This is a detailed historical plat map of Logan County, West Virginia. The map shows the county's boundaries and is divided into numerous small sections, each labeled with a name and a number. The names of the landowners are written in the sections, and the numbers are likely section numbers. The map also shows major roads and rivers, including the Kanawha River and the Logan River. The map is oriented with North at the top. The names of the landowners are written in a cursive script, and the numbers are written in a plain font. The map is a black and white reproduction of a historical document.
