INTRODUCTION

This 1870 Atlas Index contains all names on all maps. Business firms are indexed whether or not they contain a surname. Firms with multiple surnames are indexed under all surnames. Land jointly owned is listed under each name. The 1870 Atlas contains a Business Directory for most towns. Names in these sections are also indexed. All cemeteries, churches and schools are listed alphabetically under the letter "C" and/or "S" and are separated by township for easy location. An asterisk (*) after either a town or a section number indicates that this landowner owns more than one parcel of land in that town or section. PLEASE CHECK CAREFULLY FOR SPELLING VARIATIONS OF SURNAMES.

Abbreviations follow. A township abbreviation follows each Town, and page numbers follow a town listed only where a separate map of that town exists apart from the Township map.

ERRATA SHEETS FOR 1870 ATLAS OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY OHIO

Note: Unigraphic is responsible for all errors herein. The back sheet was omitted completely from the printing. It is suggested that the small corrections be made in your book in pen and then discarding that page. The omitted page should be recorded in proper alphabetical order then affixed to the back of the page facing the introduction page of the 1870 Index, using scotch brand tape or staples, so that it is not lost over the years.
