gradually as an ocean wave into a lofty range of immense hills. Most of these hills are well adapted to fruit growing.

Joseph Rockhold settled in Paxton township in 1800. His wife Mary Rockhold was still living in 1871, and was then ninety-four years old.

Among the early settlers were J. Gault and E. Kelly. Abraham Pepple settled here in 1808; C. Platter in 1809; Robert Dill, sen. and Thomas Dill in the same year, and built one of the first cabins in the township. It was on Paint creek, in this township, that the celebrated Indian battle of "Reeve's crossing" was fought in 1795.

PAINT TOWNSHIP.—Paint township was struck off from Paxton on the 11 of June, 1818; a part of Buckskin township was added to Paint the following year. This township contains no town or village. There are some fine farms along Paint valley, and on Buckskin creek, but the surface is generally very rolling, with some tremendous elevations. Paint creek forms the west boundary. There are two streams of less note, Buckskin and Cliff Run, that pass through the western part and empty into Paint creek. Cliff Run winds its way through steep and craggy cliffs of limestone rock, covered with trees and shrubs in the wildest possible profusion, and since it became the scene of the noted Blackburn tragedy, has been the wonder of many curious visitors. The descendants of Colonel Jelahiel Woodbridge were the earliest settlers of this region. Christian Benner, Thos. Edminster, Zachary Taylor, J. Ogle, settled here in an early day.

SCIOTO TOWNSHIP.—Scioto, in which Chillicothe is located, is the oldest township in the county, and derived its name from the Scioto river which, in part, passes through it. The soil, though in places broken, is generally of an excellent quality, being composed largely of Scioto and Paint Valley bottoms. This township has not been behind in furnishing her share of professional men, politicians and statesmen. It has been the home of three Governors of Ohio. Hon. Duncan McArthur, Hon. Thomas Worthington, and Hon. William Allen our present Governor, who resides on the celebrated "Fruit Hill" farm, once owned by Governor McArthur. Surely "Fruit Hill," of all the hills in Ohio, is most productive of Governors. Chillicothe is the second oldest town in Ohio; was the seat of Government for the North-Western territory in 1800; was incorporated as a town in 1802; as a city in 1838.

SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP.—Springfield township was organized in 1809, out of a portion of Green township. The surface is rolling, and watered by Lick Run and Dry Run. Hopetown is but a small village. Chillicothe is the principal trading point. Michael Cryder was among the early settlers, and came to the Scioto valley in 1796; Jacob Mace in 1788; F. Overly in 1797; Colonel Siford at an early date, and was a man of much influence and enterprise. Casper Senff, grandfather of Michael Senff, came from Germany in 1773, was a King's hunter, and served as a spy in the revolution. In this township is located the celebrated Mt. Logan, in its stately grandeur overlooking the city of Chillicothe at a distance of nearly three miles. There is a beautiful valley stretching along its base, presenting a most pleasing view when covered with ripening grain.

TWIN TOWNSHIP.—Twin township was organized February 20, 1805, out of the territory taken off from Concord, Union and Paxton. The first township election was held at the residence of Joseph Elliott.

The surface of this township is widely diversified, rising from the beautiful valleys of both branches of Paint creek, some places gradually and some places very abruptly in the most lofty ranges of hills. These valleys are very fertile and have produced corn for over sixty years. The soil is from three to ten feet deep. Bourneville the only town, is a lively little place containing about one hundred and fifty inhabitants. Among the early settlers was Hugh Cochran, who migrated here from Lexington, Ky., in 1797, his sister Elizabeth was married to George Kilgore in 1798. "This," says Howe, in his Historical collections of Ohio, "was the first marriage celebrated in Scioto valley."

Gideon Coover settled here from Pennsylvania in 1800.

Wm. Campbell was a resident of Twin township sixty-five years.

Daniel P. March from Maine, settled here in 1817—was a judge of the court for many years. George I. Moore, father of David Moore, came from Pennsylvania in 1813.

Michael Dolahan from Virginia in 1802; Thomas Hanks in 1790.

Colonel John McDonald was one of the most useful men of his day; he was born January 28, 1775, in Pennsylvania, and entered the Army under General Wayne before he was twenty; was with General Wayne in 1794, and came to Chillicothe in 1796; was married in 1799. In 1814 he had command of a regiment of troops at Detroit; in 1817 was elected to the state senate.

UNION TOWNSHIP.—Union township is bounded on the east by the Scioto river, along which lies a stretch of beautiful bottom land, through which the Ohio and Erie canal passes. This is the most wealthy township in Ross county, the real estate in 1873 was valued at $1,544,292.00. Andersonville, Yellow Bud and Lewiston are its towns—are small. The new county Infirmary is being built in this township, six miles up the Scioto river from Chillicothe. The Infirmary farm contains 354 acres, and is fine farming land.

Levi Hurst was among the earliest settlers; was born in 1770. He built the first hewed log house in Union township. John Rodgers helped build the first cabin in Chillicothe. He drove the cattle from Kentucky to Chillicothe.

The house in which Mr. Smith Pursel now lives is a brick and was built over seventy years ago.

The first shingle roof house west of Chillicothe was immediately west of Mr. Pursel's present residence, built in 1800.

PREFACE

The reprinting of the 1875 ATLAS OF ROSS COUNTY, OHIO (printed over 100 years ago) is a bicentennial project of the Ross County Genealogical Society.

Our county is divided into two types of land - Congress Lands and the Virginia Military District - a total of sixteen townships.

The CONGRESS LANDS, divided into SECTION numbers, located east of the Scioto River are (1) Colerain, (2) Green, (3) Harrison, (4) Jefferson, (5) Liberty, and (6) Springfield townships. We have indexed these according to the first few letters of the township (see abbreviations below), then the section number. In the townships of Green, Jefferson, Liberty and Springfield, you will find duplicate section numbers. For example: If you look in Green township for section No. 1, you will find it on the right side of the map as well as the left. Please check both sides for your section.

The VIRGINIA MILITARY DISTRICT, divided by SURVEY NUMBERS, located west of Scioto River contains (1) Buckskin, (2) Concord, (3) Deerfield, (4) Franklin, (5) Huntington, (6) Paxton, (7) Paint, (8) Scioto, (9) Twin and (10) Union. We have indexed these according to the first few letters of the township (see abbreviations below), and as a finding aid to names, etc., we have used Road Map directions, using the number first with the letter following.

A SURVEY NUMBER INDEX has been included to make our Atlas invaluable for locating survey numbers used in deeds, and in locating cemeteries, even though an ancestor may have left Ross County many years before.

A PLACE, THING INDEX has also been added as another research aid. If you note BD after a name, this will indicate that a particular person is located in the Business directory of the township and may not have owned property.

INDEX TO HOMES

RESIDENCE OF D. O. DIGGS Lyndon Station, Ohio Located west of Chillicothe on Route 28 in Lyndon, Buckskin Township. This is a neat two story frame house enclosed at one time with an iron fence. Seven rooms have coal burning grates with beautiful ceramic tile and mantles. The interior has been re-modeled to accommodate two families. Dudley Owens Diggs (1812-1899) was born in Louisa County, Virginia, the son of Thomas and Elizabeth Desper Diggs. He was a teacher, storekeeper and farmer. His first wife of over fifty years was Sophia Houston, a native of Pennsylvania. They had no children. At the age of 76, Mr. Diggs married nineteen year old Amanda Bragg of Virginia. They had three children. The family were members of the South Salem Presbyterian Church. Quite an impressive monument in the South Salem cemetery marks his grave. In 1943, Lawrence P. Taylor purchased the property from Mrs. Diggs. Mr. Taylor's widow resides in the lovely old home.	Shown on Page 13	"PLEASANT RIDGE FARM" Residence of Dr. William Latta Located ten miles northwest of Chillicothe on Route 35 on the left near the foot of Bray's Hill, Concord Township. This sturdy brick building looks much like it did one-hundred years ago. The outbuildings have changed and a porch has been added across the front of the house. It has a step from the front room into the next room. The Latta brothers, William and Moses, came to Concord Township early in 1800. Dr. William Latta and Mahala H. Latta are buried in the old Baptist cemetery on Route 35 just a short distance from his home. The Lattas bought the farm from Frederick Bray. It was also owned by the Devines and Engles. Now Mrs. Bernice Engle Free is the owner and occupant.	Shown on Page 19
"SALEM ACADEMY" Located west of Chillicothe in South Salem, Buckskin township. This large square stone building was built in 1842. The building at the left in the picture was dismantled in 1890 and replaced. The Academy is part of the Buckskin School facility and used for storage. This building has been nominated to be placed on the National Register for preservation.	Shown on Page 13	RESIDENCE OF MR. SIMON RATCLIFF Located east of Chillicothe, one mile east of Londonderry on the right of Route 50, Liberty Township. Buildings are still standing but have been abandoned. The Ratcliffs were natives of Chatham County, North Carolina. Simon Ratcliff opened a general store in Londonderry in 1832. Londonderry was first known as Gillespieville, named for James Gillespie, the first postmaster. A Mr. Vargo from Columbus, Ohio owns this property.	Shown on Page 29
"FAIRVIEW FARM" Residence of Thomas Murray, Located two miles west of Lyndon, off Route 28 on Bayless Road one-half mile in Buckskin Township. A large substantial brick residence of high elevation overlooking miles of beautiful fertile farmland. This home has nine huge rooms and originally had a fireplace in every room. Beautiful walnut and oak woodwork. Unique and unusual fruit carved front door. Bricks kilned on the farm. Captain watch on top of the house with iron railing, also balcony with iron railing over the front entrance. Thomas Murray (1819-1896) was the son of James and Mary Mitchell Murray of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, who migrated to Buckskin Township in 1812. Thomas Murray, cattleman and farmer, married Margaret Parrett, daughter of George and Milly Wilkins Parrett. They were the parents of five children. Dallas Bayless purchased the farm from the Murrays and is now owned by Dr. and Mrs. James Vanzant (DVM Greenfield, Ohio). Mrs. Vanzant is a granddaughter of Mr. Bayless. Extensive restoration has been done by the present owners.	Shown on Page 15	"DAVIS' SCIOTO VALLEY FARM" Residence of S. N. Higby Located ten miles south of Chillicothe off Route 35 to the Higby Road left on the Three Locks Road one-half mile, Franklin Township. This is a huge square brick house situated on a hill overlooking the Scioto Valley. House is unoccupied. The house is very plain and the only adornment would be the two identical porches with Gothic columns. It was built about 1859 and was one of several almost identical homes built in the Scioto Valley just before the Civil War. Sylvester Norton Higby (1819-1885) farmer, storekeeper, station agent, postmaster, was the son of Dexter and Rosanna E. Higby. Sylvester Higby married Hanna Davis, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Hayes Davis who came to Ross County in 1812. Charles Higby, son of Sylvester and Hanna Higby, married Mary L. Crow and they had five children: Hattie, Mamie, Hanna, Charles and James. The present owner is Mrs. Hanna Hibgy Eisenhart of Columbus, Ohio, the granddaughter of Sylvester N. Higby. They Higbys are buried on Grandview.	Shown on Page 31
"ROSEDALE COTTAGE" Residence of Dr. J. M. Cox Located west of Chillicothe in South Salem, Buckskin Township. Quaint one story frame house, it looks just like the picture. Dr. Cox had his office and residence here. Dr. John M. Cox was born in Buckskin Township in 1824, the son of Thomas and Sophia DeVoss Cox. Dr. Cox first taught school and later was a graduate of Starling Medical College in Columbus. He married Margaret Warnoch of Buckskin Township and had one daughter, Leila, wife of Prof. J. O. Caldwell, Pueblo, Colorado. Milton Caldwell purchased the house from Dr. Cox. It was later known as the Lavery Place. It is now owned by Mrs. John Rogers and occupied by Mrs. Minnie Hestor, who was delivered by Dr. Cox 84 years ago.	Shown on Page 15	VIEW OF STATE DAM ON THE SCIOTO Located approximately six miles southeast of Chillicothe off Route 23 on the Three Locks Road in Franklin Township. The dam is still in evidence, but has crumbled and deteriorated some. The huge stones for the three locks of the canal are in good condition and plainly visible. The dam was of no further use after the demise of the Ohio-Erie canal. The last boat on the canal in this area was around 1912-1913. The canal had served its purpose and benefited many people, but gave way to the coming of the railroad as a means of transportation. The residence nearby was once the site of the old Inn.	Shown on Page 31
"PLEASANT HOME" Residence of H. E. Slagle Located ten miles northwest of Frankfort off the Good Hope-Austin Road on Douglas Road, Concord Township. This is an impressive brick house built in 1867 by Henry E. Slagle. A beautiful circular cherry stairway is found in this house. There are fireplaces in all ten rooms. Of interest in one room is the intricate pattern of small hardwood pieces of flooring. There is a recessed balcony with iron railing at a side entrance. Henry E. Slagle, son of Jacob Slagle, married Amanda Briggs. They had eleven children. The Slagles are buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, Frankfort. This property has been owned by the Douglas and Phillips families, the Government and is now owned and being restored by Lee Reisinger.	Shown on Page 19	"MOUNT PLEASANT" Residence of Mr. David Crouse Located eight and one-half miles north of Chillicothe on Route 159, Green Township. This lovely brick house was built by John Crouse, Jr. in 1856 for his son David Crouse. There are twelve rooms with eleven-foot ceilings, a fireplace in every room but three. There are three floors finished, complete with small shutters at the windows on the third floor. The basement is of solid stone, walls 22" thick. The bricks were kilned on the site, walnut for the woodwork cut on the farm. The house is 'pleasantly' situated on a rise overlooking a broad expanse of farmland with a full view of Kingston, Ohio. David Crouse was the son of John and Lydia Barr Crouse. His grandfather, a Revolutionary soldier, John Crouse, Sr., was a mill owner, distiller, huge land owner and devout Methodist. John Crouse, Sr., and Catherine Umsted Crouse migrated to Ross County from Frederick County, Maryland in 1798. The Crouse Chapel Church on Crouse Chapel Road is named for this family. David and Lydia Barr Crouse were the parents of the following children: John, Martha (Holman), Ellen (Black) Bessie, David E. (writer and author), and Lydia (Harvison). The property has changed ownership over the years from Crouse, Kramer, Kerns, Yapple and the last thirty-five years has been the possession of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Graves who call it "Twin Trees".	Shown on Page 35

WESTVILL FARM
Residence of Mr. J. H. West

Located eight miles north of Chillicothe on Route 159, Green Township. This comfortable seven room frame home was built by Mr. John West himself to accommodate his growing family of eight children. No addition over the years have been made, only to modernize it. One unique feature is the cathedral window in front. The house faces west overlooking rich fertile fields.

John H. West was born December 20, 1825 in Frederick County, Maryland and died 1917, aged 92 years. He brought the farm in 1860, moved to Clark County, Illinois in 1884 where he remained eleven years, only to return to his farm in Ross County where he lived until his death. He was married in 1852 to Mary Carmean. After her death the following year, he married her sister Martha.

Joseph Grimes purchased the farm from the West heirs and is now in the possession of a grandson Howard Grimes Immell.

"KINNICKINNICK STOCK FARM"
Residence of Mr. Lincoln G. Delano

Located six and one-half miles north of Chillicothe on Route 159, Green Township. This picturesque farm residence was built by John Crouse Jr. for his daughter Martha Crouse (1836-1875), the wife of Lincoln G. Delano (see Genealogical notes under David Crouse, a brother). The buildings are in a fine state of preservation and look just like the picture. This house has cathedral windows to the side and front. Mr. Delano was a banker and enjoyed fine livestock. He was a director of the Scioto Valley Agriculture Society. Note race track to the right of picture. Delano Road and Delano Station on the old traction line were named for him.

The Delanos are buried in Forest Cemetery, Circleville, Ohio. They had no children.

This home is now owned by the Misses Bess, Louise and Irma Pyle.

"RICH VALLEY FARM"
Residence of George Haynes

Located approximately four miles north of Chillicothe, off U.S. 23 on the Marietta Road, Springfield Township. The house is vacant and hasn't been occupied for several years. This was the second home George Haynes built for his family, the log barn and the remains of the first set of buildings are further back in the field and are visible from the highway.

George Haynes Sr. came to Ross County from Shepherdstown, Virginia with Thomas Worthington in 1798. He was the first blacksmith in the county and brought with him the iron material for a saw mill and grist mill which was located on Spring Branch near Hopetown. George Haynes was born in York County, Pennsylvania in 1770 and died in 1853. George Haynes and Julia Ann Grove, a native of Maryland, were the parents of twelve children and have many descendants in Ross County. Both are buried in the Hopetown cemetery.

The residence and adjoining farmland is owned by the Frederick Dimity heirs.

"SUGAR GROVE"
Residence of M. L. Dixon

Located southeast of Chillicothe on Route 50, one mile north of Londonderry on Route 327, Liberty Township. This comfortable residence was the home of Mahlon and Rebecca Jones Dixon. As the name "Sugar Grove" implies, the home is surrounded by lovely maple trees. Elma Dixon, the daughter of M. L. and Rebecca Dixon married Jeremiah Ratcliff. George and Jeremiah, brothers, farmed the land for many years.

The farm presently is owned and occupied by Robert Drake.

"JACKSON & WOODSON'S LIVERY, FEED AND BOARD STABLES"

Located on Second Street, between Walnut and Paint Streets in Chillicothe. This building was once used as a Methodist church until the Methodist built on North Walnut Street where the offices of Drs. Artman and Garrett are now located. Following the Methodists, the building was occupied by the St. Mary's Congregation until its South Paint Street church was completed. It is interesting to note this sturdy building still has the original windows and window panes. The exterior has changed very little.

The building is occupied by Howson Tires Company and is owned by the Poland Estate.

RESIDENCE OF PRICE TAYLOR

Located on Route 50 east of Bainbridge, left side, off the highway within viewing distance. The house is white brick and contains fourteen rooms.

Price Taylor was born in 1804. His father, William Taylor came from Kentucky in 1801. Price Taylor was one of two men who laid out the first addition to the original plat of Bainbridge. He was a large landowner and his descendants were long identified with the development of the city. Present owners and occupants are Mr. and Mrs. Willard (Barbara Borst) Wheaten.

RESIDENCE OF AARON FERNEAU

Located in east Bainbridge, on the right side of Main Street. The house was built in 1836 and was the home of Joseph G. White who with Price Taylor laid out the first addition to the original plat of Bainbridge. The house is white brick, contains fourteen rooms and was known as the "White House". The grove was the scene of all political rallies. The Whigs held a pole raising here in 1840. President Wm. H. Harrison stopped here enroute to Washington D. C.

Mr. White built a smaller house next door for his son, known as the "Little White House". This is the home of the Robert Baum family.

Mr. Aaron Ferneau was the second owner of the house. The house was bought in 1912 by the Baum family and Howard Baum has lived there until recently when they sold the house to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Zimmerman, the present occupants.

RESIDENCE OF AUSTIN PEPPLE

Located on State Route 50 West, two miles beyond Bainbridge, second house on the left side of the highway passing Route 41 Junction. The large twelve room brick house stands on a rise. The wood trim in the house is light and dark walnut. The large basement has seven rooms.

The house is presently being extensively renovated and restored for a family home.

Abraham Pepple came from Kentucky in 1808. His son Austin Pepple purchased a tract of land from Colonel Massie in 1850 and built the residence. The Steward Giffin family purchased the home around 1890 and it was recently sold to Mr. Scott Knisley whose ancestors have long been identified with this area.

PAINT CROSSING FARM
Residence of R. R. Seymour

Located a distance less than two miles east of Bainbridge, off State Route 50, left side of the road, near the present double bridge. The house was built in 1805 of native stone. Possibly designed by Latrobe, a famous French architect, who designed Adena. Several panes of glass in the home were imported from England.

Nathan Reeves, the original owner of the house was a Revolutionary soldier and was given the large tract of land in exchange for his military service. Mr. Reeves operated the first tannery and kept a ferry boat at this location.

This site is famous for the last Indian battle fought in Ohio in 1795 between Col. Massie's surveying party and a roving band of Shawnee Indians. A bronze marker formerly marked the site, erected by the Nathaniel Massie Chapter, D.A.R. R. R. Seymour purchased the property in 1832. Mr. Seymour was from Hardy County, Virginia and came to Ross County in 1830. He was a large land owner and stock dealer.

Present owners are the Don Aichholz family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marks are the present occupants.

"FRUIT HILL"
Residence of Hon. Wm. Allen

Located one mile west of Chillicothe on Fruit Hill Drive, Brewer Heights, Scioto Township. This spacious stone house was built about 1805 by General Duncan McArthur and was one of the most historic homes in the Scioto Valley. It was destroyed by fire in 1920 and all that remains is a brick smoke house.

This was the home of two Ohio governors, Duncan McArthur who served from 1830-1832 and his son-in-law William Allen who served from 1874-1876. Duncan McArthur was born in Dutchess County, New York in 1772, died 1860. McArthur and wife Nancy McDonald (1777-1836) are buried on Grandview. Their daughter Effie McArthur Coons was the wife of William Allen (1807-1879), a native of North Carolina. Both are buried on Grandview.

"GRANDVIEW FARM"
Residence of Jos. Mc Connell

Located western section of Chillicothe at Woodbridge and Arch Streets Scioto Township. This is a very old house and was originally two log cabins with a driveway in the middle. Livestock could be driven in as a protection from Indian attacks. Today it is one long drawing room with fireplaces in both ends. The walnut cupboards have the original hardware. One can see the heavy log beams overhead and the log exterior. The window panes are the original.

This was the home of pioneer Joseph McConnell, son of Dennis, who emigrated from Ireland to Virginia to Ross County. Joseph and Rebecca Jane Mace McConnell are buried on Grandview.

The house was remodeled shortly after the Civil War and several times since. It was in the possession of Clark W. Story from 1900-1915 when it became the Chillicothe Country Club (75 acres).

M. E. BAKER &amp; CO'S BENDING ESTABLISHMENT

Located south of Chillicothe on Route 23, Scioto Township in the town of Massieville. These buildings do not exist today. The postoffice address "Waller" was named for Waller Massie and later changed to Massieville. Waller Massie (1822-1856) is buried on Grandview.

"BUENA VISTA"
Residence of Matthew S. Cook

Located one mile south of Chillicothe on Cook's Hill Road (old U.S. 23) Scioto Township. "Buena Vista" which means beautiful view, was built in 1840 by Matthew Scott Cook for his bride, Eleanor Tiffin, daughter of Gov. Edward Tiffin. The spacious home of the Cook family remains unchanged in appearance except for the porch across the front and the dormer windows. The brick was kilned on the site, wood for the woodwork was cut on the farm. Originally there was a fireplace in every room. The circle drive is still evident and some of the original plantings still exist. A summer kitchen was separate from the big house.

It is presently owned by Mrs. Isaac Scott Cook and children.

MOUNTAIN HOUSE
Residence of John Erskine

Located on Carlisle Hill, Chillicothe, Ohio, Scioto Township. The house was built in the early 1850's of brick and stone of Gothic revival style with crenelated towers and contains fifteen rooms. Vineyards were planted on the hillside. The house is said to have been built by Mrs. Janssen and son Oscar, who left Germany before the 1848 revolution. It is also credited to Mr. Heintzinger.

Later owners were Dr. Xavier Faller, Alex E. Wenis, Richard Wissler who planned to make it into a resort place, but the cost of the project loomed too large for an investment and the idea was abandoned. The Erskine family owned the property, then a will contest threw it on the market. Mr. F. M. Nichols purchased the house and his family resided there until his death. Mr. Dard Hunter Sr. bought the house in 1919. Mr. Hunter was one of the world's foremost authorities on papermaking and printing and was a descendant of former owners of the Chillicothe News Advertiser.

Dard Hunter Jr. is the present owner and occupant.

"SPRING DALE FARM"
Residence of James R. Anderson

Located five miles west of Chillicothe, off Route 50 on the Anderson Station Road, Union Township. This is one of the very oldest homes in Ross County. The family has documented proof that the rear of the house was there when the Andersons and Morrises came to Ross County in 1793.

The front of the house was built by Levi Anderson in 1802. The brick was kilned on the farm. It was at this time that the spring was discovered and still flowing strong today; thus the name "Spring Dale Farm". There are eleven rooms and hallways with a cherry spiral, hand carved stairway through three stories to the attic. The house looks the same on the exterior, is situated a nice distance from the highway, surrounded by many maple trees.

The Andersons were farmers, had a leather tannery, made farm implements and shipped cattle with the Renicks. James R. Anderson (1819-1889) and Mary J. Morris Anderson (1825-1896) are buried on Grandview.

"OAKLAND FARM"
Residence of Mr. Wm. Jones

Located fourteen miles southwest of Chillicothe, seven miles northeast of Bainbridge on Route 50, Twin Township. This huge brick home is situated high on a hill facing southeast, overlooking Paint Valley. The house was started by Enos Prather in 1856, but economic factors and the death of his son in the Civil War forced him to sell to William A. Jones. (Son buried by the side of the house). There are eighteen rooms and originally had eighteen fireplaces. The bricks were kilned on the farm. One unique feature of the house is the semi-circular self-supporting stairway. There are two interior stairways, one exterior one to the drovers' room. There is a seven-foot square windowed room on top of the house. The house was finished about 1869. Later the front porch was added and the side porch enclosed.

William A. Jones, farmer, stock dealer, was born in Louisa County, Virginia 1830. He and his wife Jane Storms, daughter of John Storms were the parents of eight children. The Joneses are buried on Grandview.

The farm is now owned and operated by a great grandson Robert Jones. William A. Jones and D. O. Diggs (page 13) were cousins and came to Ross County at the same time.

PLEASANT VIEW FARM
Residence of Alex Shoultz

Located on State Route 50 West, nine miles from Chillicothe, near Mingo Road. The house is on the left side of the highway. It is white frame and built in 1863, with eight rooms. The woodwork is walnut and chestnut. The floors in the upstairs are the original. Outside trim on the eaves is outstanding.

The house was owned by the Alex Shoultz and the Shotts families. W. A. Shoultz was a soldier in the War of 1812. David Shotts came to Twin Township in 1809. Present owners and occupants are the Leroy Shoemakers.

RESIDENCE OF DAVID MOORE

Located seven miles west of Chillicothe on State Route 50, left side of the highway, near the junction of Cattail Road. The house is white frame, contains twelve rooms. Built around 1836, most of the original outbuildings are still intact including the old smokehouse (contains iron hooks for hanging the meat), a carriage house, barns and a spring house. There are fine artesian springs behind the house where drovers would water their livestock on their way to market - two rooms were reserved for drovers. These rooms were opened on the outside only.

George Moore, father of David Moore, came from Pennsylvania in 1813. The old Moore cemetery is near the home. It is said the outlaw McKimmie once stayed at the Moore home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright are the present owners and occupants of the home. Just recently a picture was found by the Wrights that has been identified as the David Moore family.

"FRUIT FARM"
Residence of C. C. Plyley

Located approximately seven miles west of Chillicothe on Route 28 Concord Township. Township lines were changed so that "Fruit Farm" is now in Concord instead of Twin. The log barn remains about the same as in the picture, but the house has been replaced. The Plyleys owned vast acres of land, much of which was in orchards. The area was known as Plyley's Ridge.

Clinton Casper Plyley was the grandson of Casper Plyley, the Revolutionary soldier who came to Ohio from Philadelphia in 1801. C.C. and Charity House Plyley, daughter of John House, are buried at the Concord Presbyterian cemetery.

The property is now owned by William Plyley, a grandson of C.C. Plyley.

"CLINTON FARM"

Located one mile north of the city limits on Route 104, Scioto Township. This historic stone home was built by David Adams, pioneer merchant in Bainbridge and once owner of the Reeves House (P.51). The house grew as the Adams family increased.

David Adams (1789-1862) and wife Eliza (1800-1877) and several children are buried on Grandview. This was also the home of the DeWeese family. Francis M. DeWeese, prominent manufacturer and breeder of fine livestock called his 120 acre estate "Clinton Park". DeWeese, wife, son and daughter Kathryn (Mrs. Peter Blosser) are buried on Grandview.

"Clinton Farm" was the headquarters of Camp Bull in the War of 1812 and of the commanding general of Camp Sherman, World War I. The house was dismantled in 1925 and never rebuilt. This is now U.S. Government property.

RESIDENCE OF S. PURCEL

Located three miles west of Chillicothe, west of Pleasant Valley on old Route 35, Union Township. This was a very old brick house which was dismantled only a few years ago. A two story brick outbuilding is all that remains.

Enos Purcel, the father of Smith Purcel, came to Ross County from Virginia at an early date. (See Historical Sketch, Union Township, Page 7). He was married to Martha Smith. Smith Purcel was born in Union Township in 1804, moved to Chillicothe 1875.

Other owners of the farm were Charles Schriner and Edward Townsend. Miss Mary Townsend willed the property to the Chillicothe Junior Chamber of Commerce, now the J. C. Golf Course.

"CLOVER DALE FARM"
Residence of Isabell P. Plyley

Located west of Chillicothe, off Route 35, off Biers Run Road on Cattail Road one-half mile, Union Township. This large brick house remains about the same on the exterior as pictured except a porch has been added across the front. The initials J.S. and the date 1841 is on one of the chimneys.

Isabell P. Plyley (1815-1875) was the widow of Humphrey Plyley (1811-1860) and both are buried on Grandview. Later the farm was owned by John W. Roweton, who in 1918, willed "Clover Dale Farm" of 240 acres to become an orphan's home for the youth of Ross County.

Today it is known as "The John W. Roweton Boys Ranch, Inc.", owned and operated by the Chillicothe Optimist Club, James Carruth, director

COURTHOUSE

In 1853, the public square complex of buildings were found to be too small for housing Ross County offices. The old buildings were demolished to make way for a new courthouse. The only remainder of the early building is a portion of the iron and stone fence in front of the Ross County jail, Main Street.

Construction of the new courthouse began in 1855 under the supervision of General James Rowe and Josiah McDowell Lines, a county commissioner.

The handsome structure of modified Greek revival architecture was completed in 1858, approximate cost $100,000. Numerous changes have been made since that time. The first jail, a two story brick building was replaced in 1827 with stone structure, then this was replaced with present jail and residence 1877.

The tower containing the clock was originally built as a bell tower. The courthouse was enlarged in 1929, constructed in keeping with the balance of the building - a stone from the earlier one was placed in the wall. There was a major renovation in 1960 when some of the offices were enlarged. A second story was added at the rear of the building. New space was made for the county commissioners and the basement rearranged for the county engineer.

The present reconstruction was completed in late 1972. One of the two stairways leading to the Common Pleas Court was removed, an elevator installed. It also received new heating and cooling systems.

Trees again will flourish along Paint and Main Streets as new plantings have been made.

NOTE: Our thanks to Margaret Mootz and Elizabeth Black of the Ross County Genealogical Society for their efforts in compiling and researching present owners of illustrated homes and views of the 1875 Ross County Atlas.
- March 1975
