LAWRENCE

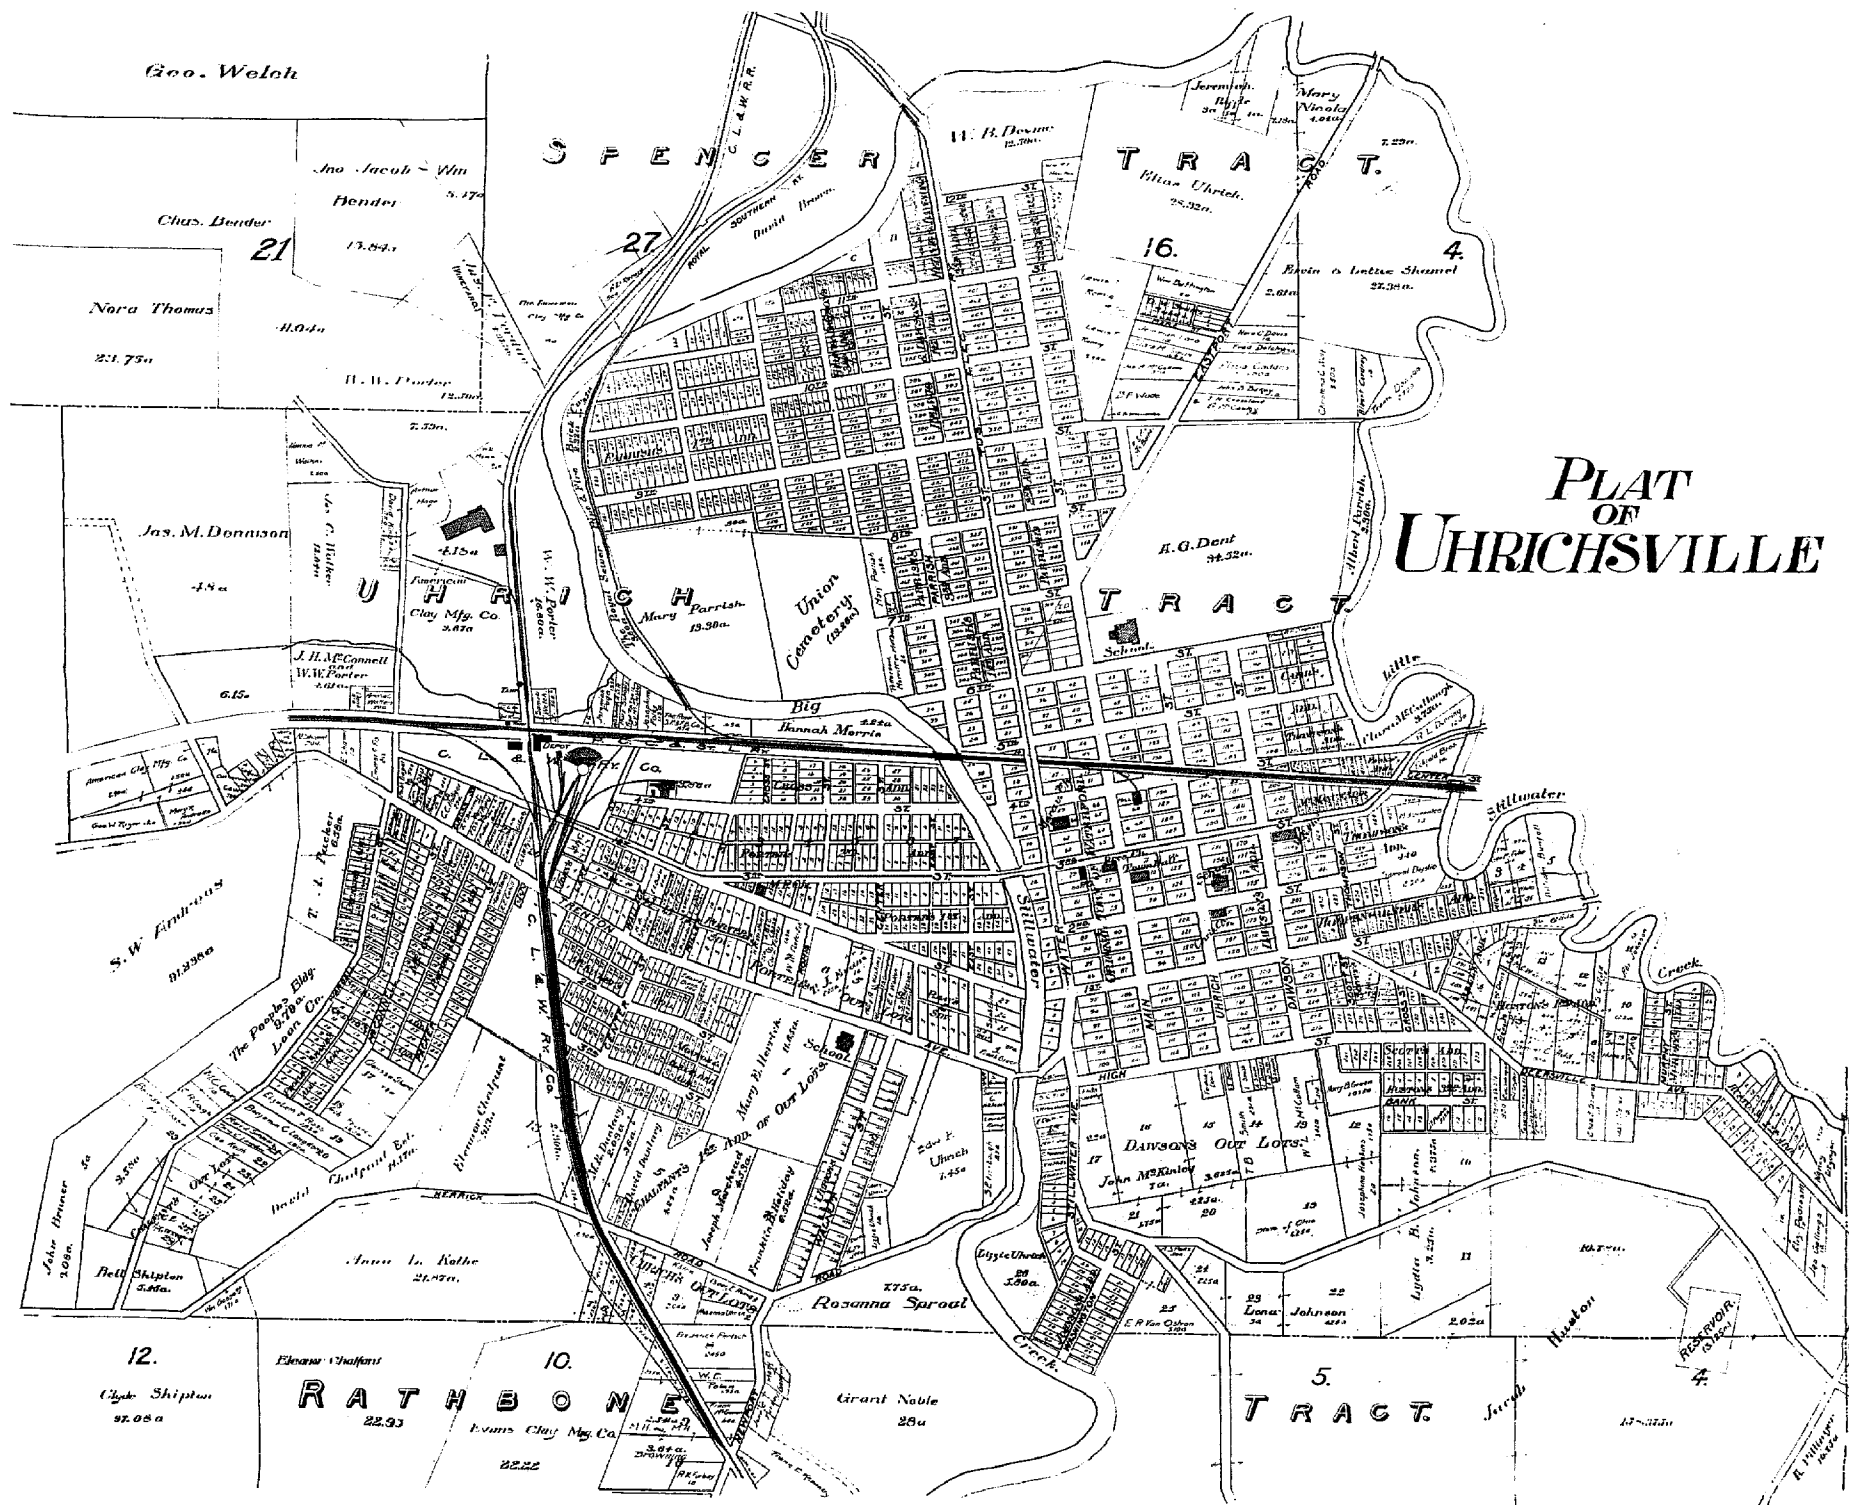

The map is a historical land ownership record for the Greenville area. It features a grid of land parcels, each labeled with the owner's name and a numerical value, likely representing the land's value or acreage. The map is oriented with North at the top. Key geographical features include the Greenville River, which flows from the top left towards the bottom right, and the Greenville River, which flows from the top left towards the bottom right. The map is divided into several townships and ranges, with labels such as 'T-2N10, R-N3' and 'T-N29, R-N23'. The map also includes labels for 'GREENVILLE', 'TREATY', 'LINE', and 'STRASBURG'. The map is densely packed with names and numbers, indicating individual land holdings and their values.

NEWCOMERSTOWN

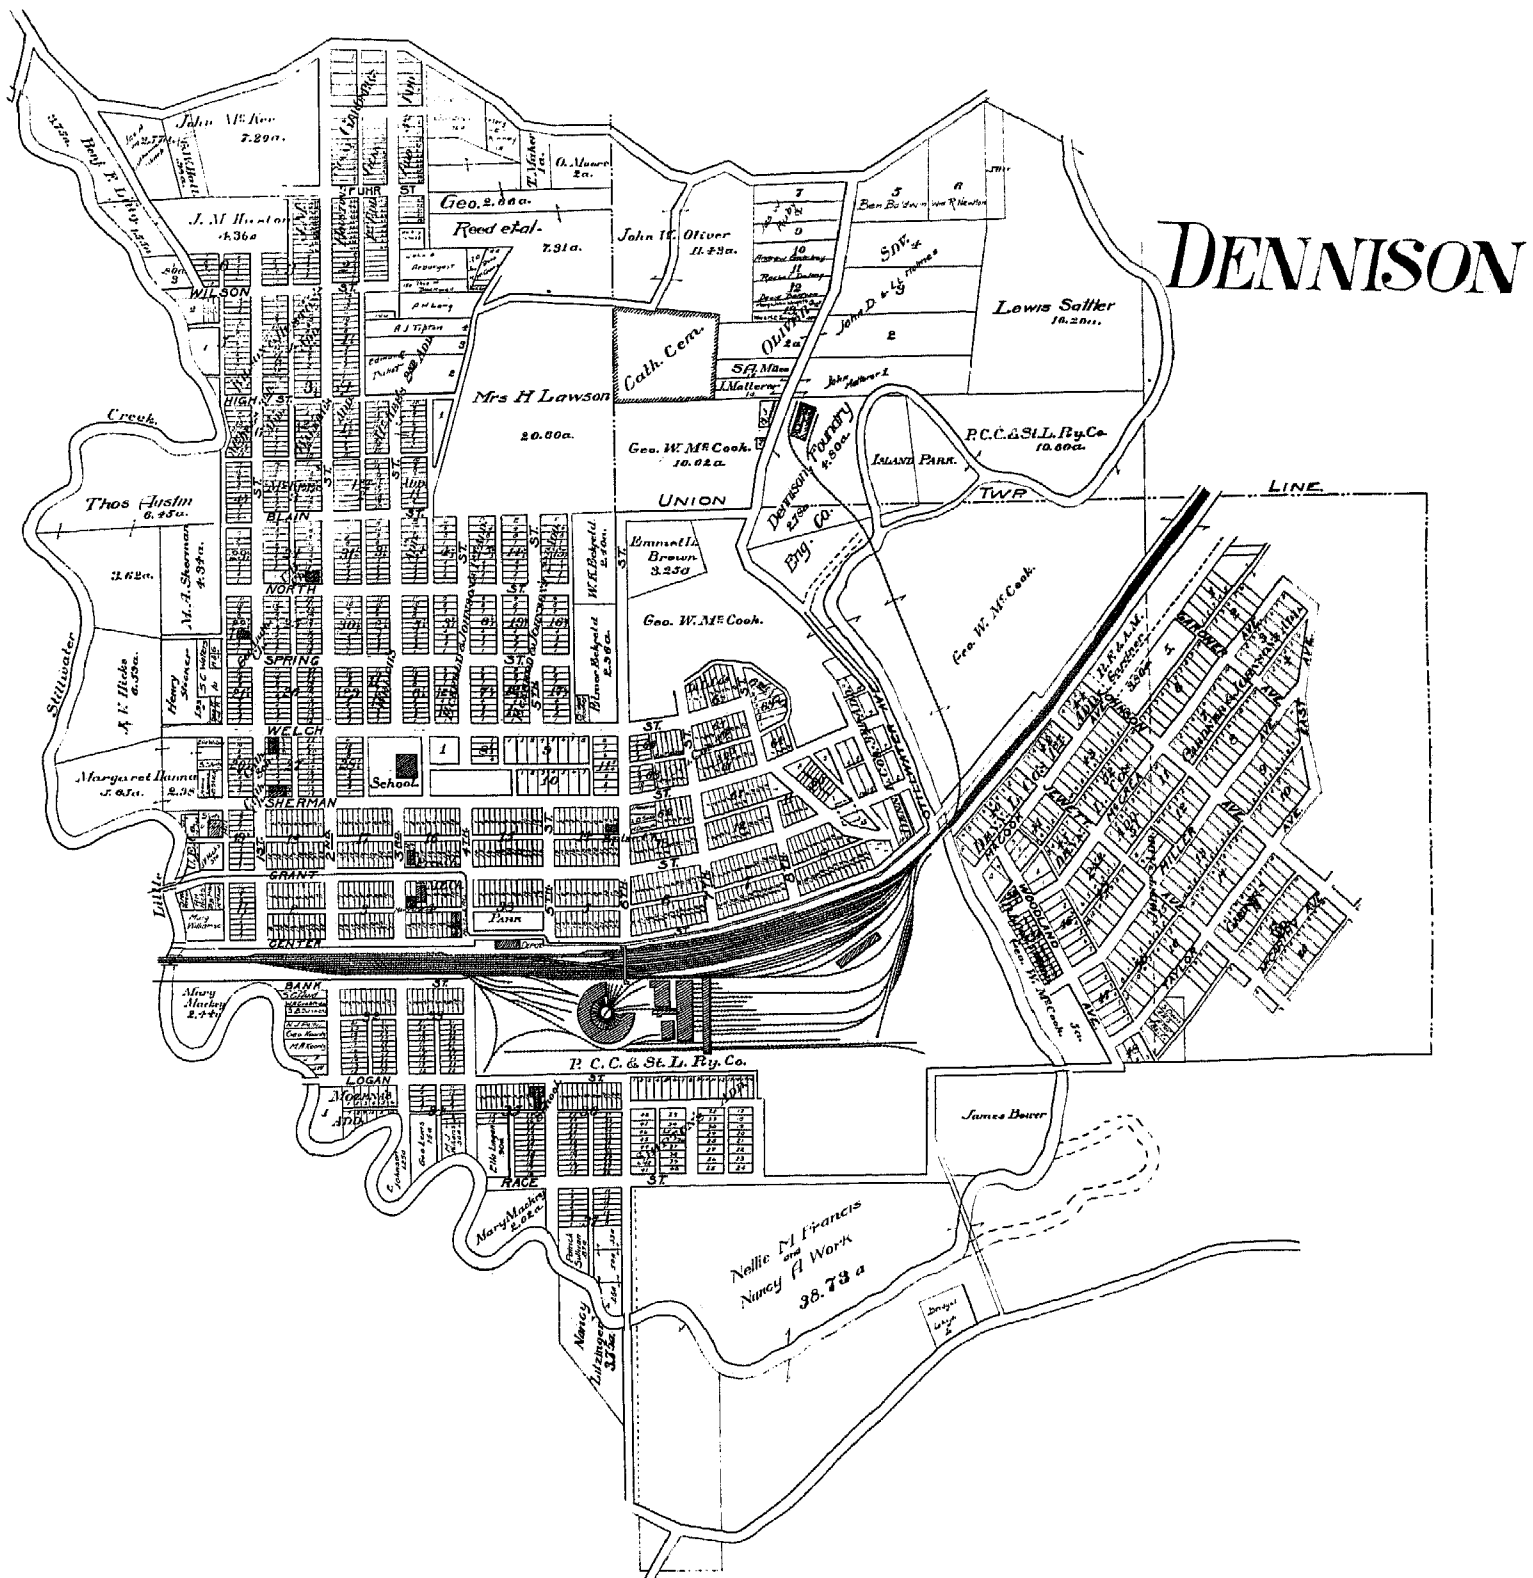

The map shows a grid of property lots, many of which are numbered. Key streets include Main Street, Market Street, and the Pennsylvania Division. The Tuscarawas River is shown at the bottom, and the Newcomerstown Canal is shown running horizontally across the middle. The map is labeled with the names of many property owners, including W. M. Norris, Andrew J. Croker, Henry S. Emerson, Ann & Eliza Croker, John W. Woodhouse, and John W. Chapman. The map also shows the locations of the Newcomerstown School and the Newcomerstown Church.

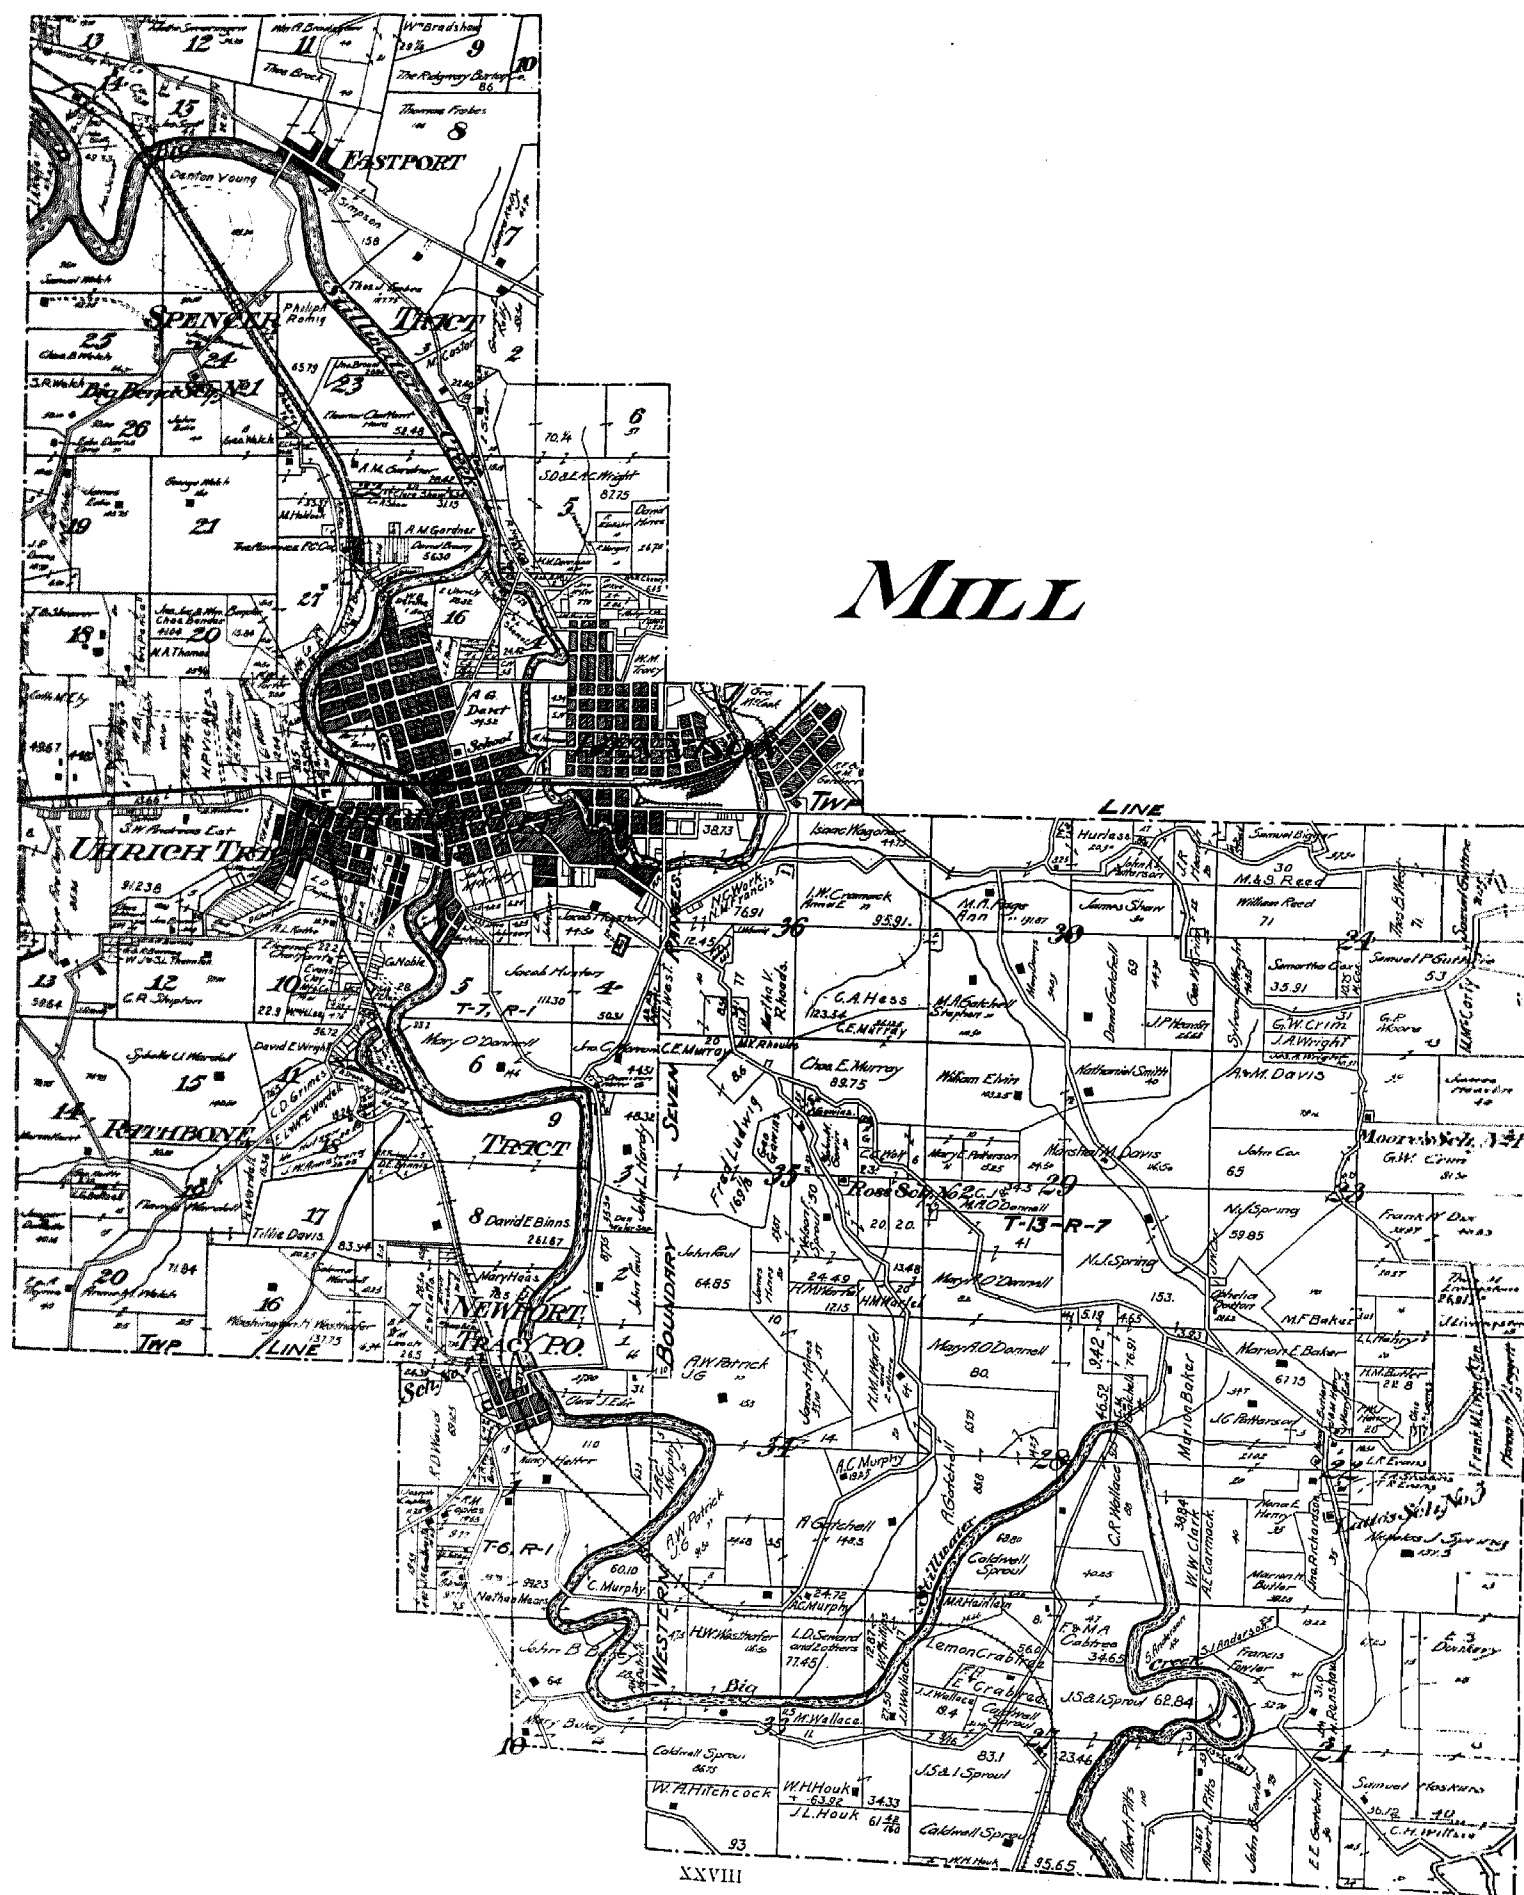

RUSH

The map shows a grid of land sections, each labeled with a name and a number. The sections are arranged in a regular pattern, with some sections containing additional information such as acreage or specific details about the land. The map is titled "RUSH" in large, bold letters at the top right. The map also shows the Rush River and several schools, including "Rush School No. 1" and "Rush School No. 2". The map is a detailed representation of the land ownership and geographical features of Rush, Texas.
