APPORTIONMENT OF THE STATE OF OHIO FOR MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR THE FIFTH DECENNIAL PERIOD.

In conformity with the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, we, James E. Campbell, Governor, Ebenezer W. Poe, Auditor of State, and Daniel J. Ryan, Secretary of State, have ascertained and determined the ratio of representation in the General Assembly according to the decennial census, the number of representatives and senators each county or district shall be entitled to elect, and for what years within the next ensuing ten years, and do declare the same as follows:

The total population of the several counties of the State by the federal census, as ascertained by us, is three million six hundred and seventy-two thousand three hundred and sixteen. The ratio for a representative is thirty-six thousand seven hundred and twenty-four; and for a senator, one hundred and four thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

REPRESENTATIVE.

The apportionment for the House of Representatives during the fifth decennial period, under the constitution, shall be as follows:

The counties of Ashland, Athens, Auglaize, Allen, Ashtabula, Brown, Champaign, Clermont, Clinton, Coshocton, Crawford, Defiance, Delaware, Darke, Erie, Fairfield, Fayette, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Guernsey, Hardin, Henry, Holmes, Highland, Huron, Hancock, Jackson, Jefferson, Knox, Lawrence, Logan, Licking, Lorain, Madison, Medina, Meigs, Mercer, Monroe, Morgan, Miami, Noble, Ottawa, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Portage, Preble, Putnam, Richland, Ross, Sandusky, Scioto, Shelby, Seneca, Trumbull, Union, Van Wert, Washington, Warren, Williams, Wyandot, Wayne, shall severally be entitled to one representative in each session of the decennial period.

The county of Columbiana shall be entitled to one representative in each session and one additional representative in the first, second and third sessions of the decennial period.

The counties of Belmont, Clark, Mahoning and Summit shall severally be entitled to one representative in each session, and one additional representative each in the third and fourth sessions.

The counties of Butler, Muskingum, Tuscarawas and Wood shall severally be entitled to one representative in each session, and one additional representative each in the fifth session.

The county of Stark shall be entitled to two representatives in each session, and one additional representative in the fifth session of the decennial period.

The counties of Lucas and Montgomery shall severally be entitled to two representatives in each session, and one additional representative each in the first, second and third sessions.

The county of Franklin shall be entitled to three representatives in each session, and one additional representative in the fifth session of the decennial period.

The county of Cuyahoga shall be entitled to eight representatives in each session, and one additional representative in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The county of Hamilton shall be entitled to ten representatives in each session.

The counties of Carroll, Morrow, Geauga, Lake, Vinton and Pike, having less than one-half of a representative ratio of population, have respectively and severally been attached to the adjoining county having the least number of inhabitants, and until they acquire a sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall form representative districts during the decennial period in the manner following, to wit: The counties of Carroll and Harrison, one district; the counties of Morrow and Marion, one district; the counties of Geauga and Lake, one district; the counties of Vinton and Hocking, one district; the counties of Pike and Adams, one district. Each of said districts so formed shall be entitled to one representative in each session of the decennial period.

SENATORIAL.

By the constitution the State is divided into thirty-three senatorial districts, as follows:

The county of Hamilton constitutes the first senatorial district; the counties of Butler and Warren, the second; the counties of Montgomery and Preble, the third; Clermont and Brown the fourth; Greene, Clinton and Fayette, the fifth; Ross and Highland, the sixth; Adams, Pike, Scioto and Jackson, the seventh; Lawrence, Gallia, Meigs and Vinton the eighth; Athens, Hocking and Fairfield, the ninth; Franklin and Pickaway, the tenth; Clark, Champaign and Madison, the eleventh; Miami, Darke and Shelby, the twelfth; Logan, Union, Marion and Hardin, the thirteenth; Washington and Morgan, the fourteenth; Muskingum and Perry, the fifteenth; Delaware and Licking, the sixteenth; Knox and Morrow, the seventeenth; Coshocton and Tuscarawas, the eighteenth; Guernsey and Monroe, the nineteenth; Belmont and Harrison, the twentieth; Carroll and Stark, the twenty-first; Jefferson and Columbiana, the twenty-second; Trumbull and Mahoning, the twenty-third; Ashtabula, Lake and Geauga, the twenty-fourth; Cuyahoga, the twenty-fifth; Portage and Summit, the twenty-sixth; Medina and Lorain, the twenty-seventh; Wayne and Holmes, the twenty-eighth; Ashland and Richland, the twenty-ninth. Huron, Erie, Sandusky and Ottawa, the thirtieth; Seneca, Crawford and Wyandot, the thirty-first; Mercer, Auglaize, Allen, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance, and Williams, the thirty-second, and Hancock, Wood, Lucas, Fulton, Henry and Putnam, the thirty-third.

The following senatorial districts, to-wit: The third, the seventh, the eighth, the eleventh, the twelfth, the thirteenth, the twenty-first, the twenty-third, the thirtieth and the thirty-first, shall be entitled to one senator in each session of the decennial period.

The thirty-second district shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the first, second, third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The tenth district shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The thirty-third district shall be entitled to two senators in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The twenty-fifth district shall be entitled to two senators in each session and one additional senator in the first, second, third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The first district shall be entitled to three senators in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The following districts, until they acquire a sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall form districts in the following manner, to-wit: The second and fourth senatorial districts shall form one district, and the district so constituted shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the fifth session of the decennial period.

The fifth and sixth senatorial districts shall form one district, and the district so constituted shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the fifth session.

The ninth and fourteenth senatorial districts, composed of the counties of Athens, Hocking, Fairfield, Washington, Morgan, and part of the counties of Noble and Monroe, shall form one district, and the district so constituted shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The fifteenth district, composed of the counties of Muskingum and Perry, and the sixteenth district, composed of the counties of Delaware and Licking, having been annexed at the last preceding apportionment, and not having acquired sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The seventh district, composed of the counties of Knox and Morrow, and the twenty-eighth district, composed of the counties of Wayne and Holmes, having in like manner been annexed at a preceding apportionment, and not having acquired sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall be entitled to one senator in each session of the decennial period.

The eighteenth district, composed of the counties of Tuscarawas and Coshocton, and the nineteenth district, composed of the county of Guernsey and part of the counties of Monroe and Noble, having been annexed at the last preceding apportionment, and not having acquired sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the fifth session of the decennial period.

The twentieth and twenty-second senatorial districts shall form one district, and the district so constituted shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the first, second and third sessions of the decennial period.

The twenty-fourth district, composed of the counties of Ashtabula, Lake and Geauga, and the twenty-sixth district, composed of the counties of Portage and Summit, having been annexed at the last preceding apportionment, and not having acquired sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall be entitled to one senator in each session and one additional senator in the third and fourth sessions of the decennial period.

The twenty-seventh district, composed of the counties of Lorain and Medina, and the twenty-ninth district, composed of the counties of Ashland and Richland, having in like manner been annexed at a preceding apportionment, and not having acquired sufficient population to entitle them to elect separately, shall be entitled to one senator in each session of the decennial period.

Survey of Trumbull County.

The public lands consist of those vast tracts of territory that belonged to the U. S. after the Revolution, together with all that was afterward ceded by individual states soon after the formation of the Constitution, with the additions that have since been made by treaty with Indians or by conquest. In 1802, Col. Mansfield, then surveyor of the Northwestern territory, inaugurated a plan for surveying and recording such portions as were offered for sale; which plan, with slight alteration, has continued in use to the present time.

The general features of the plan then adopted, and still in use, are as follows: The entire public domain is first divided into parts called land districts, each of which is put in charge of an officer called a surveyor general, who controls all the surveys in his particular district. In each district a meridian line is run, extending through the entire district, and from some point of this meridian an East and West line is run, which also extends through the district.

These lines are determined astronomically, and, when located, serve as axes to which the subdivisions of the district are referred.

Parallel to the axes, and on each side of them, other lines are run six miles apart, dividing the whole territory into squares, each containing 36 square miles. These squares are called townships.

To take into account the obliquity of the meridians, suitable offsets are made in accordance with an established system.

The townships lying between two consecutive meridians six miles apart constitute a range, and the ranges are numbered from the principal meridians, both East and West. In each range the townships are numbered both North and South from the principal East and West line.

Thus, if a township lies 12 miles East of the principal meridian and 18 miles north of the principal East and West line, it is called township 3 North, range 2 East. Each township is divided by meridians and East and West lines into squares having a mile on each side.

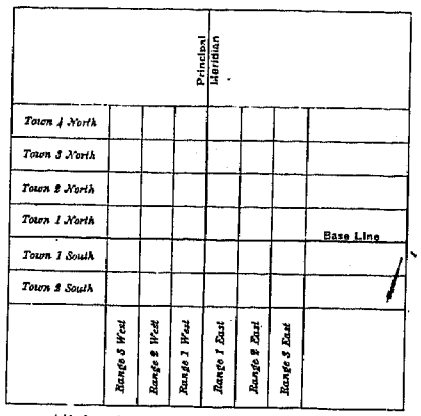

These are called sections, and each contains 640 acres, more or less.

The sections of a township are numbered from the N. E. corner, running along the northern tier of sections to No. 6, thence backward to section No. 12, which lies exactly south of No. 1, and so on alternately, running from right to left and from left to right, to the south-easterly corner, which is No. 36. The four middle sections are numbered respectively 15, 16, 21, 22. In some of the Western States section No. 16 is set apart for school purposes, and is therefore called the school section.

If the land is very valuable, the sections are divided into half sections by meridians, and sometimes into quarter sections by lines running East and West, and then again are divided into eighths by meridians.

To designate one of the subdivisions, we say, for example, that it is the West half of the S. W. quarter of section No. 16, township No. 7 North, range 3 West; and, if necessary, we add the designation of the land district.

The following diagram illustrates the location of townships by number and range:

All fractional parts of sections occur on the North and West sides of townships and on these sides no quarter posts are set.

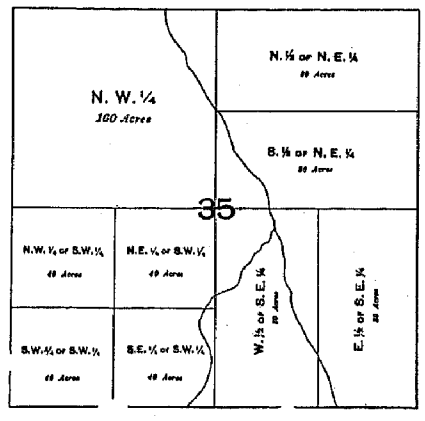

It is the duty of the surveyor to find all lakes and rivers and "meander" them. By "meandering" is meant a correct survey of a lake or river, courses and distances run, and notes taken of the same.

Here is where the descriptions called "lots" come in, the remainder of the section being divided into lots generally not less than twenty or more than sixty-eight acres. Lakes in the interior of sections are sometimes missed, and so are held and sold by the government as land, there being no record otherwise.

In the subdivisions of a section lines are run East and West and North and South from the quarter post. The section is thus divided into quarters, and these quarters are subdivided as above.

Often the "forties" are not of the same size owing to the inaccuracies, and here the words "more or less" become useful in the descriptions in deeds. All the North tiers of North half of sections are divided by East and West lines, and all the West tiers of West half of sections are divided by North and South lines. The excess or deficiency in the original survey is thrown upon these sections, hence they are called "fractional."

The following diagram shows the subdivisions of a section as used in the description of land.

Survey of Public Lands.

The Western Reserve of Connecticut lies between the parallels of 41 degrees and 42 degrees 2 minutes of north latitude, commencing with the western boundary line of Pa., and extending thence one hundred and twenty miles westward.

The entire tract embraces an area of seven thousand four hundred and forty square miles, nearly one-third of which is water.

If the whole were land there would be four million seven hundred sixty-one thousand six hundred acres. It is composed of the counties of Ashtabula, Trumbull, Portage, Geauga, Lake, Cuyahoga, Medina, Lorain, Huron, Erie, Summit (except the townships of Franklin and Green), the two northern tiers of townships in Mahoning, the townships of Sullivan, Troy and Ruggles, in Ashland, and seeyral islands lying north of Sandusky, including Kelley's and Put-in-Bay. This is the land portion of the Reserve. The portion consisting of water lies between the southern shores of Lake Erie and the forty-second degree of north latitude, and is bounded on the east and west by the same parallels of longtitude that form the east and west boundaries of the land portion.

On the tenth of February, 1788, certain lands lying within the limits of the Reserve were sold to General Samuel H. Parsons, then of Middletown, Conn. This was afterward known as the Salt Spring tract.

No survey had been made, but in the description of the land conveyed the numbers of the townships and ranges were designated as if actually defined. General Parsons had explored the country, and had found the location of a salt spring near the Mahoning.

He elected his tract so as it should include this spring, from which he expected to manufacture salt and to make his fortune.

The entire number of acres thus sold and conveyed to Mr. Parsons, as afterwards determined by the survey made by the Connecticut Land Co., was twenty-five thousand four hundred and fifty. The description in the deed is as follows:

"Beginning at the north-east corner of the first township, in the third range of townships; thence running northwardly on the west line of the second range of said lands to forty-one degrees and twelve minutes of north latitude; thence west three miles; thence southwardly parallel to the west line of Penna., two miles and one-half; thence west to the west line of said third range; thence southwardly parallel to the west line of Penna. to the north line of the first township in the third range; thence, east to the first bound."

In 1795 Connecticut sold all the Reserve, except the "Sufferers' Land" and the Salt Spring tract, to a number of men who came to be known as the Connecticut Land Company.

The "Sufferers' Lands" comprise a tract of five hundred thousand acres, taken from the western end of the Reserve, and set apart by the legislature of the State on the 10th of May, 1792, and donated to the suffering inhabitants of the towns of Greenwich, Norwalk, Fairfield, Danbury, New and East Haven, New London, Richfield and Groton, who had sustained severe losses during the Revolution. Upwards of two thousand persons were rendered homeless from the incursions of the British, aided by Benedict Arnold, and their villages pillaged and burned. To compensate them for this great calamity this donation was made to them.

The counties of Huron and Erie and the township of Ruggles in Ashland, comprise these lands. An account of each sufferer's loss was taken in pounds, shillings and pence, and a price placed upon the lands, and each sufferer received lands proportioned to the amount of his loss.

These lands finally took the name of "Fire Lands," from the fact that the greater part of the losses resulted from fire.

The title having been perfected, the company made preparations to survey the portion of the Reserve lying east of the Cuyahoga.

In the early part of May, 1796, the company fitted out an expedition for the purpose, of which Moses Cleaveland was the leader of the company—all told of about forty men—five of them surveyors, one a physician, and the rest chainmen and axemen.

By previous arrangement they met at Schenectady, New York, at which point they commenced their journey, ascended the Mohawk in four flat-bottomed boats, proceeding by the way of Oswego, Niagara and Queenstown to Buffalo, reaching the soil of the Reserve on the 4th of July.

The surveyors proceeded to the south line of the Reserve, and ascertained the point where the forty-first degree of north latitude intersects the western line of Pennsylvania, and from this line of latitude as a base, meridian lines five miles apart were run north to the lake. Lines of latitude were then run five miles apart, thus dividing the Reserve into townships supposed to be five miles square.

As the lands lying west of the Cuyahoga belonged to the Indians until the treaty of Fort Industry, in 1805, the Reserve was not surveyed at this time farther west than to the Cuyahoga and the portage between it and the Tuscarawas, a distance west from the western line of Pennsylvania of fifty-six miles. The remainder of the Reserve was surveyed in 1806.

The Land Company made a contract with Abraham Tappan and Anson Sessions, in 1805, for the survey of the lands of the Reserve between the Sufferers' lands and the Cuyahoga. The limited width of range nineteen, embracing in Lorain county the townships of Brownhelm, Henrietta, Camden, Brighton, Rochester and Troy of Ashland county, is proof of the fact that the Reserve is less than one hundred and twenty miles in length.

In 1806 Amos Spafford, of Cleveland, and Almon Ruggles, of Huron, were agreed upon by the two companies to ascertain and locate the line between the Fire Lands and the lands of the Connecticut Company.

They first surveyed off the "half-million acres" belonging to the Sufferers, and, not agreeing with Seth Pease, who had run out the base and west line, a dispute arose between the two companies, which was finally adjusted before the draft by establishing the eastern line of the Fire Lands where it now is.

The inferior townships having been equalized by the addition of other tracts or parts of tracts, the drawing began in which the members of the company each received his individual share of the land owned by the company. In the first draft of shares made by the company in 1798, the lands of the company lying east of the Cuyahoga thus passed into the hands of individual owners, who then sold to the early settlers in such quantities and shape as could be agreed upon. Thus the surveys following those of the company were private surveys made to suit the owners of the land; hence the great irregularity in the subdivision of townships into tracts, lots and farms.

The whole Western Reserve was organized as Trumbull county, with Warren as the county seat in 1800, and soon after divided for political purposes into eight townships. As the population increased new counties were formed, until the present boundaries became established. Trumbull county now consists of twenty-five townships, each of which is supposed to be five miles square, in which case it would contain just 16,000 acres. No township contains the required number of acres. Lordstown is the smallest and Hartford is the largest.

Bazetta contains 17,247, and was divided into 100 lots, varying considerably in size.

Bloomfield contains 16,039, and is divided into 170 lots, most of which are equal.

Braceville contains 15,004 acres and 25 lots, the south tier being smaller than the others.

Bristol contains 16,331 acres of land and 48 lots, the first twelve of which are subdivided into smaller lots.

Brookfield contains 15,305 acres, with 90 lots, varying considerably in size.

Champion contains 16,319 acres and 111 lots, varying greatly in size and shape, and a large tract in the south central part.

Farmington contains 17,157 acres and is divided into 100 lots, not all of which are equal.

Fowler contains 16,551 acres and 60 lots of nearly equal size and shape.

Greene contains 16,581 acres, and is divided into 50 lots of similar shape.

Gustavus contains 15,646 acres and its 100 lots are of similar shape.

Hartford contains 17,317 acres and has 44 lots of different sizes symetrically arranged.

Howland contains 15,558 acres with 47 lots, all of which are of medium size except lot 31, which is the largest in the county.

Hubbard contains 15,274 acres and 80 lots, the south tier of which are about half the size of the others.

Johnston contains 15,914 acres. This township originally contained three divisions, but later a fourth division was made in the southeast corner of the township. The lots are very irregular in size and shape.

Kinsman contains 16,664 acres and 25 lots, each about one mile square.

Liberty contains 14,858 acres and 25 lots of about equal size.

Lordstown contains 14,492 acres and 78 lots, besides four lots of tract 15 and part of tract 16 of the Great Salt Spring tract.

Mesopotamia contains 16,883 acres and 63 lots of similar size and shape.

Mecca contains 16,873 acres and is divided into four tracts, viz.: Ely, Kingsbury, Cowles and Kirtland, each of which is divided into lots.

Newton contains 14,946 acres and contains 25 lots, the south tier of which are smaller.

Southington contains 16,662 acres and 50 lots of about equal size and shape.

Vernon contains 16,539 acres and is divided into four tracts, viz.: Granger, Wilcox, East Shepard and West Shepard. These tracts are divided into lots of unequal size and shape.

Vienna contains 14,715 acres, and its 44 lots vary greatly in size and shape, but are symetrically arranged.

Warren contains by original survey 14,606 acres and 42 lots.

Weathersfield contains 15,788 acres. A part of this is a narrow gore on the west side, the 4,000-acre tract and part of tract 16 of the Great Salt Spring tract, the two latter being divided into lots, and 10 lots on the east and north make up the township.

PUBLIC LANDS OF OHIO.

LAND GRANTS.

The following are the names by which the different bodies of these lands are designated, on account of these different forms of transfers, to-wit:

1. Congress Lands.
2. United States Military.
3. Western Reserve.
4. Fire Lands.
5. Ohio Company's purchase.
6. Donation Tract.
7. Symmes' Purchase.
8. Refugee Tract.
9. French Grant.
10. Dohrman's Grant.
11. Zane's Grant.
12. Canal Lands.
13. Turnpike Lands.
14. Maumee Road Lands.
15. School Lands.
16. College Lands.
17. Ministerial Lands.
18. Moravian Lands.
19. Salt Sections.
20. Virginia Military Land.

CONGRESS LANDS.

Congress Lands are so called because they were sold to purchasers by the immediate agents of the government, conformably to laws enacted by Congress. They are all regularly surveyed into townships of six miles square each, under the authority and at the expense of the national government. In the eastern half of the State, that is, east of the Scioto river, and on a meridian line drawn three miles within the eastern limits of Marion and Crawford counties, the ranges are counted from east to west, and the numbers of the townships from south to north, beginning on the Ohio as a base. But, in the west half of the State, the ranges begin on the State line of Indiana, and are counted eastwardly, until they reach the other ranges, which are numbered westwardly, as above mentioned, excepting between the two Miami rivers, where the ranges run from south to north, and the numbers of the townships from west to east, that is, from the Great Miami as a base. In the purchase made in 1818, north of the Greenville treaty line, however, a "base line" is made in about the middle of the tract, on the parallel of the 41st degree north latitude, from which the townships are numbered both north and south.

UNITED STATES MILITARY LANDS.

These lands are so called from the circumstance of their having been appropriated by an Act of Congress, of the 1st of June, 1796, to satisfy certain claims of the officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary War. The tract of country embracing these lands is bounded as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of the original seven ranges, thence south fifty miles, thence west to the Scioto river, thence up said river to the Greenville treaty line, thence northeasterly with said line, to old Fort Lawrence on the Tuscarawas river, thence due east to the place of beginning, including a tract of about 4,000 square miles, or 2,560,000 acres of land. It is, of course, bounded north by the Greenville treaty line, east by the seven ranges of townships, south by the Congress and Refugee lands, and west by the Scioto river.

These lands are surveyed into townships five miles square. The townships were then again originally surveyed into quarter townships, of two and a half miles square, containing 4,000 acres each. Subsequently, some of these quarter townships were subdivided into forty lots of 100 acres each, for the accommodation of those soldiers who held warrants for 100 acres only. And, again, after the time originally assigned for the location of these warrants had expired, certain quarter townships, which had not been located, were divided into sections of one mile square each, and sold by the general government like the main body of Congress lands.

WESTERN RESERVE.

This land, as before stated, was originally granted to Connecticut, by Charles II, in 1662. This territory is situated in the northeast portion of the State, between Lake Erie on the north, Pennsylvania on the east, the parallel of the 41st degree of latitude on the south, and Sandusky and Seneca counties on the west. It extends 120 miles from east to west, and will average about fifty miles north and south, though upon the Pennsylvania line it is sixty-eight miles from north to south. The area is about 3,800,000 acres. It is surveyed into townships of five miles square.

After the United States became a nation, the interfering claims of the different States in regard to the original grants made by the Kings of England, as before stated, were likely to become a source of trouble that might terminate in disastrous results. When Congress undertook to obtain the title from the States of their rights to these territories, it was with difficulty that the consent of Connecticut to the cession of her rights could be obtained. A compromise was finally affected, by which Connecticut retained her right to the soil of these 3,800,000 acres, while Congress obtained the right to the jurisdiction over it.

FIRE LANDS.

This is a tract of 781 square miles, or 500,000 acres, in the western part of the Reserve. The name originated from the circumstances of the State of Connecticut having granted these lands, in 1792, as a donation to certain sufferers by fire, occasioned by the burning of the property of her citizens by the English during the Revolutionary War, particularly at New London, Fairfield and Norwalk. These lands include the five westernmost ranges of the Western Reserve townships. Lake Erie and Sandusky Bay project so far south as to leave but the space of six tiers and some fractions of townships between them and the 41st parallel, or a tract of about thirty by twenty-seven miles in extent.

OHIO COMPANY'S LAND.

This is a body of land containing about 1,500,000 acres, including, however, the donation tract, school lands, etc., lying along the Ohio river, and including Meigs, nearly all of Athens and a considerable part of Washington and Gallia counties. This tract was purchased by the government, Oct. 27, 1787, by Manasseh Cutler and Winthrop Sergeant, from the neighborhood of Salem, Massachusetts, as agents for the "Ohio Company," so called, which had been formed in Massachusetts for the purpose of a settlement in the Ohio country. Only 964,285 acres were ultimately paid for, and, of course, patented. This body of land was then apportioned out into 817 shares of 1,173 acres each, and a town lot of one-third of an acre to each share. These shares were made up to each proprietor, in tracts, one of 640 acres, one of 262, one of 160, one of 100, one of eight, one of three acres, besides the before-mentioned town lot.

THE DONATION TRACT

Is a body of 100,000 acres set off in the northern limits of the Ohio Company's tract, and granted by them to Congress, provided they should obtain one actual settler upon each 100 acres thereof, within five years from the date of the grant, and that so much of the 100,000 acres aforesaid, as should not be taken up, shall revert to the general government.

This tract may, in some respects, be considered a part of the Ohio Company's purchase. It is situated in the northern limits of Washington county.

SYMMES' PURCHASE.

This was a tract of 311,682 acres of land in the southwestern quarter of the State, between the Great and Little Miami rivers. It borders on the Ohio river a distance of twenty-seven miles, and extends so far back from the latter, between the two Miamis, as to include the quantity of land just mentioned. It was patented to John Cleves Symmes, in 1794, for sixty-seven cents per acre. Every section 16, or mile square, in each township, was reserved by Congress for the use of schools; and section 29 for the support of religious institutions, besides fifteen acres around Fort Washington, in Cincinnati. This tract of country is now one of the most valuable in the State.

REFUGEE TRACT.

This is a body of 100,000 acres of land, granted by Congress, February 18, 1801, to certain individuals who left the British provinces during the Revolutionary War and espoused the cause of freedom. It is a narrow strip of country, four and a half miles broad from north to south, and extending eastward from the Scioto river forty-eight miles, at Columbus, into Muskingum county. It includes portions of the counties of Franklin, Fairfield, Perry, Licking and Muskingum.

FRENCH GRANT.

This is a tract of 24,000 acres of land bordering on the Ohio river, in the southeastern portion of Scioto county. It was granted by Congress, in March, 1795, to a number of French families, who lost their lands at Gallipolis by invalid titles. It extends from a point on the Ohio river, one and one-half miles above, but opposite the mouth of Little Sandy Creek, in Kentucky, and extending eight miles in a direct line down the river, and from the two extremities of that line, extending back at right angles, sufficiently far to include the quantity of land required, which exceeded four and a half miles back.

Twelve hundred acres additional were afterwards granted, adjoining the above-mentioned tract, at its lower end, toward the mouth of Little Scioto river.

DOHRMAN'S GRANT.

This is a six-mile square township of land, containing 23,040 acres, situated in the southeast portion of Tuscarawas county. It was given to Arnold Henry Dohrman, a Portuguese merchant of Lisbon, by Act of Congress of February 27, 1801, "In consideration of his having, during the Revolutionary War, given shelter and aid to the American cruisers and vessels of war."

MORAVIAN LANDS.

These are three several tracts of 4,000 acres each, originally granted by the old Continental Congress in July, 1787, and confirmed by the Act of Congress of June 1, 1796, to the Moravian brethren, at Bethlehem, in Pennsylvania, in trust and for the use of the Christianized Indians living thereon.

ZANE'S TRACTS.

These are three several tracts of one mile square each—one on the Muskingum river, which includes the city of Zanesville—one at the crossing of the Hocking river, on which the town of Lancaster is laid out—and the third on the left bank of the Scioto river, opposite Chillicothe. They were granted by Congress, in May, 1796, to Ebenezer Zane, on condition that he should open a road through them from Wheeling, Virginia, to Maysville, Kentucky.

There were also three other tracts, one mile square each, granted to Isaac Zane, in 1802, in consequence of his having been taken prisoner by the Indians when a boy during the Revolutionary War, and living with them most of his life and having, during that time, performed many acts of kindness and beneficence towards the American people. These tracts are situated in Champaign county, on King's Creek, from three to five miles northwest of Urbana.

THE MAUMEE ROAD LANDS.

These are a body of lands, averaging two miles wide, lying along one mile on each side of the road from the Maumee river, at Perrysburg, to the western limits of the Western Reserve, a distance of about forty-six miles, and comprising nearly 60,000 acres. They were originally granted by the Indian owners, at the treaty of Brownsville, in 1808, to enable the United States to make a road on the line just mentioned.

TURNPIKE LANDS.

These are forty-nine sections, amounting to 31,360 acres, situated along the western side of the Columbus and Sandusky Turnpike, in the eastern part of Seneca, Crawford and Marion counties. They were originally granted by an Act of Congress, on the 3d of March, 1827, and more especially by a supplementary Act the next year. The considerations for which these lands were granted were that the mail stages and all troops and property of the United States, which should ever be moved and transferred along this road, should pass free of toll.

OHIO CANAL LANDS.

Congress, by an Act passed on the 24th of May, 1828, granted to the State of Ohio 500,000 acres of land to aid the State in completing her canals, and also a quantity "equal to one-half of five sections in width on each side of said canal" (the Miami canal), so far as it passes through the public lands, north of the old Greenville treaty line, and this is estimated at 106 miles, thereby making the quantity of land thus granted 340,000 acres—or 840,000 acres in all—provided that all troops and property of the United States transported thereon shall pass free of toll.

SCHOOL LANDS.

By compact between the United States and the State of Ohio, when the latter was admitted, it was stipulated, for and in consideration that the State should never tax the Congress Lands until after they had been sold five years, and in consideration that the public lands would thereby more readily sell, that the one thirty-sixth part of all the territory included within the limits of the State should be set apart for the support of common schools therein. And, for the purpose of getting at lands which should, in point of quality of soil, be on an average with the whole of the land in the country, they decreed that it should be selected by lot, in small tracts; that, to effect this fairly, it should consist of section number 16, let that section be good or bad, in every township of Congress Land, and also in the Ohio Company's land, and in Symmes' purchases, all of which townships are composed of thirty-six sections each; and, for the United States Military Lands and Western Reserve, a number of quarter townships, two and a half miles square, each (being the smallest survey then made), should be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury, in different places throughout the United States Military Tract, equivalent in quality to the one thirty-sixth part of those two tracts, respectively. And for the Virginia Militiary Tract, Congress enacted that a quantity of land equal to the one thirty-sixth part of the estimated quantity of land contained therein should be selected by lot, in what is called the "New Purchase," now comprising Wayne, Richland and part of Holmes and Marion counties, in quarter township tracts of three miles square each.

COLLEGE TOWNSHIPS.

These lands are embraced in three townships, six miles square each, granted by Congress—two of them to the Ohio Company, for the use of a college to be established within their purchase, and one for the use of the inhabitants of Symmes' purchase.

The two in the Ohio Company's purchase are situated near the center of Athens county, and constitute a considerable part of the permanent funds of the Ohio University at Athens. That one belonging to Symmes' purchase composes the northwestern township in Butler county. Its income is appropriated to the Miami University, which is erected thereon.

MINISTERIAL LANDS.

In both the Ohio Company's and Symmes' purchase every section, 29—equal to one thirty-sixth part of every township—was reserved as a permanent fund for the support of a settled minister.

SALT SECTIONS.

Near the center of Jackson county Congress originally reserved from sale thirty-six sections or one six-mile square township around and including what was called the Scioto Salt Licks, also one-quarter of a five-mile square township in what is now Delaware county, in all forty-two and a quarter sections, or 27,040 acres.

VIRGINIA MILITARY LANDS.

This is one of the largest and most important reservations of lands made by the States which ceded territory to the general government.

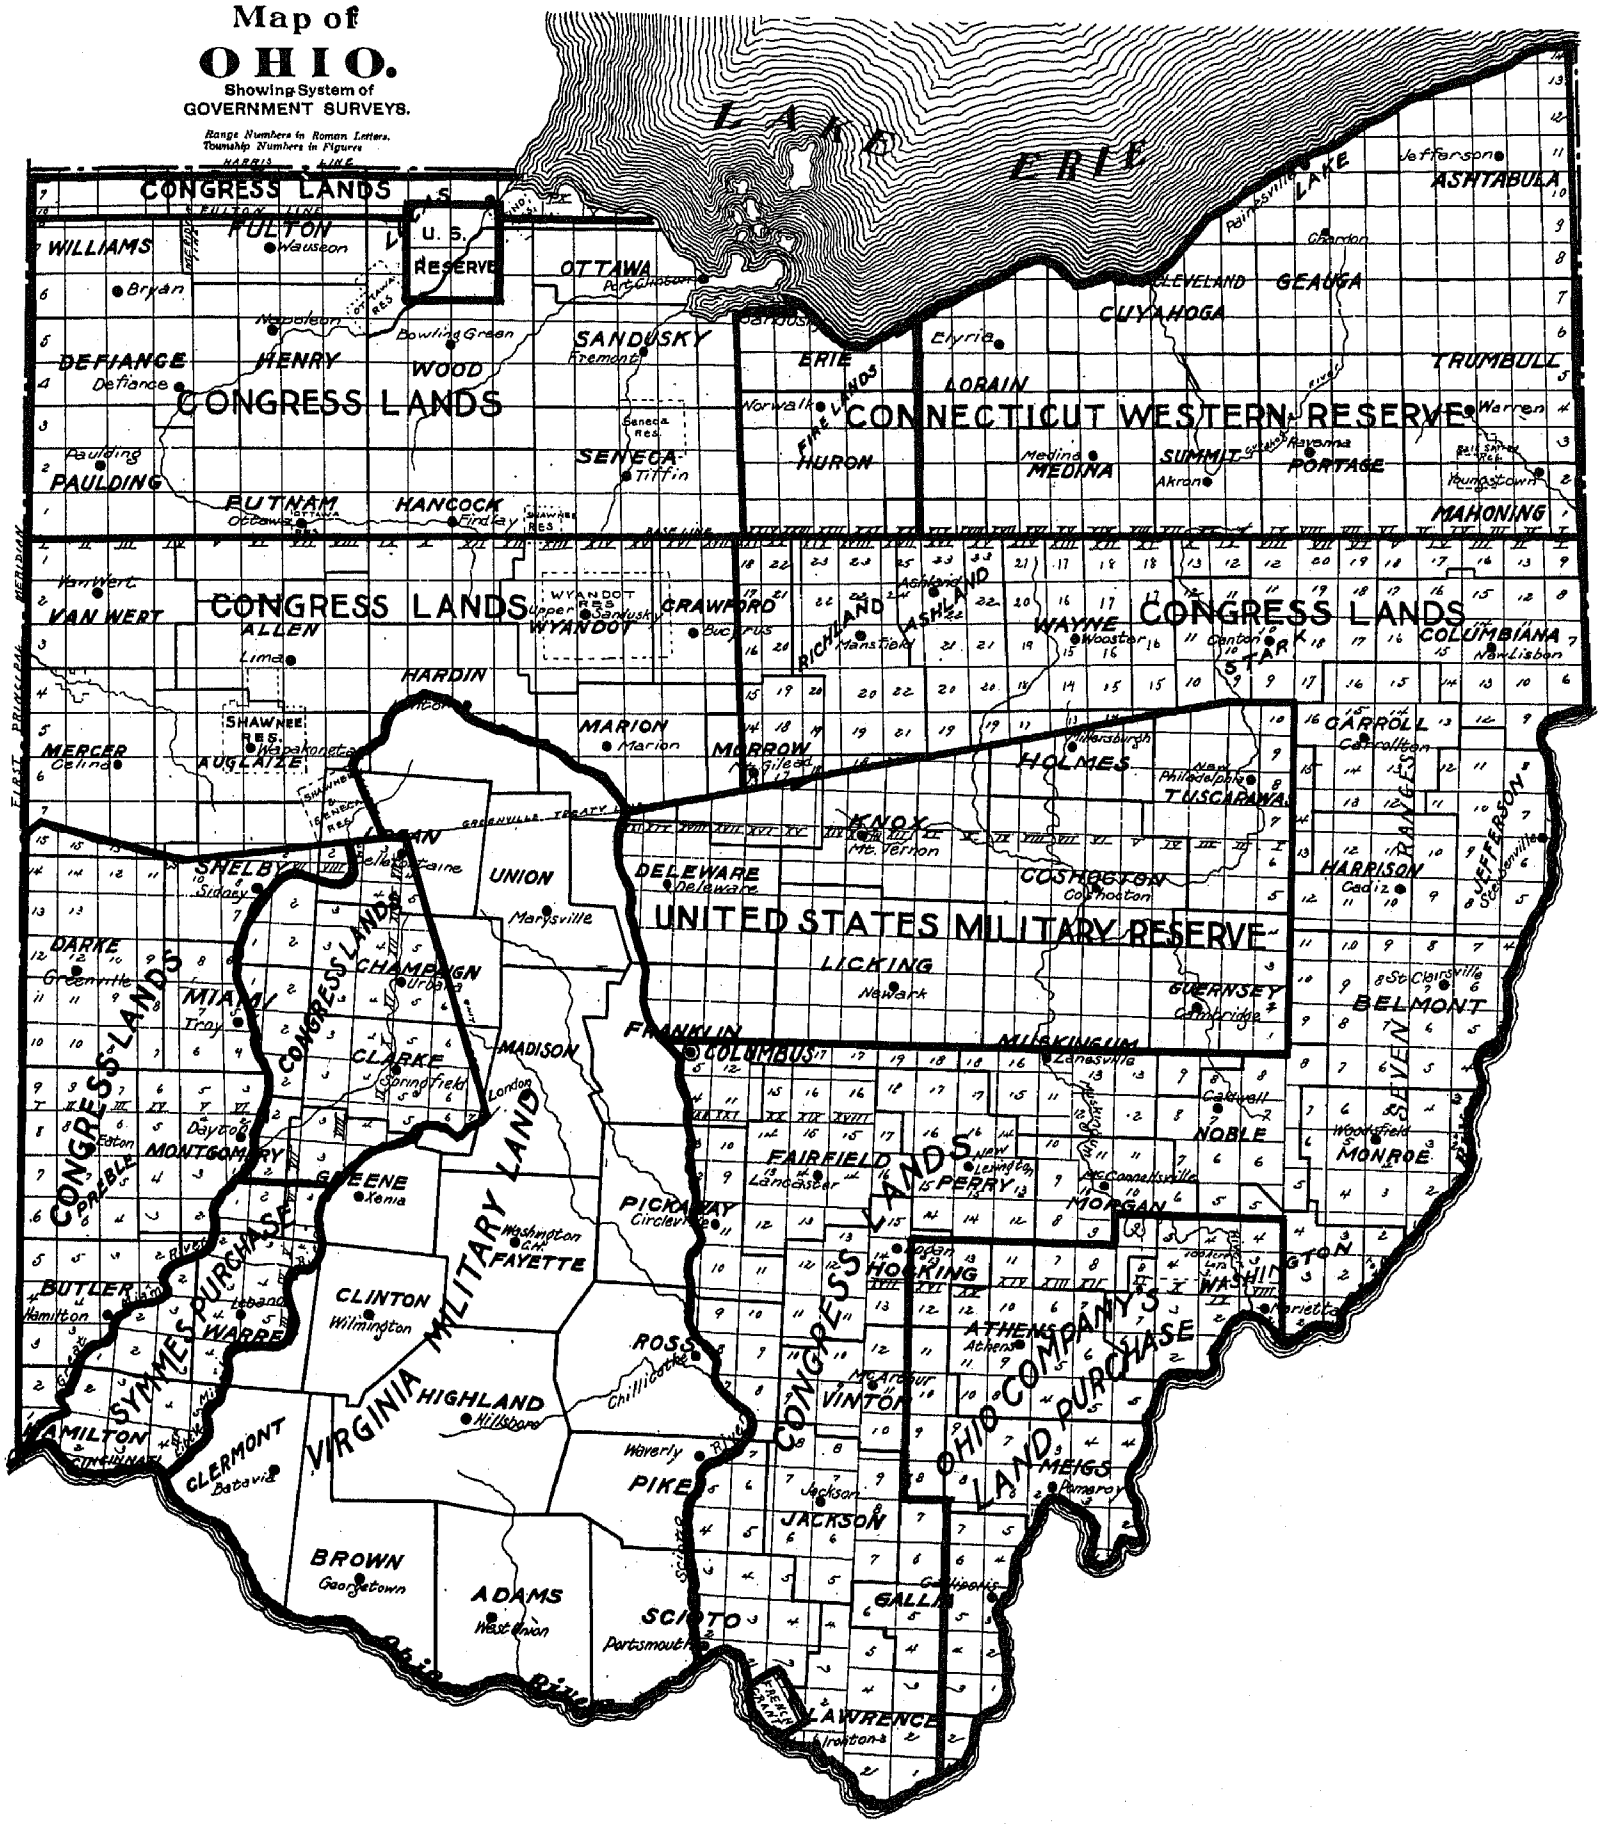

This tract of land is situated between the Little Miami and Scioto rivers. It embraces within its limits Adams, Brown, Clermont, Clinton, Fayette, Highland, Madison and Union counties, entirely and portions of Marion, Delaware, Franklin, Pickaway, Ross, Pike, Scioto, Warren, Greene, Clark, Champaign, Logan and Hardin. It embraces a body of 6,570 square miles, or 4,204,800 acres of land.

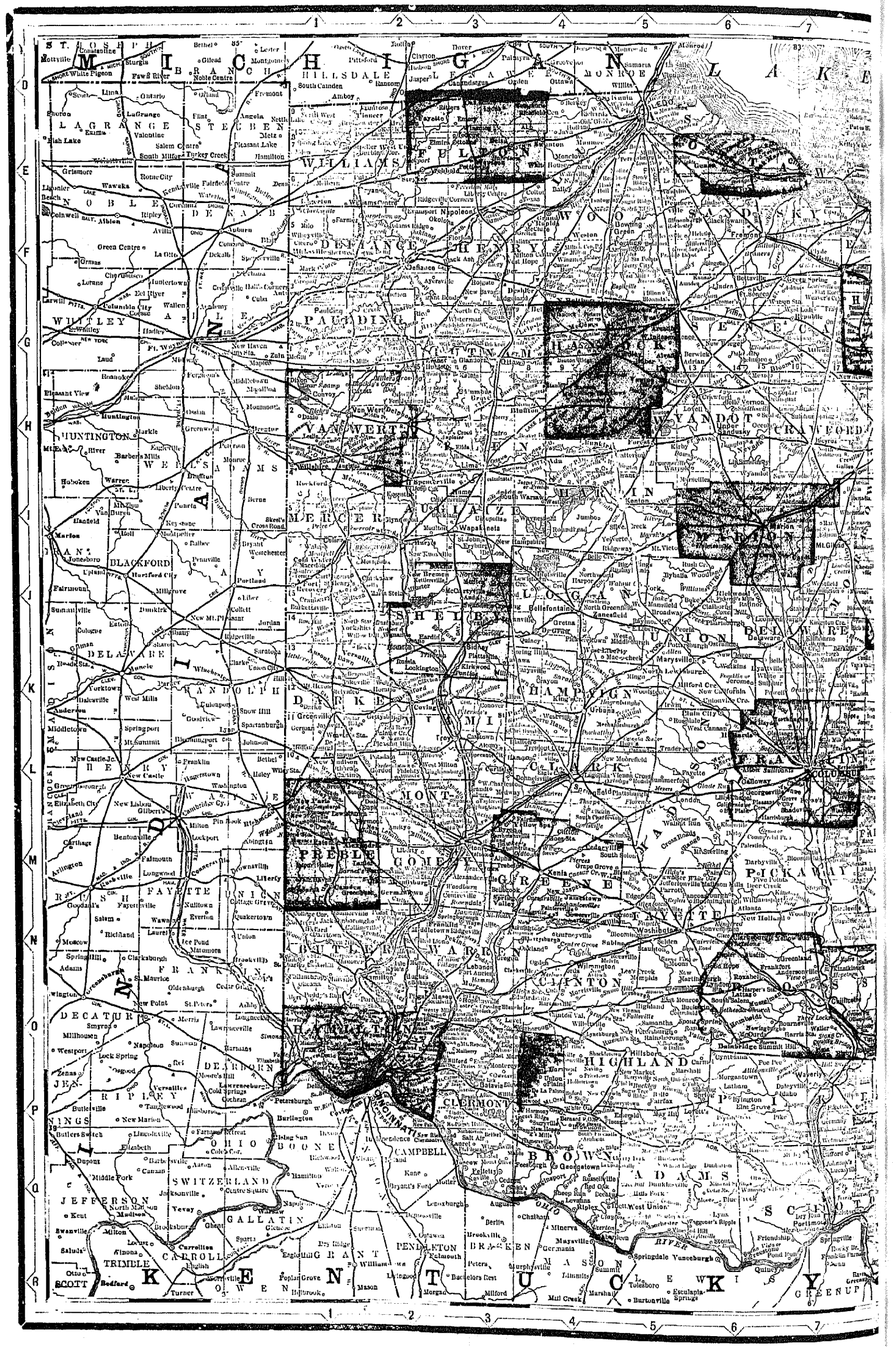

As stated elsewhere, Virginia had, during the progress of the Revolutionary War, promised her officers and soldiers serving in the Continental line large bounties in land. When she ceded her territory northwest of the Ohio to the general government, she reserved enough of the land to fulfill her engagements with her troops who had served in the Continental Army.

BRIEF SKETCHES

OF SOME OF

Trumbull County's Representative Citizens.

ABBEY, FRANK B., the son of Octavus and Mary Alexander Abbey; is a native of Corry, Pa., where his birth occurred May 9, 1866. He came to this state in 1888. His education was obtained in the district schools of his native state. Since March 1, 1895, he has had charge of the large stock farm in Howland township of H. B. Perkins. He carries on general farming and dairying, keeping thirty-five cows and selling the milk to customers in Warren city. The farm under his charge consists of about 600 acres. He bought and sold over 300 tons of hay last season, and wheat, corn, oats and stock in about the same proportion. His wife, whose maiden name was Nellie Sigler, is a native of Fowler township. Mr. and Mrs. Abbey are well and favorably known and have a large circle of friends.

ABELL, LELAND. Few men in Johnston township are better known in Trumbull county than the gentleman whose name heads this sketch. He was born in this township Feb. 14, 1848, and is the son of Edward and Mary L. Root Abell, the former born Dec. 1, 1815; the latter May 28, 1820. Mr. Abell received his education at Oberlin College. He is one of the largest shippers of dressed poultry and breeder of Pekin ducks in Ohio, if not the largest in the state. The commission houses to whom he consigns his poultry in New York city sell thousands of dressed turkeys, chickens and ducks from him annually; 2,500 to 3,500 of the ducks are of his own breeding. In addition to his farm and large poultry interests he is district agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, one of the best life insurance companies doing business in Ohio. He married Nov. 26, 1873, Huldah E. Smith, the daughter of Calvin and Mariah Meacham Smith. Two boys and five girls have been born to this union. Two girls are deceased. He is a substantial citizen, a reliable and practical business man, and enjoys the confidence of a wide circle of acquaintances.

ABELL, JOHN L., retired farmer of Howland, first saw light on the old Abell farm in Howland, May 22, 1856. He is the son of Simon and Jane King Abell. He was educated in Howland township schools and at Warren. His parents moved to Warren when subject was but twelve years old, and at the age of sixteen he assisted his father in a saw and planing mill. Mr. Abell now owns a fine farm in Howland and lives just east of the city limits on Market street. Mrs. Abell, to whom our subject was married Oct. 13, 1883, was formerly Miss Lillian Wheeler, of Warren, daughter of Albert and Sarah Wheeler. She was born Aug. 28, 1852. She was educated in the Warren city schools, and afterwards took a two years' course in Dana's Musical Institute. Socially, Mr. Abell is a member of I. O. O. F. Mahoning Lodge No. 29. In politics a Republican. Mr. Abell is at present township assessor, and a man of influence in the community where he resides. He and his wife are members of the Disciple church.

ADAMES, WHITTLESEY, is a native of Warren, and the son of Asael Adams, who was a pioneer merchant of this city, doing business here from 1813 to 1852. Previous to engaging in mercantile trade in Warren he taught school in Cleveland in 1806, in a log school house located where what is now the foot of Superior street. Mr. Adams was at that time but nineteen years of age, and his school was the first school ever taught in Cleveland, and one of his earnest patrons was Judge Huntington, afterwards Governor of Ohio. Whittlesey Adams graduated at Yale University in 1857, and on May 19, 1864, was married to Margaret S. Smith, daughter of Charles Smith, the founder and first president of the Trumbull National Bank. He continued as president of this bank till his death in 1882. Whittlesey Adams was a member of the board of school examiners of Trumbull county for ten years, from 1858 to 1868. Was one of the three examiners of Western Reserve University in 1867. Was appointed paymaster (with rank of major) in the United States army in July, 1864, by President Lincoln. Was one of the charter members of Warren Commandery of Knights Templar. He was an officer and trustee of Independence Lodge of Knights of Pythias. Was the first member in Trumbull county of the Western Reserve Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. Has for several years been a member of the Western Reserve Historical Society of Cleveland. Was a member of the firm of McCombs, Smith & Adams from 1865 to 1868, the largest dry goods store in Warren at that time. He spent the years 1896 and 1898 in Southern Arizona combining business with health. He was a charter member of the Mystic Shrine in El Zaribah Temple of Phoenix, Arizona, which was the first and only Masonic Shriners' Temple in Arizona. He has represented at Warren for forty years a large line of the oldest, largest, strongest fire insurance companies of Europe and America. Has represented the Home Insurance Company of New York continuously since 1863 and the Glens Falls Insurance Company of New York since 1866. The taxes paid by the Adams Fire Insurance Agency into the treasury of Trumbull county has in a single year exceeded five hundred dollars, and several years exceeded the total amount paid by all other insurance companies in Trumbull county. The owners of business property in Youngstown, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Vicksburg have confided the control of their insurance for many years to the care of the Adams Insurance Agency.

ADAMS, FRED. W., was born in Warren, Feb. 28, 1868, attended Warren public schools, and was graduated from Warren high school in 1887. He was married to Miss Olive M. Palmiter in 1893, and has two sons, Norman Whittlesey and Frederick Dean. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and has held office in Old Erie Lodge, Mahoning Chapter, and Warren Commandery of Knights Templars. He has been for a number of years a director and member of the securties committee of the Trumbull Building & Loan Association. Mr. Fred. W. Adams has been engaged with his father, Mr. Whittlesey Adams, in the fire insurance business since 1889, and the Adams Insurance Agency is now one of the largest and most successful fire insurance agencies in the state of Ohio. Mr. Fred. W. Adams has made the subject of insurance a careful study, from a scientific as well as practical point of view, and is now regarded as one of the most thoroughly correct and safest underwriters in the state. He has also made a study of insurance law, keeping posted upon all the important insurance decisions in the country.

ADAMS, FRANK R., farmer and dairyman of Weathersfield township, was born Jan. 21, 1853, in Wells, Somersetshire, England, and came with his parents to America in 1865, first settling in Greenville, Pa., coming to Trumbull county in 1869. His father, William, was born in Somersetshire, England, March 6, 1816, and his mother, Leah Churches, was born in the same shire, Aug. 2, 1819. Both are now living in Niles. Feb. 17, 1880, our subject married Miss Mary R., daughter of John H. and Mary Weisell Park. Mrs. Adams was born July 28, 1854. Mr. Park's sketch appears elsewhere in this work. Mrs. Park, whose birth occurred in New York, Aug. 21, 1824, was called from earth June 14, 1880. Mr. and Mrs. Adams are the parents of three children, as follows: Royal E., born Nov. 21, 1880; Edna L., born Jan. 5, 1883, and Effie M., born Dec. 16, 1887. Mr. Adams conducts the Heaton farm of four hundred acres just north of Niles, with a dairy of fifty cows in connection, running a milk route in Niles. His customers are some of the very best people of that city. Mr. Adams has been in his present business for the past eight years and has won a reputation as a reliable farmer and dairyman. He is genial and courteous and a first-class citizen.

ADGATE, JOHN H., proprietor of the Pine Street Green Houses, 560 to 566 South Pine street, Warren, Ohio, was born in Howland township, on the River road, Oct. 12, 1851. His father, Hoover, was born on the same farm in 1821, and died in 1891. His grandfather, John Adgate, was one of the pioneers of Howland. Our subject attended district schools and Warren grammar school. After spending about five years gardening in and near Niles, he established the Niles Green House in 1882, which he continued for five years, when he removed to Warren and established his present business on Pine street. Mr. Adgate is an A No. 1 gardener and florist. His place is headquarters for all kinds of flowers and garden products. Orders for parties and funerals will receive prompt attention. Aug. 6, 1873, our subject was married to Miss Ella F. Mann, of Niles, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Mann. They have three children—Frank H., Cora M., and Geo. J., all living. Mr. A. is a Republican and a member of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., also Senior Order of American Mechanics.

ALLEN, FRANK G., agent of the P. & W. R. R. at Leavittsburg, was born in Newton Falls, June 19, 1857. His education was obtained at Newton Falls high school and Burton high school. From 1875 to 1880 he taught school in Portage, Mahoning and Trumbull counties. Since that time our subject has been connected with the railroad business. He began as transfer clerk for the Erie R. R. at Leavittsburg, later was ticket agent at the same place, and in 1884, when the Pittsburg & Western R. R. was built through Leavittsburg, he accepted his present position as agent and operator for that road. Mr. A. has been a membe rof the Order of Railway Telegraphers since 1886. He was postmaster during Harrison's administration, and is an adherent of the Republican policy. He is also an active church worker and was for twelve years chorister of the M. E. Church at Leavittsburg.

ALLING, F. E. JOHNSTON.

ALLISON & COMPANY, of Niles, Ohio, is composed of the following well-known gentlemen: W. C. Allison, C. P. Souder and B. L. Satterfield. This firm deals in all kinds of lumber and builders' supplies; also operates a well equipped planing mill where all work in this line is done in first-class order. Besides the above lines they do a large business as contractors and buiders, having erected a large number of buildings, including the Birch & Guess, Cline & Holeton, and Biery & Armstrong blocks in Niles. Their patrons are always sure of right treatment when dealing with them and nothing speaks better for this firm than the quality of work done.

ALLCOOK, ENOCH, farmer and dealer in live stock, was born in Staffordshire, England, June 14, 1861. At 16 years of age he moved with his parents to Lancastershire, England, where he remained four years, when he sailed in company with his father for America. He was educated in the high school in Ravenna, Portage county, O. Mr. Allcook has been twice married; first to Miss Alice Phillips, by whom he had one child, Eva May, and lastly to Miss Elizabeth Tomlinson, of Staffordshire, England. Mr. A. came to Lordstown in 1897 and leased the farm where he now resides. He deals largely in stock, including Jerseys and beef cattle, Berkshire hogs, and Shropshire sheep. He has 490 acres under his supervision, which is well stocked and furnished with all modern improvements, as engine, feed grinder, feed cooker, etc. Mr. A. also keeps thirty cows, and separates the cream from their milk, which is then put through an aerator, after which it is shipped to Pittsburg. Mr. Allcock is careful and painstaking and understands the latest and most improved methods of farming.

ANDERSON, WILLIAM C., is a prosperous and highly respected farmer of Warren township. He is the son of Alexander and Margaret Wilson Anderson, both natives of County Tyrone, Ireland. They immgrated to this country and were married after they came here. Alexander and three brothers settled on Eagle Creek in Warren and Braceville townships, and in Braceville, on the old homestead, our subject was born Jan. 29, 1859. His father died about twenty years ago and his mother still resides on the old farm at the age of eighty-three years. Our subject was raised on the farm, attending the district school, and Jan. 29, 1879, was married to Kate A. Fee, of Warren, daughter of William and Mary Jane Best Fee. Mrs. A. was born at Bezetta Center Jan. 25, 1862. Her parents were both natives of Ireland. Her father was born in 1807, and came to America about sixty years ago. The mother was born in 1830 and immigrated to this country about forty-three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. A. have the following children: Blanch, born April 25, 1880; Fred, born Dec. 16, 1882; Austin, born Oct. 19, 1887; Mary, born Oct. 21, 1894, and died Jan. 24, 1895, and Curtis, born Aug. 26, 1897. Mr. Anderson and family are members of the Episcopal Church of Warren. They have a well improved farm and a commodious, pleasant and well kept home.

ANDERSON, DAVID A., farmer of Warren, was born Feb. 10, 1855, in Braceville township, on the farm now owned by his mother. His parents were George and Mary Willson Anderson, both natives of Ireland. Our subject lived at home, working on the farm and attending district school. Ten years ago he moved to his present home in Warren, on Braceville township line. In the two townships he has 143 acres, well improved, with neat and attractive buildings, showing thrift and enterprise. Oct. 12, 1892, he was married to Miss Jennie Fee, daughter of John and Lovina Shafer Fee, of Mecca township, where Mrs. A. was born Oct. 16, 1868. Mr. A. is a member of the M. E. Church and his wife of the Disciple Church. He casts his vote for the interests of the Republican party. He is considered a thorough and reliable business man.

ANDERSON, J. WARREN, farmer of Liberty township, is the oldest son of James D. and Mary A. Anderson, and is a native of North Jackson, Mahoning county, and lived near what is now called Rosemont. When our subject was sixteen years of age he removed with his parents to Colebrook, Ashtabula county, and in the early spring of 1864 enlisted in Co. D., Second O. V. C., and after a few months of the campaign of that year in the Shenandoah valley, his health failed and he was sent to the hospital, never being able to be returned to his regiment. He was discharged at the close of the war from the hospital at Davids Island, New York harbor. In 1869 he came to Liberty township, making his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry and Hannah Brainard, where he now resides. Since coming to Liberty his life has been spent in agricultural pursuits. Mr. A. takes an active interest in politics, and is alive to the interest of the Republican party. He was township trustee for six years, and has been connected with the schools of the township for over twenty years. Mr. Anderson is unmarried. His brother, Mr. Chas. Anderson, and family make their home with him.

WARREN CITY VIEWS.

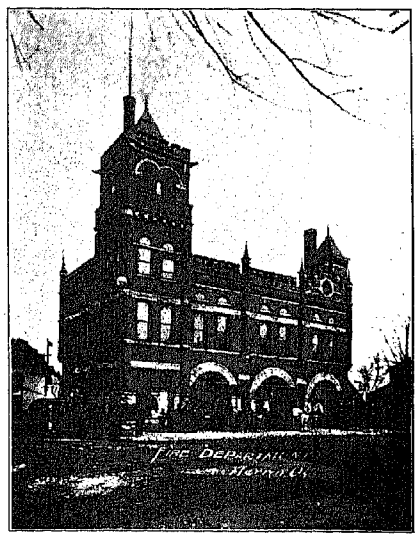

ANDREWS, W. C., is one of the most energetic business men Cortland possesses, his career in this place being one of eighteen years' duration, marked by capable and fair dealing. Previous to locating in Cortland he was in the same business, that of druggist, eleven years in the oil regions of Pennsylvania. A large prescription business is done here, Mr. Andrews having had many years' experience in this line. He was born in Fowler, Ohio, July 26, 1854, and is the son of Asa E. Andrews, who was born Feb. 12, 1819. He attended the Warren city schools, where he received a good education. At various times he has taken an active interest in local politics and filled with satisfaction for eight years the office of village treasurer, being elected by the Republicans. He is past master of the Masonic Lodge at Cortland, in which order he manifests a live interest. His wife, formerly Lucy Tayler, was born in Warren, Ohio, Feb. 8, 1859, where she received her education. They were married Dec. 24, 1877. She is the daughter of George and Elizabeth Woodbridge Tayler, of Warren, Ohio. The following children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrews in order as named: Willard C., Frank H., deceased, Louise T., George T. and Rollin C. The home of this family is a model village residence, being modern in all its appointments.

ANDERSON, OLIVER R., farmer and stock raiser of Champion township, was born Nov. 12, 1845, and has always been a resident of this township. His father, John Anderson, was born in the North of Ireland, March 5, 1817, and came to America when twenty years of age, and soon after came to Trumbull county. He was married March 14, 1844, to Catherine Hyde, who was born in York state, Nov. 19, 1817, the daughter of Ira and Mary Parker Hyde. Our subject was married Sept. 8, 1868, to Lozetta E. Housel, of Farmington, born March 12, 1848, the daughter of Peter and Mary Miller Housel, the former born Feb. 17, 1821, and the latter Sept. 8, 1824. Their family consists of four children—Austie, born Oct. 25, 1869, now Mrs. John Baker, of Farmington; Arlington R., born Nov. 17, 1877; Nina, born Oct. 24, 1879, and Ward H., born Sept. 25, 1881. Besides general farming Mr. Anderson has devoted no little time to the breeding of road horses. As a citizen our subject has ever been faithful. He is an ardent Republican, and is now central committeeman of his township. He is also a member of the Trumbull County Agricultural Aassociation.

ARNOLD, J. F., the enterprising and popular young furniture dealer of Niles, O., was born in Finkenbach, Germany, June 9, 1868. His father, Lorenzo Arnold, was born in Obermoshel, Germany, Dec. 25, 1834, and now resides in Finkenbach. He married Elizabeth Sauerwein. She was born July 1, 1838, and died July 1, 1878. Our subject emigrated via New York city to Canal Dover, Ohio, arriving in the United States April 25, 1885. After remaining in Canal Dover, Ohio, 19 months, he went to Louisville, Ky., and New Albany, Ind., where he worked four years. Then moved to Grand Rapids, Mich., and in a few months bought an interest in an undertaking establishment, remaining in Grand Rapids three years. While here he graduated under Professor Sullivan in emblaming. In the spring of 1896 he established the present business in Niles, Ohio, furniture and undertaking. He carries a large and well selected stock of furniture. He is a graduate of Kaiserslantern, Germany, Polytechnic School, and before establishing a business for himself in the United States he was employed as a designer of new furniturer by some of the largest manufacturers at points before mentioned. On July 2, 1895, he married Elanore M. Vogt, daughter of Peter and Carrie Beyer Vogt, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Mrs. Arnold was born July 10, 1874. Mr. Arnold belongs to the Masonic Lodge of Grand Rapids and to the Elk Lodge of Niles, No. 352. Mr. Arnold is a self-made and practical furniture man, understanding the manufacture of every piece of furniture in his large establishment, from its designing to the time it is placed in the wareroom. In the conduct of his business affairs he has displayed sound judgment and excellent business ability.

BACH, L. W., the genial and enterprising hardware merchant of Niles, Ohio. This establishment, owned and conducted by the gentleman named above, is one of the most complete in point of quality and quantity of stock carried to be found in this county. Not only does he carry the customary stock of shelf and general hardware, but he also makes a specialty of several lines, giving particular attention thereto. Especially may be mentioned builders' hardware, exceptionally good rates being given on large orders. L. W. Bach was born in Brighton, N. Y., June 16, 1866, and is the son of W. S. and Victoria M. Hall Bach. The senior Bach was born in Baden, Germany, Oct. 11, 1840, and married April 21, 1863. His wife was born Dec. 23, 1856. Our subject graduated at Taylor's Business College, of Rochester, N. Y., in 1883, and immediately assumed charge of the office and books of the Glen Nursery Co. For the next twelve years he was bookkeeper of some of the largest wholesale houses of Canada and Rochester, N. Y. Since February, 1895, he has been identified with the business interests of Niles, Ohio. July 25, 1891, he married Jennie A. Bingham, daughter of Alfred and Safronia Dudley Bingham. Mr. Bingham was born in Glanford, Canada, Dec. 2, 1824, and died Dec. 25, 1884. Mrs. Bingham was borin in Simcoe, Canada, June 26, 1826. Mr. and Mrs. Bach are the parents of one child, Earl V., born May 16, 1892. Fraternally Mr. Bach is a member of the K. of P. Lodge of Niles, No. 138, and of the U. R., of which he was recorder two years of Trumbull Division No. 18. He also belongs to the Modern Woodmen of Niles. Mr. Bach is one of the reliable young business men and personally one of the most popular.

BAKER, A. R., is a native of Hartford township, his birth occurring Dec. 17, 1837. He is the son of Simeon C. and Sarah E. Hull Baker, the former born Oct. 13, 1811, the latter Feb. 5, 1813. Mr, Baker owns a well-improved farm of 100 acres, on which he has erected comfortable farm buildings. In his community he is recognized as a reliable and straightforward business man. Since its inception, he had always believed in the priciples of Abe Lincoln's party. After his education was finished, at the Hartford high school, he married Sept. 17, 1868, Mary E. Ray, born in Morris, Conn., April 7, 1838, the daughter of John and Charlotte Ray. Mrs. Baker was educated at Morris, Litchfield county, Conn.

BALLARD, CLISBY, was born near Howland Springs Feb. 16, 1839. His parents were both natives of Pennsylvania. Mr. Ballard was brought up on a farm and received his education in the district schools of Howland. Soon after the outbreak of the war of the rebellion he enlisted in Co. B, 105th O. V. I., and served until the expiration of the war, June 3, 1865. Mr. Ballard participated in some of the most famous battles; was at Chickamauga, at Mission Ridge under Rosecrans; with Sherman during his famous march to the sea; at the surrender of Johnston, campaigns in the Carolinas, and on to Washington at the grand review. During all this time he saw active service and bore a good soldier's record. Sept. 11, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Hake, who has borne him one child, a daughter, now Mrs. James Hake, of Howland. Immediately after his marriage Mr. Ballard settled on their present home, where industry and thrift have marked their course ever since. Mr. Ballard is a Republican.

BARNES, HEZEKIAH J., is one of Warren's prominent business men, being identified with many of its leading interests. The subject of this sketch is truly an example of a self-made man, always interested in taking a leading part in every public enterprise. We regret that space will permit us to give only a brief outline of the active life of so public spirited a man. He was born on a farm in Gustavus, Nov. 10, 1845, the son of Hezekiah and Barbara Pelton Barnes, the former born in Burlington, Conn., came to Gustavus township about 1820, and the latter born in Gustavus township, was the daughter of Elias Pelton. His parents were old pioneers, his mother being the first white child born in the township. At sixteen years of age our subject began to shift for himself, applying all his extra earnings toward an education. By this means he was enabled to attend the Gustavus Academy for three years. He then commenced his mercantile pursuits by clerking in the vicinity of his home for about ten years. For the next two years he was in a wholesale house in Toledo, when he returned to Gustavus and began the mercantile trade for himself, which he followed for about three years, when, being a dutiful son, he left his business to take charge of the home farm for his aged parents. Here he remained until 1880, when he removed to Warren, having been elected to the office of county recorder, being nominated in 1879 over twenty-one other candidates. Previous to this he had held the office of justice of the peace for sixteen years and various other positions of trust in his township, and was known to be an active leader in politics. He was re-elected to his office as recorder, and brought many reforms in the administration of that office, retiring with an enviable record. About this time he became engaged in the abstract business, and in 1886 he, with C. F. Clapp, formed the Ohio Land Company, doing a real estate business all over the United States. For the past seven years this firm have devoted their attention exclusively to general fire insurance business, representing some of the leading old line companies. For the past five years Mr. Barnes has been a director of the First National Bank, previous to which time he was director and vice president of the Western Reserve National Bank and is now vice president and director of the Park Hotel & Cold Storage Company. In educational interests he has served on the board of education of Gustavus township for twelve years and also of Warren city for five years, of which he was president about three years. In the spring of 1897 he was elected to the Warrent city council from the first ward, and became president of that body in the spring of 1898. In the organization of the Warren & Niles Telephone Co. on Sept. 1, 1898, he was chosen secretary, treasurer and general manager. Mr. Barnes was married Feb. 23, 1873, to Miss Ida C. Thompson, who was born in Clarion county, Pa., March 9, 1851, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. B. have two children—Birdell F., born July 18, 1877, and Clara Belle, born Nov. 13, 1885. Mr. Barnes is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M.

BARKLEY, JOHN. One of the prominent and prosperous farmers of Braceville township is the subject of this sketch. He was born in the west part of Warren township March 20, 1845, and came to Braceville in 1864 and has resided in this township ever since. His father was John G., and his mother Christiana Houseman Barkley. He received a common school education and then learned the stone cutter's trade with Mr. John Craig in 1867, and until last year has been with the Erie Railroad as foreman of stonework on bridge construction. He has a good farm which he rents and does some farming himself, keeping some good stock and poultry. A cut of his residence appears upon another page of this work. Mr. B. was township treasurer for ten years, and a prominent candidate for county commissioner in 1897. He was married first in 1878 to Laura Humphrey, daughter of David and Orilla Humphrey, of Braceville township. She died July 1, 1880. He was married to Josie A. Kreitler, July 1, 1886. She is the daughter of Joseph and Josephine Kreitler, and was educated in the Warren township schools and then by careful home study, was enabled to commence teaching at the age of seventeen, which she continued for nine years. Mrs. B. was born Dec. 17, 1859. To this union have been born three children, the first of which died in infancy. Mr. B. is a Republican and a member of F. & A. M. No. 462 of Newton Falls.

BARKLEY, CHRISTIAN H., was the oldest of three boys, being born May 7, 1841, near Leavittsburg. When he was seven years old, his father died, and he and his brothers helped their mother on the farm. For two years after he was of age, our subject worked for himself, afterward joining his capital with his mother and brothers. They sold their farm in Warren township, buying one in Braceville, which they operated together until 1877. At that time our subject became owner of the farm. In April, 1868, he was married to Mary J. Craig, who died Sept. 20, 1875, leaving one infant daughter. April 10, 1879, he was married to Loretta Jane Blackburn, one of the county's most successful teachers. Her grandfather and his wife were the first couple married in Poland township in 1798. For the last few years Mr. and Mrs. Barkley have spent some time in travel, and since 1896 have made their home in Warren township with Mrs. Barkley's brother, J. A. Blackburn. Our subject is a member of Senior American Mechanics of Warren Council No. 4. In politics he is a Republican, casting his first vote for Lincoln.

BARROWS, CHAS. E., of the Barrows & Walker Hardware Co., is one of West Farmington's enterprising business men. Born Feb. 16, 1853, in Sherman township, N. Y., he left home when he was fourteen and for two years lived with an uncle in Dorset, Vt. He then came to Cuyahoga Falls, where he lived three years, learning the tinner's trade, which he followed for the next four years in Ohio and Indiana. In January, 1876, he came to West Farmington, where he soon opened a tinner's shop. In 1882 he formed a partnership with his brother-in-law, W. T. Walker, and together they built their present business block. In 1896 they became the proprietors of the West Farmington flouring mills. In 1880 Mr. B. was married to Lulie M. Walker. The subject of this sketch is a member of several social orders, a director and one of the organizers of the Farmers' Banking Co., of West Farmington, and has held responsible positions in the township. He is now serving his third term as treasurer of the township.

BARTLETT, SIDNEY F., is one of the best known business men in Trumbull county, where he was born in Johnston township, June 3, 1841. His father Isaiah, was a native of Massachusetts, and his mother of Mirriam, Conn. The parents came to Trmubull county in 1833 and settled in Johnston township. Our subject was educated in the district schools, and at the age of seventeen began working at the blacksmith's trade, which he followed for ten years in various parts of the county. Coming to Warren in 1867 he worked first at his trade, then in the livery business and later went into carriage manufacturing as Bartlett & Corbin, and then as S. F. Bartlett alone. In 1890 he went to Cleveland and engaged in the carriage business till 1895, when he returned to Warren and became connected with Morgan & Williams in the carriage business. He also does an extensive business as an auctioneer. He was deputy sheriff eight years under Sheriffs Dickinson and Corbin, and in 1887 was elected sheriff and served four years with credit to himself and satisfaction to the people. He was married to Betsey L. Mouery Sept. 12, 1861. She is the daughter of Isaac and Betsey Mouery, and was born in Gustavus township Aug. 6, 1841. To this union one child was born, Jennie E., Aug. 7, 1868. Mr. B. is past master of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., past master of R. of S. Council No. 58, past eminent commander of Warren Commandery No. 39, and member of Cleveland Consistory of Scottish Rites. Since 1895 he has been president of the Trumbull County Agricultural Association.

BATTLES, GEO. W., of Weathersfield township, is one of the progressive business men and farmers of the county. He is owner of the "Summit Farm," where he has resided for some years. He was born on a farm in that township, Jan. 31, 1833, and has always been a farmer. His education was mostly acquired in the district schools. He was married Jan. 31, 1856, to Maria Scoville, who was born in Vienna township, July 25, 1835. To this union three sons have been born, all of whom are living.

Frank H. was born in Niles, O., March 30, 1863, and after receiving a district school education, he took a course at the Normal University at Ada, O. After teaching several terms, he took a course at Canfield, O., where he graduated in 1886. He then took a special scientific course at Rochester, N. Y., afterward engaging for seven years as general manager for Thos. W. Bowman, Nurseryman, of Rochester. In 1895 he began growing and handling farm and gardenseeds for himself. Dec. 25, 1889, he was married to Hattie Keeler, of Niagara county, N. Y., who was born Feb. 5, 1861. She was educated at Yates seminary.

Charles E. was born in Niles Feb. 5, 1866, and was educated in the district schools and at Girard and Canfield, O. After teaching and working at the carpenter's trade for some years he went to St. Paul, Minn., where he is now a member of the firm of Cooper & Battles, tinners and dealers in stoves and furnaces. He was married in 1892 to Kittie L. Teeple, a native of La Porte, Ind. To this union one son has been born.

Brose B. was born at Girard Jan. 14, 1869, and was educated in the district schools with a course at Canfield, O. After working two years at the tinner's trade he became proprietor of the "Summit Farm," where he grows fruit and vegetables, also seeds for his brother of Rochester, N. Y. He was married March 18, 1891, to Carrie Decker of Howland, she being born April 28, 1871, in Sharpsville, Pa. She came to Ohio with her parents when three years old. To this marriage two children have been born. The condition and thrifty appearance of "Summit Farm" bears evidence of the good business methods of its owner and proprietor.

BAUMILLER, JOHN M., is a native of Hartford township, having been born here Dec. 25, 1859. Aside from the proper length of time passed in the school room, his principle occupation has been that of a farmer. He is wide-awake and enterprising, and takes an active interest in the welfare of the community where he resides. Especially are these parents interested in the township schools and the proper educational advantages for the young. The general aspect of his home surroundings bespeak thrift on the part of the proprietor. Leah Wendler, the daughter of Nicholas and Margaret Baetz Wendler, was united in marriage to our subject Jan. 26, 1886. Her birth occurred May 15, 1866.

John Martin Baumiller, the father, was born Jan. 13, 1829. He married Catherine Starzman, born April 29, 1834. Mr. Baumiller is a republican.

BEAN, JAMES H., D. D. S., the popular dentist of Girard, was born Jan. 31, 1869, in La Grange county, Ind., a son of John and Mary Berry Bean. Our subject was reared on a farm and educated in the La Grange schools, finishing his course in the high school. After studying dentistry for two years with Dr. A. C. Beecher of that city, beginning in 1886, he practiced his profession for two years, after which he took a course in the Dental College in Cincinnati, graduating from that institution in 1893. He then opened an office in Girard, where he has continued to practice his profession. Miss Della Smart, a native of La Grange county, Ind., became the wife of Dr. Bean on June 10, 1891. Her parents were Richard W. and Carolina Thurston Smart. Our subject takes an active interest in educational matters, being president of the School Board, of which he has been a member for two years. Socially he is a member of the I. O. O. F., No. 432; S. of V., Jr. O. U. A. M. and P. H. C.

BEACH, A. M., M. D. The subject of this sketch is a native of Vernon, Trumbull county, O., where he was born in April, 1848. He was educated for the medical profession at the Starling Medical College, Columbus, O. Until May 1, 1895, Dr. Beach was located in Mineral Ridge, but since then has established himself in Niles, where he is known as a trustworthy and self-reliant physician, a kind neighbor and a courteous gentleman. He has held the office of county coroner for two years and has proven himself to be a competent and reliabl official. His portrait appears upon another page in the group of county officers. In politics he is a staunch republican.

BECK, FRANK E., was born in Warren township May 13, 1862. His father, Henry Beck of Warren, is a native of Appigen, Germany. He came to America in 1837, and located in Pennsylvania. Here he stayed six years, then came to Warren township and bought a farm. He engaged in the cooper business until 1863, when he sold out and came to Lordstown and bought a farm, where he lived till 1884. His son, Frank E., then took the farm and he moved to Warren city, where he owns a home on Highland avenue, consisting of one and one-tenth acres. Mr. Frank E. Beck carries on general farming very successfully, having charge of his father's farm of 202 acres. Our subject has a wife, formerly Miss Mary E. Sutton, to whom he was married Feb. 9, 1882. They have one child, Rilla M., born May 21, 1894. William N. Sutton was born in Deerfield township, Portage county, O., May 5, 1825, and died Nov. 7, 1891. His wife, Susana Strock, was born in Ellsworth township, Trumbull county, O., Feb. 11, 1829, and passed from life June 23, 1872. They were united in marriage April 14, 1850.

BECK, A. H., was born in Warren township July 11, 1864. Ater attending the common schools of the township he engaged in general farming, which occupation he still follows. He was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Mattie Longmore, Dec. 23, 1891, she having been born in Lordstown township June 24, 1868, and educated in the Warren township schools. Her parents were George and Emma Fishel Longmore. The former was born in Ireland in September, 1808, and came to America in 1823, with his parents locating at Braceville. He is still living and finds a pleasant home with his daughter in his declining years. Mr. Beck is the son of Henry Beck of Warren and a brother of Frank E. Beck, who is also mentioned in this work. Their portraits appear upon another page. Mr. Beck is a popular gentleman and was elected trustee of his township in 1897.

BEIL, P. A., the well-known farmer and agent for the Lordstown Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company, was born in this township and has spent all his life here with the exception of three years. Mr. Beil attended the public schools and academy of Lordstown, and began teaching at the age of seventeen, and continued in this work for the remarkably long period of thirty-five years. He taught sixty-eight terms. Mr. Beil was married to Miss Celestia A. Allen April 24, 1864, and they have a family of three children now living, one child, Nora, having lived but five days. All of the daughters inherited their father's taste for books, and have been successful teachers. The youngest, Miss Eva, attended Hiram College. She began teaching when but fourteen years of age and is still in the work.

The insurance company of which Mr. Beil is agent was organized in 1878. Mr. Beil's duties are to solicit new members and to visit all members once in five years and renew policies. The territory, consisting of Trumbull county and adjoining counties, has a membership of 1,256, which is increasing annually. The officers of the company are: U. W. Carson, presiden; Geo. E. Kreitler, secretary; Geo. M. Moser, treasurer; P. A. Beil, agent. Directors, John Horn, I. D. Best, William Flick. Those desiring insurance would do well to investigate the merits of this company. Mr. Beil is the son of Jacob and Catharine Harshman Beil, of Wells county, Ind., the former born Feb. 8, 1820, and the latter Jan. 24, 1820. Mrs. B. was a daughter of Thomas W. and Waty Soul Allen, the former born Oct. 18, 1807, died March 6, 1892, and the latter born Dec. 31, 1806, and died at the age of seventy-eight years. Mattie V. Beil, now the wife of W. F. Sinn, was born Feb. 11, 1865; Ada A., wife of Bert Flick, born June 4, 1870; Nora, deceased, born May 25, 1877, and Eva A., born July 29, 1878. The family are members of the Christian church. Mr. Beil is a thoroughly reliable business man, was township trustee for two terms and has been a justice of the peace ever since 1875.

BENTLEY, ANSON G. The subject of this sketch is a native of this county, who came to his parents as a Christmas gift in 1824. The name Bentley is one of the oldest in this country, being prominent among the early pioneers of colonial times. The parents of our subject were James and Temperance Buttles Bentley, the former born in Pennsylvania May 23, 1798, and the latter in Connecticut in 1799. They were the parents of seven children, Amos B., Anson G., our subject; Caroline, Evaline, Martin, Benjamin and Joel B. Anson G. spent his early life on the farm, attending school winters until he was fitted for teaching, when he engaged in that profession. In 1853 he went to the gold fields of the West, locating at Nevada City, remaining there till 1858, with good results. Coming then to Youngstown he engaged in the lumber business, and soon after assisted in the organizing of the First National Bank of that place, of which he was vice president and director for many years. In 1867 he came to Niles and started the bank of Wick, Bentley & Co., this afterward changed to a banking association and later to A. G. Bentley & Co., and in 1883 this business was closed out. Since that time Mr. Bentley has given his attention to real estate and other business interests. Aug. 5, 1858, he was married to Mary A. Ingraham, who was born Nov. 10, 1831, at Chautauqua, N. Y. She is the daughter of Rev. S. W. and Lauretta Ingraham. To this union three children have been born, A. J. of Kiowa, Kan., Frank of Niles and Mary, wife of W. A. Thomas of Niles.

BENTLEY, F. F. Mr. Bentley was born in Youngstown in 1867, moving to Niles when quite young, and has lived there ever since. After receiving a common school education Mr. Bentley took up the slating and tinning trade, and later the plumbing and heating trade, and for sixteen years has followed it exclusively and quite extensively. Having a thorough knowledge of his trade in all its branches, by years of practical experience. He founded his business in 1890. The premises he occupies are his own, centrally located, and finely fitted up, being 42 feet front by 66 feet deep, two story, with a workshop in the rear 25x50 feet, which is equipped with all the latest improved machinery, tools and appliances known to the trade, and steady employment is afforded to from eight to twelve skilled workmen. This range of work embraces all kinds of plumbing, steam and hot water work, slate and metal rooffing, spouting, cornices, crestings, and all kinds of copper and brass works. Particular attention is given to sanitary plumbing and heating, of which Mr. Bentley has a reputation all over the country, and has done some fine work, which has placed him in a position that he ranks high in his business. It is claimed that Mr. Bentley has one of the largest and finest display rooms between Cleveland and Pittsburg. He carries a very large stock of plumbing goods and understands how to display them. In 1890 Mr. Bentley married Miss Gertrude V. Caldwell, the daughter of H. S. Caldwell, formerly of Canfield. Mr. and Mrs. Bentley have but one child, James C. They have a beautiful home on Bentley's hill, which they enjoy. Mr. Bentley is a careful and wide-awake business man, and takes an interest in all matters which pertain to his business, or to the interest of his city. He is an Elk and a member of the Royal Arcanum.

BIERY, E. A., is a prominent business man of Warren, O., where he has resided since 1886. He was born in Weathersfield township Dec. 28, 1855, and is the son of Reuben Biery, born in Allentown, Pa., in 1818, and Mary Biery, born same place in 1825. Our subject was educated in the common schools and when twelve years old began clerking in a grocery story in Niles, where his parents moved in 1862. When sixteen years of age he became brakeman on the railroad, after which he attended school for a time. In 1876 he learned the cigarmaker's trade, which he followed for a time. In 1879 he entered the law office of M. A. Calhoun and studied law for about a year, when he became assistant baggage master on the railroad. In 1885 he became a partner in the hardware store of Biery & Scheible, where he remained until he came to Warren in 1886 to serve as deputy under Sheriff A. P. McKinley. He remained in this position four years under Mr. McKinley and four years under Sheriff Dilley, when he was elected sheriff and served four years, filling the office in a highly creditable manner. He then formed a partnership with D. R. Fee, as Fee & Biery, dealers in flour, feed, coal, lime, cement, etc. Sept. 20, 1893, he was married to Alice M. Eatwell of Warren. She was born Jan. 20, 1869, and was educated in the Warren schools. She is the daughter of William and Julia Eatwell. To Mr. and Mrs. B. have been born three daughters, viz: Mildred E., July 27, 1894; Mary F., Jan. 29, 1896; Julia A., May 15, 1897. Mr. Biery is a member of Niles Lodge, No. 138, K. of P.; subordinate lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F.; B. P. O. E., No. 295, and Past Chief Patriarch of Trumbull Encampment, No. 147.

BIGGIN, THOMAS, farmer of Warren tp. Mr. Biggin's parents were natives of Somersetshire, England, where our subject was also born, Sept. 29, 1836. Here he attended school and engaged in farming until his marriage, May 24, 1858, to Miss Harriet Martin of the same county. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Biggin came to America, to Bloomfield township, Trumbull county, O., where our subject's parents had preceded him two years before. Here they resided for two years, engaging in farming. About twelve years ago they moved to Warren township, having lived since leaving Bloomfienld in Fowler, Howland and Vernon townships. About three years ago they purchased their present home, just west of Leavittsburg, on the Newton Falls road. Here they have a well improved farm, with good buildings, pleasant location and every indication of thrift and enterprise. Six children have been born to them, four of whom are living. Mr. Biggin votes the republican ticket.

BIGGERS, JAMES W., was born in Ottawa, Canada, Jan. 15, 1853. He is the son of William and Mary Biggers, both natives of the same place. The former born in 1828 and the latter in 1832. Our subject when twelve years old came with his parents to Niles and soon after began working in a rolling mill, but his parents moving to Mineral Ridge in a short time he found work in a coal bank. In 1868 he came to Warren and for nearly three years was employed in the Austin house, then the leading hotel of the town. For about two and one-half years he then acted as news agent on the A. & G. W. R. R. He then learned the carriage trimmer's trade with Drennen & Goist and remained with them for ten years and followed his trade for four years more in Ashtabula. In 1885 he opened a restaurant on Main stree, Warren. Later he moved to the east side of the street and added a grocery stock. He later moved to the Wilhelm block, adding liquors to his stock, where he remained till 1892, when he moved tohis present location, a handsome brick block which he had just built. He now carries as fine a line of liquors, bottled goods and cigars as are to be found anywhere. Mr. B. was married Aug. 19, 1874, to Helen, the daughter of William and Jessie Black. She was born Aug. 19, 1853, at Coatbridge, Scotland, and died after a short illness at her home in Warren May 31, 1898. To this union four daughters were born, Elizabeth, born May 4, 1875, and died Oct. 6, 1876, Jessie, Minnie A. and Elizabeth. Jessie is a graduate of the Warren High School and later took a course in the Emerson School of Oratory of Boston. Minnie, also a graduate of the Warren schools, took a course in the Albany, N. Y., Normal. Elizabeth is a member of the class of '99 of Warren High School. Mr. Biggers is a member of the I. O. O. F. and of the republican party.

BISHOP & CREAHEN, dealers in boots, shoes and rubber goods, 13 East Market street, Warren O. This stock first came under the management of Mr. Bishop in 1893, when he and A. C. Hunt purchased the Dennison & Rice boot and shoe stock. The firm was known as Hunt & Bishop until the death of the former, when after a short time Mr. W. H. Creahen succeeded to his interest and the firm became known as Bishop & Creahen. This firm cary the best of makes and newest styles in footwear, and guarantee to fit customers with any style desired.

Daniel F. Bishop was born in Warren and has always lived here, where hehas earned the reputation of being a candid, reliable business man and a public-spirited citizen. He is the son of Daniel and Elizabeth Bishop, and was born Nov. 12, 1867. His educational advantages consisted of a course in the Warren schools, followed by a business course in Hiram College. After completing his college course in 1883, he engaged as clerk in the grocery of E. A. Pierce, and in 1887 accepted a position in the boot and shoe store of Lamb Bros. Here he remained until 1890, when he engaged in the grocery business and, as mentioned before, went into the shoe business in 1893. He was married to Miss Lillian B. McKee, a graduate of Warren High School, later a teacher in the same, Aug. 17, 1892. She is a daughter of Benjamin and Mary E. McKee. They have one child, Howard. Mr. B. belongs to the I. O. O. F., Mahoning Lodge, No. 29, and Trumbull Encampment, No. 147.

William H. Creahen, son of William and Kate Creahen, was born Nov. 25, 1862, in Noblestown, Pa. He removed from here to Pittsburg when a boy and obtained a common school education there and at Allegheny. Mr. C. was employed in the tube works at Pittsburg for eight years, and followed the same occupation for five years after coming to Warren. He entered upon his present duties in 1894. Mr. C. was united in marriage to Miss Minine Bishop, of Warren. Mrs. C. is the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Bishop, and a graduate of Warren High School. They have one child, Marie, born July 10, 1893. Mr. Creahen is a man of keen business insight and ably supports his partner in the interests of the firm, and has the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens.

BLACKBURN, JAMES A., well-known farmer and stock raiser and general referee on all subjects for his neighborhood. He was born in Canfield, Mahoning county, Feb. 12, 1837. His parents removed to Braceville when he was two years old, and there our subject was brought up, and attended district school in his township, also two terms in Warren. In 1863 subject's family sold their home, and in 1864 removed to the present residence of Mr. B. Here he engaged with his father in general farming and dealt extensively in cattle, horses, hogs and sheep. Oct. 29, 1887, Mr. B. was married to Miss Eliza O. Miller, who died Oct. 4, 1896, since which time his home has been looked after by his sister and her husband. Mr. Blackburn is especially interested in the breeding of fine horses, and has owned some of the county's best known stallions: "George," a Tuckey Hoe horse; also "Mambrino Choirster," and now has one of Wilkes' best representatives—Golding No. 28528. He also does considerable veterinary work. Mr. B.'s elegant home, a view of which appears upon another page of this work, was built in 1890, at a cost of $5,500, is finely finished and has all the modern conveniences. Our subject is an active republican and has held several public offices, being at the present time treasurer of Leavittsburg special school district, a justice of the peace and notary public.

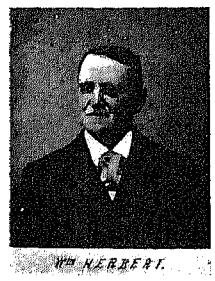

BLACKBURN, J. H., is a prosperous dairy farmer of Fowler township. He was born in Grampian Hills, Pa., Dec. 19, 1841, being the son of T. J. and Annie Fenton Blackburn. The father was born June 2, 1817; the mother Dec. 10, 1817. Our subject received the educational advantages of the Canfield, O., Academy, preparing himself for a teacher, which occupation he successfully pursued for a number of years in Mahoning county. The republican party of Mahoning county, in whose councils Mr. Blackburn had long taken a prominent part, gave him the nomination for the office of county commissioner in 1876. He was honored with election and filled the office for six consecutive years to the entire satisfaction of his constituency. He moved to this township April 1, 1887. Aug. 2, 1862, he enlisted as a private in the war of the rebellion, in the 125th O. V. I.; was mustered out Oct. 18, 1865, with the rank of first lieutenant and acting adjutant. He married Amanda J. Pettit, the daughter of James and Charlotte Cook Pettit. Mrs. Blackburn was born Sept. 10, 1844, and they were married Nov. 30, 1865. The names of the children are mentioned below in order of birth: Charlotte J., M. Ella, James W., Clara M., T. Homer, Charles J., May B. Mr. Blackburn is a member of McFarland G. A.R. Post.

VIEWS OF NILES CITY.

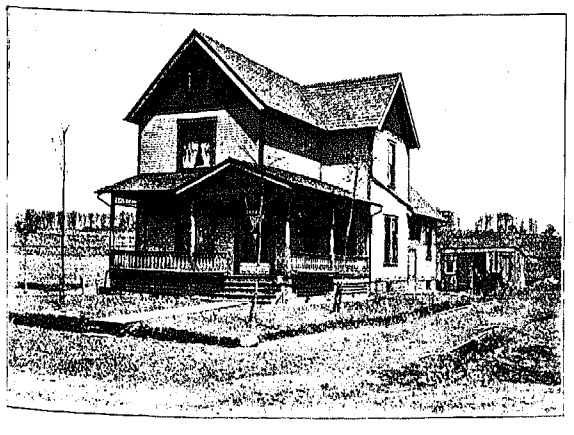

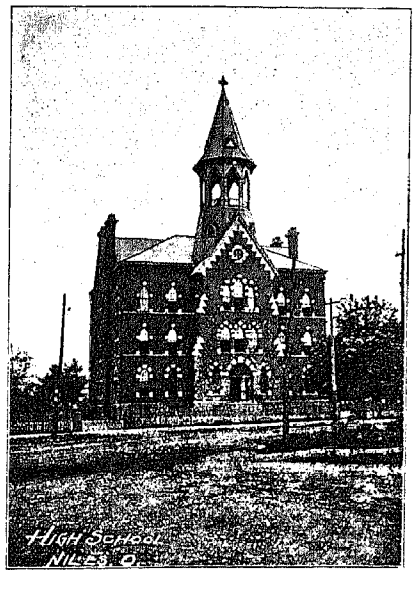

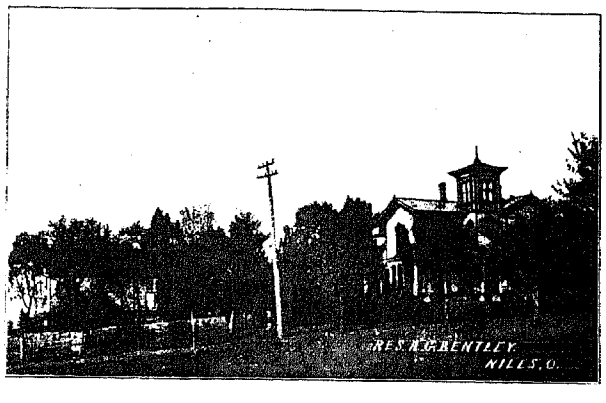

BLAND, JOSEPH. The subject of this sketch was born in Warwickshire, Birmingham, England, on the 26th of April, 1861. He emigrated to America and came to Trumbull county in June, 1875. He is at present employed as a manager of the forge department with the Fulton Iron and Nail Company of Niles. Mr. Bland is an energetic republican, and is at present serving as president of the City Council, of which he has been a member for four years. He was married to Miss Louisa Whitehouse of Niles Feb. 14, 1883. Six children have been born to this union, five of whom are living. Socially our subject is a Mason, belongs to the order of Elks, as well as to the Foresters of America.

BOLES, F. N. That the history of a county or state is the history of individuals has been amply demonstrated in the lines of many of the prominent and influential old pioneers of Trumbull county. Especially is this true of Ezra M. Boles, who emigrated from Saratoga county, N. Y., in 1837 and settled on the farm where his wife and children now reside. He cleared and improved the farm and made for himself and family a substantial home in this county. He was born in April, 1820, and died Feb. 28, 1893. He married Miss Choe White, who was born in December, 1823. F. M. Boles, son of Ezra M., was born on this farm Dec. 1, 1854. He received his education in the common and West Farmington High School. He is engaged in mixed farming and stock raising. Politically he is a republican.

BOLIN, J. D., proprietor of a first-class livery in Niles, O. Mr. Bolin keeps fine horses, which are well broken and perfectly reliable. He makes a specialty of transient trade and has constantly on hand rigs suitable for handling sample trunks as well as horses with sufficient staying qualities to make a trip in the proper time. Those patronizing this barn will be assured of prompt and courteous treatment. Mr. Bolin was born Sept. 20, 1856, at Niles, is the son of John and Margaret Bolin, the former born Feb. 28, 1823, died Dec. 31, 1889, the latter born Feb. 28, 1828, and died Aug. 17, 1897. He has always lived at Niles or in the immediate vicinity. He had the usual common school education denied to none in this free land of ours. Mrs. Bolin was formerly Miss Helen Park of Pittsburg, Pa., born Nov. 7, 1861, and was married to our subject Dec. 25, 1879. Mr. and Mrs. Bolin have a pleasant home and a fine family of four children: Millie, Maggie, Olive and John.

BOWER, SERIGHT MOSES, farmer and dairyman of Farmington, was born in that township Feb. 1, 1845, his parents coming here in 1839. Here he was brought up, attending the common schools and Western Reserve Seminary. April 27,
H., 171st O. V. I., serving same year. He participated in the repelling of Morgan, when he made his raid, and was in the battle of Cynthian, Ky. Dec. 25, 1877, he was married to Miss Celia S. Belden. She was the daughter of Daniel and Mary Belden of Farmington, and the date of her birth was April 20, 1846. To them was born one child, Dora A., born Sept. 2, 1882. Mrs. Bower's death occurred June 15, 1883. Jan. 6, 1885, he was married the second time, to Jane S. Batchelder, born Oct. 30, 1846, in Montville, Geauga county, the daughter of Lyman S. and Selina Belden Batchelder, natives of Connecticut. The former was born March 25, 1807, and died March 4, 1893, and the latter was born Dec. 12, 1808, and died May 22, 1898. Our subject is a prominent republican and a member of the township board of school directors. He belongs to Hall Post, G. A. R., No. 426, of West Farmington.

BOWERS, GIDEON, leading farmer of Bristol township, was born May 21, 1831, in this township, being the third of six children. He comes of staunch Virginia stock, his parents, John and Ann Spittler Bowers, having been born in that state, the former in 1807 and the latter in 1805. They came to Bristol in 1829 and moved to the farm where our subject was born in 1830. He received a common school education, living at home on the farm until he was twenty-seven years of age, when, Oct. 31, 1858, he was married to Sarah Crozier, and he and his wife moved to the farm where they stil live. She was born July 24, 1837, in Mecca township, and is the daughter of James Crozier, born July 28, 1782, in Ireland, and Sarah Hunt, born Oct. 25, 1799, in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Bowers was the seventh of eleven children. They have had four children: Charlie J., who married Mary Durst and resides in Bristol; Hattie A., who is the wife of Philip K. Shaffer of Redlands, Cal., to whom have been born two sons, Albert G. and Carl A.; Jay L. and George W. The latter two now reside at home. Jay L. is married to Alice M. Warren and they have one son, Lyle W. Our subject is a staunch republican, and has always taken an active interest in public affairs, having been trustee of his township and a member of the school board for years. He is one of the best farmers in this township, none standing higher. Mr. B. and family are members of the M. E. church.

BOYD, S. A., the son of McKim and Annie Middleton Boyd, was born in Vernon township May 15, 1859. He married Lillian M. Dunbar, the daughter of Barnabas and Rittie O. Morey Dunbar. She was born July 26, 1861, and they were married May 25, 1882. Florence M. and Sidney M., children of this union, are both living. Mrs. Boyd departed this life in February, 1896. She was a devout member of the M. E. church and was sadly missed, not only in the home she adorned so well, but in the church and neighborhood. Our subject was the former owner and trainer of "Arlington," record 2:08. He bought this horse when one year old and the fame and speed he attained is excelled by few. He is now the owner of "Latimer Girl," a young and very promising animal. Mr. Boyd is well known in several states as a horseman. He is personally acquainted with the owners of most of the noted animals of to-day.

BROWN, DR. JAMES S., of Mecca, O., was born in New York city June 3, 1854, his name being Jas. Smith. Being left friendless he was brought to Oberlin, O., Oct. 5, 1859, where he was adopted by Jas. M. and Rachel B. Brown of Mecca. They gave him the same kind and loving care that they would an own child. He was educated at Denison University, Granville, O., and Madison University, New York. He then taught school for a time and afterward studied medicine with Dr. S. H. Smith of Mecca. Dr. Brown later took a course in medicine at Adelbert College and graduated in 1882 at Western Reserve Medical College, Cleveland. After graduation he located at Mecca, where he still resides. June 20, 1883, he was united in marriage to Miss Rosa J. Smith, one of the prominent school teachers of the county, a sister of Dr. S. H. Smith, and daughter of William N. and Prudence Smith of Mecca township. The doctor and his wife have seven children: May L., James Herbert, Edna Frances, Emily R., Lawrence Nelson, Allen B. and Emerson W. Fraternally he is a member of the I. O. O. F., F. & A. M. and K. O. T. M., and is a member of the Trumbull county and Ohio state medical societies. Dr. B. is a prominent physician and able business man, always ready to assist a worthy enterprise. He and wife have a large circle of friends with whom they are deservedly popular. The doctor was appointed U. S. pension examiner at Warren, O., June 9, 1897, and has been president of the board of education of his township for several years.

BOYNTON, ERNEST L., attorney-at-law of Niles, where he has won a reputation for good judgment, clear insight, and a thorough knowledge of jurisprudence. Mr. Boynton is a "down east" man, having been born in Augusta, Me., May 29, 1867. His early education was obtained in the common schools of Maine and Massachusetts. He is the son of Marcellus and Lizzie Philbrook Boynton, the former born May 24, 1841, and the latter in 1847. In 1888 he came to Trumbull county, O., and studied law with George P. Hunter, Esq., of Warren, O. Our subject was solicitor of Mineral Ridge during 1892-93, and since 1893 has been solicitor of Niles. Mr. Boyntan was married to Miss Dencie L. Mudgette of Sweanville, Me., July 12, 1892. Two children, a boy and a girl, have been born to this union, both of whom are living. Mr. B. is past commander of Niles Tent, No. 66, K. O. T. M., a member of Niles Lodge, No. 138, K. of P., and Niles Camp, No. 5076, Modern Woodmen of America.

BOYD, WILLIAM M., a leading clothier and gent's furnisher of Warren, O., is a native of Bazetta township, where he was born Jan. 16, 1858. When he was three years old his parents moved to Champion township, where his father, Robert, died in 1890. His mother, Sarah Boyd, still resides on the old homestead. His father was born in Scotland and mother in Ireland. When twenty-one years of age our subject came to Warren and clerked for Adams & Co., clothiers, until 1884, when he opened up business for himself in the same line, which he has since followed. In 1897 he sold his store on Main street to W. B. Stone & Co., and shortly afterward opened up another store on East Market street, where he remained till the summer of 1898, when he removed to his present excellent location on Main street, where he now has one of the best arranged clothing houses in the county. His line of goods is complete, new and up-to-date. April 2, 1883, he was married to Alda M. Cherry, daughter of Daniel H. and Lenora Cherry of Howland township. She departed this life March 12, 1889. He was married a second time to Anna M. Fessenden, who was born April 1, 1878, at Kent, O., and is the daughter of Charles P. and Lillie Fessenden. Mrs. B. was educated in the Kent schools. To this union one child has been born, Donald E., born May 12, 1897. Mr. Boyd is one of the live, hustling business men of Warren, and is counted one of her best citizens.

BRACKIN, ROBERT, M. D., (deceased). No more fitting biographical mention could be made of the above named gentleman than the following from the Western Reserve Chronicle of June 22, 1898: The long and useful life of Dr. Robert Brackin which terminated suddenly Tuesday evening, June 14, 1898, merits more than passing notice. Returning home at the close of the heated day the chill of evening air probably hastened, if it did not occasion, the stroke that caused his death. He reached home and hitched his horse, when he suddenly fell to the ground and expired within a few minutes after being carried into the house. On Thursday afternoon the entire community gathered at the funeral, not only to express a silent sympathy with the bereaved friends, but to remember that into many a household he had brought healing to the sick and comfort to the suffering. Not often does a single life touch more closely the hearts and homes of sorrowing people.

Robert Brackin was born in Kinsman, O., Nov. 8, 1823, and was the fourth child in the family of Ezekiel and Mary Brackin. The Brackin family were of Scotch-Irish ancestry, and were pioneers, coming to this place in 1804, imparting more than ordinary thrift and industry. Robert left the farm in early manhood and finished his medical studies in Cincinnati, and after practicing a short time in Conneautville, he removed to Vernon in 1849. He remained there two years, and then bought the well-known home in Kinsman which he had so long occupied, rounding out full fifty years of professional life. He leaves to mourn three sisters, Mrs. Craig, of Kinsman; Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Wheler, of Vernon; three brothers, John, of Greenville; Dr. James, of Warren, and David, of Jamestown, Pa.; three sons, E. R. and B. B., of Kinsman, and C. C., of Cleveland, and one daughter, Miss Blanch Brackin, of Kinsman. Although he passed the allotted three score years and ten, his upright life had given him apparent vigor for many years to come. It is unusual that one who had cared for so many in the dying hour should need so little earthly care when called to meet the final change. Even at the age of 74 years he will be greatly missed from the community where he had so long been a respected and influential citizen.

BRACKIN, ERASTUS R. Kinsman possesses a number of young business men who are progressive and up-to-date in the management of their affairs, and prominent among these is the proprietor of the leading clothing store. Mr. Erastus R. Brackin is no stranger to the people of Kinsman and vicinity, he having passed his entire life in the village of his birth, and since 1889 has been the sole proprietor of the present business. His store presents a neat appearance and the stock is a large and well selected one. He is the son of Dr. Robert and Wealthy Clark Brackin and was born in Kinsman Jan. 14, 1863.

BRADEN, JAMES. The Bradens of Trumbull county have no record of their family genealogy that goes farther back than to Andrew Baden, grandfather of Geo. A., Geo. W. and J. M. Braden, of Gustavus, and James Braden, of Greene. He was born in Ireland, County Fermannah, in 1756. He learned the tailor's trade and followed that business. At the age of forty he married Mary Wallace. After marriage he secured a leasehold of a farm of forty acres (about 65 acres U. S. land measure). He lived on the farm but continued his tailoring business, employing labor on the land, taking time enough from his tailoring business to direct the labor and manage the farm. It is not now known what yearly rental in money he paid his landlord, but it is remembered that one of the terms of the leasehold was that he should cut and cord up to dry turf (peat from a peat bog) to supply the fuel for one fire. He was looked upon by his neighbors as being quite well educated, as he could read, write and keep accounts, took a newspaper and the Wesleyan Magazine. He was an earnest listener to John Wesley and Adam Clark, and a firm believer in the religious faith taught by them. He raised three sons, James, Robert and George; no daughters, but adopted one as Maria Braden. His children were sent to school and tuition paid and each scholar had to carry his share of turf for the fire or sit in the cold end of the school room. In 1816 he sold his leasehold privilege, closed up his business, and, with his family, came to America. His first landing place was St. Johns, New Brunswick. He found plenty of land for sale near that city at what was to him a very low price, but he also found American whiskey and New England rum as plenty and cheap as the land, and after a stay of six weeks he left St. Johns and came to Philadelphia. Two sons of an older brother had located in Beaver county, Pa., so he stayed in Philadelphia only long enough to secure transportation to Pittsburg. At that time the only communication to Pittsburg was by stage coach or wagon. He bargained with a teamster to carry his wife and daughter and the baggage on his wagon to Pittsburg, and he and the boys walked. At Pittsburg he got transportation to Beaver on a keel boat. He located near Old Brighton and went to work at his trade and the boys went to work for farmers. In a few years Robert and George went to work for John Moore, who was a mason and building contractor. With him they learned to mould and burn brick and build brick wall and to cut stone. After finishing their trade with Moore, they both spent a year learning to work in marble, and became capable of designing and lettering headstones and monuments. In 1828 he and his son James bought 165 acres of land in Gustavus, this county, and located on it. Here he died in 1842 at the age of 86 years. James, his oldest son, married Sarah Thompson in 1831, and lived and died o nthe homestead. They raised four children, Noble J., Mary J., George A. and Martha. George A. now owns and lives on the homestead; Robert married Jane Clark, of Beaver, Pa., in 1828. Jane was a cousin of Sarah J. Clark, who was well known in the literary world as Grace Greenwood. They raised eleven children, William, Mary, Clark, Margaret, Martha, Lucinda, Wallace, George, Jeanette, Gibson and Rosaline. Five of Robert's sons served in the Union army, William in the 171st O. I.; Clark in an Illinois regiment; Wallace and George in the 41st O. I., and Gibson in an Ohio regiment. Wallace was killed in the battle of Chickamauga. George, the youngest son, married Sarah McCartney in 1833. He worked at his trade two years after marriage and then bought a farm in the woods, in Greene, which he cleared and on which he lived until he died in 1852. They raised eight children, Andrew D., James, William, Elizabeth, George W., Joseph A., Johnston M. and Mary. William died in 1857. Two of George's sons served in the Union army. Andrew enlisted in May, 1861, in the 19th O. I., three months' service, and served with the regiment till it was mustered out in August. He afterwards helped to recruit and organize the 105th O. I. and was chosen first lieutenant of Co. B, and promoted to captain after the death of Captain Kee, and served with the regiment till it was disbanded after the close of the war. James enlisted in the 177th O. I. in August, 1864, and was mustered out with the regiment in July, 1865. Maria, the adopted daughter, was married to George Sadler in 1830. They bought a farm in Gustavus, on which they lived till they died. They raised seven children, Wesley, Mary, Thomas, Robert, Maria, Ellen and Margaret. Margaret's husband, Archie McCorckle, enlisted in the 6th O. C. and served three years. Twenty-three of Andrew Braden's grandchildren are still living at this date, October, 1898, and are scattered from Maine to California.

BRANDEBERRY, JOHN B., is one of the enterprising and painstaking farmers of Trumbull county, as is evidenced by his carefully kept buildings and fine lot of stock, including Berkshire hogs and Short-Horn cattle. Mr. B. was born June 17, 1852, in Bloom township, Wood county, Ohio. He was educated in the common schools of that county, and in 1890 removed to Trumbull county, and purchased the farm where he now resides. Mr. Brandeberry was first married June 30, 1877, to Miss Lizzie Frederick, of Wood county, who died Oct. 6, 1882. Two children were born to this union, Bertha M., March 31, 1878, and Minnie F., Aug. 29, 1881. The second marriage of Mr. B. occurred Sept. 30, 1883, when he was united to Lydia M. Kistler, of Newton township. Three children have been born to them, Beryl B., Nov. 7, 1884; Catharine, Oct. 21, 1891, and John B., Dec. 13, 1893. Mr. Brandeberry is a prominent member of Newton Falls Lodge No. 235, K. O. T. M., and I. O. O. F., No. 255.

BROWN, EPHRAIM ALEXANDER. The subject of this sketch was born in Westmoreland, N. H., Dec. 1, 1807. His early education was received at the Chesterfield Academy, New Hampshire, and later, after coming to Ohio, he attended school at Madison, Painesville and Warren. After having assisted in the mercantile business for a time, he began the wholesale and retail dry goods business for himself in Pittsburg, Pa., in which he was engaged about twelve years. After his retirement from business and at his father's death in 1845, he purchased the homestead farm in Bloomfield township, where he resided till his death, Aug. 10, 1894. He carried on general farming and stock raising with marked success. He was a strong anti-slavery man and a Republican. The father of the above, Ephraim Brown, with his uncle, Thomas Howe, came to the Western Reserve to purchase land for new homes in the summer of 1814. After looking over several localities, they purchased the entire township of Bloomfield, of Peter C. Brooks, of Boston. Later Mr. Howe leased his share of the purchase and Mr. Brown assumed the remainder of the debt, which, by good management, he was able to liquidate in a few years. Here he resided till his death, April 7, 1845. Several of his children were born here, and some members of his family still live at the old homestead. He several times represented his county in the Senate and House at Columbus. In politics he was an ardent abolitionist and a Whig.

BROWN, ALBERT, farmer and stock raiser of Howland, was born in that township Oct. 7, 1848, and obtained his schooling in the district schools. He was married Oct. 19, 1876, to Miss Mary Gilbert, of Howland. Mr. B. is one of the leading farmers of his township, owning a well improved farm of 270 acres at Howland Center. He is extensively engaged in the dairy business and in stock raising, having a fine herd of Holstein cattle. Mr. Brown's father was also noted as one of the pioneer stockmen of the county. Our subject is a believer in protection, and has served his township as trustee for nine years. He has also been a member of the Trumbull County Agricultural Association for the past eight years, and is one of our strong business men.

BRANGHAM, WILLIAM GEORGE, is the son of William and Mary Ann Brangham, the former born in 1834 and the latter in 1836. The subject of this sketch is a native of Machen, South Wales, where he was born in 1863. He came to Trumbull county in 1891, and is now superintendent in the tinning department in the mill of the Falcon Tin Plate Company, and doing excellent service for them. Mr. Brangham was married in 1890 to Miss Margaret Jane Reese, of Brighton Ferry. They have a family of three sturdy little sons, who give promise of growing up into fine young men. Mrs. Brangham is the daughter of Morris and Gwendolin Reese and was educated in Swansea, O. Mr. B. is a strong McKinley man.

BRUNSON, MARCUS, a well-known agriculturalist of Farmington township, was born in the eastern part of Southington township, April 2, 1849. His father, William, was born in the same township, Oct. 25, 1818, while his mother, Martha Dilley Brunson, was born in Lordstown in 1822, and married to William Brunson, Dec. 31, 1839. To them were born five children, of which our subject was the youngest. William Brunson died Aug. 14, 1882, and his wife May 15, 1880. Elisha Brunson, the father of William, and his wife, Sarah White, were natives of Connecticut. Jonathan and Polly Higby Dilley were natives of Pennsylvania. Our subject was married Dec. 31, 1872, to Cynthia McCorckle, daughter of Andrew and Martha Kelly McCorckle. Mrs. Brunson was born in the southeast part of Farmington township, May 23, 1863. She was raised in this township. Her father was born in Youngstown, O., Sept. 4, 1815, and died May 5, 1889. Her mother was born in Virginia, Sept. 7, 1818, and is still living in West Farmington. John McCorckle, the father of Andrew, and his wife, Isabelle Montgomery, were both natives of Ireland. Timothy Kelly, the grandfather of Mrs. Brunson, was born in New Hampshire, Dec. 21, 1797, and his wife, Henrietta Kelly, in West Virginia, Aug. 4, 1798. In the spring of 1882 Mr. Brunson and family moved to Farmington and settled on a rented farm in the north part of the township, where they remained one year, and then purchased their present home of about seventy-five acres of well-improved land, one-half mile north of West Farmington village. Mr. and Mrs. B. are the parents of the following children: Andy, born Jan. 20, 1874, and died Jan. 7, 1888, William D., born Sept. 9, 1876, and Myrta, born Oct. 1, 1881. They are members of the Disciple church and Mr. B. is a member of the Republican party.

BRYAN, F. E., son of Henry and Mary McDonald Bryan, the former born in 1810 and the latter in 1834. The subject of this sketch easily stands at the head of the feed and grain merchants of Niles. His business is one that has paid liberally for all investment, and is yielding the proprietor a good profit annually. Mr. Bryan deals in flour, feed, grain, hay, straw and coal, and guarantees satisfaction to all consumers. Our subject is a native of Freedom, Beaver county, Pa., where he was born June 9, 1864. He came to Trumbull county in 1895 and shortly afterward to Niles, where he has since built up his prosperous business. Mr. Bryan is an active member of the Order of Woodmen; also of B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 352, of Niles.

BUCHWALTER, HENRY, farmer of Lordstown, is a native of Lancaster county, Pa., where he was born Jan. 14, 1833. In 1850 he moved with his parents to Wayne county, Ohio, where he lived until 1884. He then came to Trumbull county, and located in Lordstown on the farm on which he now resides. He was united in marriage March 13, 1862, to Miss Barbara Rudy, of Wayne county. They have had a large family of children. Seven are living and two are dead. Mr. B. intends that they all shall have good educational advantages. Several of the sons have been to college. Mr. B. has an excellent farm, good buildings, which are well kept.

BUELL, JAMES K., of Johnston township, was born in West Cornwall, Conn., Jan. 1, 1843, the son of George and Mary Holcomb Buell. His father was born Oct. 14, 1809; the mother Jan. 13, 1807. His parents removed to this county May 29, 1846. Mr. Buell has been a student and wide reader of literature all his life. He attended college a short time at Oberlin. In 1868 he graduated in the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. After practicing medicine for a few years, he entered the profession of teaching, finding it more congenial to his tastes, teaching twenty-four years or forty-three terms. Also, he is a practical surveyor. At the beginning of the late unpleasantness he offered his services to his country, but was not accepted at that time, but on June 4, 1863, he was enrolled in Co. B, 870 O.V. I. He was captured at Harper's Ferry. Our subject married Susan Moran, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Sadler Moran. She was born June 24, 1842, in County Leitrim, Ireland, and they were married March 11, 1869. Four children have been born to this union in order of birth as mentioned below: Georgiana, Mary V., Carrie M., Bernard Blain. Mr. and Mrs. Buell are Methodists. Politically he is a strong Republican. He is recognized as a man of strict integrity, broad sympathies and generous disposition.

BURNETT, STEPHEN F., is a native of Warren, Ohio, where he was born in his present resident on Walnut street, Nov. 9, 1853. He is the son of Stephen and Eloner Gibson Burnett. His early education was acquired in the Warren city schools. On the 30th day of September, 1880, he was joined in wedlock to Alice L., the daughter of George and Louise Roberts. She was born in 1858 in Unionville, Lake county, Ohio, and educated in the same place. To Mr. and Mrs. Burnett have been born the following children: Thad E., born Sept. 16, 1881; Clara L., who died Jan. 13, 1883; Edward F., born May 4, 1886; Freddie S., born Oct. 4, 1888; Birdie L., born Sept. 16, 1891, and Mabel. Mr. Burnett is one of the live business men of Warren.

BURNETT, JAMES, deceased, farmer of Warren township. Our subject was born Sept. 11, 1820, in Franklin township, Portage county, the son of Samuel and Isabella Burnett. When a boy his parents moved to Mineral Ridge, where he was brought up and attended school. When a young man our subject worked at farming and coal mining and learned the blacksmith's trade. He was married Dec. 29, 1844, to Miss Elizabeth Lightbourn, daughter of Joseph and Eleanor Lightbourn, who was born in Youngstown, Jan. 11, 1820. In 1847 Mr. and Mrs. Burnett moved to Braceville, where they purchased a farm, which he worked, besides his trade as a blacksmith. In 1872 Mr. Burnett purchased the present homestead in the south edge of Leavittsburg to which they moved in 1873. This farm consists of 242 acres and is well improved and in splendid condition. To them were born two daughters, Isabella, born Nov. 20, 1847, now widow of Reuben Johnson, and Kate, born Dec. 20, 1854, now Mrs. S. A. Elwell, of Braceville. Mrs. Johnson has two sons, J. Victor, born Oct. 3, 1879, and Harry E., born April 30, 1881. Mr. Burnett died Nov. 21, 1897, leaving a widow, two daughters, and twelve grandchildren. Deceased was a prominent Republican.

BURNETT & KING, general agents, fire, cyclone, life and accident insurance, having the exclusive agency for The Ohio Farmers' Insurance Company for Trumbull county, also representing the Insurance Company of North America, Philadelphia Underwriters, Pennsylvania Fire, Spring Garden and American of Philadelphia, Westchester, Hanover, Phoenix, Germania and International of New York, Milwaukee Mechanics and Milwaukee Fire of Milwaukee, Firemen's Fund of San Francisco, British America of Toronto, Firemen's of Newark, N. J., German, of Freeport, Ill., Lancashire and Northern of England; also the Aetna, Life and Accident, Hartford Steam Boiler and New Jersey Plate Glass.

Albert C. Burnett, the senior member of this firm, established the Warren office in 1889. He began the insurance business in Hartford in 1876, continuing the same business two years with an office in Cortland, removing the same to Warren in 1889. He was born June 8, 1847, in Niles, O. His father, Joseph, was born in Hubbard in 1808 and lived until May, 1898, being probably the oldest native of this county. His mother was born at Bethel, W. Va., in 1815. The education of Mr. Burnett has been quite extensive, embracing courses at West Farming Seminary, Hartford Academy and Edinburgh Normal School. After completing these courses of study, he taught school and was principal of Clarksville, Pa., School and Andover, O., Academy. Mr. Burnett was married Aug. 19, 1868, to Miss Florence Townsend, who was born, May, 1852, in Buffalo, N. Y. They have six children living, having lost twin boys. Mr. Burnett is a past noble grand of Warren Lodge, I. O. O. F.; also a member of the Royal Arcanum and Protected Home Circle. Mr. Burnett has been an active Democrat and is too well known to need any eoniums.

Ernest L. King, junior partner and son-in-law of Mr. Burnett, was born in Cortland village, June 10, 1867. His father, Horace M., was a native of Shalersville, O. Prior to his decease he was a stone mason and contractor at Cortland. His mother's maiden name was Lucy Larnard, daughter of Amos J. and Eunice, who came from Massachusetts to Fowler, O., in 1833. Mr. King is a graduate of the Cortland High School, was also at Oberlin and Mount Union Colleges two years. Mr. King taught in the public schools of the county for several terms and was for one year principal of the Burghill schools. In 1887-88 he was principal of the shorthand department of the Ohio Business University in Cleveland, and in January, 1890, after spending a few months as stenographer with one of the large business houses of Cleveland, he came to Warren, where he established a shorthand school, which in 1890 he sold to take charge of the shorthand department ofa large business college in Los Angeles, Cal., where he remained about two years, returning to Warren in the latetr part of October, 1893, having purchased a one-half interest in the insurance business of A. C. Burnett, now known as the Burnett & King Agency. Mr. King is a member of the B. P. O. E. and a past chancellor commander of Independece Lodge No. 90, K. of P. Politically he is a Democrat, and has for several years been secretary of the county central committee. Miss Della Burnett, born in Hartford, this county, became his wife Nov. 11, 1891. She was educated in the Cortland High School and Western Reserve Seminary, and has been a very successful teacher. They have three children, Paul, Karl and Florence.

BUSHNELL, JOEL, son of Alexander and Martha Bailey Bushnell, the former born April 14, 1794, and the latter Jan. 12, 1795. Prominent among the Masonic fraternity of Niles, O., is the subject of this sketch, who occupied the positionof master in Jerusalem Lodge No. 19, F. & A. M., of Hartford, O., from 1861 to 1869. He was born in Hartford, May 6, 1833, and obtained his education there. Mr. Bushnell has served his county as commissioner for six years, and been a justice of the peace three years, in both of which offices he has shown himself worthy of the trust imposed. He married Mrs. Mary A. Bussy, of Warren, June 1, 1870. They have had two daughters, the eldest being now deceased. We note our subject is a Republican.

BUSHNELL, WILLIAM H., the horticulturist of Hartford township, deserves mention as a man of progressive ideas. For several years he has been a grower of strawberries, raspberries, plums, cherries, peaches and small fruits, now cultivating over ten acres, and has secured a lucrative sale for his fruits in Sharon, Youngstown, Niles and adjacent villages. The name Bushnell springs from an old Yankee family, our subject's parents both being natives of Connecticut, the father, Alexander Bushnell, was born in 1796. He married Martha Bailey, born in 1797. The parents were pioneers of this township. Mr. Bushnell's wife, Eliza, the daughter of George and Susan Varnes, was born in Hartford township, Nov. 22, 1833. Our subject was born June 21, 1834, and married Nov. 22, 1855. Of the three children born to this union two survive. In politics he is a strong advocate of the unlimited coinage of silver. His education was secured in the Hartford High School. His son, M. L. Bushnell, is a partner with im in the fruit business.

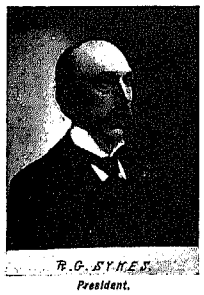

BUTTS, ADDISON E., farmer and stock raiser of Braceville township, and a member of the firm of J. R. & A. E. Butts, is a native of Lordstown township, having first saw the light there Aug. 2, 1851. Mr. Butts received his education in the schools of Newton Falls, then turned his attention to farming, making a specialty of fine horses, sheep and Scotch Collie dogs, the latter being of the very best breed. Mr. Butts has a genial wife, formerly Miss Edna A. Porter, to whom he was united Nov. 25, 1875, and four daughters, Ethel P., Alice M., Lillian E., and Alta E. Butts, have blessed this union. As a family they enjoy the esteem of the entire community and harmony reigns supreme in this household. The young ladies are receiving a good education and all are musically inclined. Mr. Butts is a staunch adherent of the Republican party and is held in high esteem by all who know him as a gentleman of sterling worth.

CALDWELL, FRANK E., is the present well-known sheriff of Trumbull county. Although he has held that office only since the 3rd day of January, 1898, he has already demonstrated that the trust reposed in him by the people will be fully and efficiently discharged. A native of the county, he was born in Bristol township, Aug. 18, 1851, and is the son of Jas. and Mary Caldwell. His education was acquired in the district schools and Cortland Academy, his parents having moved to Cortland when he was about fourteen years old. After about five years here they moved to West Mecca, and there our subject engaged in a general store with his father, continuing for two years. He next returned to Cortland and engaged in the same line for two years, when he went to Tuscarawas county, remaining a year, then came back to Trumbull county, and after his marriage again returned to Tuscarawas county and remained a year, after which he came to Warren and became deputy clerk of courts under his brother, O. A. Caldwell, where he remained about five years, then becoming deputy sheriff under Sheriff Hoyt and continuing in the same position four years under Sheriff McKinley. He then became bookkeeper for Kirk, Christy & Co. for two years, when he was one of the principal organizers of the Warren Hardware Company, of which he was secretary and treasurer four years, when poor health compelled him to resign this position. He was elected sheriff in the fall of 1897 and assumed the duties of that office Jan. 3, 1898. His wife was Miss Tillie Jeffery, a native of Mecca township. She is the daughter of William H. and Fannie S. Jeffery. To Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell two children have been born, Amy Blanch, Nov. 30, 1878, and Edwin Clare, May 19, 1881. Mr. C. is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M.; Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F.; Senior American Mechanics and Rebeccas. Also a member of the M. E. church and an active Republican.

CALDWELL, JAMES W., farmer and dairyman of Farmington, was born in Lordstown township, Jan. 5, 1849, being the ninth of ten children, one of whom, Hugh J., is now Judge Caldwell, of the circuit court in the Cleveland district. When our subject was nine years old, his parents moved to Farmington township, where he was brought up, attending the common schools and West Farmington Seminary. Feb. 18, 1869, he was married to Lydia H. Lewis. In 1875 they moved to Akron, where Mr. Caldwell was engaged in the piano and organ business for five years, returning to Mesopotamia, where they had previously lived for three years. Here they lived for ten years, then moving to their present home. Mr. Caldwell is an active Republican, and is now serving his second term as trustee of his township.

. . HISTORY . .

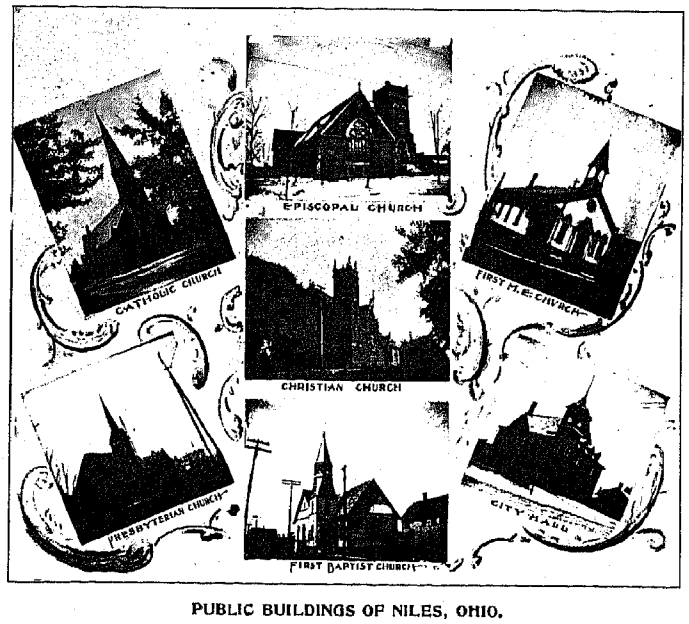

The Bryant, Stratton & Smith Business College, of Warren, O., was founded Nov. 15, 1897, by the proprietors of the College of the same name at Meadville, Pa., which was founded in 1865, by the famous trio of business educators whose name it bears.

The Warren College is a high-grade business school, complete in all departments, with experienced teachers and full curriculum. The terms are the lowest possible consistent with thorough work.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS OF NILES, OHIO.

CALDWELL, WILLIAM, was born of old pioneer stock in a log house in Liberty township, Nov. 30, 1820. His parents, Hugh and Jane Anderson Caldwell, came to America from Ireland immediately after their marriage and settled in Liberty township in 1803, where five sons and three daughters were born to them. Here our subject was born and raised and was married Oct. 19, 1843, to Miss Abigail Hickox, daughter of Chauncey and Susannah Scoville Hickox, born May 13, 1819. To this union six children have been born, David, born Sept. 13, 1844; Leverett, born May 23, 1846; Aurelia, born Aug. 18, 1849; William Wallace, born Feb. 1, 1853; Mary E., born Dec. 23, 1855; Eliza J., March 17, 1858, and John, Oct. 22, 1861. After their marriage they lived on the old Caldwell home for six years, when they moved to Southwest Vienna, where they resided until 1863. After a residence of two years in Mecca and six years in Bristol, he purchasel his present home in Champion. Here our subject engaged for twenty years in the manufacture of cheese, besides carrying on general farming. Mr. C. is a Republican and has taken an active part in the politics of his locality. Mr. C. and wife are members of the Methodist church. Their son, Wallace, now resides with his parents. He was married Sept. 19, 1882, to Amanda Orris, born March 31, 1863, in Mercer county, Pa. They have five children, whose births occurred in the order named: Frederick, Helen, Clarence, Charley and Florence.

CALHOUN, C. D., a native of Jackson township, Mahoning county, Ohio, was born July 9, 1872. He is the only son of A. C. and Amanda Cunningham Calhoun. In the fall of 1875 he came with his parents to Lordstown, Trumbull county, and was educated in the district schools of the township, and the Normal School at Canfield, in his native county. Mr. Calhoun is an ambitious and enterprising young man, teaching school winters and engaging in general farming during the summer. Mr. C. had one sister, who died in infancy, and another, Miss Mary Ettie, born July 26, 1875, who is still living. Mr. C. is a success in both of his callings and we predict for him a long and useful career.

CAMPBELL, GEORGE C., expert bookkeeper, recently in the employ of L. S. Cole & Co., Niles, O., is now the deputy treasurer of Trumbull county. He is a native of Niles, his birth occurring on a farm in that vicinity, Oct. 17, 1862. He is the son of Calvin S. and Eusebia Nelson McCombs Campbell, the former born in 1830, and the latter in 1833. He was educated in the Niles public schools, and acquired the science of bookkeeping by actual experience and the study of textbooks at home. He is a self-made man, and well deserves the reputation he has acquired as an expert in his line. Mrs. Cambpell was formerly Miss Amy F. Wilson, to whom he was married April 28, 1885. They have four children, three boys and one girl. Mr. Campbell is prominent as a lodge man, being past chancellor in the K. of P., a member of U. R., a past grand in the I. O. O. F., past commander in the K. O. T. M. and a member of the B. P. O. E. In politics he supports the present administration and assumed the duties of his present office, Jan. 1, 1899.

CAMP, ALBERT BENJAMIN, cashier of the First National Bank of Girard, and residing in Warren, was born in Mercer, Pa., Jan. 10, 1851. He was brought up and educated in Akron, O., to which place his parents moved when he was an infant. In 1870 he went to New York city, where he was employed in a railroad office for three years, when he returned to Akron and engaged in the mercantile business. Here he was married Dec. 31, 1874, to Miss Mae Y. Buckley. He removed to Warren in 1875, and has ever since been a prominent figure in the leading business interests of that place. For six years, dating from 1885, he was clerk of courts of Trumbull county, and during his term of office gave the best of satisfaction, retiring with credit second to none. Mr. Camp was the chief projector of the electric line between Warren and Niles, and is at present a member of the board of directors. In the spring of 1893 he organized the First National Bank, of which he has since been cashier. Our subject's family consists of two children, the eldest of whom is now in the army. Mr. C. is a member of numerous social orders, and owns one of the finest residences in Warren, a view of which appears on another page. He votes the Republican ticket, casting his first vote in New York for Grant.

CAMPBELL, ALEXANDER. Few men of Trumbull county, Ohio, have been more closely identified with her advancement or contributed more fully to her general welfare than the subject of this sketch. He is the son of Hugh and Jane Campbell and was born in Liberty township on the old Campbell homestead, Aug. 25, 1843. He receivel the advantages of a liberal education, attending the schools of Girard, Warren and Hiram College, equipping himself for the profession of teaching, which he commenced at the age of twenty years and successfully pursued for thirty years, three years of the time filling the position of superintendent of the Hubbard High School. He was eminently successful in his chosen profession, as is evinced by his teaching the home school sixteen years up to the time he was honored by county office. A life-long Republican, he has served in different capacities as a public officer. For several years he served on the board of education. In 1873 was a member of the board of trustees. In 1874 and 1875 he was mayor of Hubbard, and in 1896 he was elected a member of the board of county commissioners of Trumbull county, Ohio, assuming the duties of the office in September, 1896. He is a capable and efficient officer, proving the wisdom of his selection. Mr. Campbell married Caroline Veach, daughter of Benjamin and Louisa Bentley Veach. She was born in Hubbard township and attended Poland High School and Hubbard Academy. Six children have been born to this union, Charles, a farmer of Hubbard; Dudley, superintendent Church Hill schools; J. Clyde, assistant paymaster of Mahoning Valley Iron Mills; Roy and Blanch, at home; Lillie May, who died at the age of nineteen. The family are members of the M. E. church.

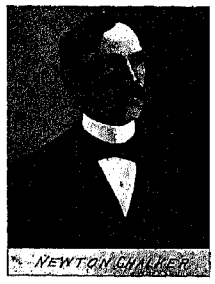

CAREY, CHARLES E., superintendent of the Warren city schools, is a native of Stanfordville, N. Y., where he was born Sept. 14, 1860. His parents were John and Julia Williams Schoonover, who died when our subject was three years old, leaving four boys. The father died in the army hospital at Louisville, Ky., and the mother died about three months after. The boys were each taken by a family whose name he took. The oldest brother is now deceased. The second one, R. S. Thomas, is now superintendent of schools at Akron, O., and C. T. Northrup is superintendent of schools at Garretsville, O. Mr. Carey made his home with his foster parents till the age of seventeen years, although after the age of twelve years he supported himself. He attended school winters and worked summers till the age of seventeen years, when he began teaching district schools, which he followed two years and then completed a course in the Casanovia, N. Y., Seminary. He later graduated from the Illinois Wesleyan University, and also did graduate work at the Chicago University. He did not attend school continuously, but during the time was principal of schools at Masonville, N. Y., two years. In 1885 he became superintendent of schools at Conneaut, O., where he remained until 1897, when he came to Warren. Mr. C. was united in marriage Feb. 13, 1885, to Elsie M., the daughter of Frederick and Electa Smith, of Masonville, N. Y. Her birth occurred April 20, 1859, and she was educated in Bainbridge Academy at Bainbridge, N. Y. Our subject is a member of the Masonic Lodge, a Knight Templar, and an active member of the Presbyterian church.

CASE, TIMOTHY W., one of the highly respected citizens of Warren city, is the son of Salmon and Mary Cadwell Case, the former born in Berkshire county, Mass., in 1798, and died in 1840, and the latter in Hartford county, Conn., in 1806, and died in 1887. They came to Ashtabula county about 1818. Our subject was born in Ashtabula, O., March 1, 1827. He attended the district school and when about seventeen years of age went to Conneaut, where he worked for a time on the "Reporter." Finding employment to pay his way, he attended the Conneaut Academy and later found employment in a general store at Andover and Conneaut till 1848, when he went to Brookfield, this county, and worked in a store and subsequently engaged in business for himself for about twenty years, when he sold out and went to Girard, engaging in a flouring and rollmill till 1873, when the panic of that time came on. He then paid every cent he owed, either legally or morally, and continued to reside there till 1877, when he was elected county treasurer, assuming the duties of that office in 1878 and serving four years. He was then deputy auditor for four years, and deputy treasurer nearly four years, since which time he has been unable to do clerical work owing to pen paralysis. His wife, to whom he was married Oct. 9, 1851, was Adah Z. Byers, a native of Sharon, Pa. She is the daughter of Ebenezer and Jane Byers, who were early pioneers of Brookfield township. Mr. and Mrs. Case have been active members of the M. E. church for years. He is a member of the Royal Arcanum and an ardent Republican.

CASE, H. H., owns one of the good homes and farms of Mecca township. He was born Oct. 8, 1856, on the farm adjoining the one he resides on, and where he is familiarly known. He acquired the education furnished by the common schools and since that time has devoted himself largely to farming. He served his township as trustee three years, being elected by the Republican party, of which he is a lifelong member. His father, Burt Case, was born in Connecticut, Feb. 25, 1827, and married Emma M. Holmes, who was born March 23, 1831, in the same state. The parents of Mrs. Case, Jerome G. and Hannah M. Gains, were Connecticut people. The daughter, Alida E., was born at Canton, Conn., Jan. 17, 1856, and married our subject Oct. 9, 1877. She was educated in the Simsburg, Conn., schools. The son, Floyd G., was born Jan. 20, 1890. Fraternally he is a member of Mecca I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 707, of which he is past grand, and Cortland F. & A. M. Lodge No. 529. He is one of the reliable and successful citizens of Mecca. Mr. and Mrs. Case are both members of Wealthy Rebeccah Lodge No. 278.

CASTERLINE, F. W., is the postmaster and general merchant of Bazetta. The establishment of this postoffice has proved a boon to the farming community of western Bazetta township. Like most of Bazetta township representative business men he is a Republican. He was born in this township July 9, 1853, and is the son of John H. and Mary Post Casterline. Both parents were born in the year 1818, the mother on Feb. 22 and the father April 18. He was united in marriage Feb. 9, 1875, to Dianna M. Everitt, who was born Sept. 7, 1857. Her parents were Nathan J. and Mary J. Cooley Everitt. Four children are living, the result of this union, John F., born April 1, 1876; Mary P., born Feb. 22, 1878; Guy S., born Sept. 4, 1881; Aurie M., born Dec. 17, 1886. In a business way as well as socially he is classed as one of Bazetta's best citizens.

CHARLES, EDWARD, merchant at Church Hill, is the proprietor of a flourishing business, with good store building, good residence, and a new barn 30x55 feet of modern plan. Besides this he owns other property in Church Hill. Our subject was born June 27, 1859, in South Wales and came with his parents to America in 1866, settling in Allegheny county, Pa. In 1877 the family moved to Church Hill, where Edward was employed in the mines till 1884, when he entered upon his present business. He was married to Miss Agnes Frew, Aug. 24, 1880, and to them have been born nine bright and promising children. Mr. C. is a member of the A. O. F. of A.; also of St. David's Society, of Youngstown; also paymaster of Mahoning Conclave No. 16, of Youngstown, O. Politically he is a Republican.

CHALKER, NEWTON. The history of the Chalker family in America, according to the best information now obtainable, reaches back to about the year 1640, when, according to an unauthenticated tradition, three brothers of that name emigrated from England and located in the then colony of Connecticut, where ever since that time people bearing that name have continued to reside. There are people of that name still residing in England. The history of the Chalker family in Ohio begins with the settlement in this state of James Chalker, the grandfather of the subject of this sketch, who in his youth emigrated from Saybrook, Conn., in the year 1805, bringing with him, by means of an ox team and wagon, his young wife, Mercy (Norton), an infant son, and all of his earthly possessions, which consisted only of an ax and a few household utensils. In the month of August of that year he purchased and moved upon a tract of woodland one-half mile west of the center of Southington, where, out of the dense forest, he carved for himself and family a home which he occupied continuously until his death in the year 1867, at the age of about ninety years; his wife preceding him by only a few years. In that home, which at first consisted of a small log hut and then a larger one and later a frame dwelling which still remains, that pioneer couple reared to manhood and womanhood a family of nine sons and four daughters, viz.: Orrin, Joseph, Edmond, James, Phoebe, Anna, Polly, Calvin, Daniel, Philander, Harrison, Allen and Mercy. All of whom, except Polly and Mercy who removed to Indiana, settled either in or near to Southington and reared families. Here in that early wilderness home, with neighbors few and far between, this couple and their large group of children braved and endured privations and hardships known only to pioneer life.

"All are scattered now and fled,
Some are married, some are dead,
And when I ask with throbs of pain,
Ah, when shall they all meet again,
As in the days long since gone by?
That ancient timepiece makes reply:
Never; Never."

James Chalker, Jr., the father of the subject of this sketch, was born in Southington, June 15, 1811. He received but a very limited education, having attended school but three winters in his whole life, and that was in a log school house one mile east of Southington Center. But by much reading in after years he became well informed in history and a thorough student of the Bible. During many years of his life he frequently engaged in public debate upon various religious and secular questions and was always regarded as a formidable antagonist in the forensic arena. Early in life he purchased, on credit, fifty acres of woodland located two miles west of Southington Center, where, like his father before him, with only an ax, a strong body and a resolute mind, he carved out of the forest a home for himself and family. From time to time he added to his first purchase and eventually became one of the largest land holders and one of the most thrifty farmers of his township. He first married Miss Eliza Jane Hyde, of Farmington. To them were born Benson, who died in childhood; Byron, who became a farmer and died in Southington at the age of fifty-two years; Newton, the subject of this sketch, and Columbus, who also was a farmer, but died at the age of twenty-seven. Mr. Chalker, having lost his first wife in the year 1849, married Miss Adeline Timmerman, of York State, in 1851. To them were born Mary Jane, subsequently the wife of A. J. Morris, of Southington, where she died at the age of thirty-six, and Bertha, now Mrs. Thomas McConnell, of Warren. Mr. Chalker was a Republican in politics, and he and both of his wives were members of the Methodist church. He departed this life Sept. 23, 1893, aged over eighty-two years.

Newton Chalker, the subject proper of this sketch, and whose portrait, at the age of fifty-five, appears at the head of this article, now resides in Akron, O., but was born in Southington, Trumbull county, Ohio, Sept. 12, 1842, the third son of James, Jr., and Eliza J. Chalker above referred to, and still retains property and business interests in said township. He remained on his father's farm most of the time until twenty years of age, attending the district schools of his neighborhood till fourteen years of age. At the latter age he began, and continued for six years, to attend at irregular intervals the Western Reserve Seminary at West Farmington, this county. At that school Mr. Chalker, without encouragment and without assistance, made his greatest efforts to obtain an education. At the age of sixteen he began teaching the winter terms of the district schools, teaching successively in the townships of Braceville, Southington, Parkman and Champion, in Ohio, and Litchfield, Mich. In the spring of 1862, he enlisted in Co. B, 87th Regiment, O. V. I., in our late war against disunion and slavery. He was in the battle of Harper's Ferry, Va., which began on the 12th and terminated on the 15th of September of that year. In that battle the Union forces were under command of Brigadier General Miles and numbered about 15,000. The Rebel forces were under command of General "Stonewall" Jackson and numbered two or three times as many. After three days' hard fighting the Union forces surrendered and 11,500 of them were taken prisoners, the remainder, who were cavalrymen, making their escape. These prisoners were soon paroled and sent North. Later in the same year, by reason of expiration of term of enlistment, this regiment was mustered out of service, and

Mr. Chalker returned to his home. In the spring of 1863 Mr. Chalked entered Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., and graduated therefrom in June, 1866, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and later Master of Arts. The year 1866-7 he was principal of Dixon Seminary, Dixon, Ill., and the following year he was superintendent of the public schools at Darlington, Wis. In September, 1868, he entered the Law School at Albany, N. Y., and graduated therefrom the following year, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Laws, and was admitted to practice at the bar of that state. After passing a few months in a law office in New York city he located, in the autumn of 1869, in Cameron, Mo., and there began the practice of his profession. He remained in Cameron nearly five years, but not realizing his expectations which he had entertained of the West, he returned in 1874 to Ohio, and on the 14th day of August of that year he located in Akron, where he resumed the practice of his profession and where he still resides. In addition to his profession Mr. Chalker has engaged in various branches of business. He owns and operates a farm in Southington; he was one of the founders and all of the time that he owned stock was one of the directors and a member of the advisory board of The People's Savings Bank of Akron; he was one of the founders and is still a stockholder of The Savings Bank, Barberton, O. He has also dealt quite extensively in real estate, his principal transactions in this line being the purchase of a tract of land within the city of Akron, allotting the same into residence lots and disposing of the same to individual purchasers; also the purchase of a tract of twenty-one acres in the north suburb of Akron, known as "North Hill," and allotting the same into about one hundred residence lots, many of which have already been sold. In the year 1893, Mr. Chalker practically retired from the practice of law and his other business and devoted several years thereafter to travel, visiting nearly every state and territory in the Union, also Canada and Mexico. In June, 1895, he started on a tour abroad and visited the chief places of interest in Ireland, Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Nubia, India, Birmah, Malay, China, Japan and the Sandwich Islands, making a complete tour around the world in one year. Mr. Chalker, although unmarried, owns and occupies a pleasant home. In politics he is a Republican, and is at present the commander of Buckley Post, Grand Army of the Republic, with headquarters at Akron.

CHAPMAN, FRANK S., was born July 13, 1852, in North Bristol, where his parents still live and where he was brought up and attended school. His father is John P. Chapman and his mother Fannie Perry Chapman. Dec. 28, 1875, he was married to Miss Etta Webb, and to this union were born two children, Ethel R. and Frank W. In 1874 our subject started a meat business in North Bristol, which he followed until 1893, when he moved to Warren, where, until 1896, he and Wm. Hahn were proprietors of a meat market near the Park Hotel. In January of the last named year he came to Bristolville and established his present meat business. In politics Mr Chapman is a Republican. He is popular with his fellow townsmen and has held various township offices, being at present president of the board of education in the Bristol S. S. district. He is a member of Mecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Trumbull Encampment No. 147, of Warren. He and his wife are members of the Mecca Lodge of Rebeccas and are members of the Disciple church. The hospitality of these worthy people is known far and wide and to know them is a pleasure.

CHAMBERLIN, J. N., the genial proprietor of the Allen House, at Newton Falls, O., was born March 17, 1874, at Woodstock, Champaign county, and received his education in the High School at Garrettsville. Mr. Chamberlin's wife was formerly Miss Minnie B. Allen, born Aug. 9, 1874, at Newton Falls. They were married Oct. 8, 1894. Before becoming proprietor of the Allen House, Mr. C. was for two years manager of the handle factory at Creston, which was owned by Hubbard & Co., of Pittsburg. In April, 1898, Mr. Chamberlin opened the Allen House, where he not only keeps a first-class hotel, but has a good livery in connection, with rates and accommodations well suited to the traveling public. In politics Mr. Chamberlin is a staunch Republican, and is also a member of the K. O. T. M., Grit Tent, of Creston, O.

CHAMBERLIN, F. K., is the son of William and A. O. King Chamberlin, who came from the Empire state to Howland township in the early history of Trumbull county, in which township the subject of this mention was born March 23, 1848. He was reared on the father's farm, the winter months being spent in the district school. He has devoted his entire life and energies to farming and has made it a thorough success. At present he is trustee of Bazetta township and has always voted with the Republican party. Austin and Abbie Kribby Rodgers are the parents of Abbie L. Rodgers, who was joined in marriage to the subject of this sketch April 16, 1873. They have four children living, Earl W., Ida M., Fra, Wade. Bert is deceased. Mr. C. has at all times been alive to the best interests and progress of the township and community in which his family resides.

CHINNOCK, C. J., farmer and stock raiser of Champion, was born in this township March 30, 1860. His parents, Thomas and Elizabeth Jewell Chinnock, were both born in Somersetshire, England. They came to this country in 1849. The mother still survives, the father having died Dec. 31, 1891. Our subject was educated in the common schools, and has since then taken special interest in farming and stock raising. He is now engaged in breeding Percheron horses, Holstein cattle, Cotswold sheep and Chester White hogs, and is the owner of the imported Percheron stallion, Feder, No. 9284 (15474). Sept. 20, 1882, he was married to Miss Lucy A. Park, who was born March 11, 1860, the daughter of James and Catherine Park. The father stil lives in Mecca township. The mother is deceased. They have four children, Bessie C., John J., Charles H. and Harty E., the two last named being twins. Mr. C. has been treasurer of his township and is now trustee. Fraternally he is a member of Lodge No. 707, I. O. O. F., of Mecca. Mr. and Mrs. C. are both members of the Disciple church. In politics he is a Republican.

CHRYST, SOLOMON. One of the most favorably known men of the county is the subject of this sketch. He came as a Christmas gift to his parents, Jacob and Lydia Regal Chryst, of Lehigh county, Pa., in the year 1833. In 1836 he came with his parents to Lordstown township, and it is of interest to note that a portion of his school days were spent at Hiram College where he was instructed in mathematics by our late President Garfield. Mr. Chryst has been a practical business man from his youth, having begun to buy stock at the age of sixteen, which he has followed more or less ever since. He is the owner of an excellent stock and grazing farm of 400 acres in Lordstown, one of the best in the county. In 1868 he went to Warren city, where he resided some twenty years, dealing in groceries, meats and general supplies, and returning to the farm in 1887. Our subject has been twice married; first on May 24, 1855, to Miss Elizabeth Johnson, by whom he had three children—Chas. C., manager of the Park Hotel, Warren, O.; Frank S., attorney at the same place, and Blanch E., now deceased. Mrs. Chryst died April 1, 1882. In December, 1886, he was married to Miss Emm. Jane Gifford, a native of Somersetshire, England, who was born in October, 1855. Two children have blessed this union, May Elizabeth and Solomon R., Jr. Mr. Chryst cast his first vote for Fremont and has ever been a firm believer in protection. He has the confidence of his fellow men, is free and liberal with his means and has held many positions of public trust, being at present township trustee and a member of the board of education.

CHRYST, CHARLES C., the able and popular manager of the Park Hotel, was born in Weathersfield township, Sept. 12, 1856. He is the son of Solomon R. Chryst, whose sketch appears in this work. Mr. Chryst took a course in Hiram College and also in Bryant & Stratton Business College, Meadville, Pa. At the age of nineteen he was engaged in the meat and grocery business at Warren, the firm being Fiester & Chryst. At the end of three years he returned to the farm in Lordstown and for two years engaged in farming. He then engaged in the meat, fish and oyster business in Warren, the firm name being S. R. Chryst & Son. He again returned to the farm and again in 1889 engaged in the meat and fish business in Warren, under the firm name of Young & Chryst, which was continued until 1893, when Mr. Chryst became one of the promoters and incorporators of the Park Hotel & Cold Storage Co., which was incorporated June 20, 1893, with Wm. R. Stiles, president; H. J. Barnes, vice president; R. A. Cobb, secretary and treasurer, and a capital of $75,000. Mr. Chryst is manager of the Park Hotel and one of the principal stockholders. He also owns a fine farm in Lordstown township. He is a member of Independence Lodge, K. of P., and B. P. O. E. No. 295. He is also an active member and secretary of the G. R. W. L. He is a genial and courteous gentleman and one who has many friends.

CHRYST, FRANK S. A leading and well-known attorney at law of Warren, O., and the present city solicitor, is a native of Trumbull county, having been born in Lordstown township, May 28, 1859. He is the son of Solomon R. Chryst, whose sketch appears elsewhere in this work. The education of our subject was begun in the common schools. In 1875 he entered Allegheny College, from which he graduated in June, 1880. He soon after entered the law office of L. C. Jones and Hon. T. I. Gillmer, where he studied law and was admitted to the bar in June, 1882. In 1895 he was elected city solictor of Warren and was re-elected to a secon term in 1897. His practice is devoted more to questions of corporation law and the management of trusts and estates than to practice in the courts. He is one of the leading members of the Trumbull county bar and one whose judgment on legal questions is counted very good. He was joined, April 15, 1886, in marriage to Miss Annie L. Millar. She is a native of South Bloomfield, Pickaway county, Ohio, and is the daughter of Isaac and Sarah Millar. Her education was acquired in Lake Erie Seminary, Painesville, O. Mr. and Mrs. Chryst are the parents of two children, Blanche E., aged eleven years, and Sarah M., aged eight years. Fraternally, Mr. Chryst is a member of the I. O. O. F., Masons and B. P. O. E.

CLARK, ALMON H. The subject of this sketch was born in North Bloomfield, Aug. 25, 1839. His father was the first white child born in Burton township, where his grandfather was sent in 1798 to open a gristmill, the first in that part of the country. Our subject's parents moved to Farmington when he was about a year old, and he was brought up on a farm, attending district school. In June, 1863, he enlisted in Co. G, 86th O. V. I., serving till 1864. In 1866 he began to deal in live stock, in which business he continued for thirty years. Nov. 4, 1868, he was married to Ermina Evans, of Farmington. Two children, Louise C. and Wayne A., were born to this union. Mr. Clark is a member of Parkman Lodge, F. & A. M., and of Hall Post, G. A. R. He is a Republican and has been trustee and real estate assessor of his township. He is also a director of the Farmers Banking Company, of West Farmington, of which he was elected president at it sorganization in 1898.

CLARK, BURTON E., is a well known and popular druggist of Warren O., and was born in that city Aug. 27, 1865. He is the son of Sperry C. and Abigail E. Clark, the former a native of Vienna township and the latter of Bristol township. When our subject was two years old his parents moved to Bristol township, where he resided and attended the graded schools. At the age of fifteen he entered the drug store of his uncle, H. B. Satterlee, at Orwell, O., where he remained three years, and then he and his father purchased a drug store in Cortland, which he conducted for three years. In 1887 he accepted a position with Strong, Cobb & Co., wholesale druggists of Cleveland, and was on the road for them one year, then three years for the Cleveland Drug Co., then three years for the Goodyear Rubber Co., of New York, and then till 1897 for the American Rubber Co., of Chicago. Mr. Clark then settled in Warren and opend up his present store at 39 East Market street, where he carries a general line of drugs, perfumeries, toilet articles, etc., making a specialtiy of compounding prescriptions. This department is under Mr. Clark's personal charge and his being a registered pharmacist, with seventeen years' experience in the drug business, can guarantee exact work in this line. He was united in the bonds of marriage Oct. 6, 1886, to Candace E., the daughter of Moses C. and Elvila Post. She is a native of Cortland and was educated in the schools of that village. The following children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark: Arline (deceased), Lalie and Marie. Mr. C. is a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the K. O. T. M. He is one of the genial and popular young business men of Warren and is deserving of the good success he enjoys.

CLARK, LAU L., grocer at No. 144 Atlantic street, Warren, is a dealer in all kinds of staple and fancy groceries, canned goods, vegetables and everything else that is usually kept in an up-to-date grocery. Goods are delivered to all parts of the city promptly and quickly. Mr. Clark was born in Mecca township Nov. 6, 1862. He is the son of Gilbert and Sarah Bowers Clark, the former born in Vienna township July 9, 1835, and the latter in Bristol township Feb. 2, 1835. His education was acquired in the common schools of his native township. Mr. Clark was united in marriage to Miss Maggie Vesy April 2, 1891. She is a native of Champion township, and is the daughter of John and Esther Vesy. Mrs. Clark was born April 9, 1862. Mr. and Mrs. C. are the parents of one daughter, Pauline, born April 9, 1895. Mrs. C. is a member of the M. E. church of Warren. Our subject has a well-filled grocery and is having a good trade. He spares no effort to please his customers and give them value received. He is an energetic business man and by fair and honorable dealing has earned his present prosperity and good standing as a business man and citizen.

CLARK, FRANK E., was born in Brookfield township March 25, 1857. He is the son of Alvia and Mary McClurg Clark. He married Aurie D. Foote, the daughter of Asa and Mary Dickinson Foote. Mrs. Clark was born Sept. 27, 1857, and they were married Feb. 5, 1879. Their children, M. Blanch and Ward E., are both living. Mr. Clark has filled different positions of honor and trust. He is now president of the school board and has been trustee of the township. Besides stock raising and dairy farming he owns and successfully operates a saw-mill, buys timber and sells lumber. Also, he owns an interest in a threshing machine. His well improved farm is adorned by neat and modern farm buildings, the appearance of the home and farm indicating the abode of a thrifty and successful family. Mr. Clark is a republican and does not miss an opportunity to express his choice at the ballot box.

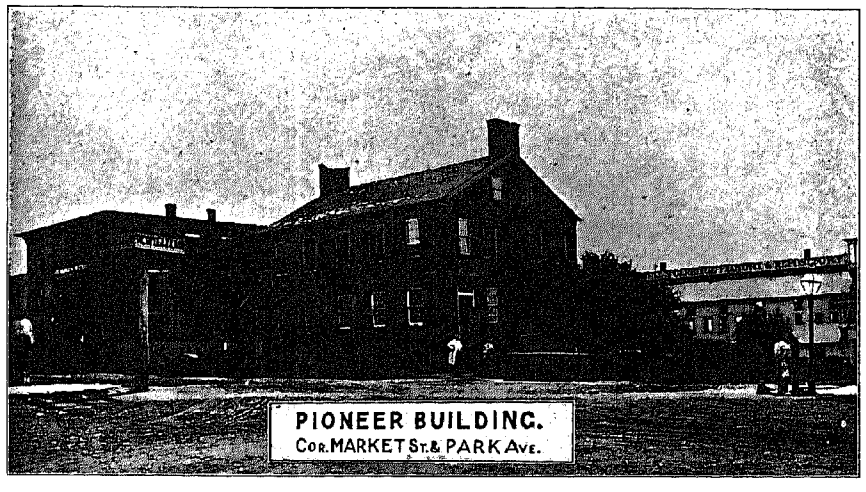

CLAWSON, C. C., of the firm of C. C. Clawson & Company, Warren, O. This firm is one of the largest in its line in Trumbull county and carries a full and well-selected stock of dry goods, cloaks, millinery and all other goods incident to this line of trade. This firm has built up a large trade and is deservedly popular with its customers, for Mr. Clawson has by honesty and fair dealing demonstrated to the public that they will receive right treatment at this store. Mr. C. was born in Mercer county, Pa., in 1849. His education was acquired in the common schools and one year at Hiram College. When nineteen years of age he began clerking in a general store at Fowler Center and after three years he entered the employ of the U. S. Express Co. at Titusville Pa., and remained three years, when he began business for himself at Jackson Center, Pa., continuing till 1875, when he went to Cortland and remained till 1883, when he came to Warren and established his present business, where he has since remained. In 1890 his sister, Mrs. L. A. Silliman, of Ashtabula, became interested in the business and still continues a partner. In 1872 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary R. Silliman, and to them have been born three children, viz., William H., Maud B. and Carrie M., all residing at home. Mr. Clawson is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., member of the M. E. Church, and till 1898 was superintendent of the M. E. Sunday School for eight years. He isalso a director in the Citizens' Savings Bank.

CLINE & HOLTON, are well known as leading and up-to-date Furniture dealers and Undertakers, of Niles, Ohio. This business was begun in 1876 by L. S. Cline and he continued it in his own name till 1889, when he sold a half interest to Mr. Holton, and since then the business has been conducted under the above name. They carry a full stock of all goods in their line. Their styles and prices are always right and in accordance with the times. Their customers are always sure of reasonable prices and courteous treatment.

Lyman S. Cline was born March 2, 1846, in Bristol, where he received his education. April 18, 1876, he was married to Sarah J. Elliott; and to this union was born one son, who died in infancy. Mr. Cline has been engaged in the Furniture and Undertaking business since 1876, and has charge of the undertaking. He has conducted the funerals of Mrs. Levina Mc-

Connell, aged 102 years; Milo McCombs, who weighed at death 430 pounds; Councilman E. S. Williams, Postmaster J. H. Hunter, Jno. Carter, J. R. Thomas, Mrs. Hannah Allison, aunt of President McKinley, who was present at the obsequies; and many other prominent citizens. Mr. Cline's methods of conducting funerals have been adopted by those younger in the business in the city. The firm of which he is leading member has always enjoyed an excellent trade, which it justly merits. He is Past Grand Odd Fellow, Master Mason, K. of P., K. O. T. M., and P. H. C., and is one of Niles' sterling citizens.

C. R. Holeton is the son of R. S. and Mary Miller Holeton. He was educated in Poland, Ohio. May 26, 1862, he enlisted, serving till near the end of the war. Sept. 20, 1880, Mr. Holeton was married to Miss Clara Hardman; born Jan. 23, 1859, daughter of Michael and Clara Hardman, and to them have been born six children; five of them are living. He belongs to the orders of Masons and Foresters, also to the G. A. R. He supports the present administration, being an active member of the Republican party.

CLINGAN, T. O., Physician and Surgeon, of Niles. Dr. Clingan was born Jan. 23, 1856, in Coitsville, Ohio, and came to Niles in 1885. His father was Edward Meridith Clingan, born in 1824, and his mother, Elizabeth Clingan, was born the same year. He was educated for the medical profession in the Cleveland Homeopathic Hospital College, graduating in 1884. Previous to this, in 1880, he completed his classical course, in the Westminister College, New Wilmington, Pa. Dr. Clingan is an able physician and a skillful surgeon and has a wide and lucrative practice in and about Niles. Our subject was married to Miss Margretta Thomas in September, 1888, the daughter of John R. and Margaret Thomas, born in Youngstown in 1868, and educated at Mount Union College. They have a family consisting of one son and two daughters; John Reese, Margaret, and Elizabeth, all promising children. He is a member of Odd Fellows, Elks, Protected Home Circle and Royal Arcanum. In politics he is a republican.

COLE, ALBERT S., one of the large land owners and prosperous young farmers and dairymen of Kinsman township, the place of his nativity, was born March , 1856. He is the son of Harmon and Savilla Cole. The father was born Aug. 5, 1826, and the mother Aug. 24, 1827. Albert S. Cole, the subject of this sketch, received his education in the public schools of his native place. He has recently erected on his farm a commodious and modern brick house, and one of the best farm residences in Trumbull county, Ohio. Our subject married Ina S. Smith, daughter of William L. and Elvira S. Smith. She was born in Williamsfield, Ohio, Feb. 18, 1857, and they were married Sept. 25, 1878. He is a republican. He is one of the leading farmers of his township and is recognized as a solid citizen and a business man of ability.

COMBS, JOHN, is a descendant of English stock and himself a native of England, where he was born in Somersetshire Nov. 25, 1845. His father, Henry, was born in November, 1816, and his mother, Deborah Hayes Combs, Dec. 27, 1821. They, with four children, Ann, John (our subject), Samuel, and Emma, came to America in 1852, and settled in Mesopotamia. They had not many of this world's goods but by industry and thrift they have prospered from the first. After coming to America eight children were born to them, Deborah, Edna, Martha, Hettie, and Minnie. Mrs. Combs is still living and keeps house for her son, John. Henry, the father, served over a year in the 6th Ohio Cavalry; Samuel was in the 179th O. V. I., serving nearly a year; John enlisted in Co. G., O. V. I., and after serving six months re-enlisted in Co. B., 23rd O. V. I., of which President McKinley was Major and ex-President Hayes, Colonel. He served until the end of the war and was mustered out at Cleveland.

CONE, ERASTUS B., is one of the few surviving pioneers who has braved the hardships and vicissitudes attendant upon the development and opening of a new county to civilization. He was born in Gustavus township May 13, 1812; the father, Calvin Cone, born Feb. 29, 1768, married Mary Bushnell, born Oct. 18, 1775. The subject of this mention married, Nov. 8, 1837, Candace A. Green, born in Bloomfield township, Nov. 14, 1818, the daughter of Cyril and Polly Green. He has always believed in the principles of republicanism, and is one of the substantial citizens of Hartford township.

COOK, AMOS M., whose well-improved farm and comfortable home is located in Brookfield township, is ranked with the representative agriculturalists of Trumbull county, Ohio. Amos M. Cook was born in Brookfield, Ohio, November 18, 1858, on the farm where he now resides. His father, Nicholas Cook, married Sarah Hood. The senior Cook died April 8th, 1886, in his 57th year, and his wife Feb. 17, 1883, in her 53rd year. Our subject is engaged in general farming and has made his life vocation a constant success. He has always affiliated with the democratic party. Hattie E., the daughter of Jacob L. and Mary A. Heintzelman, was united in marriage to Mr. Cook June 4, 1885. She was born Nov. 22, 1862. Both their children are living, Carrie E., born June 18, 1889, and Edward N., Sept. 1, 1898. He is a man in the prime of life, genial and frank by nature, and few men in Trumbull county who till the soil have before them a brighter future.

COREY, JAMES M., farmer, of Champion township, was born Jan. 23, 1838, in a log house on the farm where his present home now stands. He was brought up and educated here and at the age of thirty-three was married to Miss Sarah Iry, a native of Jackson township, Mahoning county. With the exception of six years, from 1879 to 1885, spent in Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Corey have resided on their present place. Their only child, Amos I. Corey, born in 1875, lives with his parents and conducts the farm of 180 acres as well as a small place of 18 acres belonging to himself. All about the farm gives evidence of the nicety with which the work is carried on and betokens thrift and prosperity.

COWDERY, NELSON A., is truly a representative citizen, who has grown up with Cortland village and Bazetta township, now being recorded as one of the pioneers. Mr. Cowdery was born in Hartland, Conn., May 6, 1826. The same year his parents, Almond and Mary Norton Cowdery, emigrated to the Connecticut Western Reserve, and settled in Mecca township. Our subject has occupied various offices of honor and trust. He is at the present time Mayor of Cortland and President of the First National Bank. From 1872 to 1878 he filled the office of County Commissioner. It is needless to state that his incumbency of these offices has been marked by the same painstaking attention to the duties of the positions as has ever been shown in the conduct of his personal affairs. He has spent an active life in the business of farming, stock raising and fruit growing. Since the birth of the republican party he has ever advocated its principles, as also the principles of temperance and reform.

He married, Oct. 10, 1846, Flora P. Beach, the daughter of Ezekiel and Mercy Beach, of Vernon township. To this union the following children have been born: Pluma M., wife of Harvey Mahannah; Albert L., Lillie A., deceased; Rufus N., and Almond B. Mr. Cowdery is an elder in the Christian church. In his life we surely have an example of a life well spent which could with profit be followed by the younger generations.

COWDERY, J. N., Attorney-at-Law, of Niles, Ohio. William Coudroy was of French-Hugenot descent and came to this country in 1630, with George Winthrop of Massachussetts, where Mr. C. became the first town clerk of Lynn, Mass. The spelling of the name in later generations became changed to the present form. Ambrose Cowdery, who was born in Hartland, Conn., was married to Dencie Coe and moved to Mecca township, where he bought 640 acres of land, a part of which is the old homestead owned by the late Wm. W. Cowdery. Ambrose Cowdery for twenty years was a justice of the peace in Mecca township and an elder in the Presbyterian church. William W. was born in Mecca in October, 1820, and lived there all his life. He was married to Mary A., daughter of Almond and Polly Norton Cowdery. Mr. C. was an old line Whig, but later became an ardent republican. He was a member of the F. & A. M. and a highly respected citizen. His death occurred Jan. 31, 1898, his wife having passed from earth in November, 1896. Mr. and Mrs. C. were the parents of four children, as follows: Julius N., our subject; Mary A., the wife of T. D. Millikin; Jeffrey H., and Geo. W., all of whom are living. J. N. Cowdery was born in Mecca township Jan. 28, 1841. He graduated from Western Reserve College, now Adelbert College, and afterward took a course in the law department of the Michigan University. He afterward studied law with Tuttle & Stull, at Warren, and began practicing at Hubbard in 1868, removing to Niles in 1871, where he has since remained. He was married June 23, 1873, to Miss Helen Marvin, born in Bazetta township in August, 1854. She is the daughter of William and Aurelia Marvin. Mr. and Mrs. C. are the parents of four children, Eva A., deceased; Franklin R., Julia and Helen M. Mr. C. is an able attorney, a good citizen, and a supporter of all worthy enterprises.

CRAIG, SAMUEL BAXTER. Attorney-at-law, was born on a farm in Eagle Creek settlement, Braceville township, Oct. 2, 1844. Samuel Craig, father of S. B., was born near Belfast, County Monaghan, Ireland, in 1811, and came to this country about 1837 and settled on the farm where our subject was born. He died July 8, 1886. Margaret R. Darling, mother of our subject, was a native of York State. She was born in 1823 and died April 15, 1891. S. B. Craig attended the district schools, two terms in Warren High School, and then attended the Western Reserve Seminary for six terms, teaching several terms of school in the meantime. In 1871 he graduated from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. Soon after this he began the study of law in the office of Hutchins, Glidden & Stull, later Hutchins, Tuttle & Stull. He was admitted to the bar in 1873 and began practice the same year. In 1890 he was elected to the office of Probate Judge, beginning his duties as Judge in February, 1891, and serving until 1897. He has also served on the board of education of Warren City, and as township clerk. Mr. Craig was married Oct. 14, 1874, to Mary Ellen, daughter of James and Lovina Covert Forbis. She was born near Edenburg, Pa., July 14, 1852. To this union four children have been born, as follows. Alice B., Oct. 5, 1876; Ella F., March 7, 1878, Eugene F., Dec. 30, 1881, and William B., April 27, 1890. In a fraternal way our subject is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., of which he is Past Grand; Warren Council No. 4, American Mechanics; Western Reserve Council No. 386, Royal Arcanum. He and wife are members of the M. E. church. Mr. Craig has a fine office in the court house and he is considered one of the leading attorneys and business men of the county.

CRAIG, BENJAMIN F., County Commissioner, and a well-known citizen of Warren, is a native of Braceville township, where he was born Aug. 24, 1846. His father, Samuel, was born in 1811, near Belfast, County Monagahan, Ireland, and came to this county about 1837. His mother, Margaret R. Darling, was born in 1823, near Lake Ontario, in the State of New York. Our subject was educated in the Braceville schools and Western Reserve Seminary. He learned the stone cutter's trade and for about twelve years worked at his trade summers and taught school winters. In 1878 he moved to Warren and for some years engaged in contracting and building stone work. Later he has dealt in real estate. He has been a member of the Warren City school board since 1894. In 1897 he was elected to the office of County Commissioner and assumed the duties of that office in September, 1898. He was married Nov. 7, 1872, to Mary Craig, daughter of Thomas and Mary Pew Craig. Mr. Craig is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., Warren Council No. 4, American Mechanics, and a staunch supporter of republican principles. He and wife are members of the M. E. church and of Morning Light chapter, Order Eastern Stars. Mr. C. is a highly respected citizen and business man.

CRAIG, JOHN H. Foremost among the educators of Braceville is our subject, Mr. John H. Craig, superintendent of Bristolville Public Schools. He was reared on a farm and began his education in the district schools. Later he attended Hartford Academy and graduated from the New Lyme Institute in 1891. He at once accepted the position in the Bristolville schools, which he now holds. Mr. C. is of Scotch-Dutch descent, thus uniting the sterling qualities of sincerity and perseverance that are characteristic of these nationalities. Miss Anna B. Norton, one of Bristolville's most successful teachers, became his wife June 19, 1895. Both Mr. and Mrs. Craig are active church workers. Mr. C. is also a member of Cortland Lodge No. 318, K. of P.

CRAM, W. A., familiarly known to his many friends as Archer Cram, is the genial and prosperous merchant of Johnsonville. He supplies the many needs of the farming community, carrying in stock a full and up-to-date line of general merchandise. Since becoming owner of this store, Dec. 1, 1886, his business has prospered, the best index to the ability and success of a merchant. He is serving Johnston township as treasurer and has been the P. M. for several years. His wife, Lizzie, the daughter of Thomas and Tamor Clark Millikin, was born in this township July 4, 1860, and they were married Oct. 3, 1883. Three of their four children are living, Charles N., Alton A., and Horace H. Harry H. is deceased.

Mr. Cram is a member of Cortland Lodge No. 554, I. O. O. F. He is a republican from principle. Prior to his purchasing the present business our subject engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now owns one of Johnston township's good farms. That he is popular with the trading people is shown by the large patronage enjoyed.

CROOKS, C. F., was born on the farm where he now resides, May 26, 1856, and is the son of Sheldon W. and Margaret Chatley Crooks. Our subject received the opportunity of a liberal education, attending the graded schools of Cortland, the Warren High School, and a few months at Hiram College. He has devoted his energies to mixed and dairy farming, and is recognized as a progressive citizen. They are active members of the Disciple church and Sunday School, to which they give liberally of their time and means. Formerly he was township trustee, and has filled different positions of trust. Politically he is a republican. Socially he is Past Grand of Cortland I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 554.

His wife, Formerly Lucy B. Seeman, was born in Millidgeville, Pa., Oct. 1, 1861, and is the daughter of Martin and Sarah A. Reynolds Seeman. They were married Jan. 26, 1881, and have four children, in order of birth as named: Martin E., Ethel C., Neva J., Mildred B. He is public spirited and takes an interest in all that tends to elevate the community in which they live.

CROWE, M. J., is one of the active, wide-awake busines men of Niles. For the past nine years he has been engaged in the wholesale and retail liquor business, with bottling works in connection, at Niles, Ohio. By strict attention to business he has built up a large trade. He handles all goods incident to the trade, making a specialty of the best and most popular brands. Mr. Crowe was born in Ireland thirty-nine years ago and was educated in the common schools, coming to Niles in 1872.

CUNNICK, William, of the Falcon Iron and Tin Plate Co., of Niles, was born April 29, 1864, in that place. Here he was also educated, and taught for seven years in the public schools of Niles. Our subject is the son of Edward and Martha Howells Cunnick. The former born in Wales, June 28, 1841, came to America in January, 1857. The latter was born April 23, 1845, and passed from this life Jan. 1, 1898. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Cunnick was married Jan. 8, 1891, to Miss Hannah Evans, born Oct. 15, 1864, at Niles, and to this union have been born three children; Wm. R., born April 13, 1892; Miriam, born March 7, 1894, and Lawrence E., born May 11, 1896. Mrs. C. is the daughter of John E. and Ann Evans, and was educated at the Niles High School and at Mount Union College. Mr. C. is a member of F. & A. M. Mahoning Lodge, Warren Chapter No. 66, and Warren Commandery Knight Templars. He votes the republican ticket, and is honored by his fellow citizens as a man of keen insight in all business affairs. Mr. and Mrs. C. are both members of the Presbyterian church.

CURRIE, JAMES R. The above named gentleman was born in Fowler, April 12, 1860. He was the second son of James Currie, who emigrated from Lanarkshire, Scotland, in 1848, and settled in Fowler, Trumbull county, in 1855. As a family they are practical and enterprising in business, and honest and fair in dealing with their fellow man. Socially they possess the esteem of their acquaintances.

CURTISS, NELSON. Farmer and dairyman of Farmington. The subject of this sketch, one of the hustling, active, reliable citizens of the township, was born Sept. 5, 1852, on the farm where he now lives. His grandparents came to Ohio in 1808, and to Farmington in 1827, where his mother, said to be the second white child born in the township, was born May 11, 1811. Our subject received his education in the township, and in 1873 began the active management of the farm. Jan. 16, 1873, he was married to Victoria M. Symes, who died in 1875, leaving a little daughter. May 1, 1877, Mr. Curtiss was again married, to Nettie Lord, of Wisconsin; and to this union were born five children.

Our subject's farm of 114 acres, southwest of Farmington, is one of the best. In politics he is a republican and at present a member of the board of education.

DAUGHERTY, JAMES, has been a resident of Warren since coming here with his parents about 1853. He was born at Dunkirk, N. Y., July 22, 1852. His parents were Patrick and Jane King Daugherty, both natives of Ireland, but emigrated to Canada where they were married and then settled at Dunkirk, N. Y., coming from there to Girard and finally settling at Warren about 1853. In 1874, Jan. 15, our subject was united in the bonds of matrimony to Lizzie, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Broadey Crowe, the father born Feb. 2, 1820, at Peel, Isle of Man, and died at Youngstown, Ohio, July 29, 1863, and the mother, born June 3, 1823, at Chester, England, and died at Warren Aug. 22, 1891. Mrs. Daugherty was born in Cleveland Oct. 11, 1853, and died in Warren May 20, 1891. Mr. D. was married a second time to Jane Crowe, sister of his first wife. She was born in Cleveland, March 11, 1851, and married to our subject Dec. 6, 1885. Mr. Daugherty is the father of seven children, as follows: Harry B., born April 8, 1875, Vernie C., born Aug. 12, 1877, Myrtle C., born June 26, 1880, Minnie M., born Sept. 22, 1882, Arthur J., born April 27, 1885, and died Sept. 14, 1885, Martin A., born March 9, 1890, and died June 24, 1894, and James E., born April 6, 1892. Our subject has always been one of the most highly respected citizens of Warren and has a host of good friends. In politics he is a supporter of republicanism.

DAUGHERTY, MARTIN A., Warren, Ohio, partner and manager of the firm of Masters Brothers & Company, of Leavittsburg, Ohio. This firm conducts a general merchandise, coal, grain, flour, feed and general commission business and is a prosperous and reliable company. For a number of years this firm has done a large business as jobbers in poultry and country produce and the fact that their trade has steadily increased is convincing proof that their customers have received fair and courteous treatment. Much of the present success of the business is due to the able management of Mr. Daugherty.

DAUGHERTY, GEORGE, foreman of the Warren Gas Light Works, was born in Warren Dec. 6, 1860, receiving his education in the Warren schools. He has been in the employ of the Gas Light Co. for the past twelve years, prior to which time he was with the Aetna Machine Co. one year and the Erie R. R. Co. eight years. October 14, 1880, Mr. Daugherty was married to Mary A. Crow, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Crow. She was born Dec. 11, 1861. Six children bless this union; Edwin C., Frank H., Mable A., Charles Albert, Henry Leroy, and Hazel Gertrude. Mr. D. is a republican and active in working for the interests of that party, though he is neither an officeholders nor seeker. Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty have a good home on West Summit street and enjoy the society of a wide circle of friends.

DAVIS, AARON. None of the early pioneers of Trumbull county are more favorably known than the subject of this sketch. He was the son of Wm. and Annie Loose Lavis, who emigrated to this country from Washington, Co., Pa., in 1811. Our subject was born in that county April 23, 1809, came to Bazetta township, this country, with his parents and after nearly eighty-six years of earthly life, he laid down the burdens of mortality, March 6, 1895. He was the second of a family of thirteen children. Aaron Davis was married April 13, 1832, to Elvira C. Knox. She was a descendant of Col. Knox of Revolutionary fame, and was born in Hampton, Mass., Nov. 13, 1811. She passed from this life March 25, 1848. For his senecond wife Mr. Davis was joined in marriage to Mary Johnston, Aug. 27, 1848. She was born March 24, 1824, in Connecticut and died Nov. 6, 1883. For over sixty years Mr. D. was an elder in the Disciple church and one of its strongest and most conscientious members. He served his county ably for two terms as county commissioner, being nominated the first time without being at the convention or even knownig that his name was to be presented. He was a member of the first board of trustees of Hiram college, serving for fifteen years, and also a member of the committee who purchased the ground where that institution now stands. During his first term of service on the board of trustees, he had great influence toward the upbuilding of that institution to its present high standing. As a citizen and a neighbor Mr. Davis was one of the men who made the world better for his having lived.

DAVIS, BYRON. In the records of the county we frequently find the name of Davis, this family being among the early pioneers of Bazetta township, in which our subject was born in January, 1838, the son of Aaron Davis, whose sketch appears above. His early education was acquired in the common schools, and after attending the Academy at Cortland for a time he entered Hiram college, then known as the Eclectic Institute, where he remained two years. He then engaged in the profession of teaching for six years, in which he was very successful. He is now engaged in general farming and for some time has resided in Cortland. To the union of Calvin Smith and Mariah Meacham, was born Sept. 11, 1839, Lovisa M. Smith, the wife of our subject. The date of their marriage being April 19, 1862. Two children are the result of this union, Gager C., born Aug. 8, 1863, and Flora M., born Nov. 6, 1867. The latter died April 20, 1887. The father of Mrs. Davis was born in Vernon township, Oct. 30, 1813, and the mother Dec. 26, 1811. After farming for a few years, teaching school very successfully during the winters, Mr. Smith manifested a desire for the ministry and in later life became a power as a pioneer minister in the Disciple church. He became familiarly known all over northeast Ohio. During his services as a minister he immersed over fifteen hundred persons. Few of the early pioneer ministers exerted as much influence as he. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are earnest members of the Christian church.

DAVIS, B. A., is a successful and enterprising agriculturist of Bazetta township, where he was born Aug. 12, 1856. His father, Aaron Davis, was born April 23, 1809, and was one of the pioneers who witnessed and participated in the converting of this township from an almost unbroken wilderness to its present prosperous condition. He attained to a ripe old age, possessed with that satisfaction which is the accompaniament of an honorable and well-spent life. His first wife was Elvira C. Knox, who was born in Hampton, Mass., Nov. 13, 1811. Married to Mr. Davis Sept. 13, 1832, and died March 25, 1848. His second wife, and the mother of our subject, was Mary Johnston, born in Connecticut March 4, 1824. She departed this life Nov. 6, 1883. She was a descendant of the original owner of Johnston township, and was married to Aaron Davis Aug. 27, 1848. After attending the graded schools of Cortland, our subject has devoted his entire attention to mixed farming, in which he has been successful. George and Mary J. Downing Olin, gave their daughter Jennie, who was born Oct. 22, 1857, the benefits of a liberal education. After attending Buchtel College, Akron, Ohio, she taught several years. She was united in marriage to our subject Oct. 5, 1880. Their children are mentioned in order of birth: Ransom W., Aug. 9, 1883; Jessia A., March 30, 1888; Carol O., Aug. 19, 1889. All are living.

DAVIS, WILLIAM, deceased, was one of the best known farmers, stock-raisers, and stock dealers in Trumbull county, for years. At the time of his death he was one of the largest land owners in the county. The major portion of this valuable estate he accumulated by industry, perseverence, and eminent business ability. He was one of the directors and organizers of The First National Bank of Cortland, O., of which institution he was vice president at the time of his death. His parents were William and Ann Luce Davis, who were of the first pioneers of Bazetta township, where our subject was born April 26, 1825. His education was limited to the common schools. In early life on old-line Whig, the transition to Lincoln's party was natural. He married Feb. 22, 1855, Olive Deming, born Nov. 2, 1833, in Johnston township. Her parents were Buel and Sarah Johnson Deming. The wife and three children survive. Sarah E., born March 3, 1856; Frank K., born July 10, 1860; Walter L., born Sept. 2, 1862.

DAVIS, WALTER L., the youngest child of the late William Davis, was born on the old homestead Sept. 2, 1862. He is one of the substantial and energetic young farmers of Bazetta township and gives his entire attention to stock raising and stock dealing, and the management of his various interests. His farm is adorned with a modern country residence and barn, which he has recently erected. He selected for his wife Clara M., the daughter of James and Lucy A. Hake Hayhusk. Mrs. Davis was born Oct. 7, 1865, and they were married May 29, 1884. One of their children is deceased, and one, Irena A., is living. Edna N. died Sept. 15, 1891. Irene A. was born Oct. 14, 1892. We predict for Mr. Davis success in all his business undertakings.

DAVIS, IVOR J. Niles City has a goodly number of capable young business men who have attained to positions of trust and responsibility, and prominent among the number is Ivor J. Davis, the affable and courteous P. M. and editor of the Niles Daily News. He was born at Irwin Station, Ohio, in 1872, and when he was six years old his parents moved to Niles, O. In 1893 Mr. Davis accepted a position as reporter on the New Democrat, of Canton, O., but soon resigned this position to accept the editorship of the Niles Tribune. One year later he became city editor of the Niles News, and soon after the editor. He had the honor of being the youngest delegate to the State Republican Convention that nominated Gov. Bushnell for his first term. He is the youngest P. M. that ever served in Niles. Although essentially a busy man, nevertheless he finds time for the social obligations which devolve upon every citizen of prominence and influence.

DABNEY, CHAUNCEY, was born in Bristol township Jan. 15, 1843, where he was reared, receiving a common school education. August 17, 1861, he enlisted in Co. D., 2nd Ohio Cavalry, serving over three years, particularly in Tennessee and Missouri. He was mustered out; and Feb. 8, 1864, re-enlisted in Co. D, 196th O. V. I., serving in the Shenandoah Valley. In 1865 he was again mustered out, having served through the entire war. He then returned home; and on May 5, 1866, was united in marriage to Alice C. Matthews. Mr. Dabney is a member of Bristol G. A. R. Brooks Post, and the director of his school district. That he has made a success of life is evinced by his comfortable home and the fact that he enjoys the respect of his fellow men.

DEEMER, WADE R., popular attorney of Girard, was born in Fowler township Feb. 5, 1865. He attended school in Fowler, and later at Hadley, Pa., also in Ashtabula, Ohio. When eighteen years of age he commenced working in machine shops at Ashtabula. He occupied himself in this way during the summer months, and attended school winters. He thus secured means to take him two years at New Lyme Institute. He began his preparation for law in 1877 in Kansas, where he remained about a year. He was then called home by the illness of his father, and in 1889 began reading law in the office of Chas. H. Strock, being admitted to practice in 1891. The following year he located in Girard, where he has since followed his vocation. Oct. 22, 1892, he was married to Myrtle C. Baldwin, a native of Ashtabula county. Two children have been born to them. Mr. D. is a Silver republican and has served on the boards of health and educatoin at Girard. Socially he is a member of Camp 5076, M. W. of A.

DE FOREST, E., is one of Johnston township's successful farmers and stock raisers and large land owners. He was born in Brookfield Nov. 7, 1847, and is the son of Abram and Mary A. Wheeler DeForest, the former born in Sumerville, N. J., in 1815, the latter July 20, 1820. He received his education in the Edinboro Normal School of Erie county, Pa. Politically he is a stanch republican and has served his township in different capacities as an official. At the present time he is president of the board of education, always performing his duty with the strictest fidelity. He married Emma Weir, who was born in Bazetta May 15, 1852. They were married Sept. 9, 1875. One daughter has been born to this union. Such, in brief, is a sketch of one of the prominent and representative agriculturists of Johnston township.

DEMING, W. C. The subject of this sketch was born at Mount Olivet, Ky., Dec. 6, 1869. After passing through the schools of his native place, in 1886, at the age of sixteen, Mr. Deming entered Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa., graduating as president of his class in 1890, with the degree of B. A. In 1893 the college conferred upon him the degree of M. A. The summer of 1891 he spent at Chautauqua and Lakewood, N. Y., as special correspondent for the Cincinnati "Enquirer," Chicago "Herald," and Pittsburg "Commercial Gazette." At the end of the season's work he began the study of law and after a two years' course under his father, Judge O. S. Deming, he took the examination and was admitted to the Kentucky bar in the early part of 1893 and began, under favorable circumstances, the practice of his profession, but yielding to the solicitation of friends in June of the same year he accepted the editorship of the Robertson County (Ky.) "Tribune," which work he continued in connection with the law business until March 15, 1894, when he became one of the incorporators of the Warren Tribune Co., and editor of the daily and weekly "Tribune." In August, 1896, Mr. Deming became the controlling stockholder in The Tribune Company, and assumed the duties of manager as well as editor, both of which positions he occupies to-day. He is also president of the company and is meeting with splendid success. Though modest and generous he is discerning and determined in what he undertakes and thus far has succeeded in all that he has seriously attempted.

Mr. Deming has shown himself to be not only a careful and successful business man, but a versatile editorial writer of resources and ability. His special articles frequently appear in metropolitan press. Mr. Deming is public spirited, and is always willing to lend a helping hand to a new enterprise or to any worthy person or institution in need of assistance. He was president of the Warren Y. M. C. A. for one year, and did a great deal toward helping to place that institution on a safe foundation. He takes quite an active interest in the Knights of Pythias, of which he is a member, is vice president of the University Extension Center, a leading literary club, and is a member of the Warren Library Association under the new charter. He is also president of the Joshua R. Giddings club, a leading republican organization of Trumbull county. He is a public speaker of considerable ability, and when the occasion presents itself acquits himself with credit. Mr. Deming is held in high regard by all associated with him in business, and by his unimpeachable character and talents has firmly established himself among the good citizens of Warren and Trumbull county.

DENNISON, HARMON J., was born in Hubbard township Sept. 14, 1843, the son of John and Susannah Fight Dennison. The early years of his life were spent in the profession of teaching, but for the last ten years his time has been devoted to the cultivation of his farm, which is located in the west part of Hubbard township. Mr. Dennison was married Dec. 31, 1867, to Florinda McFall, daughter of Robert and Barbara McFall, of Mahoning Co., Ohio. The family are members of the Disciple church of Hubbard township. They have four children, one son and three daughters.

DICKEY, SAMUEL F., is one of the most respected and highly esteemed of the early pioneers who have helped to make Warren a prosperous and pleasant city. He was born in Londonderry, N. H., June 11, 1820. His father, Samuel Dickey, was a native of the same place, born May 25, 1776. His mother, Nancy Humphrey, was born Dec. 7, 1779. Samuel F. came to Warren in the fall of 1843, and is now engaged in farming on a part of the same farm which he settled on at that time. He has held various offices of trust, among which we might mention county surveyor from 1869 to 1872, city engineer of Warren from 1867 to 1894, and member of the board of education of Warren for seventeen consecutive years. Mary Ann Parker, the daughter of John and Polly Peabody Parker, became the wife of our subject on June 26, 1846. She was born in Litchfield, N. H., and educated in Adams Academy at Derry, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. Dickey are the parents of three children, Edward P., and two daughters, one the wife of J. E. Pickering and the other of M. O. Messer.

DICKEY, EDWARD P., the present city engineer of Warren, O., is a native of that town, born May 26, 1847. He is the son of Samuel F. Dickey, whose sketch appears above. After graduation from the Warren High School our subject took a course in Union college at Schenectady, N. Y., graduating in 1870. He then accepted a position as civil and mining engineer for the Pennsylvania Coal Company, of Pittston, Pa., which he held from 1870 to 1893. He became city engineer of Warren in 1893 and continued till 1895, when he became general mine superintendent and engineer for the Butler Mine Co., of Pittston, Pa. He remained with this company till 1897, when he again became city engineer of Warren, which position he now holds. He was united in marriage to Anna E. Ellithrop, of Edinburg, N. Y., on April 23, 1885. The fruit of this union is one girl and one boy, both living. Mr. Dickey is one of the substantial and reliable men of the city and is doing much toward the improvement and elevation of the town of his nativity.

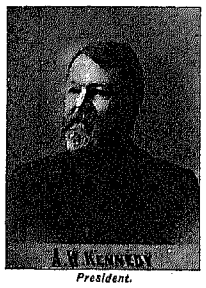

DILLEY, JOHN H., was born in Bazetta township Jan. 7, 1843, the son of Alexander and Barbara Dilley. His early years were occupied on his father's farm and in attending the district schools. At his country's call his young spirit was fired with patriotism and although only 18 years of age he offered his services, enlisting Dec. 2, 1861, as a private in Co. I, 6th O. V. C., and served three years. Feb. 8, 1866, he married Mary J., the daughter of Leonard and Jane Parke. Mr. and Mrs. Dilley have two children; a son, who is practicing law in Cleveland, and the daughter is the wife of C. N. Kyle, county recorder. He is an Odd Fellow and has passed all the chairs; also a Knight Templar. He was rocked in a republican cradle and has always been an advocate of republicanism. He was honored by the republicans and served as sheriff of Trumbull county four years to the entire satisfaction of his republican friends. He has devoted some time the past few years breeding and growing high-grade trotting horses.

DILLEY, A. E. Few men in Bazetta township have a wider acquaintance over the county than the gentleman whose name is at the head of this sketch. He is the junior member of the firm of Bailey & Dilley stone bridge contractors, in which they have successfully engaged a number of years, the remainder of his time being employed on his farm. He has filled various township offices and is now township trustee, and has always believed in the tenets of the republican party. He is a member of Mecca Lodge No. 707 I. O. O. F. Alexander Dilley, his father, was born July 28, 1814, and married Barbara Rinkenburger, who was born June 23, 1814. Mr. Dilley was born in this township Oct. 31, 1845, and married Sept. 16, 1869, Ellen, the daughter of James and Annie Mead Brown. She was born in Warren township Jan. 4, 1848. The children, four sons, are all living, and are mentioned in order of birth: N. Clay, Nov. 17, 1870, was married March 9, 1898, to Clara Chadwick of Fowler; Guy A., July 26, 1872; J. Perry, March 23, 1874; William E., Sept. 3, 1878. The many friends of Mr. Dilley cherish the hope that he has many years of usefulness before him.

DILLON, HINE, farmer of Warren township. Our subject was born on a farm in Braceville, April 27, 1847. When twelve years of age he moved with his parents to Champion township, where he atended school and lived on a farm until 1888. At the age of eighteen he began teaching and taught winter schools for twenty-two years. Mr. Dillon was married Nov. 22, 1876, to Miss Mary Blankenburg, of Warren township. Four children have been born to them, three of whom survive. In 1889 they purchased and moved onto their present farm in Warren township, north of the Union chapel. Mr. Dillon is a republican in politics, and a public spirited man, having served his township as assessor and being at present director of his district.

DOTY, ALVIN M., merchant and postmaster of Leavittsburg, Ohio, was born at Hiram Rapids, March 19, 1846. He was brought up on a farm and like many another farmer boy answered the call of his country for volunteers, and enlisted in Co. G, 99th O. V. I., in 1862. He served three years, being discharged Aug. 9, 1865. While a soldier our subject participated in many of the important battles of the Rebellion, including Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, and the march of Sherman to the sea. At the close of the war, Mr. D. returned to Chagrin Falls, Geauga county, where he was engaged in the manufacture of cheese for thirteen years. In 1878 he came to Leavittsburg and for five years was employed in the ticket and baggage office of the Erie R. R. Following this he opened a grocery, and conducted the postoffice under Garfield's administration, receiving the appointment again in 1897 under McKinley. Mr. D. is prominent in the politics of his county, and has been a member of the republican county central committee for the past five years. On May 18, 1872, occurred the marriage of our subject to Miss Mary A. Bush, of Wellington, Ohio. They have one child, a son, Fred T., born Jan. 9, 1874. Socially Mr. Doty is a Knight of Pythias.

DOUGHTON, J. C. His ancestors have figured conspicuously in the pioneer history of this county. His great grandfather, Stephen Doughton, came from Valley Forge, Pa., to Hubbard township in 1804, and settled on the farm where William Porterfield now resides. At that time the almost trackless wilderness was inhabited by wild beasts and the more savage Indian. He married Margaret Farran. David Doughton, son of Stephen, and the grandfather of our subject, came with his parents from Valley Forge, Pa. He married Mary E. Cramer, nee Bower, and died near Ft. Laramie, Wyoming, in 1852, on his way to the gold fields of California. He was a soldier of the war of 1812. Stephen Doughton, son of David and father of the subject of this mention, was born in this township April 10, 1822. He married Emeline Waldruf, born June 20, 1832, the daughter of David and Eliza Burton Waldruf. He came from New Jersey, and she from Massachusetts, to Brookfield, with the pioneers. Stephen Doughton, father of our subject, has been a man of worth and ability in the township of Hubbard.

J. C. Doughton, son of above, was born in Lisbon, Ohio, July 12, 1865. He received his education in the Hubbard High School. He is, in connection with his farming, giving attention to the breeding and growing of graded Durham cattle, the best Durham blood in the market. Politically, he is a democrat, and is now serving his township as justice of the peace. Socially he is a member of K. of P. Lodge of Coalburg, No. 112, and is filling the office of representative and deputy of Coalburg No. 112. He married Anna M. Duer May 8, 1890. She was born in Hubbard May 8, 1870, and is the daughter of Thomas and Mary Duer. Her education was obtained in the Hubbard High School. They have three children, Mary Azalia, John Duer and Helen Keturah.

DRAKE, ALVA A., one of the influential and prominent farmers of Trumbull county, was born Feb. 25, 1829, in Howland township, where he now resides. The Drake family trace their lineage back to the noted Sir Francis Drake. The grandfather of our subject, Abraham Drake, settled in Howland township in 1804, where he died in 1818. The parents of Alva A. were Jacob and Agnes Anderson Drake; the former died in 1842 and the latter in 1831. Mr. Drake was married in 1860 to Miss Lide Grove, a daughter of Jacob and Rachel Grove, of Austintown, Ohio. She was born Nov. 13, 1836, and died at her home in Howland July 9, 1890. She was a woman of exceptional ability and beloved by all who knew her. He purchased and moved onto the farm he now occupies in 1865. This is one of the very best farms in the county, with modern buildings in good repair. The home is a model of convenience, with all modern improvements, such as furnace heat, sewerage, etc. Feb. 7, 1897, Mr. D. was married to Rose Tuscher, daughter of Jacob and Kate Damey Tuscher, of Youngstown. She was born in Hubbard township March 13, 1866. To this union was born, Jan. 2, 1898, a son, Alva A. Jr., who is Mr. Drake's first and only heir. Our subject has served his township both as trustee and clerk, also as director in his school district, in which capacity he is now serving, and has been a director in the Second National Bank of Warren since its organization. He has always taken an active interest in educational matters and is an enterprising and progressive citizen.

DRAKE, ADDISON W., farmer, of Howland, was born May 15, 1837, on the farm now owned by Irenus Lane. His father, Simeon, was the son of Abraham Drake and one of a family of nine children. Mr. Drake's mother was Olvina Hank and was born March, 1803, in Washington county, Pa. The father was born in Pennsylvania June 2, 1798, and came to Howland with his parents. Our subject was brought up on the old farm and attended the district school. March 26, 1863, he was married to Mary Jane Sowers, daughter of Wm. and Mary Sowers, and a native of New Brighton, O. To them have been born two children, Will G., born Sept. 10, 1868, and Clinton A., born Jan. 3, 1871. Mrs. Drake died Aug. 11, 1889. Mr. Drake removed to his present home in 1882, after residing about eight years in Vienna. Since the death of Mrs. Drake our subject has kept up the home with the aid of his two sons, who, in addition to farming, have acquired the carpenter's trade. Both father and sons are firm supporters of the republican party.

DRAY & KOONCE. This firm was organized in 1893 and was formerly located in the Franklin Block. In 1897 they moved to their present quarters, 39 Market street. Here may be found a large line of stationery, fancy goods, news depot, sheet music, music books, and folios. This firm makes a specialty of artists' supplies and have established an up-to-date news stand, supplying the leading daily and Sunday papers, magazines, fashion books, etc. Dray & Koonce have a very attractive and artistically arranged store, which it will well pay you to visit whether intending to purchase any goods or not. Artists will find here anything they desire in the pursuance of their calling.

William O. Dray was born in Warren Dec. 5, 1861. His father, Lemuel Dray, and mother, Martha, were born respectively in Wellsville and Niles, Ohio. Mr. Dray was educated in the public schools of Warren, and is well known and liked in a business and social way. His wife, formerly Miss Mary L. Koonce, was born at Sharpsville, Pa. Besides his firm business, Mr. Dray is chief clerk in the Warren office of the Union Iron & Steel Co.

Henry Harley Koonce, junior partner of the above firm, was born in Sharpsville, Pa., Dec. 2, 1874. He is the son of Samuel A. and Etta M. Koonce, the former from Sharpsville and the latter from Cameron, N. Y. When our subject was five years old, his parents moved to Lodi, Wis., where they resided six years, and where Harley received his early education. His parents then returned to Pennsylvania, and settled on a farm near Sharpsville, and Harley still further pursued his studies at Clarksville Academy. Here he remained till 1893, when he came to Warren and opened his present business with W. O. Dray. Mr. Koonce is devoted to the best interests of the firm and is a faithful coadjutor of his partner. We can confidently predict their steady increase in prosperity.

DRAY, CLARENCE J., was born March 15, 1868, in Warren, O., where he was brought up and attended the city schools. His parents were Lemuel and Martha E. Dray. When he was eighteen he entered the grocery of J. H. Porter & Co., a year later becoming bookkeeper for H. C. Reed. He then entered the Erie R. R. office at Sharon, Pa., and in 1888 took a position as yard clerk at Sharpsville, Pa. Later he was made clerk in that station, then operator, being transferred to his present position in 1892, where he became telegraph operator and assistant station agent of the Erie R. R., having charge of the main line station. On April 27 of the same year he was married to Ada May Hilderbrand, of Sharpsville, Pa. She is a native of that town, born May 14, 1868, the daughter of George W. and Lucilla Hilderbrand. Her education was completed by graduation from the Sharpsville High School. They have had one child, Elizabeth Lucilla, born March 24, 1893, and died Sept. 11, 1898. In politics our subject is a democrat. He is Past Chancellor Commander of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., and now its representative to the Grand Lodge of Ohio in 1899, and secretary and treasurer of the protective board of the orders of Ohio Railroad Telegraphers on the Erie railroad. In the spring of 1897 he erected his present home at 406 Adams street, where he and his wife enjoy the esteem of a large circle of friends.

DRENNEN, HIRAM B., deputy county auditor and member of the firm of Drennan & Son, carriage manufacturers, was born in Warren, Sept. 13, 1857, in which place he was also educated. He is the son of David D. and Eliza Fee Drennan, both of whom were born in the north of Ireland. Prior to September, 1898, he was township clerk of Warren township for over six years, and is now serving his fifth year as clerk of the board of education of Warren city. He is also secretary of the Warren fire department, with which he has been connected for the past twenty-two years, five years of which he was chief. June 11, 1879, he was married to Clara Fields, daughter of Wm. and Mary Felds. They have one child, a daughter, Helen Gertrude, born July 29, 1893. Mr. Drennan is Past Grand of Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., Past Chief Patriarch of Trumbull Encampment, also a member of Warren Ganton. He is an enterprising and highly respected citizen, and ever stands ready to assist in any worthy public enterprise.

DUNNAVANT, WILLIAM W., the well known and popular agent of the Queen & Crescent Route, was born in Sidney, Shelby county, O., Nov. 18, 1848. His father, Thomas, is a native of Richmond, Va., and his mother, Mary Jane McKee, is a native of Sidney. Mr. D. attended the common schools till he was thirteen when he desired to enlist in the 20th O. V. I., but was refused. After trying vainly to enlist he was engaged as driver on the old Erie canal, where he drove on several lines till 1869, when he came to Windham station where, with H. N. Donaldson, now supeintendent of the Nypano R. R., he leaned telegaphy at the old Mahoning station. He soon after became night extra at the upper station in Warren and later regular night operator. Five months later he was promoted to the office at Greenville, Pa., then one of the most important on the line. In 1873 he was given charge of the ticket and telegraph office at the upper depot in Warren. In 1879 Mr. Dunnavant was chosen Traveling Passenger Agent of the A. & G. W. and P. & L. E. R. Rs., with headquarters at Pittsburg, and territory including Marion on the west and Baltimore and Philadelphia on the east. In 1887 he was promoted to the position of division passenger agent of the Erie system in charge of the line from Greenville, Pa., to Marion, O., the New Lisbon and New Castle branches and Mahoning division. In 1890 he severed his connection with the Erie and removed to Pittsburg, where he remained one year then returned to Warren and became ticket agent for the P. & W. until 1894, when he was appointed traveling passenger agent of the Queen & Crescent Route including all territory east of Columbus and Sandusky, covering all lines including Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. In 1881 Mr. Dunnavant became a member of Lodge No. 45, of Pittsburg, F. & A. M. (the oldest lodge west of the Alleghenies), Zuenblical Chapter, Tancred Commandery No. 48. Took all degrees in one year. Also Syrian Shrine and Pittsburg Consistory. He became a member of B. P. O. E. at Mansfield in 1889 and trasferred to Warren Lodge in 1897. Mr. Dunnavant has made his own way in the world and has been very successful. He has a host of friends who always wish him well.

DUBENDORF, WM. H. Farmer and meat merchant of Warren township. His grandfather was one of the old pioneers of Warren, settling at an early date in western Warren, where our subject was born. The farm which our subject now owns and resides upon was a part of the old original homestead. Mr. Dubendorf was raised on the farm and attended district schools. His father dying when our subject was fifteen years of age, the care of the family and farm fell upon him. Later he bought out the other heirs and now has clear title of the place. His wife was formerly Miss Alta Smith, of Lordstown. They were married Oct. 24, 1878, and have two children. Mrs. Dubendorf attended Lordstown High School and taught school a number of years previous to her marriage. In 1881 Mr. Dubendorf began running a meat route and has continued the business until the present time, with the exception of three years. Mr. Dubendorf carries the best quality of meats, which he furnishes fresh to his customers every other morning. Republicans claim his vote.

DYKE & MAHAN, the proprietors of the leading meat market of Warren, located in new and elegant quarters on Main street. All kinds of fresh and salt meats, fish, oysters, fowl, and game, found here in season. Six employes and three delivery wagons are required to run this business, which gives some idea of the amount of business coming to this firm. Best of meats, best servec, best prices.

William Dyke is the only member of his family now in America, having come to this country in January, 1890. He landed in Boston, going from there to Toronto, where he kept books for the London Life Insurance Co. Later he was proprietor of a restaurant on Eleventh street, New York city, and came to Warren in 1893, purchasing an interest in the meat market with Mr. Mahan. Mr. Dyke was born Sept. 4, 1870, in the village of Babcary, Somersetshire, England. He is a son of Thomas P. and Anna Dyke. He was educated in a boarding school and at Pine House school, at Wincanton, Eng. Jan. 14, 1896, he was married to Miss Maud Endicott, who was born March 4, 1870, at Orwell, Ashtabula county, and received her education in the Warren High School. Her parents are John and Emma Endicott of Champion township. Mr. D. belongs to Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., and unites his political interests with the present administration. Though a Briton by birth, our subject has given his heart and hand to this country and may be counted as a solid American citizen.

James Mahan was born Sept. 15, 1851, in Cambridge, Guernsey county, Ohio. His father, John Mahan, was born in Ireland, his mother in Coitsville, Ohio. John Mahan came with his parents to Bristol township in 1815 when but three years of age, and is one of the earliest settlers. Our subject, James, received his education in the district schools and in Western Reserve Seminary. He followed farming till twenty-six years of age, when he became timber contractor, following this line for fifteen years, with headquarters at Bristol. In the fall of 1891, Mr. M. opened his meat market in Warren, where he has since been located. He was married to Miss Flora J. Flowers Dec. 17, 1876. She is the daughter of Austin and Emeline Flowers and was born Sept. 18, 1854, in Bloomfield township, and educated in the Bloomfield graded schools.

Two children, Myrtle and Lewis, have been born to this union. In politics we find our subject to be a believer in protection of home industries; and in all projects for the promotion of the public welfare he can be relied upon to give his influence and assistance.

EATWELL, WILLIAM & SON, grocers, 11 Main street. We do not wish to be branded as punsters, but can hardly refrain from saying that it is indeed true that if one wishes to eat well, he can do no better than to secure his groceries of the above named firm of Eatwell & Son. They carry a full line of fancy and general groceries, and keep two wagons busy delivering their goods to customers.

William Eatwell is a Londoner, having been born in that metropolis March 28, 1844. His father was a native of Berkshire, England, his mother of Reading. Mr. Eatwell gained his education in London, working at the same time as errand boy, his parents not having a great amount of means. At the age of fourteen he was apprenticed to the painter and decorator's trade, serving for five years. He then spent two years on the coast, in Dover, Ramsgate, and Margate, returning to London and following his trade. Here he married Miss Julia A. Smith, of Oxford, England, Nov. 20, 1866. They sailed the day after their marriage to America, and arrived in Warren in time to celebrate Christmas. They determined to settle here and Mr. Eatwell began working at his trade, continuing till 1886, and then opening an art and artist's supply store. This he discontinued in 1889 and opened his present grocery business. In 1896-97 he and his son Fred erected their large and commodious homes on West Market street. Mr. and Mrs. Eatwell have six children; Wm. (deceased), Alice M., Frederick J., Mary A., Julia A. and Willard J. Mr. E. has filled very acceptably the office of city alderman from both the 2nd and 3rd wards, also was elected president of the city council in 1897. Socially he is a prominent K. of P., in which he has held high offices, also B. P. O. E. and Past Regent of the Royal Arcanum, and has held the office Quartermaster Sergeant, 8th Reg. Ohio, U. R. K. of P.

Frederick J. Eatwell, son of William, is a well known and popular young man of Warren, having taken the first prize in the memorable Warren Tribune voting contest of May 1, 1897, for most popular clerk. He won the prize, consisting of a $100.00 Cleveland road racer bicycle and received 16,000 votes, leading his nearest competitor by over 3,500 votes. He was born Jan. 16, 1871, in Warren, attended the Warren public schools and has been for the past ten years assisting his father, first in the art store and later in the grocery. Sept. 15, 1897, Mr. Eatwell, Jr., was married to Miss Nelle T. Hoffman, who was born Nov. 18, 1872, at Newton Falls. Mrs. Eatwell is a very popular and talented lady, being a graduate from Newton Falls High School and also a former pupil of Dana's Musical Institute. Mr. Eatwell is very prominent in Y. M. C. A. circles and a young man of excellent moral influence.

ECKSTINE, AMOS E., the son of Jacob and Leah Bowers Eckstine, the former born Aug. 3, 1818, and the latter May 24, 1828. Mr. Eckstine is a carriage and wagon manufacturer of North Bistol, and was born July 17, 1850, in the eastern part of Bristol township, on the farm settled by his grandfather. He was raised on the farm and remained there until 1871, when he went to Warren, where he spent three years learning his trade. He then spent one year in Youngstown, in 1875 coming to North Bristol, where he has since been in business, and where he has a pleasant home. Mr. Eckstine's father was born near Amsterdam, Germany, coming to this country with his parents at an early age. His grandfather served under Napoleon the Great. Sept. 13, 1876, our subject was married to Miss Olive M. Barbe, daughter of Noe and Laura Blake Barbe. Mrs. E. was born June 2, 1856, in Bristol, the youngest of six children. Both he and his wife come from pioneer families of Trumbull county. Mr. Eckstine is a republican and has served his township as trustee for ten years. Socially he is a member of Bristol Tent No. 108, K. O. T. M. Mrs. Eckstine is a member of the Disciple church, an active worker in the W. C. T. U. and was a successful school teacher from the age of sixteen until she was married.

EDWARDS, CALVIN E., was born in Mecca township July 29, 1860. He is the son of John and Sarah Russell Edwards. Mr. Edwards owns one of the good farms of Mecca township, but the greater part of his time he employs in well drilling and roof painting in various States. He has traveled extensively and has been a wide observer and student of human nature. His farm is principally devoted to stock raising, rather than grain growing. His wife, Stella Chandler, was born in Mecca township April 11, 1862. Prior to marriage she was one of Trumbull county's successful teachers. They were married Dec. 9, 1885. She is the daughter of W. H. and Catherine Chandler. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have two children, Rollie J. and Carl H. Our subject has proved himself a successful business man and enjoys the esteem of many friends.

ENGLISH, EDWARD L., farmer and proprietor of the Keystone Dairy, of Howland, was born near Prospect, Pa., Aug. 16, 1865. His father, Jas. Y. English, was a native of Butler county, Pa., and a member of Co. G, 134th Pa. V. I., and served in the Rebellion. He was a prominent farmer and stock raiser of that county. The mother, Jane Forester English, was also a native of the same county. Our subject was raised on a farm in Butler county and attended the district schools and Prospect Academy, afterward teaching school for about nine years, mostly in his home township. In 1890 he became proprietor of the Prospect Nursery, which he conducted until the spring of 1895, when he came to Trumbull county, purchasing his present farm of 100 acres, where he carried on general farming and a growing dairy business. April 28, 1892, he was married to Miss Fannie I. Francis, daughter of H. and Mary E. Francis, of Butler county, Pa., where she was born March 14, 1864. Her education was obtained in North Sewickley and West Sunburg Academies and Slippery Rock State Normal school. She engaged in teaching for nearly twelve years. To this union one child has been born, Eva Janette. Mr. and Mrs. E. are members of the Baptist church. Mr. E. is an I. O. O. F., member of Rustic Lodge No. 882, of Prospect, Pa. In politics he is a republican.

ENSIGN, JOHN N., of Newton Falls, is one of the self-made, reliable business men of the county of which he has been a resident since 1844, when he came from Connecticut to make his home on the Western Reserve. He was born in Simsbury, Hartford county, Conn., April 2, 1819. His wife, nee Sarah P. Russell, was also a native of Connecticut, and since her death, Aug. 16, 1895, he has made his home with his son-in-law, Mr. H. H. Porter. Mr. E. is the father of three children, viz., Ellis, now deceased; Chas. A., druggist, of Youngstown, and Mrs. H. H. Porter, where he now resides. He has served as a justice of the peace for over twenty years, as mayor of Newton Falls for six years, and also held other offices of trust. He has taken a great interest in educational matters and is an active member of the M. E. church. Fraternally Mr. E. is a member of I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 255, of Newton Falls. Politically he is a stanch democrat.

EVERITT, D. A., farmer, cattle and sheep-raiser, is a native of Bazetta township, where he was born Oct. 16, 1847, and where he yet resides. Nathan Everitt, the father, married Cynthia Lewis. The appearance of the farm and new and modern home of our subject indicate the abode of a thrifty and successful agriculturist. He is a wide-awake and progressive citizen. Mr. Everitt was formerly township trustee and proved a capable official. Politically he is a thorough republican and takes an active interest in the welfare of the party. His wife, Jennie A. Russell, the daughter of John and Cassandra Courtney Russell, before marriage, attended Hiram College several months, and Ada Belle is their only child. He is a practical business man, well posted on the live questions of the day, and takes an interest in the welfare and advancement of the community in which he lives.

FARR, WILLIAM, master mechanic of the Girard Furnace, was born Dec. 27, 1840, in Monmouthshire, England. With his parents he came to America about 1852, settling at Summit Hill, Pa. At the age of twelve, our subject began to work at coal-mining. Four years later he turned his attention to engineering, which he followed till he was twenty. He then began to learn the machinist's trade, working at Hazelton, Warren, and Mineral Ridge. In 1885 he came to Girard, and has been with the Girard Furnace most of the time since. July 21, 1860, he was married to Mary Morgan, a native of Climmil, Wales, who came to this country when a child. Mr. Farr is a member of F. and A. M., Mahoning Lodge No. 394, of Niles; Youngstown Chapter No. 93, R. A. M., and Warren Council No. 58, R. and S. M. He is a republican and has been a member of the city council at both Mineral Ridge and Girard.

FENTON, CARLOS S., M. D., the son of S. W. and Sophia R. Sager Fenton, was born in Bristol, Ohio, in 1866. After attending Bloomfield High School and Hiram College, he entered and graduated in the Western Reserve and Wooster Medical College of Cleveland, Ohio, since which time he has practiced his chosen profession at Orangeville, Ohio. By reason of his successful treatment of disease he has ingratiated himself into the confidence of the people and has built up a large and lucrative practice. In 1891 he was united in marriage to Ida M. Viney, the daughter of Joseph and Marth Viney, of Bloomfield township. Mrs. Fenton is socially deservedly popular and enjoys the esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances. The doctor is not a partisan in politics, but believes in the principles of republicanism. In a fraternal way, he is a Mason.

FENTON, SHERBURNE W., one of the leading farmers, stock-raisers, and dairymen of Bristol township, is one of the leading citizens of Trumbull county. He has a fine farm of 306 acres, most of which is under a high state of cultivation, with good and well kept buildings, and the general appearnace of the place is evidence of the careful, thrifty and successful farmer. He was born in Bristolville, March 29, 1841. His father, William, was born Aug. 10, 1810, and his mother, Adaline Moffet Fenton, was born Feb. 9, 1814. Our subject came with his parents to his present farm when about six years old and has since resided there. He was joined in matrimony June 2, 1863, to Sophia R. Sager, daughter of Jacob and Leah Sager. Her father was the first white child born in Bristol township. His birth occurred Oct. 25, 1805, and his wife's Jan. 8, 1814. Mrs. Fenton was born Dec. 22, 1842, in Bristol township. Mr. and Mrs. Fenton are the parents of ten children, whose births occurred in the order named: Myrta E., Carlos S., Maurine E., Alcinas Ward, William I., Nellie A., Grace A., James Garfield, Charles M. and Jacob P. Mr. F. has always been active in public affairs and the family are members of the Disciple church.

FINNEY, D. J. For sixteen years the subject of this sketch has held a position among the business men of Niles, where from 1883 to 1898 he owned and managed a first-class drug store, which was patronized by the best citizens of the city. In 1898 he sold his drug business and purchased an interest in the Niles Boiler Company, with which he is actively engaged. Mr. Finney is a wide-awake business man, and will be a valuable member of the company to which he now belongs. He is a native of Johnston, Trumbull county, O., the son of Theron L. and Fidelia Andrews Finney, where he was born in 1855. For ten years Mr. Finney was employed as a telegraph operator in Pennsylvania, but with that exception has always been a resident of this county. He married Miss Luella M. Ball, daughter of Dr. W. F. Ball, of East Liverpool, O., in 1880. One child, Carlton W., has been born to this union. Mr. Finney is a member of the board of education and a director in both the City and First National Banks, also a member of the fraternal orders of Masons and Elks.

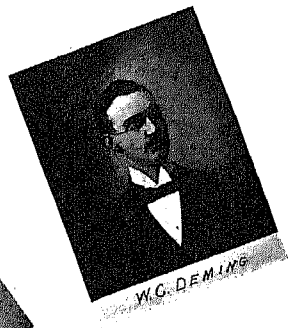

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Warren, O., The "Western Reserve Bank" was chartered by a special law of the Legislature of Ohio passed in the winter of 1811-12, and the company was organized and commenced business at Warren Nov. 24, 1813, with the following board of directors: Simon Perkins, Turhand Kirtland, Francis Freeman, John Ford, William Rayen, Calvin Austin, Comfort S. Mygatt, Calvin Pease, Henry Wick, Leonard Case, David Clendenen, William Bell, Jr., and Richard Hayes. General Simon Perkins was chosen president and Zalmon Fitch cashier. Two banks had previously been chartered in Ohio, but these were closed up in the course of years, leaving the Western Reserve the oldest bank in the state. General Perkins remained president until April 5, 1836, when he resigned and Zalmon Fitch was promoted from the cashiership to the presidency. He resigned Jan. 2, 1838, when George Parsons succeeded him. Ralph Hickox was chosen cashier on the promotion of Mr. Fitch, and on the death of Mr. Hickox, George Tayler was elected cashier April 21, 1840. The original charter was renewed on its expiration, and at the close of the period of the second charter, Dec. 31, 1842, its affairs were gradually terminated. Its condition always stood high. During the general suspension of specie payment in 1814 and again in 1836 it suspended for a few months. In 1836 when the New York banks resumed payment, it also resumed but when a few weeks after they again suspended it did not follow their example. When there was again a general suspension in 1857, it stood firm and came out of that period of disaster with unimpaired credit. The reputation of the Western Reserve Bank, not only in the immediate sphere of its operations but also throughout the state and beyond, always stood very high. Its notes were taken without question when those of by far the larger proportion of banks were looked upon with suspicion. Its deposits were heavy and the confidence of its depositors remained unshaken in periods of general distrust and disaster. "As sound as the Western Reserve Bank" was for many years a proverbial expression in the neighborhood. In July 1845 it was reorganized as an independent bank. In 1863 it was again reorganized as The First National Bank, of Warren, the original capital of $100,000.00, being increased to $300,000.00. It was the 74th national bank numerically and the name "Western Reserve" was not adopted as Secretary Chase refused to grant the request and insisted on the adoption of the name "First National Bank of Warren." This bank was organized for business July 31, 1863, with the following board of directors: Samuel Quinby, Frederick Kinsman, Mathew B. Tayler, Biven P. Jameson, Lewis J. Iddings, John H. McCombs and Henry B. Perkins. Mr. Perkins was chosen president and George Tayler cashier. The building and all assets of the old bank were sold to the new and it assumed and paid the deposits and closed up all the affairs of the old bank.

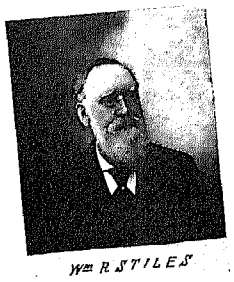

In the summer of 1868 and the early part of the following year a new three-story brick building was erected by the bank on the site of the old one (southeast corner of Park avenue and Market street), where the bank is now located. In 1882 the bank extended its charter for twenty yeears, to the close of business July 30, 1902. By a vote of the shareholders at a meeting held Sept. 22, 1886, the capital stock of the bank was reduced one half, from $300,000.00 to $150,000.00, which is the present capital. After the death of George Tayler on May 25, 1864, Mathew B. Tayler was chosen cashier and after his death, Nov. 23, 1880, John H. McCombs was chosen but died Dec. 23, 1886, when he was succeeded by William R. Stiles, the present incumbent. Since the organization of the bank the following named gentlemen have been members of the board of directors and their connection has been severed by death or resignation: Samuel L. Freeman, Orlando Morgan, Thomas Kinsman, Lucien C. Jones, Chas. P. Kinsman, and Henry B. Weir. The present board is composed of the following named gentlemen: Henry B. Perkins, Junius Dana, William R. Stiles, Edward A. Smith, George H. Tayler, Hezekiah J. Barnes and Thomas H. Gillmer. Mr. Perkins is the only survivor of the first board and has anually been chosen president. The original capital of the old Western Reserve Bank has never been divided back to the stockholders; but from time to time, as new charters were granted and although the name of the bank has been changed, the business has been continued to the present time without intermission; and it can claim a much longer period of existence than any other banking institution in Ohio. During all of this long period it has maintained a reputation of entire solvency and fair dealing with its customers. Its friends, officers and directors may well feel proud of its record of conservative management and high financial standing at home and abroad. Upon another page of this work appears cuts of both the former and present bank buildings together with portraits of the present officers and directors.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, of Girard. With a capital stock of $50,000.00 and deposits running from $60,000.00 to $65,000.00, this bank is doing a prosperous yet conservative business. Loans and discounts run from $80,000.00 to $90,000.00 per year. The officers and directors of this institution are men of prominence and property: A. W. Kennedy, superintendent of the Girard schools for twenty-five years, president; John J. Sullivan present State Senator, vice president; A. B. Camp, ex-county clerk, cashier; Parkes Williams of the Union Iron and Steel Company, Job J. Holliday and D. M. McClurg, prominent farmers of Vienna township, and Jonathan Keefer, one of the most favorably known and prosperous farmers of the county, constitute the remaining directors. This was the original board, with the exception of Mr. Keefer, who took the place of Robert C. McNeish, on his removal to Pennsylvania. The building and furniture of the bank were bought of the Girard Savings Bank at the time of its closure.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Cortland. Cortland is fortunate in having a solid, prosperous financial establishment managed in a conservative, though progressive manner. The general standing of the business interests of a town are indicated by the character of the banking institutions. The first National Bank of Cortland, O., was organized Apri. 12, charteered July 8 and commenced business Sept. 26, 1892. The first officers and directors were as follows: Wm. H. Wartman, president; N. A. Cowdery, vice president; E. F. Briscoe, cashier; C. R. Dodge, assistant cashier; directors, Wm. Davis, C. E. Fisher, Lewis Oatley, H. J. Gilmore, J. H. Faunce, Hon. John J. Sullivan, W. H. Wartman, N. A. Cowdery, E. F. Briscoe. Of this number William H. Wartman, Lewis Oatley and William Davis are deceased. The present officers and directors are: N. A. Cowdery, president; J. H. Faunce, vice president; E. F. Briscoe, cashier; C. R. Dodge, assistant cashier; directors, C. E. Fisher, H. J. Gilmore, Hon. John J. Sullivan, Lewis Hutton, O. B. Churchill, E. A. Sigler, N. A. Cowdery, J. H. Faunce, E. F. Briscoe. A general banking business is done, deposits being received, loans negotiated, domestic and foreign exchange bought and sold, etc. The institution has a capital of $50,000.00, with a surplus of $15,000.00. Average deposits, $165,000.00; average loans, $180,000.00.

FLAHERTY, M. J., ticket agent for the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., having been in their employ for the past 18 years, during which time he has shown himself to be a valuable and faithful employe of the company. He was born at Jamestown, Pa., July 20, 1858, and attended the public schools, graduating in 1880 from St. Vincent College at Latrobe, Pa., where he had completed a commercial and scientific coursé. Mr. Flaherty's literary propensities prompted him to start the Daily News of Niles, and for three years he was its proprietor, manager and editor. He has also held public offices of trust; was for six years city clerk and is now serving as councilman. As a public official he has proven himself to be a careful guardian of the public trust reposed in him. The first of the present year Mr. Flaherty, in company with Mr. Kearney, bought out the Arnold furniture and undertaking business, and it is now under the name of Flaherty & Kearney. Mr. F., while financially interested, still holds his position as ticket agent. Our subject was married Oct. 26, 1886, to Miss Anna B. Brogan, who was born and educated in Niles. They have one child, a son, James J. Mr. F. is a strong temperance man, being a member of Father Matthew Temperance Society; also a member of C. M. B. A. and B. P. O. E. He votes the republican ticket.

FLICK, WILLIAM, farmer and extensive stock dealer, was born in Mercer county, Pa., March 9, 1839. He came with his parents to Trumbull county in 1853, where his father bought a farm in Lordstown, a part of which William still owns. His father as a mill-wright erected many grist and saw-mills in the county, also introduced the first Short Horn cattle in the southern part of the county, and raised this breed for many years. He was united in marriage March 15, 1860, to Miss Amanda Beal, and to this union have been born six children: Mary L., Katie E. (deceased), Charles S., Wallace O., Bert E. and Emma L. In 1861 Mr. and Mrs. Flick removed to Iowa, where he engaged in farming for five years. He also dealt quite extensively in stock while in Iowa. In 1866 he returned to Trumbull county, lived for three years in Austintown, then three years in Portage county, then returned to Lordstown and bought the farm where he now resides, consisting of ninety acres, which is under a high state of cultivation. Mr. F. has handled cattle extensively and is widely known in Trumbull county, making numerous trips to Chicago and Buffalo for the same. At present he deals largely in feeders and beef cattle. Mr. Flick was school director for several years, and is at present one of the directors of the Lordstown Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co. Politically he believes in protection. The home of these worthy people is a synonym for hospitality and good cheer, and they enjoy the confidence and esteem of their community.

FULLER, JOHN A., a leading grocer of Warren, is one of the live, hustling men of the town. He carries a full and complete line of all staple and fancy groceries, canned goods, vegetables and fruits at all seasons of the year. Customers are always sure of fair and courteous treatment, and nothing but first-class goods at fair prices are handled. Mr. Fuller was born in Bristol township Jan. 12, 1863. His father, John P. Fuller, is a native of Edenburg, O., born July 1, 1840, and his mother, Sarah Shaffer Fuller, was born in Mecca township Sept. 1, 1845. The early education of our subject was in the district schools of Braceville township, where his parents located in 1863. Later he attended the graded schools of Newton Falls and Farmington till the age of sixteen years, when he beganteaching, and followed it till the age of nineteen, when he embarked in the grocery business in Warren, where he still remains. His efforts have been crowned with abundant success until he now stands as one of the leading citizens of Warren. In 1897 he was a prominent candidate for county treasurer and made a most creditable run. He is now a member of the city council and one of its most popular members. Fannie R. Brackin, daughter of James R. and Julia Clark Brackin, was married to our subject on Oct. 29, 1884. She was born in Mecca township June 27, 1863, and was educated in the Warren schools. To this union one son was born, James J., born Nov. 1, 1888. Mr. Fuller is a member of Mahoning Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., and Independence Lodge, No. 90, K. of P., in which he has held all the chairs.

FULLER GEORGE H. The subject of this sketch was born Jan. 10, 1859, on the farm where he now resides. His parents came to Trumbull county in 1855, settling first on the State Road in Farmington township, and moving to their present home a year later. Mr. Fuller was raised on the farm and enjoyed the advantages of the district school and the West Farmington seminary. He was married March 1, 1883, to Allie L. Chryst, who died September 29, 1890. To this union was born one child, M. Ruth. Mr. Fuller was married the second time, July 23, 1892, to Flora Hawkins. To them have been born two children, James Paul and Helen Louise. In politics Mr. Fuller is an independent, voting for the best and most worthy man. In principle he is a prohibitionist.

FULK, A. J., A substantial farmer of Lordstown township, was born Dec. 5, 1865, on the farm where he now resides. He is the son of Jacob and Susana Kale Fulk, the former coming to Lordstown from North Jackson in 1853, and residing there till his death. Our subject was educated in the district schools of the county, where so many of our great men received their first start in life. In 1892, September 1, he was married to Miss Keziah Beese, of Austintown Ohio. Samson Beese was born Feb. 17, 1827, and died Feb. 17, 1884, at the age of fifty-seven years. He was married to Sarah Morgans, July 7, 1856. She was born, Sept. 9, 1826 and is still living. To them were born four children. Mr. and Mrs. F. have two children, Ethel May, born Aug. 3, 1895, and Jacob Samson, born July 1, 1898. Besides general farming, Mr. F. has a good grade of cattle and keeps a few thorough bred jerseys. He votes with the Democratic party. Mr. Fulk is very systematic, economical and honest in all of his business transactions. He is agent for the Little Traveler Fence Machine Company, one of the leading wire fence machines on the market.

GALE, LYMAN, Jr., of Bristol township, is the son of Lyman and SophiaFitts Gale, the former born in Vermont Feb. 19, 1804, and the latter born in New York, Dec. 22, 1815. Lyman Jr., was born in Mecca, Oct. 2, 1842, where his parents came about 1834, and took up 365 acres of land, living in a brush shack the first season. Our subject was brought up on the farm, receiving his education in the district schools. October 19, 1861, he enlisted in Co. A., 6th. O. V. C., was promoted to corporal in May 1865, and was mustered out at Petersburg, June 27, 1865. He served continuously with his regiment until June 14, 1864, when he was taken prisoner at Whitehouse Landing, Va., and taken first to Libby Prison, and afterward to Andersonville. In October of that year he was transferred to Savannah, then to Camp Logan near Milledgeville, Ga., back to Savannah and released Nov. 26, 1864, because supposed to be beyond recovery. During this imprisonment he suffered greatly, and when he reached home, his family did not know him. August 24, 1865, he was married to Elizabeth A. Scott, daughter of Joseph Scott, born in Pennsylvania in June 1803, and Mary Killen, born in the same state April 7, 1815. Mrs. Gale was born in Allegheny county, Pa., May 18, 1842, and passed from this life Feb. 19, 1895. To this union were born two children; Myrta A. and Harlan S. Mr. Gale is a staunch republican. He is a Mason; also a member of Brooks Post, G. A. R., of Bristol.

GAULT, GIDEON, is a native of Jackson township, Mahoning county, O., where he was born Nov. 6, 1846, and is the son of Robert and Margery Ewing Gault. Our subject received the advantages of a good education, attending the Academy at North Jackson, the Academy at Canfield and the Seminary at Poland, O., thoroughly fitting himself for the profession of teacher, in which occupation he engaged for a number of years with eminent success. To the foundation of a good literary education and training he has added the practical knowledge of experience and commerce of the world. He has always advocated the doctrines of republicanism, but has not been a politician in any sense, although his township has at different times conferred the responsibility of office to his care. He married Olive L. Mason, the daughter of Noble and Lora P. Mason Brown, who formerly lived where our subject now resides, and the wife was born June 18, 1853, and was married Oct. 15, 1873. His family consists of two sons, Frank N. and Julian W., both of whom are receiving the advantages of an education in the Cortland High School.

GEIGER, DANIEL A., is a leading citizen of Warren and the cashier of the Western Reserve National Bank of that city. His father, Eseviah Geiger, was born in Montgomery county, Pa., April 8, 1841, and came to Howland in 1845, and in 1863 moved to Calhoun county, Mich., and settled on a farm near Albion, where our subject was born Feb. 8, 1865. Polly Camp Geiger, mother of our subject, was born July 19, 1839, in Southington, O. When our subject was five years old his parents returned to Trumbull county and located in Farmington. They soon after moved to Cortland, then to North Lewisburg, O. They went to Union City, Pa., where they resided till 1883, when they came to Warren. After graduating in 1883 from Mount Union College our subject accepted a position with the Trumbull National Bank as assistant bookkeeper. He has worked his way up through the various positions of the bank until he reached his present responsible position. He had charge of the reorganization when the change was made from Trumbull National to Western Reserve National. He is a member of the firm of Elliott & Geiger, managers of the Warren Opera House. Mr. G. is a charter member of Warren Lodge, No. 295, B. P. O. E., and charter member of National Union. Mr. Geiger was married to Jessie L. Frisbie, a native of Union City, Pa., born May 22, 1865, and educated in her native town. She is the daughter of Henry O. and Mary Frisbie. Our subject is one of the reliable and respected business men of the county. His management as casnier in his present location has added much to the success and prosperity of the bank.

GETHING, E. C., is one of the enterprising and substantial merchants and business men of Hubbard Village. He was born Nov. 12, 1840, in Cwmgrenig, Carmarthenshire, South Wales, the son of Richard and Mary. Thomas Gething, and came to this country from Yslalyfera, Glanmorganshire, in 1865. After attending school for about two years at Cwmllynfell, Gwaencaegyrwen Pit, he worked on a farm till about the age of fourteen, when he engaged in coal mining, which he followed till about the age of seventeen, when he became an engineer on Groaencasgyrwen Pit, remaining in this position till he left for Ystalypera to act as engineer in a tin mill. He remained here but one year, when he sailed for New York, arriving there June 21, 1865, and going at once to Oliphant, Pa. After stopping there a short time he came to Mineral Ridge and engaged in coal mining for about a year and then went to Hubbard, where he secured a position in the store of Edwards & Williams, where he remained about two years, and then took a trip through the West, returning to Hubbard in 1870, and accepting a position with Edwards, Oatley & Co. In 1872 he entered the office of James Ward of Niles, where he remained till the failure of Ward in 1873, when he engaged with the Ashtabula Iron Co., where he remained till beginning business for himself in 1876. Mr. G. was married in 1872 to Mrs. Martha Henwood Davis, a native of Cornwall, England, and to this union five children have been born, three of whom, Freddie H., Mabel Martha and Georgiana, are living. Our subject has been township trustee and a member of the school board several years. He is a stockholder and director in the Hubbard Banking Co. Fraternally he is a member of Hubbard Lodge, No. 332, K. of P.

GEUSS, HERMAN, merchant tailor and expert cutter, of Warren, was born in this place March 19, 1870, and educated in the Warren City schools. His father, Ernest Geuss, was born in Coburg, Saxony, Germany in August 1833, and came to America in 1854. His mother was born June 24, 1840, in the same place and came to this country in 1851. When a boy our subject spent a year learning the printers trade with the Western Reserve Democrat. When fourteen years of age, he went to Youngstown to learn the tailor's trade, which he followed there for six years. In October, 1889, he returned to Warren, and in 1891 started in business for himself. April 28, 1896, he was married to Emma Baehr, born in Warren and educated in the schools of that city. They are the parents of one child, Clara Caroline, born Nov. 2, 1897. Mr. Geuss is a member of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P. He is a member of the republican party.

GILBERT, DAVID R., one of the successful and prominent attorneys of Warren, Ohio, is the son of David and Sylvia Haynes Gilbert, the father born in Connecticut May 15, 1818, and the mother in Trumbull county Oct 17, 1823. His early education was acquired in the common schools, Gustavus High School and under a private tutor. He then entered Oberlin College where he remained four years when, on account of his father's death, he was obliged to leave school in 1869, and came to Warren where he entered the law office of Taylor & Jones where he took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1873. A year later he opened an office by himself but later occupied the same office with Hon. E. B. Taylor and later became a partner with him, which continued till 1885, when our subject took the office of Probate Judge which he held for two terms, retiring in 1891. Mr. G. was also a justice of the peace for some time and for four years a member of the Warren city council. Financially he is president of the Warren Manufacturing Company and a director of the Warren Savings Bank. July 20, 1887, he was married to Agnes B., the daughter of George and Anna Biggers. She is a native of Canada, born Feb. 26, 1861. She was educated in the common schools and then took a four years course in Lake Erie Seminary. Mr. and Mrs Gilbert are the parents of one son, David Alva, now nine years old. Mr. G. is one of the leading lawyers and business men of Trumbull county.

GILLMER, HON. THOMAS I., of Scotch-German descent, was born in Trumbull county, in the township of Newton, May 13, 1844, in a log house which is still standing upon a farm purchased by his grandfather from the Connecticut Land Company in 1807, of which he is the owner. When a boy he attended the district schools and academy at Newton Falls. He read law with the Hon. John F. Beaver and was admitted to the bar in May, 1870. After his admission he formed a partnership with his preceptor, which lasted during the latter's life. In 1873 Mr. Gillmer was admitted to practice law in the United States Courts, and August, 1874, he moved to the city of Warren. In 1876 he was nominated and elected prosecuting attorney for Trumbull county, and was re-elected for a second term, performing the duties of the office in a manner that was a credit to himself and very satisfactory to the public. In 1880 he formed a law partnership with Hon. L. C. Jones which continued until the fall of 1886, when he was nominated by acclamation and elected Common Pleas judge to fill the unexpired term of two years of Hon. W. T. Spear, who was elected to the Supreme Court. He has since been nominated and re-elected to the same office three times—the last time in the fall of 1898, when he polled a larger vote than any other candidate on the ticket in the Ninth judicial district. If he serves out his present term of five years, he will then have served seventeen years upon the Common Pleas bench.

His judicial acts have been characterized by a desire to do absolute justice between all parties, regardless of public opinion, as is evidenced by editorials of the daily papers at the time of his last nomination, some of which are here copied:

Warren Tribune: Judge Gillmer's fairness to all having business in his court has given him a lasting place in the hearts of the people. In Judge Gillmer's hands the scales of justice are well balanced. While merciful when he should be merciful and courteous to counsel on all sides, he dispenses justice with an even mind and as he sees it according to the law and the evidence.

Canfield Dispatch: Judge Gillmer is one of the ablest judges on the bench, and it is pleasing to note that his ability is recognized by nominating him for another term, which is equivalent to election.

Youngstown Vindicator: Judge Gillmer has been on the bench almost twelve years and has given excellent satisfaction to the public and to the bar. He is a man of fine legal attainments; of conscientious industry in the study of cases that come before him for decision; and has always shown himself of such unimpeachable integrity that he merits in a most unusual degree the distinction of being universally recognized as an upright and learned judge. The selection of the judges in this district is an affair with which democrats have had very little to do in recent years, because of the large republican majority, but even if we had the selecting it would be hard to improve upon Judge Gillmer.

Youngstown Telegram: Judge Gillmer has made a most excellent member of the Common Pleas bench. His record is clean and spotless. He is careful and conservative, just and right, and is learned both in law and practice. Moreover, Judge Gillmer has made many friends since assuming the judicial ermine, and few, if any, enemies, and it follows, therefore, that when, as in this case, a good judge has been discovered he will be kept on the bench.

In January, 1870, Mr. Gillmer was married to Miss Helen Earl of Newton Falls. They have two children, Elizabeth A., who graduated at Vassar College in 1894, and Rolland I., who attended school at Hiram and Hudson colleges and the Michigan University and was admitted to the bar in 1898.

GILMORE, H. J. has been closely identified with the business interests, growth, and development of Cortland for many years. The business of this gentleman has met with flattering success, the result of correct business methods, coupled with as well a selected stock of dry goods, boots, shoes and notions, as one could wish from which to select. Our subject has filled different positions of honor and trust. He was Treasurer of Cortland village, twelve years, and is now member of the Village Council of Cortland. Since the inception of The First National Bank of Cortland, he has been one of the directors. He advocated and was instrumental in the organization of this institution. He has always taken an active part in the councils of the republican party. He has filled the different chairs in the Masonic lodge of Cortland. His education was obtained in Gustavus village and Pittsburg City Schools. The subject of this mention was born in Gustavus township Nov. 25, 1848, and is the son of John Gilmore who was born Dec. 7, 1812. The father married Elizabeth Thompson, who was born March 4, 1815. June 18, 1879, the subject of this sketch married Ella Jackson who was born in the Empire state Oct. 3, 1854, and received her education in the Farmington and Orwell schools, after which she successfully engaged in the profession of teaching, three years of the time in the Cortland High School. At the present time she is a member of the Cortland School Board, and treasurer of the same. Their son, John H., was born Feb. 22, 1886.

GIRARD SCHOOLS. From an early day till 1891 the schools of Girard Village were managed as one of the common school districts of the township, but upon the incorporation of the village, a village district was formed with the increased advantages of such districts. In 1860 the building known as the "Old Brick" was erected, and in 1888 the present High School building, a modern structure of four rooms, was built, a cut of which appears upon another page. The village now has four other buildings besides the two named with a total of ten rooms. In 1872 A. W. Kennedy assumed the superintendency of the schools and remained in charge till 1898 with the exception of four years, from 1882 to 1886, when Horace Foote filled the position. Under Mr. K.'s management the schools reached their present high standing. The present superintendent is H. H. Bowes and Herbert Jone Principal of the High Schoool, with nine regular and two special teachers. The present school board consists of the following: Dr. J. H. Bean, President, W. J. Wallis, treasurer; F. R. Goodrich, clerk; A. E. Hartzell, D. R. Williams, M. D., Jno. Owens, Theo. Ferguson.

GLOBE FOUNDRY AND MACHINE WORKS, Niles, O., This prosperous and progressive enterprise was founded in 1855 by Thomas Carter, the father of the present proprietors, he having had charge of it until his death in 1893. This institution manufactures engines, steam plunger pumps, cut nail machines, sheet, plate, and bar ironshears, boiler makers' punches, bending rolls and shears, chain sheave wheels, hoisting cranes, rolling mill ore crushers, journal boxes and couplings, rolling mill, blast furnace and coal bank machinery, also light and heavy brass castings. They keep a large number of skilled workmen and their equipment is such that all orders can be filled with promptness and satisfaction. W. B. Carter is the present efficient general manager and Charles J. Carter the able superintendent of the shops. Both of these gentlemen have had long experience in the work and are fully acquainted with all of the details of the business.

The buildings are large and commodious and well located, as will be seen by the view which appears upon another page of this work. W. B. Carter the genial manager of the above plant was born in Niles Nov 8, 1861. He received his education in the Niles schools and in Oct 1880, was united in marriage to Miss Pauline Getz, the daughter of Wm. and Louise Dennick Getz. She is a native of Hancock county. Ohio, and was educated in the Niles schools. Mr. and Mrs. C. are the parents of four children; Lida, Jesse, Russel and Florence. Fraternally Mr. C. is a member of Niles Lodge of Modern Woodmen.

GOIST, SIMON, a prosperous farmer of Liberty township, was born Sept. 27, 1835, on the Oriel and Jacobs farm in the same township. His parents were natives of Pennsylvania. The father, Samuel Goist, was a wagon maker. His grandfather, George Goist, came to Trumbull county about 1803, settling one mile east of Loyes' corners, Liberty township. Mr. G. has always followed farming, but in 1868 he went into the lumber and milling business, in which he engaged for twenty-seven years. He moved to his present home in 1858, just after his marriage to Miss Mary Ann Shively, which occurred Dec. 16, 1858. Mr. and Mrs. Goist have three children, the second of whom, William H. O., lives on the farm with his parents. Together they do a good business in general farming and stock raising, breeding Berkshire hogs and Jersey cattle. They have a herd of thirty Jerseys, milking ten or twelve and making about seventy-five pounds of butter per week. The farm consists of about ninety-five acres, well improved and with excellent buildings. Wm. Goist is married and has two bright boys aged eight and nine years, and a daughter aged four months. The subject of our sketch is a strong supporter of temperance and takes active interest in school matters, having held the office of school director many times.

GOODRICH, CHANCEY D., senior member of the firm of C. D. Goodrich & Son, furniture dealers and funeral directors, was born in Hubbard township Nov. 1, 1843. He came to Girard at sixteen years of age and entered the employ of Mr. S. K. Davis to learn the trade of cabinet maker. Later he went to Hubbard to engage in business, remaining there six months. In 1864 he returned to Girard and bought out his former employer, continuing and building up the business to its present condition, which includes a furniture factory, cider and feed mill. It 1882 he took his son Frank into partnership in the business. Mr. Frank R. Goodrich was for three years editor of the Girard Grit and is still engaged in newspaper work, being the local reporter of the Youngstown Telegram. He is also agent for Columbia bicycles. Chancey D. Goodrich was married April 28, 1864, to Mary A. Keefer, of Pennsylvania, seven children being born to them, one of whom died in infancy. Mr. Goodrich has held various public offices in Girard. When twenty-seven years of age he was elected justice of the peace, which office he held for eightten years. He is a member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows orders. He and his son are both republicans.

GOODRICH, J. W. The subject of this sketch is celebrated through a wide section of country, as the owner of a fine herd of sixteen A. J. C. C. Jersey cattle. These cattle have taken premiums at many fairs in this and adjoining counties. Mr. Goodrich also keeps Chester White hogs and some fine horses, among which may be mentioned Rufus, a pacer, destined to bring its owner fame in the future. The birthplace of our subject was Waterville, Oneida county, N. Y., where he was born May 13, 1836, and in 1837 came with his parents to Braceville. Mr. G. attended the St Louis (Mo.) University for three years, and while not a man who seeks office, he has served his township in the capacity of school director with satisfaction to the community. It will be of interest to note that "Beaver Pond", a famous resort for the "Disciples of Walton", is located on Mr. Goodrich's farm and which, in the fishing season, is frequented by peoples from Youngstown, Warren, and Cleveland.

GREENWOOD, HIRAM, was born March 18, 1837, and brought up on a farm in Vienna township, and educated in Vienna district schools and academy. He resided at home until his first marriage, which occurred May 2, 1859. His wife was Miss Helen Andrews of Vienna. Two children were born to them. Upson C. of Youngstown and Grace, now Mrs. Franklin Rogers of Vienna. The second wife was Miss Anna Memory.

After three years upon the Upson Andrews farm he purchased a part of his present home in Howland, where he has since resided. In addition to being one of the leading farmers in the county Mr. Greenwood has made a specialty of breeding Merino sheep, and has been an extensive buyer and shipper of wool since 1870, having purchased and shipped as high as 950,000 pounds in a single year. Since the decline in the price of wool Mr. Greenwood has not done such a large business. Mr. Greenwood's place, consisting of 240 acres, has all the modern improvements, and is one of the finest in the county. Socially Mr. Greenwood is a member of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, and Warren Commandery, No. 39, Knights Templar. Politically our subject is a republican and has held several public offices in the township.

GREENWOOD, C. SEYMOUR, one of our substantial agricultural citizens who make the prosperity of this country, is a native of Vienna township, where he was born [illegible] 1843. His wife, Rachel Mackey Greenwood, is also a native of Vienna township and was married to our subject Dec. 23, 1868. A fine family of five children grace this home and peace and prosperity are its bulwarks. Whatever may be said to the contrary it is coming to be a well-established fact that the occupation of farming is one that furnishes the most stable foundations for success, and helps most to promote the welfare of our nation. Mr. Greenwood is a member of the republican party and of the Masonic order.

GRIFFIN, EDWIN P., trustee and farmer of Mesopotamia township, was born in Orwell, Ashtabula county, Oct. 24, 1847. He is of English descent, his father coming to this country when a young man, first settling in New York, and afterward coming to Ashtabula county, then to Mesopotamia, and in 1861 to the farm where our subject now resides. Mr. Griffin received his education at the district schools and one term at the West Farmington Seminary. He was married Feb. 16, 1870, to Miss Ellen Williams, and to them were born three children. For a year after their marriage they lived in the southern part of the township, then in the northern part. About 1872 they took charge of the Eagle House at Mesopotamia Center, which they conducted for twelve years, when they came to their present home. Mr. Griffin is an active republican; and is now serving as trustee of his township, to which office he was elected in 1896.

GRISWOLD, W. T., proprietor of the "Racket Store," Nos. 5 and 7 Main street, Warren, O. How the name "Racket Store" originated we are unable to say, but of one thing we are certain: the racket and bustle made by a throng of customers may be heard at any time during business hours in the above establishment. The large assortment and low prices are the drawing cards. Here is the secret of the low prices found here: Mr. Griswold sells for cash only and buys in large quantities, for which he pays cash. Customers thus derive the benefit of a cash business that has no "bad debts" which customers of a credit establishment must shoulder. Eight floors and a basement are occupied by this mammoth establishment, and here may be found clothing and gents' furnishings, boots and shoes, hardware, kitchen utensils, glass and crockery ware, lamps, fancy goods, notions, house furnishing goods, carpets, oil cloths, linoleums, rugs, matting, wall paper, window shades, curtains—in fact, a most complete stock of which a department store in a city of twice the size of Warren might well feel proud. Here one may find ample opportunity for putting into practice the adage "A penny saved is a penny earned." The fact that an article costing four cents in another establishment which is here sold for three is not appreciated by the general public until they stop and consider that this means a saving of 25 per cent., or in other words, what one would pay one hundred dollars for in some stores can be purchased here for seventy-five. Mr. Griswold is a native of Windsor, Ashtabula county, where he was born Feb. 13, 1864. He was reared on a farm, attended New Lyme Institute and after teaching school for one term, engaged as clerk in a general store from 1884 to 1889, and the latter year established his present business. Mrs. Griswold, formerly Mabel L. Hull of Burghill, O., also a student of New Lyme Institute, became his wife Aug. 11, 1891. They have three children, Truman H., Ralph E. and Wade E. Mr. Griswold takes an active interest in all that tends to improve and benefit his city and is deservedly popular with all his fellow men.

GRICE, JOSEPH, Roll Turner of the Warren Rolling Mills, and resident of Girard, was born in Staffordshire, England, August 16, 1839. At seventeen years of age he began working in a rolling milll where he was employed till 1858. After spending four years in Wales our subject determined to try his fortunes in the new world, where better inducements were held out for the iron trade. He first settled in Pennsylvania, going back to England at the end of two years for a visit. Upon his return he worked at his trade successively in Akron, Ironton, Sharon, Greenville, Niles, and Lockport, N. Y., coming finally to Girard in 1887, where he has since resided. Mr. Grice was married August 21, 1869, to Miss Sarah Warren, of Niles, Ohio. Mrs. G. is a native of England and came to America in 1868. Six of their family of seven children are now living. Socially our subject is a member of Friendship Lodge No. 195, K. of P. Mr. and Mrs. Grice occupy a prominent postion in society and reside in a pleasant home on Ella street.

HAKE WALLACE, was born and raised on a farm in the township of Howland, and being one of those rare men who "know a good thing when they see it", he has continued to follow agriculture as a pursuit. His birth occurred Jan. 12, 1853, in Vienna township, and his education was obtained in the Vienna common schools. July 1, 1879, Mr. Hake entered upon a life partnership with Miss Lisetta Frederick of Weathersfield. This union has been blessed with two sons, Elmer and Frank I. In addition to general farming, our subject has paid particular attention to horses, and now owns "Fleetwood" a beautiful stallion, and Madelaine, a two-year-old filly by same sire. Mr. Hake is director if his school district and is in favor of free trade.

HAEFNER, C. A., Ph. G. One of the most energetic young business men Kinsman ever possessed is the gentleman named above. Early in life he selected the drug business as a vocation, and in October, 1894, entered the department of pharmacy of the Ohio Normal University. After completing his junior course of study in this institute, he was engaged as prescriptionist by C. P. Baughman of Indianapolis, Ind. From this place he entered the Northern Indiana College of Pharmacy, at Valparaiso, Ind., graduating as a senior on Aug. 13, 1896. Tne following October he was awarded a certificate from the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy as assistant pharmacist. He was then employed by the well-known drug firm of Wm. Buell & Co., Akron, O., where he served his apprenticeship. In January of 1898 he successfully passed his final examination at Cincinnati as pharmacist, and on June 7, 1898, he was elected an active member of the Ohio State Pharmaceutical Association.

The mercantile establishment of which Mr. Haefner is owner and proprietor is located on Main street, just south of the Sawdy House. All the fixtures, stock and a handsome soda fountain and a complete line of drugs and sundries are displayed in a tastily arranged manner, and the lines carried embrace everything in foreign and domestic drugs and proprietary articles, perfumes, toliet goods and surgical appliances. A specialty is made of compounding prescriptions with care and accuracy.

Mr. Haefner was born in Kinsman, O., April 30, 1874, and is the son of Charles and Barbary Haefner, the former born Feb. 28, 1850, the latter Feb. 13, 1852. Both parents born in Germany. Fraternally Mr. Haefner is a Maccabee; also an Elk. Mr. Haefner has reached the goal aspired to by many young pharmacists.

HAEFNER, FRANK E. This well-known landlord of the Park Hotel at Kinsman has one of the popular resorts of the traveling and local public. The landlord, ably seconded by his wife, ever have a care for the comfort and well being of their guests. Mr. Haefner received a liberal education in the Kinsman

High School attending eleven years. He is the son of Charles and Barbary Haefner, and was born in Kinsman, Ohio, April 30, 1876. He selected for his wife Emma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith. She was born in Greenville, Pa., Nov. 8, 1875, and they were married Sept. 29, 1897. Fraternally he is a Knight of the Maccabees. In July of the present year Mr. Haefner assumed charge of the Park Hotel property and at once commenced a transformation and improvement of the interior. It is pleasantly and convientlly located and is a popular and home-like resort. Mr. Haefner also conducts a first class livery in connection with his hotel. He has a good outfit and can furnish first class rigs for all occasions.

HAMILTON, DAVID C., one of the sterling citizens who make up our flourishing city of Niles. The backbone of any town is its manufacturing interests, and in these the city of Niles is strong. The employes of these institutions are cheerful, courageous, law-abiding men and a credit to any town. The subject of this sketch was born in Plain Grove, Pa., June 14, 1869. He came to Ohio in April, 1893, after a course of study in Westminister College, New Wilmington, Pa., extending from 1889 to 1892. Mr. Hamilton is an iron worker in the Falcon Iron and Nail Co., and is thoroughly conversant with his business. He is a member of B. P. O. E. and the K. of P. and votes the republican ticket.

HALLOCK, JAMES R., is a prosperous and well-known farmer of Fowler township, the son of George and Phoebe Borden Hallock. George Hallock was born Nov. 23, 1798, and his wife Feb. 6, 1809. Our subject received his education in the common district school. He married Harriett Kellogg, the daughter of E. V. and Lucy Loomis Kellogg, on April 17, 1861. Mrs. Hallock was born in Fowler township Nov. 28, 1833. Three children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Hallock: George G., born Oct. 23, 1869; Mabel E., born March 18, 1868, died Sept. 28, 1882; Claud C., born Aug. 15, 1873. Politically our subject is a republican. He has practically devoted his whole life and energy to farming, and has made it a thorough success. He is a reliable and enterprising citizen.

HALLOCK, C. F., was born on the farm where he now resides March 19, 1838, and has constantly been identified with Fowler township and community for a lifetime, in which he is well and favorably known. He has made stock and dairy farming a success and has conducted his life vocation along the improved lines of investigation and method. George Hallock, his father, was born Nov. 23, 1898, and married Phebe Borden, who was born Feb. 6, 1809. Ella Alderman, the daughter of Lewis and Margaret Butts Alderman, was born in Fowler township and they were married Dec. 15, 1872. One son has been born to this union, Ansel J. Mr. Hallock has always officiated with the republican party. He owns a good farm in Fowler township and is a reliable citizen.

HANEY, G. M. Anything desired in the way of carriages, hacks and fine turnouts generally for any and every occasion, can be found at the livery of the subject of this sketch. Mr. H. is located in Cortland, where he will be found at all times to do a fair and satisfactory business. He was born Sept. 24, 1844, at Northumberland, Pa. His parents moved to Ohio in 1851 and settled in Trumbull county, where Mr. Haney was educated. In 1885 Miss Mary Russell, of Michigan, became his wife, and one child, a son, has been born to them. Mr. H. belongs to the democratic party and is an influential citizen and business man.

HARSHMAN, TIMOTHY R. The subject of this sketch is well known as a member of the firm of Harshman & Lamberson, proprietors of a first-class meat market and fruit depot at West Farmington. Mr. H. was born in Lordstown township March 11, 1836. His parents were Matthias and Rachel Ross Harshman, both natives of Pennsylvania. He was the oldest of nine children. At the age of eighteen he began teaching school, which profession he followed for sixteen years. In 1862 he came to Farmington and on Oct. 17, 1865, he was married to Eliza Lamberson, daughter of Joshua W. and Sarah Lew Lamberson. She was born in Farmington Sept. 8, 1837. To Mr. and Mrs. H. have been born two children; Loretta E., now the wife of Rev. H. B. Allen, of Cleveland, O., and M. Estella, who is a teacher of vocal and instrumental music, having taken a two years' course in the Oberlin Conservatory of Music. After his marriage he engaged in mercantile pursuits at Bristolville. In 1871 he returned to Farmington and farmed until 1885, when he went to West Farmington and carried on an insurance business. In 1894 he established his present business, the Harshman & Lamberson meat market and fruit depot. Mr. Harshman is a republican and has taken an active and prominent part in public and political affairs, filling several offices of trust. He has been justice of the peace since April, 1888, and is now serving his third term as township clerk, and is also notary public. He was assessor of his township for three years, from 1880 to 1883. He was a charter member of West Farmington Lodge No. 333, K. of P., of which he is Past C. C.

HART, GOERING & OHL, general clothiers, hats, caps gents' furnishings, etc. This is one of the oldest and best known firms in Warren, dating back to 1878, when it was first organized as Hart Brothers, C. O. Hart and V. M. Hart being the proprietors. In 1881 V. M. Hart retired and J. O. Hart, the present senior membe, came in. In 1885 C. O. Hart sold his interest to V. M. Hart and G. A. Mitchell, and in 1892 V. M. again retired, and R. E. Hart and Charles Goering purchased his interest. The firm was now known as Hart, Mitchell & Co. R. E. Hart retired in 1897, and in 1898 G. A. Mitchell died and was succeeded by A. M. Ohl, an old employe of the firm. Since then the firm has been known as Hart, Goering & Ohl, and we can bespeak for them a prosperous and increasing trade; for though there have been many changes in the firm, the policy of honesty and courtesy to all customers, which has always characterized this company, has never wavered.

John O. Hart, senior partner, was a farmer boy, born in West Farmington Feb. 17, 1836. His parents came from Connecticut and settled south of West Farmington. Here our subject was educated. His first business venture was at the age of twelve, when he pulled beans for one shilling a day. At the age of sixteen he began clerking in the general store of A. D. Kibbee, West Farmington, where he continued for five years. In 1857 he went to California and engaged in mining for three years. For about a year after his return he carried on a dry goods business with Homer H. Stull, when he sold out his interest and moved to Warren, and for five years drove a peddling wagon for Anderson & Rupp. For twelve years following this he was engaged in the wholesale grocery business of W. A. Fisher & Co., of Cleveland. He next became traveling salesman for F. H. Leggett & Co., of New York, remaining with this firm for three years. Returning again to Warren in 1881, he became a member of Hart Bros., in the clothing business, and has ever since been connected with this firm. Mr. Hart married Miss Amy J. Caldwell, of Farmington, Sept. 9, 1860. Mrs. Hart's father was proprietor of the old historical Hernier Hotel on the State road, at the time of her birth in 1838. One child, a daughter, has been born to this union. Mr. Hart, besides being interested in the clothing business, is a director of the Bostwick Steel Lath Company, of Niles, and the Miller Table Co., of West Farmington. He is also vice president of the Farmers' Banking Co., of the latter place. Socially he is a member of Warren Commandery and the Royal Arcanum.

Charles Goering, second partner in the firm, is a native of Warren, Oct. 15, 1864, being the date of his birth. His parents were both born in Germany, and came to this country about 1840. Charles obtained his education in the Warren schools, and commenced clerking for Hart Bros. when nineteen years of age, continuing in their employ till 1892, when he became a partner in the business. Mr. Goering and Miss Ella Butter were united in marriage Oct. 14, 1886. Mrs. Goering was born and educated in Niles. They have two children, both girls. Mr. Goering's politics are unwaveringly republican.

Alva M. Ohl is an example of a young man who continued "diligent in business," and has as a result reaped a just reward. He was born April 2, 1870, in Lordstown township, and received his education in the district school, supplemented by a short course in the North Eastern Ohio Normal College at Canfield, O. He was brought up on a farm and lived at home until twenty years of age, when he began clerking for C. C. Buck, of Austintown, in a general store. He was employed here for five years, then clerked one year for T. W. Morrall of Niles, and in 1897 came to Warren to work for Hart, Mitchell & Co.. On the death of Mr. Mitchell in January, 1898, Mr. Ohl became a partner in the firm. Mr. Ohl is a member of the K. of P., and a firm believer in the principles of republicanism.

HART, CLINTON O., is a native of Trumbull county, where he was born Sept. 23, 1839, in Farmington township. His father was Joseph C., born at Avon, Conn., Oct. 2, 1805, and died March 19, 1867. His mother, Rosanah Goff Hart, was a native of West Springfield, Mass., born Sept. 11, 1807, and passed from earth Jan. 4, 1880. Mr. Hart's education was acquired in the common schools and Western Reserve Seminary, after which he was for several terms engaged in teaching school. Nov. 1, 1865, he was united in marriage to Elizabeth A. Belden, of Akron, O., where she was born July 11, 1840. She also was educated in Western Reserve Seminary. Her parents were Hiram and Catharine Belden. Mr. and Mrs. Hart are the parents of the following children: Harry E., died May 17, 1876; Frank C., died Jan. 20, 1893, and Grace Edna, who is the wife of Clarence C. Cram, of Garretsville, Ohio. Mr. Hart enlisted in Co. C, 19th O. V. I., in April, 1861. In 1864 he came to Warren and clerked for a time for H. Stiles & Sons, after which he was appointed express messenger on the old A. & G. W. R. R., now the Erie system, where he served for three years. He then engaged as traveling salesman for a wholesale grocery house of Cleveland of three years. From 1872 to 1876 he was associated with his brother, J. O. Hart, in the general merchandise trade at Brookfield, O. In 1876 he, with his brother, V. M. Hart, established the Hart Bros. clothing business in Warren, mention of which appears elsewhere. During the four years from 1882 to 1886 he filled the office of county treasurer, making a splendid record as an official. Having retired from the clothing business in 1886, he then spent one year in California, after which he engaged in the real estate business in Fostoria, Ohio, for a short time. In 1890 he removed to Chicago and engaged as a manufacturer and contractor with the Sykes Steel Roofing Company, of which he is secretary and treasurer, where he still remains. He is a first-class business man, a good citizen and a man who has many friends. He is a member of the G. A. R., Royal Arcanum, and an enthusiastic republican.

HART, VELOROUS M., farmer and capitalist, was born in West Farmington, Sept. 11, 1841. At the outbreak of the civil war he was attending school at the Western Reserve Seminary. He enlisted in August, 1861, in Co. D., Ind. Ohio Cav., and served until his discharge in September, 1865. He participated in ninety-two active engagements, and was with General Custer, and also with Sheridan at the surrender of Lee. His campaigns took him into thirteen different states.

At the close of the war Mr. Hart was married to Miss Roxina C. Clark. They have two children, a boy and a girl. He followed farming till 1878, when he opened the clothing house now known as Hart, Georing & Ohl. In 1881 he sold out and went to Indian Territory, engaging in the cattle business for a short time. In 1885 he again went into the clothing business under the firm name of Hart Bros. & Co., but retired in 1892, and has since devoted his attention to looking after his farm and other business interests, among which is the Bostwick Steel Lath Company of Niles. Politically Mr. Hart is a republican, and has held public offices of trust. Socially he belongs to Old Erie No. 3, F. & A. M. and Bell-Harmon Post, G. A. R.

HART, B. E., is ranked with the prosperous and young dairy farmers of Southington. He was born on the farm where he now resides July 28, 1871, and is the son of Joseph C. Hart, Jr., the father being born Sept. 22, 1828. His father married Miss Margaret Lane, who was born April 12, 1829. Our subject received the educational advantages of the West Farmington Seminary. He takes pride in breeding and growing first-class stock and pursues his vocation along improved lines of thought and investigation. His wife, formerly Miss Vernie V. Curtiss, the daughter of N. J. Curtiss, was born April 27th, 1875. They are the parents of one child, Josephine C., born July 22, 1898. Although a young man Mr. Hart is recognized as one of the influential republicans of Southington township. Like his father, he is active in advancing the welfare of his community, of which he is justly regarded as a representative citizen.

HARRINGTON, CHARLES A. No name that we could mention in connection with the history of Trumbull county and Warren city is better known than that of the subject of this sketch. His father, William, was a native of Brookfield, Vt., born Feb. 5, 1794, and came to this county in 1817, settling on a farm in Greene township, which our subject now owns. William died April 8, 1885. Helena Bascom, the mother of our subject, was born in Chester, Mass., in 1801, came to Trumbull county in 1820, and was married in 1821 to William Harrington. Our subject was born on the old homestead June 16, 1824, and educated in the common schools, supplemented by a year and a half in Grand River Institute. He afterward took a course in Oberlin College. He was now well equipped for the battle of life. He began teaching in Greene township in 1845 and continued to conduct the school until 1859. In the meantime, in 1846, he began the study of law in Warren with General Crowell and was admitted to the bar in 1848, soon after beginning the practice of law in connection with his school work. In 1860 he was elected clerk of courts and served two terms, when in 1867 he was appointed by President Johnson to be assessor of internal revenue for the 19th district, which position he held until the office was abolished in 1873. Mr. H. then returned to the active practice of law and formed a partnership with Hon. W. T. Spear, now of the Ohio supreme court, which lasted till 1878, when Judge Spear was elected to the common pleas bench and Mr. Harrington continued alone till 1885, when he formed a partnership with his son, Frank W., which lasted till November, 1887, when Charles A. was elected to the cashiership of the Second National Bank. Mr. Harrington was married in 1849 to Elvira Bascom, whose death occurred Feb. 5, 1892. To Mr. and Mrs. Harrington were born two sons, Chas. F., who was a graduate from and afterward an instructor in Western Reserve College. While engaged on the United States coast survey he contracted consumption from which he died Oct. 8, 1871. Frank W. was born in May, 1855. He graduated from Western Reserve College in 1879, and two years afterward was admitted to the bar. He died Oct. 8, 1893. He was married to Miss Carrie Park Oct. 14, 1886, and to this union two children were born, viz., Chas. A. and Precilla P. Nov. 27, 1893, our subject was married to Sophia M. Smith, daughter of Charles W. Smith, formerly of this place. Mr. Harrington has held many offices of public trust, among which might be mentioned, member of the school board for about twenty-five years, trustee of the Children's Home, and president, director and cashier of the Second National Bank. As a lawyer and business man he has been thorough, able and successful, and all the trusts reposed in him have been faithfully, conscientiously, and honorably discharged. Beside his many business cares he has found much time for reading and possesses one of the largest libraries in Trumbull county.

HARRIS, WILLIAM E. The subject of this sketch is the able manager of the Falcon Iron & Tin Plate Company, of Niles, Ohio, and is one of the best known and most reliable residents of that city. He is a native of Worcester, England, born May 23, 1835. He was united in marriage in Worcester, England, in 1855, to Elizabeth Smith, the daughter of Richard Smith. To this union four children have been born, as follows: Agnes, Albert, Louisa and John. In 1858 our subject came to America and lived in Covington, Ky., for six years. He then went to Chicago and built a plate and bar mill, of which he was superintendent until 1876, when he returned to England and remained two years in the interests of several patents of his own invention. Returning to America he located at Wheeling, W. Va., remaining till 1880, when he went to St. Louis, Mo., and built the Granite Iron Rolling Mills, of which he was superintendent thirteen years. In 1891 he made two trips across the ocean in the interests of Neidringhaus Bros., visiting England, France, Germany, and Belgium. In 1892 he accepted his present position. Mr. Harris has a talent and taste for mechanics which he has cultivated to good purpose, having invented many improvements for rolling mills. He was married to Emma Stewart, his second and present wife, Oct. 26, 1895. She was born at Portsmouth, O., Dec. 24, 1847, the daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth Stewart. Mr. Harris is a staunch republican. He is of a genial and generous nature, a Christian man and an earnest worker in the Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he and his wife are both members.

HARRIS, DANIEL B., of Girard, roller of Upper Mill (Youngstown) Union Iron and Steel Co. Our subject was born in South Wales, Oct. 22, 1857, and came to this country with his parents when eleven years of age, settling in Youngstown. His wife, Miss Mary Ann Brown, was also a native of Wales and came to America in 1867. They were married Dec. 24, 1881. At the age of fourteen our subject began work in a rolling mill at Youngstown, where he was employed for six years. He then came to Girard, where he followed the same business for seventeen years. After a short time spent in Leetonia, Ohio, and Muncie, Indiana, Mr. H. accepted his present position, and for the past eighteen years has been a roller. Mr. and Mrs. H. have a fine home in Girard, a view of which appears in this work. Mr. H. is a republican in politics, and socially a member of Friendship Lodge No. 65 of Girard.

HATCH, H. H., the son of J. N. and Clara E. Chalker Hatch, was born in Southington township Dec. 12, 1863, and now lives on and owns the old homestead where he passed his childhood days. His grandfather, David Hatch, married Fannie Chapman, and they were among the earliest pioneers of Southington township, Trumbull county, Ohio, but in a few years moved to Saybrook, Ashtabula county. Besides general farming, he is a breeder and great admirer of Barred Plymouth Rock chickens, of which he owns a large flock. He has refused as much as $10 for a single chicken now in his flock, this particular fowl scoring 93½ points, by Charles McCleave. Politically Mr. Hatch is one of the representative young republicans. He is now serving his township as one of the board of trustees. Mina E., the daughter of William and Catherine Palm West, was born in this township Aug. 23, 1869, and was united in marriage to Mr. Hatch Sept. 11, 1889. They are the parents of three children, Mildred H., Lina E., and Pauline E.

HAYES, GILES M., senior member of the Buckeye Cider and Jelly Co., Nutwood, Ohio, manufacturers of preserves, fruit butter, cider vinegar, and refined cider, has for a number of years been recognized as one of the important manufacturers and successful business men of Trumbull county, Ohio. This business has grown to its present large proportions in fifteen years, the factory at Nutwood being built six years ago. The product is sold within a radius of seventy-five miles, and constantly employs the services of two traveling salesmen.

Mr. Hayes was born in Vernon township April 16, 1848. His father, Almon Hayes, came to this county from Connecticut and lost his life in the gold fields of California. The last heard from him it was his intention to at once start for home. The father married Lucinda Aiken, who was born March 18, 1822. Mr. Hayes is a republican from principles, and at present an efficient township trustee. He married May 24, 1876, Emma C. Barnhart, who was born in Clarksville, Pa., Dec. 7, 1851, at which place she received her education. Her father, Jacob Barnhart, was born June 22, 1817, and married Elizabeth A. Roberts, who was born in Greenville, Pa., Oct. 23, 1820. The subject of this sketch is essentially a self-made man. The position he occupies today has been attained by persistent effort and strict application of business principles.

The large and growing business of The Buckeye Cider and Jelly Company is certainly a fitting evidence of the enterprise and push of Mr. Hayes.

HENDERSON & HEASLEY, successors to James Reed & Sons, hardware dealers, stoves, ranges, house furnishings and paints; plumbing and heating a specialty, No. 45 East Market Street, Warren, Ohio. This firm handles the H. P. Smith and American Steam Radiators and hot water heaters; also agricultural implements, Champion mowers and binders. Their commodious quarters on Market street enable them very effectively to display their large stock of goods. Farmers and all others find this store to be headquarters for hardware and agricultural implements of every description.

Wm. M. Henderson is a Scotchman by birth, having been born in Coatbridge, Scotland, Dec. 6, 1868. His father, William, was born in 1843. Both parents are natives of Scotland. His parents came to America when our subject was an infant, and settled in Youngstown, where his father found employment as superintendent of a rolling mill, where he is still engaged. William left school when sixteen and for three years was in the employ of the Brown-Bonnell Iron Company of Youngstown. For about a year he was in Minneapolis, engaged as cashier for the St. P. M. & M. R. R., when he returned to Youngstown, accepting a position as bookkeeper for the Stambaugh-Thompson Co. Here he was employed till June, 1895, when he and his present partner came to Warren and purchased the hardware stock of Reed & Son, which they have since conducted. Mr. Henderson was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Lithtbody, native of Yonkers, N. Y., and educated in Youngstown. I. O. O. F., B. P. O. E., Modern Woodmen, and National Union represent the social connections of our subject. He is a firm protectionist.

James E. Heasley is a native of New Bedford, Pa., where his birth took place June 24, 1863. His father, Elias P., was born in Mercer county, Pa., and mother, Josephine Davis, in Lawrence county, Pa. Mr. H. was reared on a farm and attended the district schools. He learned the plumber's trade in Youngstown, O., and in 1892 went to Sharon, Pa., where he followed this occupation till 1895, when he came to Warren. He was married to his partner's sister, Miss Mary Henderson, Dec. 22, 1896. He is an I. O. O. F. member at Youngstown, also a member of the P. H. C., Sharon, Pa.

HERBERT, WILLIAM, cashier of the City National Bank of Niles, was originally from Palmyra, Portage county, where he was born March 17, 1837. His parents were both natives of Wales and came to this country when young people. Mr. Herbert obtained his early education in the district schools, and for about seven years was occupied partly in teaching and partly in attending school. He attended Hiram Institute in 1857. That our subject is a public spirited citizen and popular in his county, is evidenced by the public offices he has held; one year as road supervisor, six years as township trustee, six years as township clerk, six years as treasurer and four years as treasurer of Trumbull county, during all which time Mr. Herbert was a faithful and efficient official. He served during the last year of the war as second lieutenant in Co. F, 171st Reg. His politics are republican. Our subject was married to Mary Ann Jones, daughter of Richard D. and Mary Jones, of Milton, O., March 17, 1864, who died Jan. 1, 1865. He was married again to Miss Mariette Hine, daughter of William and Abigail Selby Hine, Sept. 25, 1867, and to this union three sons have been born. Mrs. Herbert was born in Newton Falls, Aug. 5, 1844, and educated in the district schools and Newton Falls High school.

HERBERT, ELMO B., the present efficient and courteous deputy county treasurer, is a native of Newton Falls, this county, where he was born April 7, 1875. He is the son of ex-Treasurer Wm. Herbert, whose sketch appears elsewhere in this work. Elmo B. received his early education in Newton Falls and then attended the Warren High School, from which he graduated in June, 1894, and entered upon his duties as deputy county treasurer in September of that year. He has thus served in the old court house, in the office of Park Avenue during the building of the new one, and now in the new court house. At the time of his taking the office he was the youngest man in the court house. He is a member of the Ohio State Band, of Warren, now known as one of the very best bands in the country. Mr. Herbert is one of the hustling young business men of the county, and we can predict for him a successful career in any line of business he may decide to follow.

HERZOG, JOHN L., attorney-at-law and justice of the peace, Warren, Ohio, was born in that city Feb. 9, 1857. His father was Wm. H. Herzog, was born May 6, 1830, and his mother, Lucia Hiener Herzog, was born Dec. 22, 1828, and died Feb. 22, 1897. Our subject graduated from the Warren schools in 1875 and then took another year in Latin and Greek. He began the study of law in 1876, in the office of Sutliff and Stewart and was admitted to the bar April 9, 1878, and soon after began practice. In 1881 he was elected a justice of the peace and still continues in that office. He gets his full share of the cases that are tried in the lower courts, and in the performance of marriage ceremonies he seems to get the lion's share. His office being in the court house, located conveniently near the probate office, many a couple are joined for life by the accommodating Squire. Mr. Herzog is a director in the Citizens' Savings Bank Company, a staunch republican, and a member of the M. E. Church. He is a highly respected citizen and a prominent attorney.

HICKOX, FRED EARL, a prosperous farmer, of Vienna township, was born Nov. 20, 1865. He is of eastern descent, his grandfather coming from Connecticut and his grandmother from New Jersey, at an early day. He was educated in the district schools and at Niles. His wife, formerly Miss Eleanor M. Williams, was born and educated in Reidsburg, Pa. They were married Oct. 8, 1896. One child, a daughter, has blessed this union. Mr. Hickox is a member of Mahoning Loldge No. 394, F. & A. M., at Niles. Politically he is a republican.

HICKOX, WILLIAM D., an extensive farmer, was born in Columbiana county, Sept. 30, 1839. When he was about nine years old his parents moved to Bristol, where he lived until 1861, when he enlisted in Co. D of the 2nd Ohio Cavalry, with which he served until the close of the war, being mustered out in 1865. Mr. Hickox has an enviable war record. He was taken prisoner at Ashland Station, Va., and spent six months in Libby, Andersonville, Savannah, and Milan prisons, when he was exchanged. After the war he lived in Bristol, then in Bloomfield, afterward moving to his present home in Farmington. Oct. 23, 1866, he was married to Harriet M. Cummins, and this union was blessed with four children. He has served the township as trustee and as real estate assessor. In 1868 he joined Rural Lodge, F. & A. M., of Bloomfield.

HICKOX, HENRY C., carpenter, farmer and school teacher, was ushered into the world on the 26th day of July, 1856, in West Chester, Tuscarawas county, Ohio. When fourteen years of age our subject's parents moved to Mecca township, where he has since made his home. Being of an educational turn of mind he early turned his attention to teaching, which occupation he followed winters for twenty-three years continuously. When a boy Mr. H. began learning the carpenter trade of his father, and has followed that business ever since in addition to carrying on his farm on the west township line of Mecca. Sept. 8, 1880, our subject was married to Miss Nancy Lechleitner, of Champion, O. Five children have been born to this union. Mr. H. is a republican, and a member of I. O. O. F. In the three important and useful occupations in which our subject has been engaged, he has shown marked ability and won a deserved reputation for uprightness and fidelity.

HICKEY, JAS. S., of Warren, Ohio, was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, Dec. 22, 1848. His father, James Hickey, was a native of Ireland. His mother, Elizabeth Robinson, was born Sept. 16, 1815, in New Jersey, and died Feb. 14, 1896. Mr. Hickey's father died when he was three weeks old and his mother left a widow with three children, soon after moved to Niles. When our subject was thirteen years old he quit school and began work in the Jas. Ward & Co., nail factory. He continued in this position twenty-two years, holding all positions and most thoroughly acquiring the trade. During this time he at odd times worked at his trade at Hamomnd, Ind., Youngstown and Pittsburg, Pa., also at Sharon, Pa. In 1891 he moved to Warren and for the past seven years has had the garbage contract with Warren city. He owns a good home on Garden Street and a good farm in Braceville township. Mrs. Hickey was formerly Miss Jennie Parks, born in Warren township, Sept. 7, 1842, and educated in the Braceville and Howland schools. She was married to our subject May 19, 1880. To this union two children have been born; Elizabeth, born Sept. 30, 1881, and Ben W., born Nov. 22, 1883. The parents of Mrs. H. were John and Eliza Brown Parks, both natives of Ireland. The former died Sept. 30, 1897, and the latter Feb. 14, the same year. Mrs. Hickey and daughter are members of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Hickey is one of the reliable and thorough business men of the city.

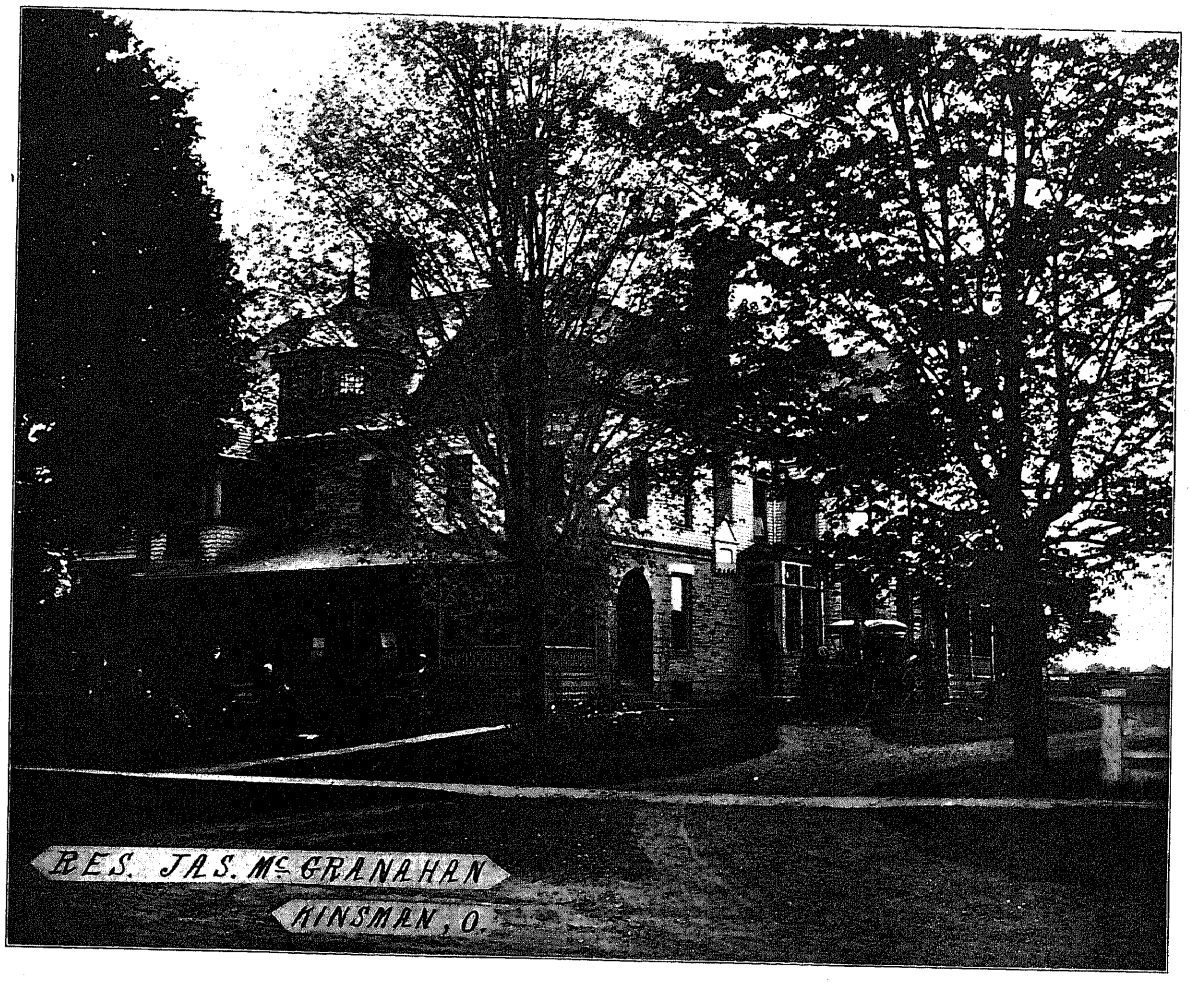

HIGHTREE, W. J., a successful and enterprising farmer of Hartford township, is well and favorably known in the county of his birth. He is the owner and breeder of an excellent herd of registered Jersey cattle, of which he is justly proud. He expects to continue this special branch of farming, aiming to meet the growing demands for a high grade of Jerseys, especially choice family cows. Also, he is breeding two large pens of Buff Leghorns and Barred Plymouth chickens, the eggs of which are for sale in season at farmers' prices. He is the son of Lorenzo D. and Mary A. Hightree, former born April 12, 1820; the latter, Feb. 13, 1825. His interests have been constantly identified with Hartford township, where he was born July 28, 1851. In politics, a republican. On March 26, 1874, he married Mary M., the daughter of Samuel and Julia A. Dilley. The wife was born in Hubabrd township, Sept. 11, 1856. One son has been born to this union, William W.

HINE, D. M. The subject of this sketch, a leading citizen and lawyer of Newton Falls, was born Dec. 20, 1856, in Parris township, Portage county, from which his parents moved a short time after to Charlestown township, the same county, where Mr. H. remained till early manhood. He is the only son of Henry O. and Laurette Selby Hine, the former born Dec. 22, 1831, and the latter Feb. 24, 1835. The Selbys were among the early settlers of Portage county, and the Hines of Newton Falls. Our subject, after completing the common schools, attended a few terms at Mount Union College, and then began teaching when about the age of twenty-one years. He commenced the study of law while teaching, and finished his legal education by a course in the Cincinnati Law College, now the Law Department of the Cincinnati University, graduating from there in 1892. Mr. Hine was among the first in his class and graduated with high honors. He then opened an office in Newton Falls, where he continues the practice of his profession. On July 13, 1893, he was married to Miss Belle Templeton, who was born Nov. 24, 1865. She is the youngest daughter of Michael and Lovina Tusselman Templeton, who have been residents of Braceville township for many years. Mrs. Hine completed the common schools and then attended, for a time, the Canfield Normal School. She was then engaged in teaching, afterward graduating in stenography and typewriting from the College of Commerce of Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. H. is a member of Newton Falls Lodge No. 255, I. O. O. F., and Mrs. H. of the Leading Star Chapter No. 79, O. E. S., and both are members of Rebecca Lodge No. 311. In 1896 Mr. Hine was chosen mayor of the village and proved himself a competent and capable official.

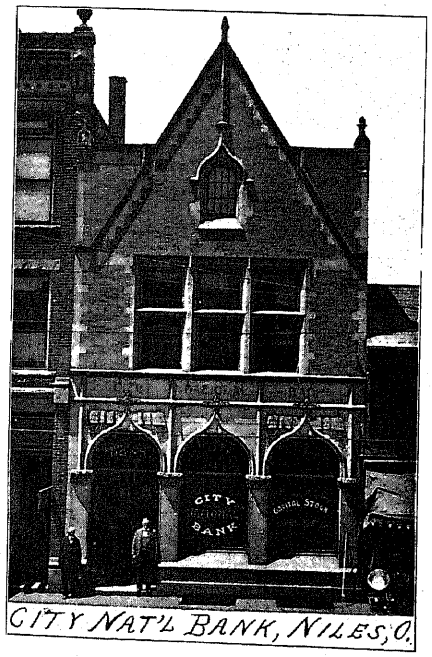

HOEFFLINGER, DANIEL, farmer, of Warren township, was born in Wurtenberg, Germany, July 4, 1824, coming to this country with his parents. They arrived in Ashtabula on his tenth birthday, where he saw for the first time a Fourth of July celebration. His parents soon setled in Warren township, on the farm where he now lives. He is the son of Christopher and Johanna Hoefflinger. The former died in 1880 and the latter some twenty-five years ago. He was raised on the farm, and underwent all the vicissitudes of pioneer life. Feb. 29, 1848, he was married to Catherine Brobst, daughter of Henry and Susan Brobst. She was born Jan. 15, 1827, and died March 6, 1885. They had three children, two daughters and one son; Hattie, born Oct. 18, 1850; Hannah, born Aug. 16, 1852, and Heman E., born Sept. 20, 1856. The latter was married Sept. 2, 1881, to Hattie E. Porter, daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth Porter. Hattie E. was born May 10, 1863. Heman E. and wife are the parents of three children. They live on the old home farm, and our subject makes his home with them. The farm consists of 173 acres of well tilled and well improved land, and bears evidence of the enterprise and thrift of its occupants. Mr. H. is one of the county's best German pioneers.

HOLDER, GEORGE, Merchant Tailor, of Niles Ohio. This gentleman will please all who desire anything in his line. Good material, a good fit, and just prices are guaranteed to all customers. Mr. Holder was born in England, Sept. 18, 1867, and came to Trumbull county in February, 1891. Previous to coming to this county, he was located in Rochester, N. Y., where he dealt in custom butter. Mr. Holder was married to Agnes B. Benedict on May 29, 1889, and their union has been blest with a bright little boy, born in 1893. In April, 1898, Mr. H. was elected to the board of education for three years. Socially he is a prominent member of the K. of P., being captain of the U. R. K. of P.; B. P. O. E., Trumbull Council 1315 R. A., Custom Cutters of North America, and Quartermaster Sergeant of Warren Co. U. V. T. He helped to elect McKinley, and is hence a firm republican.

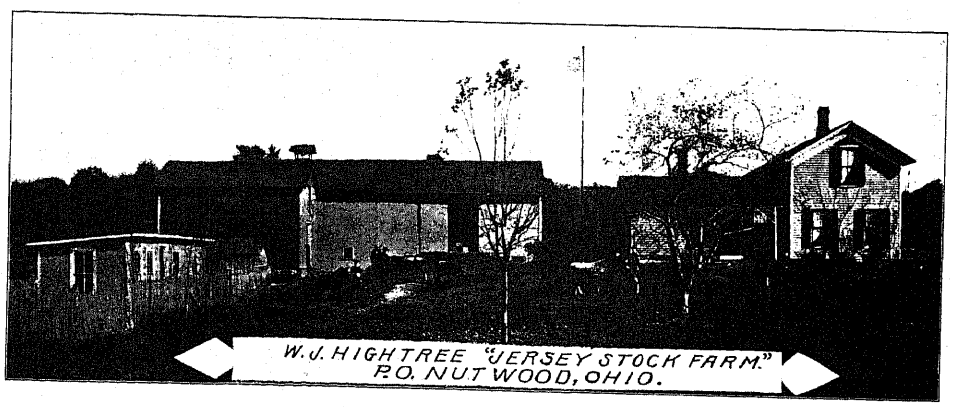

HOLMAN, CHARLES. That the art of photography is understood by but few who make it a so-called profession is evidenced by the many poor photographs with which the country is flooded, and to be convinced that the subject of this sketch is not classed with the makers of inferior photographs one has to but call at his gallery in the Franklin Block, Warren, O., and be convinced of the superiority of his work. Mr. Holman's gallery, which was finished under his direction at a cost of $1,400 for the sky lights alone, and by him leased for a series of years as soon as completed, is one of the most complete between Cleveland and Pittsburg. He does enlarging and India Ink work in addition to making portraits excelled by none. In the town of Marlborough, Mass., Sept. 17, 1847, was born the subject of this sketch, who is the son of Nathaniel and Mary Holman. When seven years of age he removed with his parents to New York city, where he received his education. At the age of fifteen he began work in a boot and shoe factory, where he remained until the age of nineteen, when he came to Warren and began the study of photography under L. M. Rice, with whom he remained one and one-half years, when he went to Utica, N. Y., where he was employed in Reynolds Brothers' shoe factory for six years. In 1875 he returned to Warren and again entered the employ of L. M. Rice, and in 1878, with him, purchased the H. A. Potter gallery, which they conducted under the firm name of Holman & Co. for eleven months, when he bought Mr. Rice's interest and ran the business, which was located just north of the Park Hotel, until 1890, when he removed to his present location in the third floor of the Franklin Block. Annie Colgan was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 15, 1847, and became the wife of our subject Feb. 7, 1871. She was educated in the schools of the same place. To them have been born two children, Charles, married, and a machinist by trade, and Mary, aged fourteen, at home. Fraternally Mr. Holman is a member of the I. O. O. F., in which he has passed all the chairs; Trumbull Encampment No. 147, Old Erie No. 3, F. & A. M.; he has taken the Scottish Rite degrees; is also a member of U. R. K. of P.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE,

Cortland, Ohio.

HOLLIDAY, JOB J., of Vienna township, one of the directors of the First National Bank of Girard, and one of its organizers, was born in Cleveland, Dec. 10, 1828. When eight years of age he came to Trumbull county, making his home with Epinetus Rodgers, by whom he was brought up, his father having died when he was a child. At the death of his foster parents he came into possession of one-half of the property and by good management he added to this until he had at one time about 275 acres of land in Vienna township, and was one of the most substantial farmers in the county. About twelve years ago he exchanged the farm for western property, and since that time has devoted less time to farming. Nov. 22, 1849, Mr. Holliday was married to Miss Mary Woodford. Two children were born to them, both of whom are now deceased. Mr. H. is a staunch republican and has held many offices of trust. Beside his interest in the bank, Mr. Holliday is connected with several other financial concerns of the county.

HOWES, EDWARD EVERETT, President of the Jefferson & Warren Telephone Co., and leading farmer of Mesopotamia, was born in Hartsgrove, Ashtabula county, Dec. 25, 1859. On his father's side our subject traces his ancestry back to John de Huse, of Berkshire, England, in 1066, A. D.; and to Thomas Howes, of Yarmouth, Mass., 1637, who was the first representative of the family in America. When our subject was eight years old, his parents moved to North Mesopotamia, and in 1880 to his present home south of the village. He received a common school education, with eighteen months at Grand River Institute. In August, 1897, our subject was elected president of the Jefferson & Warren Telephone Company, of which he was one of the principal promoters, and which now has 175 miles of line in the two counties. He was married September 19, 1888, to Miss Maud E. Sweet, and they have one child. Mr. Howes is a staunch republican.

HORN, John, son of Michael Horn, who was one of the hardy old pioneers of Ohio, was born in Lordstown township, one-half mile from where his present residence now stands, Nov. 12, 1834. His father came to Ohio in 1820, and located in Lordstown, where he remained until his death. On Nov. 1, 1860, Mr. Horn was married to Miss Susannah Beil. They have four children—McClellan, Carrie and Ada and Ida, twins. Mr. Horn has 200 acres of land, which is kept in a high state of cultivation, and is one of our leading men. He is at present township trustee, which office he has held at various times for the past twenty-five years. He is also one of the directors of the Lordstown Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company, with which he held the position of treasurer for eight years. He is a public spirited citizen and has done much toward advancing the interests of his neighborhood.

HUBBARD, J. W., was born in Greene, June 29th, 1838. His father, Daniel Hubbard, was a native of Middletown, Conn., and married Amy L. Newell of Union, Conn. They married in Connecticut, but were first acquainted in Green township,and afterwards resided in Greene. Mr. Hubbard received his education in the private and public schools of Middletown, Conn. His first wife was Lucretia A. Williams, who is deceased. Three children are living as a result of this union. Henry D., Amy L. N., and Mary L. For his second wife Mr. Hubbard married Lucy L. Hubbard.

HUGHES, HARRY, is one of the most efficient members of the Niles City common council. His election to this office being an expression of the confidence placed in him by his fellow townsmen. He was born in Moxley, England, June 8, 1856, and is the son of William and Sarah Hughes, the former born Jan. 18, 1834; the latter in Feb., 1836. He received a good education, attending Pipe Hall Academy at Bieston, from the age of three to thirteen years. Since 1873 his interests have been with the growth and development of Niles City. He is one of the old and trusted rollers of the Falcon Iron & Nail Co.'s mills. Our subject was a member of the State militia of Ohio from February, 1878, to February, 1883, Captain Chas. Freer, 2nd Ohio Battery. Feb. 19, 1882, he married Clara, the daughter of Paul and Anna Maria Biddlestone. She was born in England Jan. 1, 1858, and was educated in the Niles City schools. They are the parents of six boys and two girls. One boy is deceased. Mr. Hughes is a stanch republican and has always taken an active interest in the welfare of the party. Fraternally, he is a member of the K. of P. of Niles; the N. R. of Niles; the Temple of Honor; Protected Home Circle, and Jocelyn Social Temple. He is building a modern cottage on his property in Niles. He is justly considered one of Niles' solid, reliable citizens.

HULSE, RICHARD K., was born in the township of Bazetta Feb. 7, 1828, being the twelfth child of Henry K. and Rhoda Rowlee Hulse. His early life was spent at hard work on a farm, without any more opportunity for getting an education than that afforded by the then common district schools of the times, except six months at a pay school; he, however, kept up his studies for years, and became a fairly good English scholar. Mr. Hulse married Hannah Payton, eldest daughter of John Payton, of Mayville, N. Y., at Sharon, Pa., July 4, A. D. 1849, and settled in Kinsman, where he now resides, being trusted by his constituency with the several township offices incident to the life of a progressive,wide-awake man. He obeyed the call of his country by enlisting as a private in Company B, 125th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Aug. 7, 1862, and was promoted through several grades of non-commissioned and line officers, and was honorably discharged, with the rank of captain, at Victoria, Texas, Sept. 25, 1865. Studied law with Judge Albert Yeomans, and was admitted to practice in 1869. Has been an active member of the First M. E. Church at Kinsman, O., for fifty years. Politically a republican. Fraternally a Mason, being Past Master of Gustavus Lodge No. 442.

HULTS, J. B., a successful farmer and stock breeder of Lordstown, is a native of Allegheny, Pa., where he was born on the 20th of March, 1838. He came to Hubbard township, this county, in 1856; left there and went to Kirtland, Lake county, where he learned the miller's trade. Returning to Hubbard township in 1863, he for a time drilled for coal. This same year he was married to Miss Mary J. Powers, on Jan. 27, after which he engaged in farming till April, 1886. He then removed to his present location in Lordstown. Here he follows general farming, giving much attention to the breeding of Shropshire sheep, and good stock of all kinds. Mrs. Hults' parents, Madison and Elizabeth Wilson Powers, were pioneers of this State and accumulated nearly 2,300 acres of land, a large portion of which Mr. Powers still owns, after giving each of the children a good farm, 1,200 acres being thus deeded last spring. Mr. and Mrs. Hults are members of the Christian church, and have three children grown to maturity. As a citizen Mr. H. has served his township four years as trustee, and has been a member of the board of education, besides holding other minor offices. The family have the respect of a large circle of friends.

HULL, BRUNELL, born Nov. 5, 1848, in Burghill, Ohio, is a representative citizen farmer of Hartford township. He has always been a stanch republican, taking an active interest in local politics. He was assessor two years, trustee five years and is now justice of the peace. His education was received in select school and at Hiram College. Mary J. Chapman, the daughter of Hiram and Martha Chapman, the wife of Brunell Hull, was born in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, March 20, 1851. Her education was received in the schools of Solon, O., and Greenville, Pa. To this marriage the following children have been born: Ezra B., Jan. 8, 1873; Hiram K., Aug. 10, 1874; William P., June 5, 1881; Max C., April 16, 1884; Frank W., March 12, 1886; Marion M., March 17, 1895; all living. Osman Hull, the father of our subject, was born in Vernon township Aug. 26, 1820. Lorinda Roper Hull, the mother, was born in Braceville, Ohio, March 11, 1823. Yet living and having been closely identified with the development of this section of Trumbull county, the parents are representatives of the earlier pioneers.

HULL, DANA W., jeweler, expert watchmaker, optician and engraver, No. 6 Main street, Warren, Ohio. In all the various arts in which mankind is engaged possibly none require more expert and careful work than that of the jeweler and optician. The business which is conducted by Mr. Hull at the above number was established by his father, a pioneer jeweler of Warren, twelve years ago. Our subject is a native of Warren, where he was born June 20, 1866, and he acquired his education in the city schools of the same place. His father, Elias H. Hull, was born in Leavittsburg Nov. 10, 1829, and died May 5, 1897, and his mother, Alvira Burnett Hull, is a native of Warren, where she was born Nov. 20, 1837. At the age of eighteen Mr. Hull commenced a five years' apprenticeship to the jeweler's trade under his father, at the end of which time he went to Fremont, Ohio, where he followed his trade for a time and thence to Urbana, in the meantime also conducting a jewelry store in Leetonia. After disposing of his business at the latter place he returned to Warren, where he was with his father for a year and a half, then went to Erie, Pa., but after remaining but two years returned again to Warren, in February, 1895, to take charge of his father's business owing to the failing health of the latter, in which business he became a partner. After the death of his father, in May of that year, he purchased the interest of the other heirs, since which time he has been sole owner and proprietor. Mr. Hull makes a specialty of optical work and has the most modern instruments for testing the eyes. He carries a full and complete line of watches, jewelry, and silverware, and engraving and repairing will receive the most artistic and careful attention. In Washingtonville, Ohio, June 25, 1872, to Henry and Anna Summers was born a daughter, Lizzie A., who became the wife of our subject June 1, 1891. She received her education in Leetonia. To Mr. and Mrs. Hull has been born one child, Harry H., born Feb. 16, 1893. Politically Mr. Hull is a republican and in a business way one of Warren's courteous, substantial citizens.

HUNTER, GEORGE P., attorney at law, of Warren, was born Aug. 31, 1842, in Lowellsville, Mahoning county, O. He is the son of George and Mary Thayer Hunter, the former a native of Poland, O., and the latter of Cannadice, N. Y. Our subject attended the common schools until eighteen years of age, when he entered Oberlin College, where he remained four years and then took one year at the Rochester University and one year in the law department of the University of Albany, from which he graduated and was admitted to the bar of New York in 1865. During the time he was attending school he taught school several terms. For a time at Fremont, O., in Liberty township, a year at Richmond, Ky., another at Waynesboro, Ind.., and two years as superintendent of the Union schools at Newton Falls. After graduation at Albany, in 1866 he returned to Trumbull county and after teaching at Burghill, O., for a time, located in 1867, at Warren, where he entered the law office of Taylor & Jones on a salary and after remaining two years opened an office of his own, in 1869, and did a $2,000 business the first year. He has continued his law practice to the present time. He was a county school examiner five years, a member of the board of health three years, and a member of the city council from 1892 to 1898. Mr. Hunter is considerably interested in real estate in Warren and is a stockholder and director in the Warren Steel Range works. He has a large law practice, in which he is very successful. He is counted one of the leading attorneys and sound business men of Warren. He is a strong supporter of republicanism, and good government.

HURD, JASON deceased). On a farm in Southington township, Trumbull county, Ohio, in the year 1834, was born the subject of this sketch, the month and day being Feb. 22. He received such education as was afforded by the common schools of the township, after which he took a course in Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. He was united in marriage to Miss Anna M. Miller Aug. 13, 1858. She was the daughter of Charles and Ruby Miller, natives of Massachusetts, but at that time residents of Braceville township. Soon after their marriage they moved to the farm in Braceville township, which is still owned by Mrs. Hurd, where he carried on general farming and stock raising, making a specialty of dairying, until his death, which occurred June 29, 1887. Mr. Hurd was a loyal American citizen, and when the call for volunteers was issued he was one of the first to offer his services to his country and enlisted in the 19th O. V. I. and served until the close of the war. Mr. and Mrs. Hurd were the parents of one child, Alida C., now the wife of A. R. Moore, of Warren, Ohio. After the death of Mr. Hurd, Mrs. Hurd conducted the farm till 1890, when she removed to Warren, where she has since made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

HURD, FRANK. This name is a familiar one throughout Southington and surrounding townships. Mr. Hurd having successfully conducted his present merchantile establishment at this point for many years. It is one of the most completely stocked general stores in Trumbull county and the large patronage recorded testifies to the large and varied assortment of goods carried and to the straightforward and honorable business methods which have ever been followed by the proprietor. Isaac Hurd, the father, was born in Coalbrook, Conn., in March, 1804. He married Lucretia Veits, who was born in the same village. They are numbered with the early pioneers of Southington. Frank Hurd, son of Isaac Hurd, was born in this township Nov. 10, 1844. His education was received in the Farmington High School. He has occupied different positions of honor and trust. He served as trustee and clerk and is now treasurer of the township and is P. M. of Southington. He is a republican from principle. He married Mary E. Hess, who was born in Bristol Nov. 28, 1844. She also received her education in the Farmington High School, afterwards teaching several terms with success. They were married Nov. 26, 1865. Mrs. Hurd is the daughter of Isaac and Letta Dunlap Hess. Mr. and Mrs. Hurd are the parents of five children, mentioned below in order of birth. Effie A., Burt H., Dallas F., Henry I., Lester J. In his business we have an example of thrift and industry.

HYDE, WASHINGTON, attorney at law, and director of the Second National Bank, of Warren, and of the Orwell Banking Company, of Orwell, was born in Farmington township in 1847. After attending the West Farmington Seminary, he taught school for a time, entering the Michigan University in 1867, and graduating therefrom in 1870 in the same class with ex-Secretary of State Day. He then entered the law department of the same school, from which he was graduated in 1872, and the same year admitted to the bar at Warren, where he now enjoys a lucrative practice. In 1879 he was elected prosecuting attorney, and re-elected in 1881, serving five years in all. In 1898 he was a prominent candidate for common pleas judge. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde are the parents of five children, one of whom, Miss Jennie, is now attending Oberlin College, George is attending the Western Reserve Seminary, and Charles, Edward and Lillian are at home. He is president of the board of directors of the Western Reserve Seminary, and a membe of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. and A. M. He is a stanch, active republican, and has always taken an active part in politics.

HYDE, MARTIN L., is the owner of one of Howland's best homes. His farm consists of 105 acres on the Vienna road, two miles east of Warren. Mr. Hyde was born in Ashtabula county Dec. 26, 1851. His parents died when our subject was about thirteen, thus throwing him upon his own resources. He found employment on a farm at New Lyme, and also in Trumbull county, where he worked until his marriage, which occurred March 2, 1876. His wife was formerly Miss Eva Kyle, of Worth, Pa. They have two children, a boy and a girl. Mr. Hyde took charge of the Kinsman farm for seventeen years, when he purchased his present valuable place. In the stock line Mr. Hyde has paid special attention to short-horns, and to sheep, being interested at present in the Delaine breed. As a citizen, our subject has shown himself worthy of holding public trusts and has discharged them with credit to himself. He is an ardent and active republican.

HYDE, JAMES (deceased), farmer of Bristol township, was born in Oppenheim, Herkimer county, New York, March 19, 1816, and came overland with his parents to Farmington when two years of age. His father was a native of York State, while his mother came from Ireland when a child. The former was born in January, 1783. Our subject was one of a family of eleven children; was raised on the farm, and on Nov. 9, 1847, was married to Miss Emily Baldwin, of Youngstown, born April 9, 1824. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde resided on the old home farm until 1875; when they moved to their present home just north of Bristol Center, and the following year erected their present residence. Mr. Hyde died Feb. 9, 1897, beloved and respected by all who knew him. Mrs. Hyde's parents were Jacob H. and Florenda Baldwin. He was a native of New York and was born in 1792. Mr. B. was auditor of the county for fifteen years and in 1840 represented his county in the State Legislature. Mrs. B. was a native of Connecticut and was born in 1796. Mrs. Hyde is a woman known throughout the community for her philanthopy and active interest in forwarding all worthy enterprises for the betterment of humanity. She is a diligent worker in the Woman's Relief Corps and a member of the M. E. Church. Mrs. Hyde's nephew, Chas. A. Miner, whose home has alweys been with her, was born Sept. 26, 1877, and is now attending the State Agricultural College at Columbus.

IDDINGS, SAMUEL C., cashier of the Second National Bank of Warren, Ohio, comes from pioneer stock. Both his grandfathers came from Pennsylvania at an early date and his father, Lewis J. Iddings, was born in 1809 in a log house where the Park Hotel now stands. Samuel C. Iddings' mother was Jane Chesney, who was married to Lewis J. Iddings in 1840. Our subject's education was obtained in the Warren public schools and at the Cleveland Military Institute at Cleveland, Ohio. From 1869 to 1879 Mr. Iddings was in business with his father, but after his father's death in 1879, he became teller of the Trumbull National Bank. He remained with this bank until 1883 and in 1884 accepted the same position with the Second National Bank and served in this capacity until he was made cashier of the bank. Mr. Iddings was married to Miss Katharine MacGilvray, of Sharon, Pa., in 1886. Mrs. Iddings died in July, 1894, leaving two little daughters who, since their mother's death, have made their home with their father at the Iddings homestead on Market street. Mr. Iddings is a man of influence and property, owning valuable real estate in the city of Warren in the township of Howland.

IRWIN, CLINTON. A work of this character, bearing as it does upon the present status of Mecca township, would not be complete without due mention being made of the Irwin brothers.. Mr. Irwin was born in this township June 19, 1847, being the son of William and Marilla Silliman Irwin. He selected farming, stock raising, and dairying as his live vocation, and the neat appearing farm and modern residence and farm buildings attest the wisdom of this choice; the success of his undertaking. While not a politician, he has filled with satisfaction to all, the office of township trustee. Politically he is a republican. He is Past grand of Mecca I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 707. He married March 25, 1875, Sarah B. Owens, the daughter of Chauncey and Fanny Veits Owens. Mrs. Irwin taught school a number of terms in this State and Iowa. She was born in Granby, Conn., Sept. 27, 1842. In his life we have an example of thrift and enterprise that could with profit be followed by the younger generation.

IRWIN, JOHN W. The history of Mecca township and the history of the Irwin family have been closely knit together for many years. The parents, William and Marilla Silliman Irwin, the former born Dec. 29, 1809, the latter April 17, 1817, were pioneers of this county and endured all the vicissitudes and hardships of pioneer life. Our subject was born in this township Nov. 24, 1844. His education was obtained in the common district schools of the neighborhood. As a farmer and stock raiser, he has prospered by thrift and close application to his interests. At various times he has filled positions of trust in the township to the satisfaction of the republican party, and his constituents. He is Past Grand of Mecca I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 707. May 9, 1872, Mr. Irwin married Victoria O. Caldwell, who was born in Farmington May 21, 1849. Her parents were James and Mary Eckman Caldwell. Two children, Nellie B. and Guy F., son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, are both living. He is public-spirited and progressive and takes an interest in all that tends to improve the community.

IZANT, ROBERT T., attorney at law and secretary of the Trumbull Building & Loan Association, was born in Great Elm, Somersetshire, England, March 18, 1855. His parents were Walter and Martha Izant. Our subject came to Warren with his parents in 1872 and has since resided here. He attended the common schools of his native country till the age of fourteen and since then his education has been acquired by private study and observation. Soon after coming to Warren Mr. Izant became office boy for Hon. Jno. M. Stull, and in 1876 he began the study of law in the same office and so faithfully did he apply himself that in 1878 he was admitted to the bar and soon after began the active practice of his profession, which he has continued to the present time. Although no partnership has existed he has been more or less associated with Mr. Stull till 1897, when Mr. Izant moved his office to the Packard block. Realizing the need of such an organization, Mr. Izant, in 1889 became the promoter and principal organizer of the Trumbull Building and Loan Association, which was incorporated in February of that year, and of which he has since been secretary and attorney. In the fall of 1898 this association put up a fine business block at the corner of Park avenue and Hight street, where the secretary now has one of the finest offices in the city. Our subject is also secretary and director of the Miller Table Co., of West Farmington. He is a member of Mahoning Chapter No. 66, R. A. M., also Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. and A. M.; Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P.; Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., and Morning Light Chapter O. E. S. He was united in marriage May 8, 1888, at Kinsman, Ohio, to Sadie King, daughter of James and Lucy King. Mrs. Izant was born in Kinsman July 29, 1865, and educated in the Kinsman Academy. To this union one child has been born, James Rossiter, born June 18, 1891. Mr. Izant is one of the most prominent and able attorneys as well as one of the best business men of Warren.

IZANT, FRED P., merchant tailor, of Warren, O., is a native of England, the son of Walter and Martha Izant. He was born in Somersetshire Oct. 13, 1842. At the age of twelve he was apprenticed to a tailor and served seven years, when he established a business for himself at Great Elm, England. Here he continued for eight years. In January, 1870, he was married to Miss Gertrude Pointz Williams, who died the following September. In 1871 he emigrated to America, coming directly to Warren. In 1876 he established himself in business and has since built up a good trade. Those wishing anything in the tailor's line will find Mr. Izant a reliable and accommodating business man. He is located at 35 East Market street. Mr. Izant was united in marriage to Miss Martha J. Fox Aug. 4, 1874. She is the daughter of Reuben and Mary Fox and was born in Warren April 26, 1851. To them have been born six children, five of whom are living. Edwin O., Mabel C., Fred W., Edith O., Esther (deceased), and Bertha R. Mr. Izant has adopted the United States as his country and has united his political interests with the republican party. The family are members of the M. E. Church. Mr. I. is a member of Old Erie Lodge, F. and A. M., Past Grand of Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., Past Chief Patriarch of Trumbull Encampment No. 147, member of the Rebeccas, is Chancellor Commander of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., also a member of Western Reserve Council, Royal Arcanum, and National Union.

JASTER, EDWARD, is one of the prosperous young farmers of Johnston township. He was born in Lonk, Prussia, July 11, 1855, and is the son of Frederick and Julia W. Glick Jaster. Both parents are natives of Prussia. The father was born Aug. 4, 1825, and the mother May 21, 1822. Our subject came to this county in the spring of 1863 and has since been identified with the interests, progress and history of Johnston. He married Georgiana Buell March 10, 1892. She was born Dec. 22, 1869, the daughter of James K. and Susan M. Moran Buell. Our subject and wife have four children, two boys and two girls, all living. Fraternally he is an Odd Fellow, and she is a Rebecca. Mr. Jaster has always voted with the republican party and is a strong believer in its principles. The family have the esteem of all those who know them.

JEANES, VINCENT C.; retired farmer and resident of Warren, was born in Somersetshire, Eng., Nov. 28, 1845. He was educated in the common school and night schools of England. He came to this country in 1868, landing in Portland, Me. In the spring of 1869 he came to Trumbull county and found employment in farm work. He went to New York in 1870 to meet his intended wife, Miss Emily J. Wheller, who came from England. They were married Nov. 1, 1870, and returned to Ohio, settling in Mecca township. Mr. Jeanes conducted the Milligan farm in Howland for fifteen years, and had in connection an extensive dairy business. He also managed the Perkins farm with dairy for three years. In 1896 he retired and purchased his present home in Warren, on E. Market street, which he has since greatly improved until it is now one of Warren's most attractive suburban residences. Mr. and Mrs. Jeanes have five children, all of whom are living. Socially Mr. Jeanes is a member of Mahoning Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., and member of Encampment; politically he is a republican.

JEWELL, ALLEN. None more justly deserve mention in these pages than the Jewell family, the grandparents of our subject being closely identified with the early pioneer history of Vernon township. The subject of this sketch was born in this township Oct. 28, 1860, and is the son of Thaddeus and Mary A. Mossman Jewell, the former born May 17, 1828, and the latter Feb. 14, 1828. Both parents are deceased. Allen Jewell selected for his wife Miss Emma Karr, the daughter of Geo. W. and Juliaett Karr. Mrs. Jewell was born in West Salem, Mercer county, Pa., Nov. 8, 1861, and they were married Feb. 7, 1883. Two sons have been born to this union and both are living. Mr. Jewell's political views are in accord with republican principles. His farm is adorned by a new and modern residence, one of the best farm houses in Trumbull county, a cut of which appears on a separate page. Mr. Jewell is director of the Kinsman National Bank. Although a young man he is justly recognized as a careful but wide-awake business man. His ideas are in accord with the latest research and improved methods, whether it be the farm, home, school or State that is interested.

JOHNSON, HON. WILLIAM M. In the death of this man Trumbull county was bereft of a loyal son, the family of a loving husband and indulgent father. He died in Mecca Oct. 21, 1898. On Sunday, Oct. 23, friends and relations from many miles came to pay the last tribute of love and respect to the departed. Mecca chapter of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows were in charge of the funeral and the interment was according to their ritual. E. B. Wakefield, of Hiram College, preached the funeral sermon, and Senator Sullivan, as a member of the last Legislature, spoke of the honesty and integrity of purpose always characteristic of the departed. Hon. Wm. M. Johnson was born in Northamptonshire Oct. 29, 1844, and came to Vernon township with his parents when three years old. His education was received in the Vernon schools and Hiram College. He enlisted in the service of his country Feb. 23, 1863, in Co. D of the 6th Ohio Cavalry, and was honorably discharged July 8, 1865. He participated in several important engagements and on Oct. 1, 1864, was wounded at City Point, necessitating the amputation of the arm. Mr. Johnson was married Jan. 1, 1867, in Gustavus, Ohio, to Miss Florence M. Thompson, daughter of Timothy and Celina Thompson. To Mr. and Mrs. Johnson four children were born, Fred C. and Nina E. are living. Nellie, deceased, aged two and one-half years. The mother and wife departed this life Oct. 11, 1894. Mr. Johnson, on Sept. 14, 1895, married Mrs. M. E. Craft, who was born in Cortland, O., Sept. 7, 1851. She was educated at Conneaut, Ohio. Mr. Johnson was a stanch republican and filled different positions of honor and trust. At the time of his death he was the Representative of Trumbull county, an honor well deserved and faithfull discharged.

JOHNSON, FRED C., is a native of Mecca township, where he was born Nov. 6, 1867. His father, the late William Johnson, was born in England in 1844. His mother, Florence M. Thompson Johnson, was born April 27, 1848. Our subject was reared on the father's farm, during the winter months attending the district school, which he supplemented with one year's work in the Cortland High School. He Married, Sept. 4, 1888, Cora E. Love, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Love. Mrs. Johnson was born at Fruisburg, Chautauqua county, N. Y., Aug. 13, 1866. Mr. Johnson has been honored by the republicans of Mecca township and is now filling his second term as township clerk. Hs has proved himself a successful young farmer, alert to adopt the inventions and progress of the age. He is a grower and breeder of good stock, especially a fine flock of Shropshire sheep, of which he is justly proud.

JOHNSON, A. W., is one of the leading horsemen of the United States. As a manager of the New York Coach Horse and Cob Companie's stables at Hubbard, Ohio, he has gained an enviable reputation for buying, training and sending to the East the best horses ever shown in the great horse shows of the United States. When it is considered that this company has taken more prizes in the great contests of New York and the East, the importance of Mr. Johnson's judgment as a buyer and trainer is more apparent. Being quick to select a good horse, he then knows just how to handle and train him to bing out to the best advantages, all his good qualities. He also is giving valuable aid to horse breeders in the raising of better horses for the market. In the company stables at Hubbard there is ample accommodations for 150 horses with suitable tracks for driving and training. The business is steadily growing, and improving, as is shown by the large number (nearly 1,000) of horses handled yearly, all high grade.

JOHNSTON, J. T.; laundry. This eminently useful institution was established about two years ago, and in June, 1898, came under the proprietorship of J. T. Johnston, of the Electric Sanitarium, with James Donaldson as manager. Mr. Donaldson had had fourteen years' experience in laundry business and is fully qualified for the position. This laundry is headquarters for general laundrying, particular attention being given to transient trade and family washing. Equipped with all modern appliances, it is located in new quarters especially fitted for it on North Pine street, just off from Market street.

JOHNSON, D. C., is a native of the Keystone State, but has been identified with the county of his adoption since July 11, 1856. He was born in Mercer county, Pa., July 5, 1825. His parents were John and Nancy Keeper Johnson. Mr. Johnson has employed his time in farming and stock raising. He now owns a herd of fine Leicester graded sheep, as good as any in northeastern Ohio. Politically he has always officiated with the republican party, in whose principles he is a strong believer. He married Mary Kale, born in Springfield township, Mahoning county, Ohio. Her parents were Henry and Mary Katero Kale. Their children are John H., Clara, Mary, living, and Charles, deceased, aged thirteen, and Priscilla, deceased, aged seven years. Mr. Johnson is a republican. He has so lived that all his acquaintances esteem and respect him.

JONES, JEHOIAKIM, retired clothing merchant, of Girard, was born in Bargod, Monmouthshire, Wales, Nov. 17, 1835. At the age of twelve years he was apprenticed to a tailor, serving five years to learn the trade. After working at his trade for five years more, in London, he emigrated to America in 1857, locating at Tamaqua, Pa., where he was employed in a clothing store for two years. Here he met Miss Ann Davis, also a native of Wales, to whom he was married May 9, 1859. After his marriage our subject removed to Scranton, Pa., remaining there four years. Here he enlisted, in 1862, in the service of the United States, but was discharged on account of heart trouble. In 1863 he came to Girard, and for six years was employed as cutter for Hartzell & Lambert, at the end of which time he went into business for himself. He carried on a successful business for twenty-three years, retiring in 1892. Mr. Jones has always taken an active interest in public affairs. He is an ardent republican and was a member of the board of trustees of his township for six years. Since 1897 he has been a member of the board of directors of the County Infirmary. He is a prominent member of F. and A. M., K. T., and I. O. O. F. Lodges. Mr. and Mrs. J. have a family of three children, the eldest of whom, W. J. Jones, married a cousin of the late Senator Voorhees, of Indiana.

JONES, GOMER J., the well known shoe dealer of Girard, is one of the most progressive merchants in the town. He is the proprietor of a fine two-story brick block on Liberty street, and carries a full line of footwear, besides trunks, satchels, gloves and hosiery. Mr. Jones carries right goods and is a genial and obliging merchant. He was born in Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 29, 1860. His parents emigrated to this county from Wales when he was quite young. When our subject was two years of age, they moved to Mineral Ridge, where Mr. J. lived till he was of age. From the age of ten to twenty-one years he worked in coal mines at Mineral Ridge and then removed to Girard, where he held a position as clerk with A. E. Hartzell for one year. Mr. Jones then took a course of study at the Normal Institute, Ada, Ohio, and returned to Girard. April, 1883, found the subject of our sketch embarked in partnership with Mr. J. Jones, now one of the Infirmary directors of Trumbull county, in the general store business, and in one year, April 22, 1884, he married the daughter of his partner. Upon the retirement of Mr. J. Jones, late in 1885, he took full charge of the business and continued in it for eleven years, when he closed out his stock and engaged in the boot and shoe business exclusively, in as modern a storeroom as can be found in any town the size of Girard, where by fair dealing and his affable manner, he is building up a lucrative and ever-growing business. Mr. Jones is an active and an honored member of Friendship Lodge No. 65. He is a prime mover in the incorporation of Girard Village, and has held several offices of trust, and at this writing is prominently mentioned as the next postmaster of Girard. He is always alert in promoting anything that he considers an improvement and a benefit to the town.

JONES, GORDON A. The Jones family dates back to the early pioneer history of Hartford township, the grandparents of our subject coming to this part of Trumbull county when it was a trackless forest. Mr. Jones, after attending the common schools, engaged in farming and is now successfully operating a saw-mill in connection with his agricultural interests. Within a few years he has erected a modern house and barn on his farm. On March 10, 1852, he was born in the township which is his home. Johanna, the daughter of T. R. Thomas, the wife of Mr. Jones, was born in Glenmorganshire, Wales, March 30, 1862, the marriage being solemnized Dec. 21, 1881. Two boys and one girl have been born to this union. The name of Jones and republicanism are synonymous.

JONES, JOSEPH E., is one of the leading grocers of Niles, where he carries on a solid and increasing business from year to year. This grocery is located on Main street and has a fair share of the city's best trade, and is also headquarters for our rural producers. Anything in the line of staple and fancy groceries may be obtained here at satisfactory prices. The proprietor, Joseph E. Jones, was born March 8, 1865. He married Miss Rachel Williams, born March 4, 1868, and to them two children have been born, Howard and Edward. Mr. J. located in Niles in 1867, and at twelve years of age, he left school and sought employment at mill work, in which he continued for fifteen years. He entered upon the grocery business in 1892, and is now the sole proprietor. Hs is popular among his fellow citizens and a member of I. O. O. F. No. 438 of Niles and Royal Arcanum.

JONES, C. J., has been identified with Hartford township since Jan. 5, 1854, the date of his birth. His father, James F. Jones, was born Jan. 31, 1804, and married Mary Quiggle, who was born March 18, 1821. Besides general farming Mr. Jones, in company with Clark & Cratsley, own and operate a threshing machine during the season. He is a republican from principle and has served in a public capacity in various ways, now filling the office of township trustee. Fraternally, he is Master of Hartford Grange and second lieutenant of Hartford street police. Mr. Jones married Oct. 7, 1880, Addie M. Clark, who was born in Brookfield township July 1, 1859, and is the daughter of Seth and Sarah Clark. They are the parents of three children, all living.

JOY, M. M. The Joy family have been prominently connected with the agricultural interests of Southington township since its early pioneer history. Harvey Joy, the grandfather of our subject, was born in Vermont in 1807, and in 1811 his parents emigrated to the Western Reserve, then the far west, and settled in Southington township. He married Miss Louisa Bronson, who was the first white female child born in this township, the year being 1809. His grandfather was one of the early circuit riders of northeastern Ohio. Orlim B. Joy, son of Harvey, and father of our subject, was born on the old homestead June 20, 1833. His wife, Miss Carmelia E. Chalker, was born Sept. 23, 1836, and departed this life Nov. 21, 1892. During her life she was a consistent member of the M. E. Church. M. M. Joy, son of Orlim B., was born April 17, 1863. His early life was sepnt on the father's farm and in the district schools. Later he attended W. Farmington Seminary and prepared himself for the profession of teaching, in which work he successfully engaged 18 terms. He is engaged in divirsified farming, and during the season operates a cider, jelly, and apple-butter factory. Sept. 10, 1884, he married Julia A. Housell, who was born in Champion Aug. 3, 1863. She is the daughter of George A. and Julia A. Dilley Housell. Mr. and Mrs. Joy are the parents of one daughter, Hazel A., born Dec. 18, 1887. Mr. Joy is a member of the republican county executive committee.

JOY, THOMAS, is a native of England, where he was born March 2, 1837. He came to Mahoning county, O., in 1856, and since that time his interests and the welfare of the state of his adoption have been mutual. His wife, Sarah A. Joy, was born in England Sept. 30. 1842. The well improved farm, neat home and large modern barn have been accumulated by this family since coming to America. By industry, perseverence, and a strict regard for the principles of honesty and integrity have they accumulated this property. They have one son and two daughters living and one daughter deceased. Politically they are republicans. Mr. Joy and family stand justly high in the community where they have passed so many busy and useful years.

KENNEDY, ANTHONY WAYNE, a prosperous and influential citizen of Girard, and president of the First National Bank of that place, was born on a farm in Bazetta township Feb. 17, 1841. His grandfather, Samuel K., came to this county, settling in Howland township in 1814. Wm. B. Kennedy, the father of our subject, was born Sept. 21, 1812, and came with his parents to this county in 1814. He married Eliza Davis, sister of Wm. and Aaron Davis of Bazetta township. Our subject, A. W. Kennedy, remained at home on the farm, attending the district schools till the age of thirteen, when he attended the Bazetta Academy and later the Warren High School, under James Marvin as superintendent. Having learned photography, he taught school winters and followed his trade during vacations. In 1863 Mr. K. went West to prospect for gold, working in and around Helena, Montana, until 1867.

Returning to Trumbull county he followed farming during the summer and taught school winters till 1872, when he engaged as superintendent of the Girard schools. This position he held till 1898, with the exception of four years, from 1882 to 1886, during which time he had charge of the schools at Hubbard. Mr. K. served the Girard schools long and faithfully as superintendent, and was also a member of the county board of examiners during seventeen years of that time. In 1893, when the First National Bank of Girard was organized, he accepted his present position with that institution, and has given the best of satisfaction to all concerned.

He married Miss Eunice Kellogg of Fowler township April 22, 1868. She is the daughter of E. V. and Lucy Loomis Kellogg. They were from Massachusetts and settled in the county about 1820. Mrs. K. was born in Fowler township July 22, 1841. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy are the parents of but one daughter, Mrs. G. S. Jones of Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. J. have one daughter, Eunice K., and one daughter died in infancy. Mr. K. and wife are members of the Disciple Church, and they have a fine residence, located in West Girard, on the bank of the Mahoning river, commanding a fine view of Girard and a part of Youngstown and a large part of the Mahoning valley. A cut of their home appears upon another page of this work.

KENNEDY, C. C., is living in Cortland, O., in the township of his birth, which occurred Sept. 12, 1845. He received the advantage of a commercial and normal education in Oberlin College, soon after entering the profession of teaching, in which he successfully engaged a number of years, during vacations spending his time in agricultural pursuits. He is the son of William B. and Eliza Davis Kennedy, the former born Sept. 21, 1812; the latter June 13, 1818. His wife, formerly Lucy Alice Kellogg, the daughter of E. V. and Lucy Loomis Kellogg, was born in Fowler township Oct. 28, 1847. They were married Feb. 25, 1869. The children are mention in order of birth: Lloyd B., Dec. 7, 1869; Carl W., April 20, 1873; Bessie L., Oct. 5, 1889.

In politics Mr. Kennedy has always voted with the republican party. They both belong to the Disciple Church. He is a Master Mason. Few men or families are better known in Trumbull county. Having been born on the farm, he made the most possible of the limited educational facilities of the day, afterward supplementing it with college work, and to the education thus acquired has added much knowledge by reading and observation, until he is recognized as a man of wide information, sound judgment and good business ability.

KENNEDY, LLOYD B., secretary and treasurer of The Farmers Banking Company, of West Farmington, O., which is represented upon another page, is a native of Fowler township. He was born Dec. 7, 1869, and is the son of C. C. and Alice Kellogg Kennedy. He was born about two miles east of Cortland, but most of his life was spent in the village where he attended school. After studying for a year with his uncle, Prof. A. W. Kennedy, of Girard, he graduated from that school in 1887. For three years he taught in the Trumbull county district schools and about the same length of time in the graded schools, notably at La Salle, Ill. During vacations he attended the Oberlin Business College, and during the years 1896 and 1897 he was bookkeeper and assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Girard. Oct. 1, 1897, he accepted the position of trust that he now occupies with The Farmers' Banking Company. He is a member of Cortland Lodge, No. 318, K. of P., and Warren Lodge, No. 295, B. P. O. E.

KENNEDY, JAMES L., a farmer of Howland township, was born June 4, 1843, in Howland, on the same farm where he now resides. His parents came to Ohio in 1814 and settled on the homestead which now belongs to him. He was educated in the township schools, and in 1868 engaged in the saw-mill business. After three years spent in this way he removed to Sharon, Pa., where he was proprietor of a hotel for three years. He then came to Warren, and after following various lines of business he retired in 1883, at the death of his father, to the old homestead, which has since been his home.

Mr. Kennedy's time is devoted to farming and stock raising, specializing on Durham and short-horn cattle. He is also interested in the Niles Marble and Granite Company. In September, 1869, he was married to Miss Betsey Alderman, who died June 8, 1895, leaving one son, Charles H., a farmer, in Howland township. In April, 1898, he was married to Miss Mary L. Heaton, a lady of unusual ability. Mrs. Kennedy takes a keen interest in education, and has taken a prominent position in various associations, being at the time of her marriage school trustee of her township and corresponding secretary of Princeton Equal Suffrage Association and Princeton Academy of Science. Her parents were among the early residents of Howland, but emigrated to Illinois. Mrs. K. was for a number of years secretary and treasurer of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Ottawa Association, and traveling organizer and speaker of the same. She is a member of Rebecca Lodge and Eastern Star. Mr. K. is a deputy supervisor of elections, was justice of the peace for twelve years and has been secretary of the Trumbull County Agricultural Association for the last six years. He is now serving his twenty-second year as secretary of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M., his twenty-third year as secretary of Mahoning Chapter, No. 66, his twenty-first year as recorder of Warren Council, No. 58, R. & S. M., and his fifteenth year as recorder of Warren Commandery, No. 39, K. T.

KENNEDY, GEO. W., farmer of Howland township, was born May 16, 1836. He was educated in the public schools of the township. In 1861 he was one of those who exchanged the plow for the sword, and the pruning hook for the spear, and went forth to fight the battles of his country. He was enrolled with Co C., Ind. O. V. Cal., and was with his regiment practically all the time until his discharge in September, 1864. He took part in many active engagements and received some severe wounds, from the effects of which he has never fully recovered. After the war he engaged in lumbering and the manufacture of pumps, and later was in the hotel business in Sharon, Pa., and Warren, O. In 1878 he came to his present home in southeast Howland, where he has since been engaged in general farming. He was married to Miss Eliza Bailey Dec. 7, 1865. They have one son, J. F. Kennedy, who married Miss Lillian Hawkins April 4, 1891. They have two daughters: Bernice, born July 13, 1893, and Gertrude, born May 14, 1895. Mr. Kennedy supports the protectionist platform and has held several public offices. He is also a member of Bell-Harmon Post, G. A. R., of Warren.

KEE, M. DE FOREST, D. D. S. The subject of this sketch is an expert dentist. He has a thoroughly equipped office in the First National Bank block, corner of Park avenue and Market street, where he is prepared to do all kinds of dentistry by modern methods in a most thorough and satisfactory manner. He stands among the first rank in his profession and has a large and increasing practice. He was born in Greene township Aug. 10, 1862. He received his education in the district schools, Jefferson High School and Indiana Dental College, Indianapolis, Ind., graduating in 1888. He studied also with Dr. Le Cheverell of Jefferson and Dr. Smith of Cortland, coming to Warren after practicing five years in the latter place. He is a member of the K. of P. Lodge of Cortland and an active member of the Disciple Church.

KEEFER, JONATHAN. Among the well-known farmers of Liberty township is the subject of our sketch. He is a native of the township, the date of his birth being March 21, 1833. He was educated at Girard. Besides general farming Mr. K. gives special attention to the breeding of fine Durham cattle, and now owns some Aberdeen Polled Angus cattle. He responded to the call for a hundred-day service during the civil war in 1864, and enlisted in Co. D, 171st regiment. Received his discharge in August, 1864. Mr. K. was married Nov. 20, 1855, to Miss Rebecca Herring, who died Dec. 24, 1887, leaving no children. His second wife was Miss Mary Baird, by whom he has had two sons. There is also an adopted son, Mr. W. W. Keefer, who is superintendent of the Himrod Coal Co. of Westville, Ill. Mr. K. is a republican in politics and one of the reliable men of the county.

KELLOGG, RODNEY L., a prosperous young farmer and stock raiser, was born in Fowler township Feb. 7, 1865. He is the son of Samuel Kellogg, one of the representative agriculturists of this county. The father was born Oct. 16, 1838. The Kellogg family have been closely connected with the history of this township for many years. The grandfather of our subject was one of the early county commissioners of Trumbull county and a large land owner. Our subject married Clara Morrison, the daughter of Samuel and Eliza Brown Morrison. She was born in Bazetta Aug. 8, 1868, and they were married June 3, 1885. Below in order of birth we mention the children that have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg: Darsie D., Feb. 7, 1888; Orpha L., Aug. 20, 1890; Maud, Jan. 19, 1892. The Kelloggs have always believed in and supported the principles of the democratic party. Fraternally Mr. Kellogg is a member of Cortland K. of P. Lodge, No. 318, and Cortland F. & A. M. Lodge, No. 529.

KIBLER, JACOB H., farmer of Warren township, was born July 15, 1841. He is of German descent, his parents, Jacob and Louisa Hoefflinger Kibler, coming to this country from Wurtenburg, Germany, in the early thirties. They were married in 1839 and moved to their present home, where they have lived ever since, and where our subject was brought up. He was married Oct. 1, 1867, to Mary C. Hellar, whose birth occurred April 16, 1850, in Chester county, Pa. Her parents, John G. and Dorothy Paperin Hellar, were both natives of Germany. After their marriage they lived just west of the old home till 1882, when they moved to the present farm of 85 acres. Three children have been born to them whose birth occurred as named: Clara E., born Jan. 15, 1869; a son who died in infancy, and Nettie L., born Sept. 22, 1885. Mr. and Mrs. Kibler are members of the Lutheran Church. Mr. K. in politics votes with the democratic party.

KIGHTLINGER, FRANK B., is a native of Meade township, Crawford county, Pa., where he was born in 1866, on the 12th day of May. He is the son of Jacob and Mary Ann Kightlinger, the former born Sept. 25, 1812, and the latter July 17, 1834. Frank B. received his education in the district schools of his native township, in the meantime assisting on the farm till 1886, when he came to Trumbull county and secured employment with George Park of Mecca township in the oil well business. He shortly after came to Warren, where for four years he was employed by William R. Stiles, and then for six years by S. W. Park & Co., hardware dealers of the same place. In April, 1897, he accepted his present position in the store of Henderson & Heasley, where he still remains. He was married March 5, 1891, to Miss Carrie J. Ramser of Youngstown, O., who was born Nov. 10, 1867, and received her education in the schools of that city. Mr. and Mrs Kightlinger are the parents of two children: Paul E., born Dec. 26, 1892, and Ella May, born May 2, 1894. Fraternally Mr. K. is a member of the K. of P., in which he has held all the chairs but that of C. C., is junior guard of the B. P. O. E. and a member of the Senior Order American Mechanics. He is a republican and one of the hustling young business men of Warren.

KINNEY, W. S. The genial landlord of the Arlington Hotel is one of the youngest business men in Cortland. The exterior and interior present a neat appearance, and it is pleasantly located near the Erie depot. Since coming to Cortland one year ago he has established a lucrative and growing trade, the hotel becoming well known to the traveling and local public. The subject of this mention was born in Grove City, Pa., Sept. 22, 1874, and is the son of Wilbur S. and Nellie McDowell Kinney. Since completing a commercial and scientific course of study at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., he has been identified with the present business. Aug. 20, 1896, Mr. Kinney married Lorinda Root, born in Johnston township Feb. 19, 1882, the daughter of Homer and Minol Hultz Root, a prosperous farmer of Johnston township.

KISNER, F. N. Few farmers of Mecca township are better or more favorably known. As a farmer he is enterprising and progressive; as a citizen he enjoys the confidence and esteem of all those who know him. Mr. Kisner was born in Austintown, O., Sept. 18, 1850, and is the son of Daniel and Elizabeth Gilbert Kisner, the former born Nov. 18, 1813, the latter April 1, 1815. His wife, formerly Ella L. Case, was educated in the Farmington and Warren city schools, supplementing her literary education with a course of instruction in the Dana Institute. She was born in Mecca township Aug. 9, 1853, and is the daughter of Burt and Emma M. Holmes Case. Mr. and Mrs. Kisner were married Dec. 27, 1876. The children, Ethel L., Hazel B. and Freddie M., are all living. He is one of the staunch, reliable men of Mecca township. Politically Mr. Kisner is a republican and has held the various township offices with satisfaction to the people.

KINGSLEY, ROBERT C., manager and one of the owners of the Kingsley Shoe Store at No. 15 East Market street, Warren, Ohio. This firm carries a complete line of footwear of all the latest styles and at prices to suit the purchaser. R. C. Kingsley, the manager, is an energetic, hustling business man and knows well how to purchase goods, both of quality and price to please the public. Boots, shoes, rubbers and all supplies necessary to a first-class shoe store are to be found in this establishment. Customers are always sure to receive fair and courteous treatment. Any man whom Mr. Kingsley cannot boot will have to go without that necessity. Our subject is a native of Trumbull county, having been born in Vienna Center Dec. 23, 1860. He is the son of J. B. and Sallie M. Kingsley of this city, the former born in Fowler township Sept. 5, 1833, and the latter in Vienna township May 8, 1736. At the age of fifteen Robert C. went West, visiting the states of Michigan, Illinois and Missouri. He afterward engaged in the general merchandise business at Conneautville, Pa., for eleven years, and in 1890 went to Chattanooga, Tenn., where he engaged in the house furnishing business till 1897, when he came to Warren and engaged in his present business, purchasing the stock of Lamb Bros. Mr. Kingsley takes an active interest in public affairs, and is one of the kind of men to help build up a town. While in Tennessee he was president of the Young Men's Republican Club, the oldest organization of its kind in the state. In Conneautville, Pa., he served as auditor five years, and as a member of the city council two years. Miss Mina Brown, daughter of J. A. and Melissa Brown, was born in Conneautville, Pa., March 4, 1863. She was educated in the schools of that town and became the wife of Mr. Kingsley Aug. 17, 1882. Mr. K. has always been a staunch republican.

KING, ELMORE A., is a prominent stock raiser and farmer of Howland township, where he was born on the farm where he now lives Nov. 30, 1865. His great-great-grandfather came to the Western Reserve from Connecticut with the first surveying party in 1797 and settled on the farm now occupied by Elmore A. The grandfather of our subject, William K., came from Connecticut with his parents and the father, James Frank, was born March 12, 1821, in the old homestead in Howland. The mother, Cornelia King, was born in Hartford township July 21, 1842. Elmore A. was educated in the schools of Howland, supplemented by a two years' course in New Lyme Institute. He carries on general farming and stock raising and has been very successful. His father introduced Short-Horn cattle into the township and they have since made a specialty of this breed. Our subject is now serving as township trustee and is a director in the Trumbull County Agricultural Association. Nov. 10, 1887, he was married to Miss Adelphia Thatcher of Cortland. She was born Aug. 16, 1869, the daughter of Joseph W. and Nancy Thatcher. Mr. and Mrs. K. are the parents of two children: James F., Jr., aged nine years, and Alice Lorena, aged two years. In politics our subject supports the republican principles.

KISTLER, E. H., whose portrait appears above, was born in Lordstown, Trumbull county, O., at which place he received a good common school education. After finishing school he managed his mother's farm for eight years, thus acquiring a practical knowledge of farming. Having decided to open a newspaper subscription agency he came to Warren in 1894 for the purpose of getting better mail and railroad facilities and established his present agency. In 1898 he added real estate to his business and now makes a specialty of farm and city property. Mr. Kistler is not only a practical farmer but has acquired much valuable information in regard to the vocation from the large number of farmers' institutes which he has attended; in fact no man in northeastern Ohio is better known, as he has attended fairs and institutes in the interests of his business within a radius of 100 miles of Warren for the past six years. He is thus enabled to judge of the desirability and value of a piece of real estate, and those purchasing through this agency and trusting to his judgment will make no mistake. Mr. Kistler has been eminently successful and understands matters pertaining to his business to the minutest detail. Those desiring to buy, sell or exchange real estate should make it a point to see him and secure the benefit of his experience and assistance.

KINNE, HENRY R., a retired farmer, who has been constantly identified with the development of this county for over half a century. He was born in Kinsman township May 2, 1838, and is the son of Isaac and Cynthia Kinne, the former born April 28, 1807; the latter April 26, 1811. The parents were prominent in the early history of this part of the country. Our subject was married Feb. 15, 1870, to Samantha Bates of Mercer county, Pa., the daughter of J. K. and Pollie Bates. She was born June 25, 1844, and received her education in Jamestown, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Kinne have two daughters, both living. Besides his farming, our subject has been a breeder and grower of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, in which department of agriculture he has attained success. By thrift, industry and economy he has succeeded in accumulating an enviable financial position among his fellow men. In a business way he has succeeded in his many undertakings.

KIRCH, JOHN. Probably there is no man in Lordstown whose life has been more varied by change of scene and residence than has that of the subject of this sketch. Mr. Kirch was born Feb. 2, 1838, at Lixing, province of Lorraine, Germany. He was educated in his own country, and at the age of twenty-one entered the army of France and served six years, being dismissed one year before the full term of service on account of his father losing his eyesight. Soon after this Mr. K. came to America and engaged in business in New York for two years. Following is a brief outline of his travels since coming to this country: Mr. Kirch went from New York to Iowa, remained one year, thence back to Lowville, Lewis county, thence to Scranton, Pa., and after a short stay here proceeded to Hagarstown, N. Y., where he was married to Miss Sarah Valentine. They soon returned to Lowville, thence to Ilion, where the Remington firearms are made, and from here to Indianapolis, where they remained but a short time when they returned to Pittsburg, where Mr. K. secured a position in a rolling mill. From Pittsburg they went to Europe on a pleasure trip, remained four months and the following year went again to Europe, visiting Paris and other places for six months; then returned and bought a farm in New Jersey, stayed one year when he came to Ohio and located in Lordstown, on the farm where they now reside. Our traveler is versed in four languages, is a scholar, a great reader and highly respected by all who know him.

KLINGEMIER, FRED, of Champion, O., is the proprietor of a general store, where he handles dry goods, notions, groceries, hay forks, mowers, binders, etc. He has a large trade and is justly popular with his patrons. He was born in Champion township March 14, 1860, and is the son of Wm. and Elizabeth Klingemier. The former was born in Kirchspel Ledde, Kreis Tecklenburg Regearingsbecirk Munster Konigreich Krensen Westfahlen, Germany, March 19, 1836, and came to this country in 1854, and the latter was born in the same place Oct. 4, 1838, and came to America in 1845. Mr. Klingemier was married Feb. 5, 1888, to Miss Lottie Shaffer, also of Champion, where she was born Nov. 14, 1867. She is the daughter of Wm. and Mary Shaffer. Mr. Shaffer was born in Austintown, Mahoning county, March 26, 1830, and Mrs. S. in Champion Oct. 18, 1841. Mr. and Mrs. K. are the parents of two children, Clyde W., born April 3, 1893; Agnes May, born Sept. 27, 1896. Mr. Klingemier is a deacon in the Disciple Church, of which he and his wife are members. Since 1886 he has been postmaster at Champion.

KLINITE, HIRAM S., agent of the Erie R. R. at Leavittsburg, was born April 22, 1857, on the old Klinite farm in Warren township, about one mile south of Leavittsburg. He lived at home and attended district schools until 1881, when he began working for the Erie R. R. He was first employed in the freight house, later as night ticket agent, then for five years as yard clerk, and in March, 1896, he accepted his present position as agent. In July, 1885, he was united in marriage to Miss Cara G. Brady of Cleveland. Three children have been born to them: Francis G., Anson J. and Robert W. In politics Mr. K. is with the present administration. Socially he is a member of Independence Lodge, No. 90, K. of P. of Warren.

KLINGENSMITH, SAMUEL, was born in Warren township Nov. 1, 1850. His father, Jacob Klingensmith, was born in Westmoreland, Pa., March 5, 1817, and came to Trumbull county when quite young and bought the farm where our subject now lives. Mr. Klingensmith's father met an early death from typhoid fever. He died Dec. 31, 18—. Mr. K.'s mother was a German, a native of Untuarbauch, in Kingriech, Wittenburg, Germany, who came to this country in 1834, and died Oct. 2, 1887. Mrs. K.'s parents were residents of New Springfield, Mahoning county, where Mr. Mecklin still lives, his wife being now deceased. Mr. Samuel K. has always lived on a farm in Warren, with the exception of five years spent in East Palestine learning the miller's trade, which he followed for three years. Since then he has resided on his farm of 127½ acres, which is in fine condition for all crops and fruits and has good house and outbuildings. Mr. Klingensmith keeps a good grade of Durham stock and also goood horses, for some of which he has received fancy prices. Besides this he handles a large amount of commercial fertilizer, which he sells to his neighbors at a small margin of profit. He is recognized as a good business man and a successful farmer of Warren township.

KLINGENSMITH, JOHN, farmer of Warren township. Our subject's parents came to this country about sixty years ago, and settled on what is known as the Klingensmith farm, on the south town line road in Warren township. Here Mr. K. was born Jan. 7, 1844. He remained at home, attending district school and assisting on the farm, till his marriage, June 23, 1864, to Miss Regina Groh, who came to this country from Germany in 1859. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. K. removed to Lordstown, where they bought a small farm and lived for seven years, when they bought their present farm in West Warren. Here they have increased in prosperity till they now have a modern home of one hundred acres, with good residence, barns and everything well kept. Mr. K. also owns eighty acres some three miles south, beside saw and feed mill property in Leavittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Klingensmith have a family of eight children. Mr. K. is a prominent democrat, having been a candidate for various county and township offices. He has also served as director in his school district.

KLINITE, WM. B., mason and building contractor of Warren City. Our subject's father came to America from Germany in 1831 and settled on the present Klinite farm, south of Leavittsburg, where Mr. K. was born April 4, 1852. He lived at home, attending district school, and when he was twenty-two years of age served two years' apprenticeship as stone and brickmason. In 1880 Mr. K. came to Warren, where he has since followed his trade as mason and contractor. The firm is known as Klinite Bros., and has put up many fine buildings, including the addition to the main building of the county house, Lamb & Strong block in Warren, Bank Building in Orwell and the Dither block in Niles. Our subject was married Dec. 25, 1877, to Emma J. Refinger of Niles. After their marriage they spent one year on a farm and one year in Niles, but have since resided in Warren. Socially Mr. Klinite is a member of Independence Lodge, No. 90, K. of P., and No. 162, K. O. T. M.

KNIGHT, R. J., is a native of Stogundeer, Somersetshire, England, where he was born April 7, 1848, the son of John and Sarah Alford Knight. The mother was born Sept. 28, 1819. After completing the common school work he attended the North Bloomfield High School two years. Besides his farming, stock raising and dairying he has sold farming machinery for eleven years with eminent success. He is the owner of a nice herd of short-horn and Holstein cattle. He has taken an active interest in the public affairs of the township, filling the office of township trustee three times and a member of the school board for twenty-one consecutive years. In politics he is a strong republican. Mr. Knight married Martha Rex, born June 29, 1851, the daughter of Daniel and Mary Ann Bouckhans Rex. Mrs. Knight was born in Pennord, Somersetshire, England. She received her education in the Orwell High School. The children born to this union are Earl J., Charles B., Carl B., Mabel Pearl, Emma S. He has been successful in business; with goood health the promise of continued prosperity seems to be his.

KREHL, J. C., a member of The F. Krehl & Sons Leather Co., and eldest son of Frederick Krehl, was born in Girard Feb. 12, 1863. He attended the Girard schools and then took a course in Duff's Business College of Pittsburg, graduating from there in 1880, when he took a position with his father as bookkeeper, and some two years later became superintendent and finally became a member of the firm as above mentioned. He was married July 31, 1881, to Fannie I. Wilson, daughter of S. H. and Catharine B. Wilson. She is a native of Middlesex, Pa., and was born July 25, 1862. To this union five children have been born: John H., Sarah C., Grace E., Benjamin F. and Edith J. Mr. K. is a trustee of the Lutheran Church and owns a fine home on State street, Girard, a view of which appears in this work. He is one of the reliable and substantial young business men of the county.

KREITLER, GEORGE E., was born of German parents in South Dedham, Norfolk county, Mass., May 16, 1858, he being the second oldest of a family of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kreitler, who emigrated to the United States from Germany several years prior to the time of his birth and who in 1860 located in Warren township, Trumbull county, O. Mr. Kreitler attended the district schools and also studied for three terms at a German school. He left home in 1877 to make his own fortune and worked continuously as a farm hand in the various townships of the county until the spring of 1883, when with the fruits of his labor he purchased a portion of the Michael Weisell estate, and since 1885 has resided at his present home. He was married to Miss Cora A. Johnson Jan. 22, 1885. Besides being largely engaged in general farming Mr. Kreitler has since 1890 been engaged in celery growing and the dairy business, in all of which he has been very successful. A free silver democrat in politics, Mr. Krietler was elected a justice of the peace in 1897. He held the office of township trustee from 1894 to 1897 and since January, 1896, has been secretary of the Lordstown Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company.

KREITLER, WALTER E., farmer of Warren township, resides on the old Kreitler homestead in Warren, where his parents settled in 1861, and where our subject was born Nov. 11, 1871. Mr. K. attended the district schools of his township, and at the death of his father in April, 1895, took active charge of the farm, which he now owns, having purchased it of his mother in the spring of 1898. Mr. K.'s father came to this country from Germany in 1853 and settled in Boston. He married our subject's mother in 1855 and came to Warren in 1860. Mr. K. was married Dec. 23, 1897, to Miss Corie McNeilly of Ashtabula county. He is an all-around good farmer and a believer in free silver.

KREITLER, CHARLES E., was born in Warren township, near Leavittsburg, July 5, 1863. His father, Joseph, was born in Hohenzollern, Sigmaringen, Germany, Dec. 9, 1829, and came to America in 1853, and his mother, Josephine Kaeppler Kreitler, was born in Wurtemburg, Germany, Feb. 27, 1827, and came to America in 1851. Mr. and Mrs. K. were married in 1855. Charles E. resided on the farm where he was born, attending the district schools and taking two terms in Western Reserve Seminary, until about the age of eighteen, when he began teaching school winters and working on the farm summers until 1888, when he secured his position as superintendent of Oakwood Cemetery, a position he has most acceptably filled. Since 1888 he has resided in Warren city. He owns a fine farm of 92 acres in Lordstown township. Miss Rhoda H. Pearce became his wife March 4, 1886. She was born in Jackson township, Mahoning county, Sept. 6, 1860, and is the daughter of John N. and Mary McConnell Pearce. Her education was acquired in the common schools. Mr. and Mrs. K. are the parents of the following named children: Florence R., born July 8, 1887; Charles F., Jr., born Oct. 10, 1890; Eleanor J., born May 6, 1895; Myron H., born Nov. 2, 1897 (deceased), and George W., born Feb. 11, 1899. Mr. Kreitler is a past chancellor of Independence Lodge, No. 90, K. of P., also a deputy grand chancellor, and now serving his fifth year as K. of R. and S.; a charter member of Western Reserve Company, No. 103, U. R K. of P., in which he has held all the offices up to and including first lieutenant, and member of Warren Council, No. 203, National Union.

KYLE, G. M., the courteous and efficient deputy recorder of Trumbull county, was born in the Keystone state, July 19, 1843, but has been identified with the state of his adoption since the age of two and one-half years. His parents were John and Abigail Arnold Kyle. Our subject received a good common school education, which he supplemented with a commercial course in Cleveland in 1865. For a number of years he was one of Trumbull county's educators, attaining success as a teacher. He is past chaplain of Cortland F. & A. M. Lodge No. 529. He has taken an active interest in the councils of the republican party, of which he has been a staunch supporter since attaining his majority. Delia Wilbur, the daughter of Hiram and Armenis Hollister Wilbur, was united in marriage to Mr. Kyle, Nov. 5, 1863. She was born in Bazetta township, No. 14, 1842. They are the parents of five children, born in order as mentioned below: Charles N., the present recorder of Trumbull county; Minnie A., Glenn W., Laura A., Eva L. The duties of the office of deputy recorder of Trumbull county will be discharged with faithfulness and ability. Mr. K. was called for two successive terms to serve as justice of the peace for the township of Bazetta, and after removing to Mecca township was elected to the same office, which he held until removing to Warren to accept his present office.

KYLE, CHARLES N., who assumed the duties of recorder of Trumbull county on Sept. 5, 1898, is well known to the people of the county as a genial and courteous gentleman, who assumes no responsibility that he cannot discharge with full justice to the trust reposed in him. He was born in Bazetta township May 27, 1866, and is the son of George M. and Delia Wilbur Kyle. He was educated in the district schools and Cortland High School, and after this taught four terms in Mecca township. In 1894 he accepted the position of deputy sheriff under E. A. Biery and served until Jan. 1, 1899. His duties in this office were discharged with credit to himself and satisfaction to the people. He was married Nov. 24, 1889, to Miss Mabel, the daughter of John H. and Mary Parks Dilley, of Burghill, this county. To this union the following named children have been born: Hazel, Paul and Ruth. Mr. Kyle is a charter member of K. of P. Lodge No. 313, of Cortland. He is a staunch supporter of sound republican doctrine.

LACHMAN, JOHN R., is a native of Montgomery county, Pa., where he was born Aug. 7, 1841. His parents were James and Rebecca Lachman, both natives of the same county. Our subject came with his parents to Ohio in 1855, locating at Vienna. His education was limited to what was acquired in the common schools. In the spring of 1861 he enlisted in the 46th O. V. I., and at his discharge from the service located at Mecca, O., where he resided for a period of twenty years. In 1882 he entered the employ of Hart Brothers, clothiers of Warren, where he remained for two years; then became deputy clerk of probate court, and served six months with Judge Reeves and six years during the administration of Judge Gilbert. In 1890 he was elected clerk of courts, and served in this capacity six and one-half years. As an official he is careful, thorough and courteous. He was married Oct. 15, 1863, to Julia A., daughter of Sidney and Julia Love, residing at Mecca, O. She was born in Weathersfield township, Aug. 10, 1843. His first wife died May 8, 1895, and he was again married June 25, 1896, to Adah L., the daughter of Thomas M. and Margaret Wilson, of Liberty, O. She was born March 24, 1854. Mr. L. has two sons by his first wife—Sidney L., born Jan. 14, 1866, and Frank L., born Dec. 2, 1867, and who died April 14, 1892. Fraternally he is a member of G. A. R., F. & A. M., Eastern Star and K. of P. Lodges.

LAMB, T. J. The gentleman whose name heads this sketch is classed among the prosperous and sound financial citizens of Warren. He was born in Lordstown township on his father's farm, about three miles south of Warren city. He attended the district school until fourteen years of age, when he entered the academy at Lordstown Center. At the age of seventeen years he began teaching school and taught for seventeen years in different parts of the county. In 1878 he engaged in the shoe business at Newton Falls, where he remained until 1883, when he came to Warren, and became one of the founders of the Western Reserve Democrat. In 1884 he became manager of the same, which position he still retains. He also owns a fine farm, "Mound Meadows," in Lordstown, which he finds time to manage. He is one of the best farmers in the county.

LANE, IRENUS L., farmer and dairyman of Howland, was born on a farm in Champion township, Jan. 3, 1853. Mr. Lane's educational advantages have been excellent. His early training was obtained in the district schools, but was supplemented by two years at Hiram College, and a course at Eastman's Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. After leaving school in 1875, he returned to Ohio and managed the farm for his mother in Howland. In 1887 he removed to Warren and engaged in the grocery business for a number of years, but returned to the farm in 1892, where he has since resided. Mr. Lane has a fine dairy and a farm of 203 acres, well stocked, and in a high state of cultivation. He was married June 8, 1876, to Miss Maggie Dawson. Their only child was Carrie Estella, who died when a little over a year old. Politically Mr. Lane supports the republican party.

LAWRENCE, EBENEZER B., of Girard. The subject of this sketch was born in Blaina, Monmouthshire, England, formerly a portion of Wales, Aug. 19, 1855. He comes of Welsh stock. When about eight years old our subject came to America with his parents, who died shortly afterward, he then returning to England. Three years later he again came to this country with an uncle, making his home in Harrisburg. When only nine years of age, Mr. L. began working in a rolling mill in the old country and has since continued in that line of work. He spent eight years in Newburg, going then to Niles, then to Warren, back to Newburg then for three years, thence to Detroit, Kansas City, Niles, Warren and Niles again in succession, and finally to Girard in 1883, where he has since resided. Oct. 21, 1876, Mr. L. was married to Miss Mary J. Evans, of Niles, whose parents were natives of Monmouthshire, England. They have a nice home on State street. Mr. L. is a republican in politics.

LEWIS, ROLAND K., is one of the well known, successful farmers and business men of Trumbull county. He has been a resident of Farmington since his birth, June 5, 1841. He is at present a resident of West Farmington village, and he ever stands ready to assist in everything which is for the best interest of the community. Fraternally he is a member of the K. of P. Lodge of West Farmington. Miss Adelma Spencer became the wife of our subject Nov. 1, 1865. She was born in this township Sept. 26, 1843, and is the daughter of Selden and Caroline Lyman Spencer. They were natives of Massachusetts, the former born Aug. 17, 1811, and the latter Oct. 5, 1810. Mr. and Mrs. L. are the parents of three children, two of whom are living. Mr. Lewis is engaged extensively in farming and stock raising, being the owner of about 1,400 acres of land, most of which is in Farmington township. R. K. Lewis' addition to West Warren is a valuable piec of property in Warren city. As a business man he ranks high in the county.

LEWIS, GEO. S., of West Farmington, is a well known and extensive stock and wool buyer, who was born in Sheridan township, Geauga county, May 30, 1836, and came to Trumbull county with his parents when six months old, where he remained until 1860, when he went to California and engaged in mining for seven years. He then returned to Ohio, and after his marriage Feb. 18, 1888, he settled on the old homestead in Farmington township, where he continued to reside till 1898, when he moved to the village. His wife, nee Mattie Bower, was born in Mesopotamia, Oct. 7, 1854, the daughter of Jacob and Nancy Evans Bower. Her father was a native of Pennsylvania, and of German descent. Mr. L. is a republican, and cast his first vote for Lincoln: He is not a politician, but gives his entire time and energies to the conduct of his numerous business interests.

LEWIS, JOHN, roller in the mills at Girard, is a native of Wales, where he was born Nov. 27, 1854. Our subject's father first emigrated to America and was followed by his wife and four children when John was about nine years old. Their first home was in Pottsville, Pa., and from there they moved to Mineral Ridge, later to Niles and in 1874 our subject went to Sharon, Pa., where he was in the mill business till 1885, coming thence to Girard, where he has since resided. July 17, 1880, Mr. Lewis married Miss Margaret Ellen Jones, also a native of Wales. Mrs. L. came to this country in 1865. Six children have blessed this union. Mr. L. is a member of Sharon Lodge No. 398, K. of P., Mahoning Lodge No. 394, F. & A. M.; also Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. He is a republican in politics and was a member of the Girard council for three years.

LEASE, LYMAN G. The subject of this sketch, farmer and proprietor of the Enterprise Dairy, was born near Rossville, York county, Pa., March 8, 1854. He was raised on a farm, attending district school. His parents both dying, he began to shift for himself when he was fourteen. In 1873 he came to Trumbull county, settling in Liberty township, where, Feb. 7, 1878, he was married to Miss Lucy E. Lynch. Soon after their marriage they moved to their present home in Howland township, where they have 100 acres, well improved. Mr. Lease has one of the best and most completely equipped stock barns in the county, with a covered barnyard 48x72 feet. The milk house is fitted up with the most practical and modern appliances to insure clean milk, of which Mr. Lease makes a specialty. In religion he is a Methodist and in politics a Prohibitionist. He is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., and Chapter No. 66, R. A. M.

LEMLEY, CHRISTOPHER, farmer and harnessmaker, was born in Wurtenburg, Germany, March 1, 1845, the youngest of six children. Coming with his parents, Frederick and Rosina Lemley, to New York City in 1847. A year later they came to Trumbull county, settling in Warren township on the farm where our subject now resides. He attended the district schools, and at the age of nineteen began learning his trade, which he has since followed, running his shop on his farm for the last thirty years. Feb. 2, 1871, he was married to Wilhelmina Kibler, daughter of George and Catherine Kibler, also a native of Wurtenburg, born Jan. 2, 1849. Her mother died when she was an infant, and she, when three years old, came with her father to America coming directly to Warren, where she has since resided. Mr. and Mrs. L. are the parents of but one child, Miss Anna, born April 8, 1877. After attending the common schools she completed her education by one term at Canfield and two terms at Oberlin College. Mr. L. and family are members of the Lutheran church. In politics he is a Democrat.

LEACH, HARVEY D., the genial proprietor of the Harvey House, corner of South and Pine streets, Warren, O. This new and beautiful hotel contains thirty-six rooms, and is finely arranged, having all the modern conveniences, enjoying, as it well deserves, a large and first-class patronage. Mr. Leach was born Dec. 12, 1853, in Shelocta, Indiana county, Pa. His parents moved to Indiana when subject was nine years of age. Here he attended school and resided several years. He learned the carpenter's trade of his father. When twenty-two years of age he went to the oil regions of Pennsylvania and remained a year, going from there to Philadelphia, where he shipped with the P. & T. Collins Expedition to Northern Brazil. The object of this expedition was to construct the Falls of Madeira R. R. on the Amazon river, so as to open up the Bolivian gold mines. He spent some two years in Brazil, when he returned home and engaged in the planing mill business for a year. He embarked in the hotel business at Scottdale, Pa.; went from there to McKeesport, and from there came to Warren, where for one year he was proprietor of the East End Hotel. He was married in 1885 to Miss M. C. Rosingsteele, of Pennsylvania. Socially Mr. Leach belongs to the K. of P. Lodge and I. O. O. F.

LIBY, SAMUEL M., farmer of Warren township, was born June 19, 1834, on the old Liby farm on the Liby road in Warren township. His parents came to Trumbull county in 1828, being among the earliest settlers. He was brought up on the farm, and was married March 6, 1856, to Miss Margaret Van Hine, also a native of Warren township. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Liby moved to Illinois, and in 1859 Mr. L. was seized with the western fever, and started for Pike's Peak, his family returning to Trumbull county. He went on to California, taking ninety days to make the overland trip. After spending seven years in California and five years on Reese river and in Montana in mining, our subject returned in 1871 to Trumbull county. In 1876 he bought and moved to his present home on the Palmyra road. Mr. and Mrs. Liby have two children, now grown to maturity, and all are favorably known throughout the country.

LIDDLE, W. S., engaged in farming in Greene township, was born in Poland township, Mahoning county, May 23, 1840, and is the son of John C. and Sarah Miller Liddle. His father was born in Warren county, N. Y., in January, 1813; the mother in Crawford county, Pa., March 29, 1819. The parents married in April, 1838, and our subject has since been identified with the interests of Trumbull county. He attended Farmington Seminary one year. In connection with doing farming, he gives considerable attention to stock raisinn, especially fine wool sheep, of which he has a good flock, eligible to register. He is serving the people of his township as trustee, securing the election by the suffrage of the republican party. Both he and his wife are consistent members of the M. E. church, of which he is trustee. He married Sept. 23, 1868, Angeline Irwin, who was born in Mecca township in March, 1842. All the children are living and are mentioned below in order of birth: Jay F., born Jan. 4, 1871; Lucy E., born April 10, 1873; Walter A., born Oct. 22, 1876; Gertrude, born Sept. 8, 1879. This family have assisted in the growth and prosperity of their township and have ever been found honest, worthy people.

LOGAN, GEORGE M., is one of the leading and prosperous dairy farmers of Gustavus township. He is a native of Greene township, whree he was born Feb. 16, 1852. His father, Lewis B. Logan, was born Jan. 23, 1826, and his mother, Lorena L. Hotchkiss, Jan. 26, 1831. Our subject was educated in the Gustavus Academy and Orwell Normal Institute. In April, 1882, he was elected a justice of the peace for three years and re-elected in 1885, serving in all six years. April, 1887, he was elected township trustee and served until 1893. Both of these offices he filled with ability and satisfaction to the people. He was joined in wedlock May 3, 1877, to Mary E. Fobes, daughter of Joseph and Eliza Fobes. She was born in Wayne, Ashtabula county, Oct. 9, 1848, and was educated at Oberlin College. To this union four daughters and one son have been born—Hattie L., Lida A., Julia A., Florence M., and Russell, all of whom are living. Mr. L. has held the office of overseer in the Patrons of Industry for two terms. His fine and well kept farm is evidence of a thorough and thrifty farmer.

LOGAN, DWIGHT HOTCHKISS. The Logan family have been closely related to the history of Gustavus township for many years, in which they have taken an active and prominent part. Lewis B. Logan, father of our subject, was born Jan. 23, 1826. He is one of Trumbull county's representative and substantial citizen farmers. The subject of this mention was born in Green township, O., Oct. 31, 1861. He prepared himself for the profession of teaching, in which work he was eminently successful. He taught eleven years in Ohio and one year in Harper county, Kansas. He is now serving his township as trustee. For his life partner he selected Alice Lyon, daughter of Aaron and Jerusha Lyon. They were married Oct. 22, 1891. Their children are Victor H., D. Miner, Kent and Hope, all of whom are living. He is a worthy master of the Patrons of Husbandry. He is an enterprising and successful young farmer and has the respect and confidence of all who know him.

LOVELESS BROTHERS & CO., proprietors of the livery and feed stables at 123 East Market street and in the rear of the Park Hotel. Bus line, baggage wagons, hacks to and from all trains, bicycle livery, carriages for weddings, parties and funerals. Telephones 67-2 and 67-3. This is the most extensive livery line in Warren and was established twenty-five years ago by Martin D. Loveless, who was born in Newton township Oct. 9, 1830, and died Jan. 15, 1898. His early life was spent in and around Newton Falls. For a number of years he engaged in the manufacture of stoneware, and later, in Warren, was engaged in the manufacture of stone pumps. He was in the lumber business for three years in Bloomfield, returning from there to Warren, where he inaugurated the livery business now conducted by his estate. This line has carried mails for twenty years and at one time had the star route between Warren and Lordstown. Martin Loveless was married March 3, 1852, to Miss Melinda Wilson, of Paris, Portage county. Eight children were born to them—Frank, Charles and Will, whose sketches follow; Mary, now Mrs. Frank Harris, of this city; Lucy, Annie Richard (who died in childhood), and Fred, who was drowned a few years ago in the Arkansas river. Mr. Loveless belonged to the Warren volunteer fire department for years. Since his death and the settling up of the estate, the business has continued under the name of Loveless Bros. & Co., which consists of the widow of Martin, Mrs. Harris, Frank and Will, they having bought out Charles' interest.

Frank W. Loveless, eldest son of Martin Loveless, was born Jan. 6, 1864, at Price's Mills, Trumbull county, O. He was educated in the Warren schools and, since going into business, has been almost constantly associated with his father, first in stone pump manufacturing, later in the lumber business, and lastly in the livery, where he is now engaged. During the years 1884-5, he was employed as brakeman and conductor on the Erie R. R. local, between Warren and Cleveland. Feb. 7, 1875, Frank Loveless was joined in marriage to Miss Emma Hittabiddle, born March 18, 1856, in Illinois, and educated in Youngstown, O. Their children are: Frank, Jr., Anna, Ward, James, Richard, Harry, Jane, Karl, Helen, Martin, Allison and Lester. For the past twenty years our subject has been a member of the Warren fire department. He supports the present political administration.

Will H. Loveless, third son of Martin, was born in Bloomfield township, May 15, 1868. When an infant his parents moved to Warren, where he was brought up and educated and practically spent his life to the present time, except the years 1886-87, when he was in Jasper county, Ill. After returning to Warren he assisted his father in the livery business, becoming a partner in 1891. After the death of his father, by division of the property, he became sole proprietor of the hack line and livery in the rear of the Park Hotel, and partner in the line at 123 East Market street. Will has for the past six years been a member of the Warren fire department. He was married Sept. 20, 1894, to Miss Etta Blanche Myers, of Bourbon, Ind. They have two children—Henry W. and Ralph M. Our subject is a republican and belongs to I. O. O. F., Mahoning Lodge No. 29, and Rebecca Lodge.

LOVE, HERMEN, is one of Mecca township's most successful farmers and stock raisers. The Love family reside in a model country home, and the general appearance of the farm indicates thrift, pride and prosperity. In Mahoning township, Lawrence county, Pa., Jan. 6, 1837, a son, Hermen Love, was born to James and Eliza Small Love, who since the fall of 1865 has lived in Mecca township. He married Emma A. Mason Nov. 24, 1868. Two sons, James N. and Earl H., are the result of this union. Mrs. Love was born near her present home, Aug. 29, 1848, and was the daughter of Noble and Lora P. Brown Mason. In politics Mr. Love is an ardent republican. As a business man he is wide awake, and makes a success of whatever he undertakes.

LUSE, JESSE B. The subject of this sketch was born Jan. 1, 1842, in Weathersfield township, on the farm where he died April April 6, 1894. His father, Warren Luse, was born Sept. 12, 1800, and died Oct. 24, 1859. His mother, Hannah Bowell Luse, was born Oct. 31, 1808, and died Sept. 28, 1864. Jesse B. attended the district school and later Hiram College. In 1861 he was one of the first to answer the call for volunteers and enlisted in Co. B, 19th O. V. I. for three months. After serving this time he again enlisted, May 31, 1862, as corporal in Co. C., 84th O. V. I., and was discharged the following September, having served the full term of his enlistment. He again went to the front with Co. C, 125th O. V. I., serving from Jan. 1, 1864, to April 11, 1865, when he was discharged because of a wound received before Atlanta. As a result of this wound he suffered the loss of his right arm above the elbow. June 25, 1867, Mr. Luse was married to Ella M. Woodward, who died Aug. 13, 1872. Jan. 1, 1874, he was married to Mrs. Frances E. Lanphear, widow of Saurin K. Lanphear, and daughter of Matthew D. and Mary Wakefield Sanderson. Mr. Luse was survived by his wife and four children—Warren S., Raymon J., Olive and Howard H. Luse.

LUSE, WARREN S., was the oldest son of Jesse B. and Frances E. Luse. He was born on the homestead farm in Weathersfield township April 27, 1875, and died at Angola, Ind., Sept. 3, 1898. He attended the public schools in Niles, graduating there in 1892. He afterward attended Hiram College and later entered the Tri-State Normal College at Angola, Ind., where he graduated in 1898, receiving his diploma after his enlistment in Co. H., 157th Indiana Volunteer Infantry. While in camp with his regiment at Port Tampa City and Fernandina, Fla., he contracted typhoid fever, from which he died soon after returning to Angola on sick leave. He was a zealous Christian worker and was the first victim of the Spanish-American war from Trumbull county.

LYNN, GEO. F., farmer of Warren township, was born July 11, 1852, on the farm where he now resides. His grandfather, Adam Lynn, came to Mahoning county in the early days, and there our subject's father, Peter, was born, and there on June 7, 1849, he was married to Sarah Wehr. The next spring after their marriage they moved to the farm where George F. now resides. They had five children, our subject being the second. Mr. Lynn lived at home, receiving his education in the district schools, and was married Dec. 23, 1873, to Miss Mary Ann Kibler, daughter of George and Elizabeth Kibler, the former born in Germany and the latter in Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn have five children as follows: Wm. E., born March 1, 1875; Wallace A., born May 18, 1877; Hattie A., born Aug. 5, 1879; Harvey A., born Nov. 28, 1883; and Mabel E., born May 13, 1895. Mr. Lynn is a member of the Reformed and his wife of the Lutheran church. He has served as school director and in politics is a democrat. He and his brother, Ferdinand, operate their father's farm of 126 acres, and by applying right methods in their management have been very successful.

MACKEY, ALLISON H., is one of the numerous descendants of the Mackey family, whose ancestors came from Chester county, Pa., and settled in Trumbull county. Andrew Mackey, with his wife, Mary Murray Mackey, and their three sons, Hugh, James and Andrew, came to this county in 1805. These sons were born in Bucks county, Pa. Hugh was born in 1766 and died in 1847. His wife was Alice Gibson and they were parents of six children—Mary, Andrew, John, Margaret, Matthew and James. James, the brother of Hugh, was married to Eliza Scott, and they had two children, Gibson and Comfort. Andrew, also the brother of Hugh, married Jane Scott, the daughter of James and Jane Gibson Scott. They were the parents of seven children—Mary, James, John, Jane, Robert, Allison H. (our subject), and Elizabeth. Andrew, son of Hugh, had six children—Ira (whose biography appears below), Margaret, Era H. (a sketch of whom appears in this work), Tensard, Ransom and Rachel. Allison H. Mackey was born on the farm where he now resides, and where he has always made his home. He first saw the light of day Feb. 18, 1833. He chose farming for his vocation in life and has devoted his energies to it, with the result that he now has an adundance and is considered one of the representative and substantial farmers of the county.

MACKEY, IRA B., SR., was born in Vienna, O., Oct. 30, 1829. His parents were pioneer settlers of the Western Reserve, locating there about 1805. On the maternal side the Bartholomews readily trace their ancestry back to Puritan stock, exhilarated it may be somewhat by a generous infusion of the Scotch blood of the Mackeys. The Bartholomews came from Burford, England, to Connecticut in 1634, arriving in Boston "in ship Griffin" in company with Mrs. Anne Hutchinson, Rev. John Lathrop and other members of the latter's congregation. An intellectual tendency and mechanical genius can be traced in this family for centuries. It is said of one of the early Bartholomews, "He built their mills, ground their grists and was captain of the trainband."

His grandmother taught the first school in Vienna township in 1805. School privileges in his early days were of the most limited character, but Mr. Mackey had a thirst for knowledge and often studied until midnight or until he would fall asleep from sheer fatigue. Early in life he resolved to have a college education, but his anticipation in that direction met an abrupt ending, caused by the death of his father while Ira was attending school at Meadville, Pa., when he was called home to assist his widowed mother in the care of the farm and younger children, and afterwards taught several terms of district school.

His marriage to Miss Elmina Baldwin occurred Sept. 12, 1855, the bride having just passed her sixteenth birthday. His wife still survives him, and is known to her friends to be ever ready to assist the sick and needy and lend a helping hand in any charitable work; unselfish to the last degree, ever hospitable, loving her home, children and flowers better than notoriety. Their children are: Mellie, who married Wm. McNaughton, veterinary surgeon, now of Warren, O., and has one daughter, Carrie; Lulie, for a number of years official court stenographer of Trumbull county, and admitted to the practice of law in the several courts of Ohio Oct. 14, 1898, residing at Warren, O., and Ira B., living on the homestead with his mother, is married to Mina Brisbine and has one little girl, Jean.

Ira B. Mackey, Sr., was known as a general all around successful business man, engaging in the lumber business, which gradually increased until he became a well-known contractor and builder, and was the first man to successfully open and operate a coal bank in Vienna township; also at one time operating a lumber mill, and engaged in general merchandise and banking business at his native town of Vienna, to which he was greatly endeared.

He was full of energy, possessing great executive ability, and was very successful in a financial way until the panic of the 70s, but in the depression which followed he lost much of his property which he had accumulated, and, what was more important, his health, and was for two years previous to his death, which occurred April 21, 1879, almost helpless from paralysis, caused by over mental exertion and reverses. He will be remembered as an intelligent, uncomplaining man, endowed with great originality, a fluent talker, and especially interested in the educational affairs of Vienna.

While he was never identified with any religious denomination, he nevertheless contributed as much to the support of the Gospel as the most liberal, and his benevolent and charitable acts, in connection with those of his worthy wife, are remembered with gratitude by many. Always progressive, he heartily indorsed and supported every enterprise or improvement for the benefit of the schools and the general public. A staunch advocate of temperance and right, his memeory is revered to this day by many friends who feel that his place as a friend and citizen is still vacant.

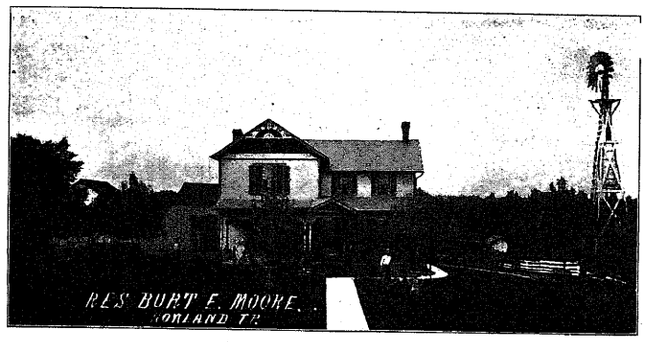

MACKEY, ERA HUGH. The subject of this sketch is one of Vienna's most prominent and wealthy farmers, owning an excellent farm of 300 acres under a high state of cultivation. The Mackey family is one that dates back to the early pioneer times and has numerous branches throughout the country. A more complete history of the family appears in this work in the sketch of A. H. Mackey. Era Hugh Mackey was born and brought up on the farm where he now resides, the date of his birth being Dec. 28, 1833. He is the son of Andrew and Mary Bartholomew Mackey, the latter born July 31, 1807, in Vienna, and died Nov. 8, 1893. Mary Bartholemew was the daughter of Ira Bartholomew, born May 6 1786, and deceased March 11, 1849, and Boadicea Church, born May 16, 1785, and died Jan. 9, 1861. Abiel Bartholomew, the great-grandfather of our subject, died Jan. 2, 1805, and was the first man buried in the cemetery in Vienna. E. H. Mackey was married Oct. 22, 1851, to Miss Malvina Mills, a daughter of John and Louisa Mills. Mrs. M. was born in Hubbard Nov. 1, 1840. Her father was also born in the same town. Her grandfather came from Ireland when about twenty-eight years of age and settled in Hubbard. Mr. and Mrs. Mackey have five children: Franc L., born June 17, 1863, now Mrs. E. E. Crew of Liberty township; Elton A., born Sept. 23, 1866; Clinty J., born Aug. 1, 1870 (the latter two deceased); Grace M., born June 17, 1873, and Tod A., born May 30, 1876. The youngest son, Tod A., resides at home and carries on the farm. He was married to Miss Vesta Heintzelman in April, 1898. Mr. M. has been an active republican, and occupies a prominent place both as land owner and citizen. Besides his home farm Mr. Mackey has been able to give his daughter a fine farm in Liberty township.

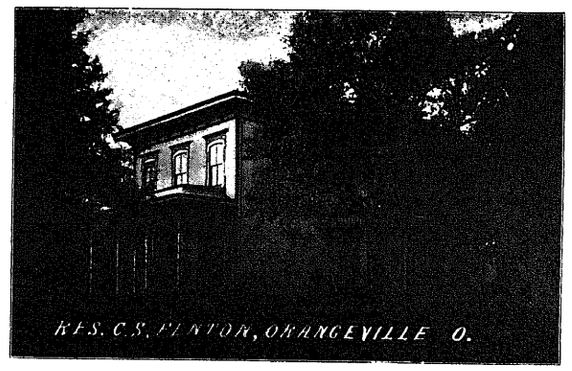

MADDEN, THOMAS H., a well-known dairyman of Howland township, is a native of Girard, O. When only nine years old, he began to make his own way in the world, his father having died when he was only a child. He worked on a farm summers and attended school winters, and thus acquired a good common school education. When about seventeen years old, he made his home with S. H. Stillwagon, where he remained about eight years. In 1894 he engaged in the dairy business in Niles, where by honesty and enterprise he built up a large trade. He is still in the milk and cream business, has two routes and a large number of customers. He was married April 2, 1896, to Miss Ida M. Drake, daughter of the late Amos Drake, whose father, Jacob Drake, was one of the early pioneers of Howland township. Mrs. M. completed her education by a course in the Niles High School, from which she graduated as valedictorian of her class. Afterwards she was a successful teacher in the Niles public schools for about six years. She is an artist of considerable ability, as her paintings attest. Mr. and Mrs. Madden own a pleasant, well kept home on the Niles and Cortland road, where they enjoy the society of a large circle of friends. They are members of the Disciple Church, and Mr. M. was for two years superintendent of the Sunday school. He casts his vote in the interests of the republican party.

MAFFITT, BENJAMIN P., a resident and highly respected citizen of Warren, was born May 15, 1869, in Andover, O. His parents were Samuel H. and Caroline Parker Maffitt, When he was quite young his parents moved to near Shakleyville, Pa., but soon returned to Ohio, settling in Kinsman township, removing thence to Farmington, and a few years later to Bristol township. When less than fourteen years old our subject began to work as a farm hand, and later as teamster for W. C. Stiles. In 1896 he began working in the undertaking business for Clark & Rader and later for J. L. Cross, in the same business. In October, 1897, he opened a meat market at 142 Atlantic street, where he continued till the spring of 1898, when he closed out his business and for a time was with the City Meat Market. He is now employed with Dennington & Coley, grocers. Our subject received his education in the common schools of Bristol, Champion and Farmington, and in the Mantua High School. March 31, 1897, he was married to Miss Alice M. Freed, who was born in Champion township, the daughter of John and Delilah Freed. He is a member of the Pathfinder Lodge, and in politcs is a free silver democrat.

MANNIX, A. B., is a native of Boston, Mass., where he was born Oct. 11, 1852. He came to Ohio in June, 1871. His education was acquired in Malone, N. Y. He is the proprietor of a general store in Vienna, where may be obtained the necessaries of life in first-class quality and at prices that are always reasonable. He is also vice president and director in the Orient Electric Co. of Youngstown, O., which is engaged in the manufacture of electric supplies. He is a thorough, hustling business man and well deserves the marked success that he is enjoying. Feb. 22, 1882, he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Chamberlain of Vienna. Mr. Mannix has been township treasurer for eight years, and politically he affiliates with the republican party. He is also a member of the Masonic fraternity.

MARSHALL, HENRY C., secretary and treasurer of the Port Royal Coal & Coke Co. of Youngstown, and resident of South Girard, was born Jan. 15, 1848, in Weathersfield township, on the farm where he was raised. He comes of old pioneer stock, his great-grandfather coming to this country about 1801 and taking up a large tract of land in Weathersfield. Our subject's education was obtained in the Girard public schools, supplemented by three years at Oberlin College. In 1872 he became bookkeeper at Tod & Wells' coal mine in Mineral Ridge, and has since been connected with the coal business. In 1884 he accepted the position of superintendent of mines for the Port Royal Coal & Coke Co., southeast of Pittsburg, and came into his present position some three years ago. Mr. M. was married to Miss Mary A. Frack of Girard Feb. 18, 1876. Four children have been born as the result of this union. Mr. Marshall is a republican and held the position of postmaster of Girard under President Harrison.

MARSHALL, VANEMON, farmer of Weathersfield township, owns a fine farm in northwestern Weathersfield, on the river road. It consists of 105 acres, well improved, with good house, two large barns, and everything in good shape and above the average. He has made a specialty of raising well-bred stock, sheep, cattle and horses. Mr. M. attended the district schools, also the schools at Niles and Girard, and then took a course in Oberlin to prepare him for teaching. He taught twelve winter terms of school. He was married Sept. 22, 1874, to Miss Josephine McKee of Lordstown. Three sons were born to them, one of which is now deceased. Soon after his marriage our subject engaged in the meat business for a year, then farmed in Ohltown till 1883, when he purchased his present home. Mr. M. takes a keen interest in all public affairs, has served as director of his district and was a prominent candidate for county commissioner in 1896.

MASON, H. H., president of the City National Bank of Niles, O., was born in Moriah, Essex county, N. Y., Jan. 3, 1819. He came to this county in April, 1835, and has ever been prominent both in financial and official circles. For eight years Mr. Mason was cashier of the Citizens' Savings and Loan Association, and for two years was president of the First National Bank of Niles. In civil service our subject has been prominent as postmaster, his three terms covering twenty-two years; mayor, councilman, treasurer of the city, and in his township has served as trustee, treasurer, clerk and supervisor. Mr. Mason was married to Miss Adeliza T. Kingsley, Feb. 22, 1842, and to this union eight children have been born, five of whom are living. Socially our subject is enrolled as member of F. & A. M. of Niles, also the order of Elks. His first vote was cast for William Henry Harrison in 1840.

McCARTY, OWEN L., attorney-at-law and justice of the peace of Niles, O., is a native of this place, where he was born March 16, 1839. In educational matters our subject showed himself a believer in the adage, "Better late than never," by graduating from the Ohio Normal University af Ada, O., in 1892, at the age of fifty-three years. Barring an interim of two years, Mr. McCarty has been justice of the peace for eighteen years, and has ably discharged his official duties. As an attorney our subject has won an enviable reputation and is widely known throughout the county. In April, 1861, our subject enlisted in the 19th O. V. I. and served as a private three months, then re-enlisted September, 1861, as sergeant of Co. G. & H., 19th O. V. I., and received an honorable discharge in December, 1862. He was afterward hospital steward for five months. June 25, 1882, he married Miss Caroline Marvin of Liberty township, who was born in 1844. They have one child, Robert G. McPherson Post, No. 16, G. A. R.; Niles Lodge, No. 352, and B. P. O. Elks are the societies of which Mr. McCarty is a member. In politics he subscribes to the republican platform.

McCLURE & VOIT, druggists, proprietors of the Park Pharmacy on Park avenue, Warren, O. This is one of the leading drug firms in Warren. They carry a large line of drugs, druggist's sundries and cigars; but it is for their prescription work that they have an especial reputation. In this line they guarantee faithful and prompt filling of all physicians' prescriptions, and are regarded the most reliable in this respect of any firm in the city.

Joseph E. McClure, the senior partner of the firm, was born on a farm in Mercer county, Pa., July 6, 1865, coming to Trumbull county in 1894, at the age of thirteen. He was educated in the district school and Youngstown High School, also attended one term at the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy. After coming to this county he first settled on a farm in Hubbard township, where he remained two years. He then went to Youngstown and for ten years, 1884 to 1894, he was with Folsom & Thayer, druggists of that place. At this time he came to Warren, and with William S. Voit purchased the Pond & Kistler drug stock, which they have since conducted, and which is now known as the Park Pharmacy. In 1896 they purchased the Byard drug store on Main street, better known as the City Drug Store. In August, 1897, Mr. McClure married Miss Cora E. Uttman, born Aug. 10, 1874, in Albany, N. Y., and a graduate of Albany High School and Normal. Mr. M. is a member of the K. of P., B. P. O. E. and votes the republican ticket.

William S. Voit, the other member of the firm, is a native of Warren, where he was born Oct. 30, 1870. His parents were both native Germans. He was educated in the Warren schools, and graduated from the High School in 1889, when he entered the drug store of Pond & Kistler, where he was engaged for two years. Being desirous of a more thorough knowledge of his business Mr. Voit then went to Chicago, graduating from the School of Pharmacy in 1892. For a year following he was engaged in a drug store in Lake street in Chicago, when he went to Youngstown and worked for six months in the drug store of George F. Lynn. At the end of this time he formed his present partnership with Mr. McClure. He is a member of B. P. O. E., No. 295, of Warren, and politically a republican.

McCLURG, DARIUS MILTON, prosperous farmer and financier of Vienna township, was born there Oct. 31, 1849. His education was obtained in the district schools and at Hiram College. For twelve years our subject was in the mercantile business at Vienna Center, and also prospected extensively for coal, sub-leasing the lands. For the past ten years Mr. McClurg has devoted his attention to farming and stock raising, in which he has been very successful. In 1877 he was married to Miss Clara Rodgers of Vienna, who died in 1890, leaving three children. Our subject is a director in the First National Bank of Girard, and interested in other financial enterprises in the county.

McCONNELL, FRANK C., caterer, No. 23 Main street, Warren, O. Frank C. McConnell is a native of this city, where he was born Nov. 24, 1858. His father, James McConnell, was a native of Weathersfield township, born June 6, 1814, and his mother, Sarah S. McConnell, a native of Poland township, Mahoning county, where she was born Nov. 23, 1820. Our subject received his education in the schools of Warren city. The elder McConnell established the business now conducted by Frank C. in 1860, and conducted it till 1886, when the latter became the sole proprietor. At this popular cafe and restaurant, which is open day and night, may be obtained meals or lunches cooked to suit the most fastidious. The dining parlors are located on the second floor, a private one being maintained for the accommodation of ladies, and the cuisine and service are unexcelled. McConnell also acts as caterer for party, club and society dinners. Fraternally he is past grand of the I. O. O. F. and past chief patriarch in the Militant Degree of the same; also a member of the K. of P., F. & A. M., B. P. O. E. and Royal Arcanum lodges. He was an active member of the Warren fire department and is still an honorary member of the same. Politically he is a staunch republican, and one of the solid business men of the city.

McCOMBS, CHARLES C., is the youngest son of John N. McCombs, who was born in Poland, O., Oct. 5, 1807. Dec. 28, 1835, he was married to Miss Jane V. Scott of Liberty, Trumbull county, and the following April he moved to Champion and cleared the farm now occupied by his descendants. Three children, Mary J., William S. and Laura E., were born to them. Mrs. McCombs died Jan. 1, 1846, and on May 20, 1847, he was united in marriage to Laura E. Scott. They are the parents of four children, two of them, Elliott J. and Lillian, have passed away. Sarah M. resides in Columbus and Charles C., the subject of this sketch, lives in the old homestead where he was born Sept. 30, 1856, and where he has always lived. Sept. 26, 1878, he was married to Miss Rilla Mansfield, who died Jan. 14, 1883. Miss Lillie M. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith of Akron, became his wife April 24, 1884. They have two children, Mabel May, born March 31, 1885, and Frank I., born Jan. 11, 1891. Charles C. McCombs is one of Champion's most respected citizens. Is an up-to-date farmer, with a well cultivated farm and pleasant home, and is very genial and social in disposition. Mrs. McCombs entertains many friends and relatives with great hospitality. John N. McCombs died April 4, 1886, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. His widow lives with Charles at the old home.

McCORKLE, A. G., one of the well known and reliable residents of Lordstown township, is a native of the same, having been born Feb. 1, 1842. His father, Archie McCorkle, was born in 1809, and died March 9, 1864; his mother, Mary Jones McCorkle, was born March 29, 1814, and passed from this life Oct. 27, 1894. Our subject received a common school education and afterward graduated from Duff's Business College of Pittsburg. He has a fine farm and makes stock-raising a specialty, keeping only the best grade of stock. His residence, a view of which appears in this work, is one of the finest in that part of the county. He was married Nov. 15, 1865, to Martha M. Leitch, a native of Ireland, born April 28, 1841, and came to this country in 1852. Her parents were Robert and Elizabeth Leitch. To Mr. and Mrs. M. five children have been born as follows: Lydia M., born Jan. 28, 1867, the wife of J. W. Metz of Indiana; Mary B., born July 15, 1870, the wife of Charles E. Rose of Hiram, O.; Archie A., born May 9, 1872; Robert L., born June 8, 1879, and Charles A., born Oct. 10, 1866. Mr. M. is a member of Niles Lodge, No. 49, F. & A. M. In 1887 our subject went to Arizona, locating in Graham county, and engaged in the cattle business. He is still a member of the Eureka Springs Stock Co., located at Eureka Springs, Ariz. This ranch is the second largest in the state, owning fifteen hundred acres of land and grazing over a territory about fifteen by twenty miles in extent. Their herd has been bred up till Herfords now predominate.

McCORKLE, WILLIAM GAIUS, the popular editor and publisher of the Cortland Herald, was born in Bazetta township Sept. 25, 1856, obtaining his education in the Cortland schools. He is the son of Andrew McCorkle, who was born Oct. 26, 1827. His mother, Margaret McCorkle, was born Aug. 28, 1833. Mr. McCorkle is a past chancellor of the K. of P. Lodge No. 318 of Cortland, and a member of Cortland Tent, K. O. T. M. In political faith he is a republican. In the development and progress of a town there is no more important factor than the local press. The weekly edition of the Herald has not only recorded the local happenings but has reflected as well the moral sentiment of the community. Socially he has a wide circle of friends and in a business way his integrity and standing are unquestioned.

McCORMICK, DAVID R., whose good farm and modern, comfortable home is located in Kinsman township, is ranked with the prominent and successful farmers of the county. He was born Aug. 22, 1840, in Greene township, Mercer county, Pa., and adopted this county as his home April 6, 1871. He is engaged in dairy farming, and his surroundings indicate thrift and abundance. He enlisted in his country's defense June 29, 1863, and was honorably discharged Aug. 26, 1863, captain, John McMichael. Re-enlisted April 27, 1864, and was honorably discharged Aug. 20, 1864, captain, H. L. Burnham. On March 16, 1871, married Annetta A. Rockwell, born and educated in Richmond, O. Her birth occurred Feb. 14, 1850. Three children, two boys and one girl, all living, have been born to this union. His success in life is due to close application to the work in hand. He is well known as a man of sterling worth and unquestioned integrity.

McDOWELL, R. J. The name that heads this sketch is proprietor of the general mercantile store at Hartford Center, O. It is a model village store and supplies the various demands of the entire farming community. Mr. McDowell has been the republican township treasurer since 1889 and postmaster at Hartford Center four years. He came to his present home in 1885, and to the straightforward and honorable business methods which have ever been followed by him is to be ascribed his business success. His parents were born in the Empire State, his father, Josiah McDowell, near Wayland, N. Y., and his mother, Vashti Meacham McDowell, in Marathon, Cortland county, N. Y.

McFARLAND, W. W. In attending the last sad rites of the dead, a person of rare tact, ability and experience is sought for. In addition to the possession of the above requisites the subject of this sketch is the proprietor of the undertaking and embalming parlors at No. 7, North Park avenue, Warren, O. Mr. McFarland was born Nov. 14, 1871, in Sharon, Pa., and there received his early education. He is the son of T. D. and Elizabeth Reeves McFarland, the former born June 26, 1846, in Sharon, Pa., and the latter in Philadelphia March 19, 1851. After finishing school he spent several years clerking in Sharon, after which he went to Pittsburg, where he was employed in one of the leading embalming and undertaging establishments in the city. On March 12, 1897, he passed an examination before the board of examiners of the Champion College of Embalming and received his diploma for passing a thorough examination in the art of embalming. On July 28, 1897, he came to Warren and purchased the business of the firm of Clark & Rader. Our subject was married April 26, 1898, to Alice R., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter of Sharon, Pa. She was born Dec. 16, 1872, and is a graduate of the Sharon High School. Mr. McFarland has been a member of the M. E. Church since he was fourteen years old, also a member of Mahoning Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., and of the Rebekahs. In politics he is a supporter of republican principles. During their short stay in Warren Mr. and Mrs. McFarland have made many friends.

McFARLAND, THOMAS F., is one of the largest land owners, stock and dairy farmers of Hartford township. His farm and home indicate the abode of a thrifty and successful agriculturist. Since the birth of the republican party he has advocated its principles. His father, Thomas McFarland, married Agnes Dumars, the former born Sept. 24, 1785; the latter March 2, 1803. Mr. McFarland was born in this township April 13, 1828. The daughter of James and Julia Leslie, Purthemia Leslie, who was born in Brookfield township Oct. 22, 1829, became the wife of our subject March 15, 1853. Her decease occurred Sept. 23, 1871. June 26, 1872, Mr. McFarland married Alice Brockway, who was born in Orangeville, O., Jan. 18, 1845. Her parents were Azariah and Jane Brockway. Perhaps few men in the eastern part of Trumbull county can boast a larger acquaintance.

McKEAN, ALBERT G. and JOHN A., are representative citizens and farmers of Johnston township, and are the sons of John N. and Harriett Allen McKean, the former born June 3, 1813, his wife, March 22, 1826. The brothers received their education in the Kinsman High School. For thirteen years they were engaged in the manufacture of cheese, but eight years ago sold their interests in this business and moved to their farm in Johnston. The buildings are modern, the barn being one of the largest and best in Johnston township. They are extensively engaged in stock raising and farming, and the general appearance of the surroundings indicate thrift and enterprise.

Albert G. was born on the farm where he now resides Sept. 22, 1853; John A., Aug. 28, 1860. Albert G. married Clara A. Hall, the daughter of Frederick A. and Melvina E. Hathaway Hall. She was born Oct. 28, 1862, and they were married Sept. 25, 1890. Mrs. McKean received her education in the Cortland High School. The brothers are bi-metallists and believe in the free coinage of silver. The business success which has crowned their efforts has been most justly and honestly attained and with it they enjoy the esteem and confidence of the entire community.

McKINNEY, AVERY CLYDE, owner and proprietor of a fine livery, feed and boarding stable, the best in Girard, was born in Mineral Ridge June 11, 1870. His father emigrated to this country from Ireland, when a young man, locating in Austintown, afterward removing to Mineral Ridge, where he resided till his death in 1880. Our subject was brought up in Mineral Ridge and before he was of age purchased his present business in Girard, which he has successfully carried on for the past nine years. His rigs are of the best, prices reasonable, and the traveling public will find him a genial, accommodating fellow. Mr. M. was married Nov. 6, 1895, to Miss Georgina Hauser, of Girard.

MERRILL, F. W., of Spokane, Bristol township, is the proprietor of the Spokane Saw and Planing Mills and dealer in rough and dressed lumber, shingles and general builders' supplies. By energy and fair dealing he has built up a good trade and is deservedly popular with his many customers. He was born Dec. 23, 1856, and brought up on a farm. His father, Chas. Merrill, was born June 8, 1823, in New York. His mother, Laura Kyle, was born in Ohio in 1830 and died July 9, 1860. Our subject received a common school education and when he attained his majority, he went to Saline county, Mo., and engaged in the lumber trade for four years, when he returned to Bristol and established his present business. His wife was Emma L. Coffin, born near Jacksonville, Ill., April 10, 1862, the daughter of Chas. M. and Anna L. Pond Coffin, the former born in New Hampshire and the latter in New York. She was married to our subject Sept. 26, 1880. To this union five children have been born, as follows: Elmer C., born April 15, 1883, Chas. F., born Jan. 29, 1885, Earl Q., born Aug. 28, 1887, Grace E., born May 16, 1890, and a baby boy born May 16, 1896. The latter died July 12, 1896. Mr. and Mrs. M. are members of the M. E. Church, and Mr. M. is treasurer of Bristolville Special School District.

MESSER, M. O., was born in Guilford, New Hampshire, Nov. 2, 1842, and came to Ohio in 1852. On Sept. 7, 1861, he enlisted in Company C, 19th Regiment O. V. I., and on Jan. 1, 1864, he re-enlisted in the same company and regiment and served until his discharge at the close of the war, Nov. 25, 1865.

MESSICK, JOSIAH PURNEL (deceased), son of Wingate and Nancy Smith Messick, was born at Nantakoke, Sussex county, Delaware, Jan. 31, 1830. In 1839 he moved with his parents to Mercer county, Pennsylvania, then but a sparsely settled county, and there grew to manhood, helping to cut away the forests and to cultivate the newly cleared fields, save for a few short weeks in winter, when he attended the county schools. His wife, Mary Ann Genger, daughter of Daniel and Anna Phillips Genger, was born Sept. 21, 1834. in Westfield county, Pa., and in early childhood came with her parents to Mercer county, Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Messick were married Dec. 29, 1853, and their family consists of seven children: Alfred Walton, born Feb. 6, 1857, and married Elsie J. McMahon Dec. 11, 1884; Sarah Alpharetta, born March 7, 1859, and married Elmer H. Wood March 19, 1884; John Purnel, born Dec. 2, 1862, and married Julia A. Hall Oct. 24, 1886; William Wingate, born Dec. 24, 1864, and married Jennie Ford Nov. 28, 1886; Homer Dwight, born Sept. 4, 1866; Mines Hillier, born April 26, 1869, and married May L. Mackey April 9, 1893, and Mary Dorela, born Feb. 10, 1871. In 1870 Mr. and Mrs. Messick came to Trumbull county and settled on the Messick farm in Bristol township, west of the village of North Bristol, where they resided until their deaths. Mr. Messick died Oct. 26, 1894, and Mrs. Messick died July 20, 1898. For many years they were members of the Evangelical Church, but after coming to Bristol they united with the M. E. Church, of which they ever remained earnest, active members. Their early lives, though surrounded with hardships and difficulties, developed in them those qualities which made their after lives successful. Thrifty and industrious, fair and honorable in their dealings with others, kind to all whom they met, ever ready to assist those who stood in need of help, and a quick, true sympathy which caused them to feel another's cares and to help him bear them, such were the marked characteristics of their lives which caused them to be loved and respected by all who knew them. Their lives, if viewed only from a worldly standpoint, were successful, for prosperity crowned their later years; but better far than any worldly goods are the noble thoughts and acts of their lives, which will last forever.

METCALF, FRANK C., farmer, of Warren township, was born in Bristolville Nov. 30, 1853, where he lived until the death of his mother in 1862. The following year his father moved to Warren city, where our subject was educated. In 1877 Mr. Metcalf moved upon his present farm on the Lordstown road in Warren township, which he conducted for two years, boarding with his hired man and with the neighbors. Our subject now began to realize that it was indeed "not good for man to be alone," and accordingly on March 6, 1879, he was married to Miss Nettie Williams, of Windham, Portage county. Mrs. Metcalf is a very talented woman and takes a keen interest in educational matters, being at present one of the directors of her school district. Their home consists of 100 acres, well improved, and showing every indication of thrift and care. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf have two children, a boy and a girl. Politically Mr. Metcalf is a republican. The Metcalfs are of good old Puritan ancestry, dating back to an ancestor who came over in the "Mayflower." The name was said to be given by King Arthur and was originally spelled Met-a-calf. The Williams family are descendants from the William Williams who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

MILLER, AUSTIN. The subject of this sketch is of German descent, his great-grandfather, Jacob Miller, having emigrated from Germany in a very early day. They settled in Eastern Pennsylvania, Northampton county, where his grandfather, John Miller, was born March 15, 1781. He married and came to Ohio at about the age of 30, and settled in Canfield, Mahoning county, where John Miller, Jr., was born Sept. 14, 1816. They lived here for about seven years, then purchased a farm near Four-Mile Run, Austintown township, same county. John Miller, Jr., was married to Maria Lanterman, Feb. 11, 1845, and began life on a portion of his father's farm, afterwards purchased one-half of the old homestead, upon which he lived and died. To John and Maria Miller were born five children. Austin Miller, the eldest, was born May 31, 1846. He was educated in the district schools, also at Canfield and Cortland, and began teaching at the age of nineteen. He continued to teach winters for some ten years, attending school meanwhile during fall terms at Poland Union Seminary. Mr. Miller was engaged for a short time in the mercantile business in Youngstown and spent some three years in coal prospecting in this state and Iowa. He was married Feb. 7, 1877, to Miss Isabelle Fee, of Warren. After this marriage Mr. and Mrs. Miller resided for five years on Mr. Fee's place, west of Warren, and in 1882, after a short residence in Warren, they purchased their present home on the Lordstown road, just south of Warren. Their home is extremely neat and comfortable, and all about the place indicates thrift and enterprise. Mr. Miller is a prominent democrat and has served his township both as assessor and director of his school district. In 1890 he was real estate appraiser of his township. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have three children, the eldest of whom is employed as stenographer and shipping clerk by The Griswold Linseed Oil Company.

MILLER, SIMON, one of our substantial farmers, was born in Newton township Dec. 26, 1833, where he still continues to reside. He attended the common schools of the township, also a select school. Jan. 3, 1858, Mr. Miller was united in marriage to Lucina Wright, who departed this life Jan. 28. Their son, Elmer, born Feb. 18, 1860, is now located at Cripple Creek, Colorado, where he is a prospector. Mr. Miller was married to his present wife, Seleta A. Coe, Oct. 13, 1867. Mrs. Miller is an intelligent and cultured lady and was for four years a successful school teacher. They have one child now living, Grace S., born Feb. 12, 1884; one, Ora Zell, born Sept. 9, 1892, died Nov. 10, 1892, and one died in infancy. Mr. Miller is an honored member of Newton Falls Lodge No. 235, K. O. T. M., and is highly esteemed. Samuel Miller, father of our subject, was born in 1787 at Little York, Pa., and came with his parents to Newton, Trumbull county, Ohio, in the year 1808. He was married July 17, 1823, to Nancy Hudson, daughter of Mathew and Sarah Hudson. She was born 1799 in Huntington county, Pa., and came with her parents to this county in 1816. Samuel Miller died Sept. 24, 1856, when sixty-nine years old. His wife died June 30, 1891, at the age of ninety-two. They raised a family of eight children, five daughters and three sons. All lived to be grown up. One daughter and two sons are living at the present time.

MILLER, JAMES H., a resident of Girard, and trustee of Liberty township, is one of our substantial farmers. His parents were natives of Pennsylvania, where he was born Oct. 17, 1838, near Franklin. When five years of age he came to Ohio with his parents, who settled just south of Girard. After a short residence here and also in Weathersfield, his parents moved in 1850 to Liberty township, which has since been his home. Mr. Miller engaged in the butchering business until his enlistment in 1861 in Co. G, 6th O. V. C. He served until Sept. 25, 1865, and participated in the battles of Antietam, Second Bull Run, Shenandoah Valley and the campaign around Richmond with Grant. From the close of the war till 1883 Mr. M. followed butchering and farming, since which time he has devoted all his attention to farming and stock raising. In 1895 he removed to Girard. Nov. 29, 1868, Mr. M. was married to Miss Rebecca A. Fleming, a native of Liberty township. Three children have blessed this union: Anna May, born July 20, 1869; Myrtle I., deceased, born Sept. 22, 1874; and Hattie B., born Feb. 21, 1878. A republican in politics, Mr. M. has served in the capacity of constable, and assessor, and was elected to the office of trustee, which he now holds, in 1897.

MILLER, E. G., dealer in general mercnandise, Mecca, Trumbull county, Ohio.

MOORE, BURT E., of Howland township, is one of our most successful meat merchants. He has built up from small capital a most gratifying trade, and supplies Niles customers with the best of fresh meats Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays of each week. Mr. Moore was born Jan. 20, 1864, in Paris township, Portage county, on what is still known as the Moore road. At the age of fourteen our subject commenced learning the butcher's trade. He worked in Niles for two years, then in Lordstown for four years; then one year in Akron, returning in 1884 to Howland, where he has built up his present prosperous business. His home on the Youngstown road, a view of which appears on another page, is one of the neatest and most attractive in the county. Mr. Moore was married Dec. 1, 1886, to Miss Minnie Graef, of Champion. They have one child, Raymond Eugene, born Jan. 8, 1893. The prosperity of our subject is well deserved, being the reward of patient industry, thrift, and close attention to business. Besides his home, Mr. Moore owns a good residence property on the Niles Electric Line. just out of Warren city limits.

MORGAN & WILLIAMS CARRIAGE MANUFACTURING CO. This firm needs no lengthy mention to bring it before the public as their goods have long been on the market and speak more eloquently than words of the merit and reliability of the company. Over forty years ago this business was opened up by E. K. Wissell, who was succeeded by McMurray & Kisler, later McMurray alone, then Bartlett & Corbin, then Barlett alone, when it became Morgan & Lemley in 1888. Still later the firm became Siegfried & Morgan, and finally in 1895 Morgan & Williams, as it now stands. This company manufactures buggies, carriages, wagons, drays, farm wagons, bicycles, surreys, sleighs, and are especially noted for their milk and delivery wagons. They also do blacksmithing, all kinds of iron and wood repair work, and especially bicycle repairing. In all the above lines they display skill and experience and guarantee satisfaction to all purchasers. Their reputation is not by any means restricted to Trumbull county. Both Mr. Morgan and Mr. Williams are popular men in the community, not alone for their business integrity, but also for their social qualities.

Owen D. Morgan is a native of Swansea, South Wales, where he was born April 6, 1858. His father, Davit T., and mother, Jane Bowen Morgan, came from Wales in 1860 direct to Hubbard village, our subject being but two years of age. Here he attended the common schools, and at the age of twelve began to work in a grocery, where he remained four years, going to Youngstown for three years' further work in the same business. He then began learning the blacksmith's trade, serving two years, and following his trade in the same shop till 1888, when he came to Warren and engaged in his present business. Mr. Morgan was married to Miss Mary Griffith, of Tallmadge, O., Oct. 30, 1884. Mrs. M. was born Oct. 12, 1859, in Tallmadge, and received her education in Youngstown. Mr. Morgan is a republican, and is now serving his second year as treasurer of Trumbull County Agricultural Association. He is also a member of old Erie Lodge No. 3.

William A. Williams was born in Mt. Savage, Md., Dec. 29, 1856. His parents were both from Wales; his father, Thomas W., from Pontipool, and mother from Victoria. When our subject was a year old his parents moved to Youngstown and William received his education in the common schools of Mahoning county. At the age of thirteen he began work in a rolling mill, where he remained ten years, leaving this work to become a member of the police force of Youngstown. This office he filled so acceptably that at the end of two years he was elected chief of police, which position he retained for seven years. For five years following this we find him in Akron, O., managing the rolling mills for the Akron Iron Co. This position he held till 1895, when he came to Warren and formed his present association with Mr. Morgan. Mr. Williams was married to Miss Elizabeth Griffith Oct. 2, 1878. She was born in Tallmadge, O., Nov. 7, 1856, and educated in Youngstown. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have a fine family of six children: Albert, Hettie, Howard, Ethel, Lawrence and Anna Belle. Mr. Williams is a popular member of the K. T. Lodges, also B. P. O. E. No. 55 of Youngstown.

MORAN, WM. B., Attorney-at-Law, has been a resident of Vernon township since 1854 and of Burghill since October, 1886. He was born July 11, 1846, in Leitrim county, Ireland, and came to Ohio in May, 1852. He was educated in the schools of the county and attended college at Meadville, Pa. Mr. Moran read law with the firm of Hutchins, Tuttle & Stull and was admitted to the bar at Canfield in 1874. In addition to his law business he deals largely in real estate and also owns and controls a farm in Vernon township, bought by his father in 1854. In the fall of 1898 he purchased the home of Dr. O. A. Palmer, located on the northeast corner of Park avenue and Washington street, Warren, O., taking possession on the first of April the present year, where he expects to continue his law practice. He has taught school in Vernon and Johnston townships and also served as township clerk and trustee. Miss Ada M. Waldorf became his wife Dec. 30, 1885, and they have a fine family, consisting of two boys and two girls. Socially Mr. M. is a member of Jerusalem Lodge No. 19, F. and A. M., Mahoning Chapter and Warren County K. T. No. 39. Politically he supports the republican platform.

MORGAN, JAS. D., farmer, of Liberty township, is a native of South Wales, where he was born Nov. 4, 1839. He worked on a farm and in quarries till twenty-six years of age, when he came to America, having been married a short time previous to Miss Elizabeth Morris, also of South Wales. Mr. and Mrs. M. first settled in Jackson county, Ohio, where he followed mining for six years, going in 1871 to Church Hill, where he further engaged in coal mining for twelve years. He then gave up mining and moved to his present home in Liberty township, where he has sixty-four acres of well tilled and well improved land Mr. M. is a stanch republican and was elected a trustee of his township in 1893, which position he now holds. Mr. and Mrs. M. have raised a fine family of six children, five boys and one girl, the youngest of whom, William, is now attending Hiram College.

MORRISON, JOHN O., is a native of Farmington township, where he now resides, having first seen the light of day Sept. 6, 1849. He is the son of John and Lydia Miller Morrison, and the youngest of seven children. He was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Celia Lew Oct. 20, 1870. She was born on the farm where they now live and is the daughter of Benjamin and Electa Lee Lew. Mr. and Mrs. M. are the parents of three children, viz.: Alice Maud, Frank L., and Elvie Loverne. They have resided on their present farm ever since their marriage, with the exception of three years' residence on the old Morrison homestead. Mr. M. has a very good farm, where he carries on general farming and raises some fine stock. He has given considerable attention to breeding and handling Percheron horses. He nas served as township trustee since 1893 and has been Master of the Farmington Grange for several years.

MORRIS, EVAN, one of the leading coal operators of the state of Ohio, and a resident of Girard, was born in Crumlin, Monmouthshire, South Wales, May 21, 1831. He came to America with his parents, landing in New York in 1839, having been fourteen weeks on the water. In June, 1851, he came to Girard to superintend the interests of his brother, David Morris, in the coal mining business. Since then he has been extensively engaged in the coal business, opening up the Church Hill Mine in 1868 and 1869 in company with Jno. Tod, Jno. Stambaugh and others, continuing till 1889.. This company constructed a railroad from Church Hill to Youngstown, extending it to Vienna, also a branch from Moser to Youngstown, being now a part of the Pennsylvania main line. In 1871 the Vienna mines were opened up by this same company. Mr. Morris was for twenty-one years a member of the firm of Tod, Stambaugh & Co., coal operators, of Cleveland, also for ten years connected with the Crawford mines of Pennsylvania. In 1872, he, with Tod and Armes, bought out the Richard interest in the Girard furnace, also the Richard's homestead, where Mr. M. now resides, a cut of which appears in this book. Since 1890, he has been engaged in mining near Grove City, Mercer county, Pa. From 1864 to 1890 he was interested in the Girard Roller Mills. Dec. 25, 1856, our subject was married to Miss Elizabeth Davis, of Akron. Seven of their ten children are now living. Of these Jno. P., David D., and Phil P. are in business with their father, Jas. V. in the coal business in Cleveland and the daughters, Elizabeth, Daisy and Mary, are at home. Mr. Morris is one of the most prominent republicans of Trumbull county. He was a delegate to the National republican convention that nominated Garfield and was elector for the Nineteenth district in 1892, also served on the staff of Governor Foster, when he was Governor of Ohio. He is a thirty-third degree Mason, being a member of several lodges in Cleveland and Youngstown.

MORRIS, DAVID D., superintendent of the coal mines at Grove City, Pa., and a resident of Girard, was born in that place, Sept. 21, 1861. His early education was received in the Girard schools, and supplemented by a course in a business college in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he graduated in 1880. He then entered into the coal mining business with his father, and in 1892 he came into his present position as superintendent of the mines at Grove City, Pa. He was married June 27, 1883, to Miss Kit B. McGlathery, of Girard. They have one child, Phil E., born April 6, 1884. Mr. M. is a firm supporter of the cause of republicanism, though not an office-seeker or holder.

MORRIS, HUGH, the genial and accommodating proprietor of the Central Hotel of Hubbard, Ohio, was born in Aghagaffart, County Fermanagh, Ireland, November 7, 1858, the son of Philip and Ellen McDonnell Morris. His father was born in 1809 and his mother in 1805. Mr. Morris received his education at Aghagaffart, Ireland. He married Jan. 21, 1889, Cathren Coyne, born April 27, 1868, in Gorthmore, County Galway, Ireland, the daughter of John and May Coyne. Our subject is a member of the A. O. H. Politically he is a democrat. He came to this state in 1880; this county in 1883. Before engaging in the hotel business he was a shearman in the roller mill. He is affable and courteous and enjoys the friendship of a wide circle of acquaintances.

MOSER & GARGHILL, grocers, 107 South Main street, Warren. This firm carries a general stock of staple and fancy groceries of best qualities and at most reasonable prices. Good and prompt attention to all orders, whether personal or by telephone. Two delivery wagons insure goods reaching customers at seasonable hours. Telephone No. 94.

Delos K. Moser is a native of this city, where he was born Oct. 22, 1861. Owen Moser, his father, was born in 1828, in Lehigh county, Pa., and his mother, Laura Moser, in 1831 in Trumbull county. Delos K. was raised and educated in Warren, and when about seventeen years of age, entered the employment of the Warren Packard Company, where he remained fourteen years. He then entered the lumber business with Mr. Loveless, this partnership lasting two years; and later, in 1893, went into the grocery business with Mary E. Garghill, the firm being known as Moser & Garghill. Mr. M. married Miss Rose Garghill, daughter of Philip and Isabella Garghill, Sept. 10, 1883. Mrs. M. was born in 1857 in Brownsville, Pa., and educated at Mineral Ridge. Two children were born to this union, Philip O. and Isabelle A. Mrs. M. died May 14, 1890. Mr. M. has held several public offices of trust, notably having been member of the board of health, board of equalization and fire department, of which he was chief for one year. Socially he belongs to M. W. of A. No. 4807, and is past venerable councillor. Adheres to the republican platform.

Mary E. Garghill, of the above firm, was born in Wampum, Pa. She is the daughter of Philip Garghill, of Ireland, and Isabelle, of England. Both parents are now living, being quite aged. They settled in Mineral Ridge twenty-eight years ago and have lived in Warren for the past eight years at 210 Belmont street. Mary E. received her education in the Mineral Ridge school.

MOSER, CHARLES W., the leading practical horseshoer of Warren, O., was born at Leavittsburg, this county, Oct. 26, 1857. He is the son of Owen and Laura Moser, the former born in Allentown, Pa., and the latter in Warren, O. When our subject was three years old his parents moved to Warren and he has since resided here, and his education was acquired in the Warren schools. In 1877 Mr. M. began learning the trade of horseshoer with Henry Strong, where he remained five years, when he spent a year in Cleveland with Wm. Gable, then returned to Warren and in 1883 opened a shop at his present location, No. 15 Canal street. He has a most splendid business and his large patronage shows that a thing worth doing at all is worth doing well. Mr. Moser is a good judge of horses and has owned some that have made fast time, Azant, 2:27¼ as a two-year-old, Sankey, 2:24½, and several others. He now owns Prosperous, with a record of 2:26½. In 1894 our subject was elected a member of the Warren city council, and is still serving in that capacity, and in this he has won the high esteem of his constituents. He was married Aug. 30, 1884, to Anna McNulty, born at Mt. Savage, Md., July 29, 1858. She came with her parents, Michael and Margaret McNulty, to Mineral Ridge when three years old and received her education in that village. Mr. and Mrs. Moser are the parents of three children—Fred J., born March 2, 1886; Laura J., born Oct. 30, 1887; Wm. C., born June 12, 1891. Mr. M. is Past Chief Patriarch of Trumbull Encampment and a member of Mahoning Lodge, I. O. O. F. In politics he is a staunch republican.

MOSER, OWEN W., a prosperous and enterprising farmer of Warren township, was born May 14, 1854, in Warren. His father, David Moser, was born Sept. 15, 1826, in Lehigh county, Pa., and his mother, Johannah Hoefflinger, Moser, was born in Wurtenburg, Germany, May 3, 1821. David Moser came to Warren township when ten years old with his parents, and in the spring of 1852 moved to their present farm, having been married in October, 1851. Here were born three sons, Comfort B., Owen N., our subject, and Eddie D. Owen N. Moser was married Sept. 8, 1887, to Lucy M. Long, daughter of Lewis and Rebecca Long, of Braceville. Mrs. M. was born Aug. 10, 1862, in Southington township. Our subject and wife are the parents of four children, whose births occurred in the order named: Ethel Pearl, Mary Ida, Morris Milton and a baby. Mr. M. and wife are both members of the U. B. church.

MOSER, JOHN (deceased). The subject of this sketch was a son of Philip and Elizabeth Moser, residents of Lehigh county, Pa., where Mr. M. was born Oct. 23, 1824. Miss Catharine Weaver, of Brookfield, O., became the wife of our subject, Sept. 28, 1856, and together they founded a home, where they carefully reared five children—George M., Alice E. (now Mrs. Wallace Hoffman), Frances E., Louie E. (deceased), and Olive C. Mr. Moser by industry accumulated a good home, which, since his decease, has been carried on by Mrs. Moser. Miss Olive is a talented and successful teacher in the township and a favorite in society.

MOSER, GEORGE M. One of Lordstown's most industrious and calculating farmers, Mr. Geo. M. Moser, was born in that township Sept. 28, 1859. He was the son of John and Catharine Weaver Moser. His father is now dead, but his mother still lives with her daughters on the homestead a short distance north of her son's home. Mr. Moser was married to Miss Ida N. McCorckle, May 15, 1888. Mr. and Mrs. M. have two children, bright girls, aged nine and five years respectively. In politics Mr. Moser is independent, voting for the man whom he deems most worthy. That he himself is appreciated by his fellow citizens is evinced by his having held the office of township trustee from 1893 to 1896, and being for four years treasurer of the Lordstown Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company. General farming constitutes the business of our subject, and his success has enabled him to erect recently a fine new residence upon his farm.

MOUERY, N. B., a genial and well-known conductor on the Alliance & Northern R. R., and residing at Phalanx Station, furnishes an illustration of the saying, "Always room at the top," having worked his way up through all kinds of railroad service to the responsible position which he has now held for twelve years. Mr. Mouery was born March 13, 1857, in Champion township, Trumbull county, attended the common schools of Braceville, and is familiar with saw mill work and farming, having engaged in that work until 1879, when he became connected with the railroad. Mr. M. is the son of David and Rebecca Shaffer Mouery, the latter of whom still lives and enjoys a pleasant home with her son. Our subject has been a member of the board of education for a number of years. He was married to Miss Mary Ikerman, Jan. 1, 1882, and they have three children, Frank W., Eddie Earl and Ethel May. Mr. Mouery is a public spirited citizen and is a member of Newton Falls Lodge No. 462, F. & A. M., and K. of P. Lodge No. 319; also belongs to the O. R. C., No. 177, of Alliance Division, and Leading Star Chapter N. 79, O. E. S.

MOUERY, M. W., is the son of Jeremiah and Samantha Hayhusk Mouery, the parents at the time of his birth, Feb. 1, 1858, residing in Bazetta township. For a life companion our subject selected Mary M. Dicker, the daughter of Aaron and Florinda Crow Dicker. She was born in Sharpsville, Pa., Oct. 3, 1863, and they were married March 6, 1881. Their children, Fred C. and Carrie Ora, are both living. Since youth Mr. Mouery has been constantly identified with agricultural pursuits, in which he has been uniformly successful. His home and farm indicate thrift and abundance. On the live questions of the day he is well posted and keeps fully abreast of the times.

MOYNAHAN, D., president of the Mineral Ridge & Niles Street Railway Company. This road was built in 1892 and is the pioneer street railway in Trumbull county. The line runs between Niles and Mineral Ridge and a fare of but five cents between the two places is charged. This railway is a great convenience to business men and citizens residing in the vicinity of either place, and especially so the large number of people working in Niles but residing in Mineral Ridge. The cars are comfortable and commodious, the service good and the officials kind and courteous. The president, Mr. Moynahan, deserves great credit for the business-like way in which the road has been managed.

MUNSON, W. J., a rising young citizen of Trumbull county, was born in Vienna township, July 9, 1866. He began his education in the district schools of Vienna and in 1888 completed the commercial course in the Northeastern Ohio Business College at Canfield, O. After teaching in the schools of the county for four years, Mr. Munson accepted a position with the L. S. & M. S. R. R. Co., which he filled acceptably for six years. In 1896 he left the railroad service and located on the farm in Newton township, where he now resides. He was united in marriage to Miss Emma Smith, a native of Poland township, Mahoning county, June 21, 1893. Mrs. Munson completed her education in the Poland Union School. One daughter, Marion Hazel, has been born to Mr. and Mrs. M. Mr. Munson is a man who makes the most of his opportunities, tilling the soil during the summer and teaching school winters. His ability as a penman is well known and his pen drawings are works of exceptional merit.

NELSON, JOHN H., is a native of Garrettsville, O. His father, John R. Nelson, who for over forty years was a prominent physician of Warren, was born in Liberty township, this county, May 22, 1813, and died Oct. 26, 1892, and his mother, Elizabeth Oswald Nelson, was born Oct. 26, 1825, in the same township and passed from this life May 1, 1888. John Nelson, grandfather of our subject, came to this country in an early day from Ireland, and Jonathan Oswald, also grandfather of John H., came from Lehigh county, Pa. Our subject was born Jan. 20, 1847, and after attending the Warren schools, attended the Pittsburg Business College. When eighteen years of age he was appointed deputy county treasurer, under Treasurer Edward Hayes, where he served for one and one-half years, after which he entered the service of the First National Bank of Warren, with which he has been connected for the past twenty years. The last four years he has held the responsible position of paying teller. Mr. N. is a genial and courteous gentleman, well posted in current questions of the day, and is held in high esteem as a citizen and business man. Politically he supports the republican party.

NEW ELLIOTT HOTEL, Market street, Warren, O. This hotel is most conveniently situated for the accommodation of transients, as electric cars pass the door from all depots and Niles. With every modern convenience in the way of steam heat, electric light, bells, etc., with accommodating servants, and pleasant, home-like rooms, the New Elliott is a house that is exceedingly popular with traveling men and all transients passing through our flourishing city. The hotel came under the management of the Elliott brothers, J. L. and R. W., in 1894. It was then the Saratoga, but formerly and probably better known as the "Hoyt House."

James L. Elliott was brought up and educated in Niles, his birth taking place there June 18, 1866 At the age of sixteen he began clerking in a grocery, where he remained a year, when he began hotel life as clerk in the Sanford House, in Niles. He remained here three years, going then to the Hoyt House in Warren, where he was engaged for two years. The Sanford House again secured his services for about two years, at the end of which time he returned to Warren and was clerk at the Park House from 1890 to 1894. He then opened up the New Elliott in company with his brother, R. W. Elliott. In October, 1895, Mr. J. L. Elliott married Miss Anna M. Kayser, of Warren, who was born March 16, 1872, and educated in Warren. Mr. Elliott belongs to the K. of P. and B. P. O. E., and supports by his vote the G. O. P.

Robert W. Elliott was born in Ottawa City, Canada, May 28, 1861. His father was born in Ireland, and his mother in Canada, being of Scotch-Irish extraction. When but two years of age, his parents moved to Niles, where he lived until 1878, attending school. He then came to Warren and still further pursued his studies, residing at the home of General R. W. Ratliff. In 1881 he obtained a position in the Aetna Machine Works and learned the trade of machinist, continuing in this business for five years. The Warren Opera House Company then secured his services in 1886, he having charge of the house under the management of P. L. Webb, until 1891, when he and D. A. Geiger became associated as lessees and managers of the same. His connection with the New Elliott Hotel began in 1894. Mr. Elliott was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Lemley, of Warren, May 24, 1888. She died July 5, 1894, leaving two little sons, Peter and James. Mr. E. holds high offices in the I. O. O. F., Trumbull Encampment, Warren Canton, and Rebeccas. Politically we find him a firm friend of McKinley.

NILES PUBLIC SCHOOLS. On Friday, Sept. 16, 1842, "pursuant to previous notice the householders in district No. 8, in Weathersfield township, Trumbull county, O., met for the purpose of electing three school directors. It was found that Wm. McKinley (father of President McKinley) was elected school director for the term of three years, Jacob Robison for the term of two years, and Dr. Miller Blackly for the term of one year." The foregoing is copied from the oldest school records extant, now in possession of the Niles board of education. At this same meeting, which was the organization of what is now the Niles city school district, Wm. McKinley was elected clerk of the district, and the minutes of these early meetings are in the handwriting of Mr. McKinley, whose signature is attached. Later, among the pupils in the Niles schools was the district clerk's young son, who is known to fame as President Wm. McKinley. On April 29, 1869, six members were elected for the first time to serve on the board of education. These men were Josiah Robbins, T. Calvin Stewart, Wm. Campbell, S. D. Young, Wm. Davis and Wm. C. Mann. The board met and organized April 30, 1869, choosing Josiah Robbins president, T. Calvin Stewart clerk, and Wm. Campbell treasurer. The present three-story central school building was commenced in 1870 and completed in 1871. It was opened on May 22, 1871, with six teachers, including the principal. In 1875 the first class was graduated from the high school. The one member who constituted the class of '75 was the first on what was to be a long list of high school alumni. To this list annual additions have been made, except in '76, when no class was graduated. The yearly additions have increased with the years until this year (1899), when the graduating class numbers eighteen. In 1875 Prof. L. L. Campbell was in charge of the schools as superintendent. In 1876-1878, C. E. Hitchcock; 1878-1883, T. H. Bulla; 1883-1888, W. N. Wight; from 1888 to the present time (1899), Frank J. Roller. The schools have grown until they now number twenty-four and occupy seven buildings. The total attendance in the public schools for the year ending Aug. 31, 1898, was 1,304. Of these 144 were in the high school. At the time of taking the last enumeration ('98) Niles had 2,025 youth of school age. The corps of teachers in the schools now numbers twenty-eight, exclusive of the superintendent, who gives his entire time to supervision. The school buildings last erected are models of architectural skill. At the coming election (April, '99) the people will be asked to vote on the question of erecting a $40,000 high school building. The board of education at the present time is composed of C. P. Souder, president; C. H. Curtis, clerk; D. J. Finney, Geo. Holder, T. O. Clingan, M. D., W. H. Pritchard.

NORRIS, EMORY G., stock dealer and farmer of Mesopotamia, was born in Hartsgrove township, Ashtabula county, March 31, 1841. His grandfather came to this county in the early days of its history, settling in Windsor township. Our subject was brought up on the farm, attending the district schools, and later carried on the farm himself. Dec. 22, 1864, he was married to Harmony H. Newcomb, of Mesopotamia, and to this union was born one child, Walter E., now of Cleveland. Our subject came to Mesopotamia in 1865, where he lived one year. He then went to Rock Creek, where he was in the hotel business for one year, then returning to Hartsgrove and afterward to Mesopotamia, in which place he has a fine farm of 75 acres, with comfortable house, good barns, etc. In politics Mr. N. is a republican. He is a member of Hartsgrove Lodge No. 397, F. & A. M., and I. O. O. F., of which he is Past Grand. He has been a Master Mason since Aug. 13, 1867. For the past twenty-five years he has been actively engaged in stock buying.

OATLEY, E. P., was born in Chicago county, Minn., Jan. 14, 1859. He is the son of Edward Oatley, of Fowler township, born May 15, 1830. Edward Oatley married Helen Morse, the mother of our subject, who died Sept. 24, 1873, aged 41 years, six months and two days. Mr. Oatley lives on his stock farm in Fowler township, but the major portion of his time is occupied in buying stock, butchering and selling fresh meats. He is the owner of a fine herd of graded Cotswold sheep. He is a great lover and a good judge of a fancy horse, and has been the owner and trainer of Disturbance, the trotter, record 2:39; E. P. O., record 2:19¼, which horse he sold for $600, and Cristobal, record 2:27¼, besides others he now owns and expects to train. Our subject married C. Belle Bundy, who was born in West Farmington, Aug. 17, 1870. Her parents are Wm. O. and Margaret Kincaid Bundy. Few men in Trumbull county are better known than the subject of this mention; although a young man he has been successful in the business world.

OATLEY, BURKE. The popular livery man was born at Cortland, June 27, 1866, being the son of Lewis and Thankful Brown Oatley. Lewis Oatley was born May 28, 1823, and met with an accident July 1, 1893, which resulted in his death. He was one of the original directors and organizers of the First National Bank of Cortland, a man of sterling business qualifications, noted for his honesty and uprightness. His death was a loss to the entire community. Burke Oatley married Minnie Shaffer Jan. 1, 1885, the daughter of John W. Shaffer, one of the successful and prosperous farmers of Bazetta township. Two children have been born to this union, Clara and John, aged respectively as named. Mr. Oatley is a member of the K. of P. Lodge No. 318, of Cortland. Recently our subject has become interested in a valuable trotting horse, which he expects after proper training to record a low mark. He is one of Cortland's energetic young business men, in which place he has always been actively engaged in business.

O'BRIEN, M. I., Wholesale and Retail Florist. The subject of this sketch came to the United States from Toronto, Canada, in 1866, and worked at his profession as florist for one year in Meadville, Pa. He then went to Sharon, Pa., to take charge of the extensive green houses of the late Mr. A. N. Curtis, remaining there for twenty years. In 1887 he purchased land in Brookfield township, Trumbull county, on State road, West Hill, one-half mile west of Sharon, Pa., and erected greenhouses, the exposure of glass equaling 5,000 square feet, engaging in a retail business. With a thorough knowledge of the florist business his trade has grown to such an extent that the building of more green-houses was necessary and at the present time he has twelve large green-houses, which require 25,000 square feet of glass. At present he is doing an extensive wholesale and retail trade, shipping flowers to the Pittsburg and Cleveland markets, and his retail store in Sharon, Pa., is always well stocked with the most approved and latest novelties in garden and flower seeds. As an artist in the arrangement of flowers for weddings, receptions, and funerals, Mr. O'Brien has few equals, and he is always pleased to have lovers of nature's choicest gems visit his greenhouses, where will be found a collection of plants and flowers worth going miles to see. His P. O. address is Sharon, Pa. He makes a specialty of roses, carnations, smilax, lilies, violets, flowering bulbs and other choice cut-flowers.

OHL, WILLIAM, a tiller and defender of the soil of our glorious country, first saw the light May 2, 1842. He led the life of the average farmer's son, attending district school, etc., till Oct. 8, 1861, when he gave himself to the nation's great need and enlisted as a private in Co. H, 20th O. V. I. He saw the horrors and realities of war and also the glorious triumph of the cause of right, serving under Grant, McPherson, and Logan, and taking part in the battles of Vicksburg, Shiloh, Ft. Donaldson, and Sherman's campaign. He received an honorable discharge Nov. 8, 1864. He was married Nov. 7, 1867, to Eliza J. Maurer. She passed from this life Oct. 8, 1881. He was united in marriage to Miss Irene J. Kennedy Nov. 15, 1883. After his marriage he commenced housekeeping on the farm where his son-in-law, L. H. Young, now resides, where he remained for five years. He then removed to Austintown, Mahoning county, remaining there seventeen years, then returning to the old homestead, where he now resides. Mr. and Mrs. Ohl have three children, all grown to maturity: Ida A., wife of L. H. Young; Alva M., a member of the firm of Hart, Goering & Ohl, clothiers, of Warren, O.; and Chas. F., who is a teacher but resides at home. Mr. Ohl is a republican, a member of G. A. R., Logan Post, of Mineral Ridge, a faithful soldier and worthy citizen.

OLIVER, WM. C., a successful farmer of the county, was born in Mecca township, this county, June 2, 1843. He attended the common schools of Bazetta township, and in the spring of 1867, shortly after his marriage to Miss Zelia Dice, engaged in the saw-mill business in Champion township. Here he remained for three years, then removed to Burghill, and ran a mill there for one year, after which he went to Howland township and spent five years, four of them on the Kinsman farm. From Howland Mr. Oliver came to Braceville and bought a part of his present farm, adding to it as the years prospered him till he now owns 175 acres under a high state of cultivation, with fine buildings, also deals in Durham cattle and Cotswold sheep. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver have two children, Mary and Emery, the latter of whom is now dead. In politics Mr. Oliver supports the democratic party.

PADEN, ROBERT W., an influential and highly respected citizen of Warren, was born in Mercer county, Pa. His father was Robert T. Paden, whose ancestors were among the first early settlers of America. His mother, Sarah West Paden, was born in Ireland, of Scotch-English parents. The subject of this sketch is the youngest of seven children, two of whom died in the war of the Rebellion. When he was three years old his father died and his training devolved upon his mother. He attended school at Orangeville, O., and at New Galilee, Pa. In 1881 he came to Warren and entered the office of Wm. Rietzel & Co., as an apprentice to the printer's trade. The second year after the Western Reserve Democrat was established he became its foreman, and after the death of the late Dr. Woods, in January, 1887, he became editor of the Democrat, which position he still holds. Politically Mr. Paden is a democrat. He was elected to the Warren City Council from the Fourth Ward in 1893 by a majority of 21 and re-elected in 1895 by 69 majority. In both elections he reversed a republican majority of 100. He is an enthusiastic member of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., of which he is Past Chancellor. He is an active charter member of Warren Lodge No. 295, B. P. O. Elks, of which he has been secretary since its organization. In 1888 Mr. Paden married Miss Jessie I. Arthur, of Warren. The fruits of this union are two children: Arthur W., aged eight years, and Marion L., aged six years.

PALM, SELDEN B., postmaster and prominent business man of Warren, O., was born in that city Sept. 15, 1848. His father, Jefferson Palm, was born in Cumberland county, Pa., Nov. 22, 1821, and came to Warren in 1830. His death occurred in 1886. He was a lawyer and during the Rebellion was publisher of the Warren Constitution. Marilla Bushnell Palm, mother of our subject, was born in Hartford township Oct. 23, 1824, and is still living. S. B. Palm received his education in the Warren city schools, supplemented by two terms in Hiram College. When thirteen years of age he entered his father's employ in the office of the Constitution and learned the printer's trade where he worked for about four years. In 1866 he was assistant postmaster under his father and Henry Townsend and in 1868 entered Hiram College. In 1873 he accepted a position in the Government printing office at Washington, where he remained till December, 1875, when he returned to Warren and established and became editor and publisher of the Warren Record, which he conducted about eight years, when in 1883, he became traveling salesman for the Cleveland Paper Co., remaining with them till 1896, when he became postmaster. His wife was formerly Miss Olive Brackin, daughter of Dr. Jas. R. and Julia L. Brackin. She was born in Mecca township March 20, 1854, and after attending the common schools took a course in Dana's Musical Institute. She was married to Mr. Palm Sept. 13, 1882. Two children are the fruits of this union: Helen Louise, born Feb. 21, 1885, and Frederick Jefferson, born Aug. 22, 1888. Mr. Palm is recognized as one of the best business men of the county and as an official is capable, reliable, and just.

PARSONS, CHARLES H., was born June 27, 1873, in Columbus, Ohio. He is at present a resident of Niles, where he has resided most of the time since 1880. He has the position of superintendent with the Coleman-Shields Company, iron manufacturers. Mr. Parsons is a member of the K. of P. and B. P. O. E., and takes an interest in all things that tend to improve society.

PATTENGELL, FRANCIS N., of Bristolville, is one of the most prosperous residents of that township. His father, Jacob Wellington Pattengell, came to Bristolville about 1836 and engaged in the manufacture of fanning-mills, having previously followed that occupation in Pennsylvania. He later engaged in the manufacture of chain pumps and the general mercantile trade. He thus acquired large property interests. Being a stanch republican, he was elected a commissioner of the county, and later assessor of Internal Revenue. His death occurred March 13, 1883. His wife, who was Laura Ann Case, was born in Bristol township Aug. 8, 1820. They were the parents of three children, born as follows: Annie M., April 26, 1841, Francis N. (our subject), May 13, 1845, and Louis Albert, Dec, 24, 1850. Francis N. has always made his home in Bristolville except during 1868-9, when he was engaged in the cattle business in Topeka, Kansas. He was married March 18, 1873, to Alice M., daughter of Silas J. and Lucy Chapman Foster. The former was born April 28, 1830, and the latter Oct. 20, 1832. Mrs. Pattengell was born in Bristol township July 25, 1852. They have three children living and one deceased. Jay W. was born June 4, 1874, and while pursuing his studies at the Cleveland Medical College was stricken down with typhoid fever and died at the Huron Street Hospital Oct. 7, 1893; Ward F., born April 10, 1880, is now with his father; Laura Alice, born July 18, 1890, and Francis N., Jr., born May 4, 1894. Our subject has been township trustee, member of the school board, and jury commissioner four years. He and family are members of the Congregational Church. He is a member of Mahoning Lodge and Trumbull Encampment. His education was obtained in the common schools, finished by graduation from the Bryant & Stratton Business College of Cleveland, O.

PARKER, RUFUS H., deceased. Conspicuous among those men of prominence in Kinsman, Ohio, whose enterprise, business sagacity, upright methods, liberality and public spirit have contributed to the growth of this thriving village, stands the subject of this sketch, who, although having departed to his reward, has left a legacy rich in good influences which will endure for generations. We copy in full the obituary of the deceased as it appeared in the local Kinsman paper:

DEATH OF RUFUS H. PARKER.

The people of this community were startled and pained to hear of the death of Rufus H. Parker, which occurred early Tuesday morning, August 9. Mr. Parker was one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, and his death has cast a sad gloom over the community. Rufus H. Parker was born in Kinsman Dec. 24, 1827, thus making him nearly 71 years of age at the time of his death. His father, Linus Parker, came to the township from Connecticut when a boy 18 years of age. His mother was Harriet B. Jones, of Hartford. His father died in 1839 and his mother died June 8, 1889. In 1852 Mr. Parker went to California, where he remained until the spring of 1857. He then returned to Kinsman and for eight years engaged in the occupation of teaming and farming. In 1865 he hired out to Elijah Beckwith, driving a wagon and selling notions in the wholesale trade. After working one year for Mr. Beckwith he started in the same business for himself, and continued until 1887. During this time his headquarters were alternately at Kinsman, Mercer, Sharon and Youngstown. In 1887 he retired from active business life, and has since lived at the old Parker homestead in the north part of the village. Rufus H. Parker was prominently identified with all the business interests of Kinsman. He was greatly beloved by all who knew him, and his death is universally regretted. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. William Gillis and Miss LeMira Parker, together with numerous distant relatives, who have the sincere sympathy of all in their bereavement. The funeral took place Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment at Kinsman Cemetery."

It is to such men that we owe our rapid and continued advancement in wealth and morality. He will long be held in affectionate remembrance.

PARSONS, B. F., was born near Quebec, Canada, Jan. 11, 1850, son of George and Susan Barger Parsons. The father was a native of Connecticut, the mother of Mahoning county, Ohio. The father died when our subject was quite young and he was left largely to his own resources, with the result of his being entirely a self-made man. Mr. Parsons was married in Sharon, Pa., Nov. 22, 1868, to Miss Ada Cranson, by whom he has two children, Charlie and Isa. The mother of these children died in July, 1880, and on Jan. 14, 1881, Mr. Parsons married Mary Miller. They have five children by this union, Jessie, Carrie, Roy, Flossie and Percy. Politically Mr. Parsons is a republican and fraternally is a member of the Knights of Pythias, Cortland Lodge No. 318. In 1888 our subject built in Cortland, Ohio, the present model spoke and handle factory, of which he is owner and proprietor. The annual business output of this factory ranges from $10,000 to $12,000. Mr. Parsons is a practical mill man and complete master of every department of his business. This is one of the principal industries of Cortland, giving employment to eight men and making a ready market for oak and hickory timber to the advantage of the farming communnity.

MRS. FRANK L. HARRIS.

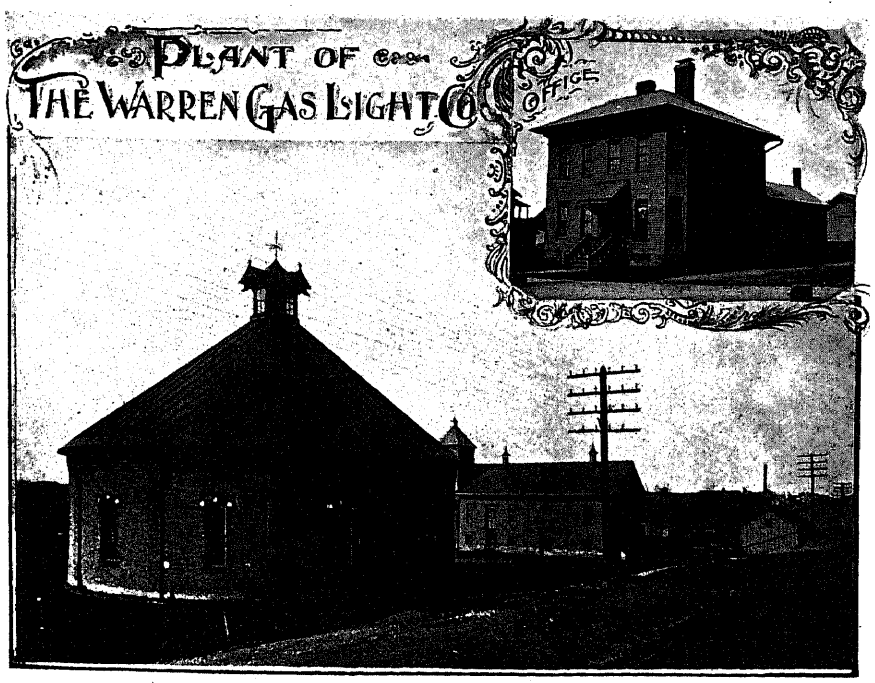

F. W. LOVELESS SR.

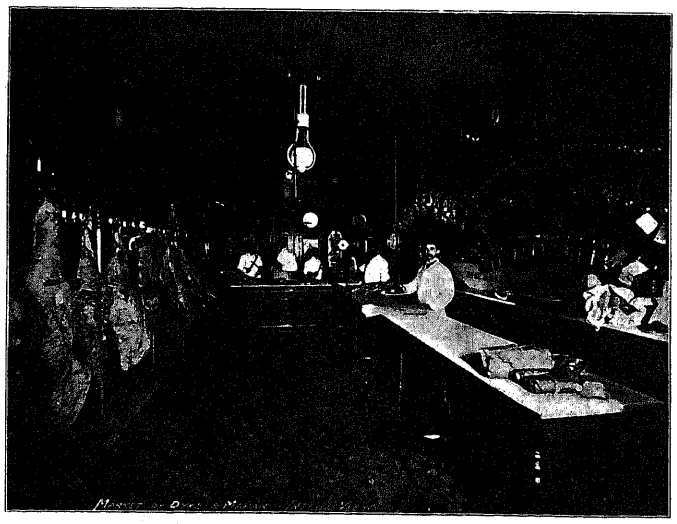

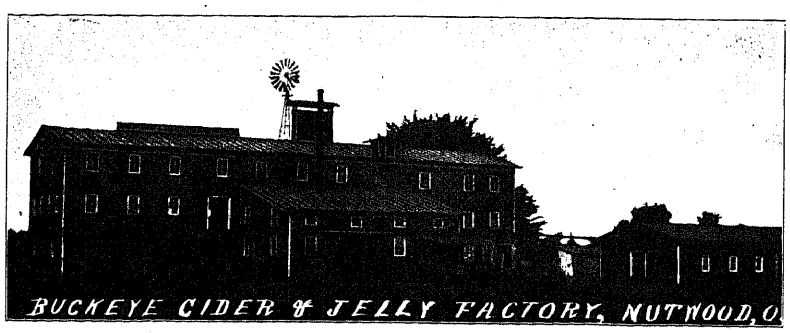

W. H. LOVELESS

PARK, JOHN H., is one of the leading dairy farmers of our county. He has fine stock and a farm of 180 acres, which was the old homestead. He was born in Wells, Rutland county, Vermont, May 23, 1822, and is the son of John B. Park, born May 22, 1794, in Vermont, and Sophia Broughton. Our subject came to Ohio in 1831, where his early education was obtained in the proverbial log school house, but was of such a substantial nature as to enable him to successfully teach ten terms of school. Mr. Park was a soldier in the late Civil War, having enlisted as a private under Colonel Asper in Co. A, 171st O. V. I. He was married in May, 1845, to Miss Mary L. Weisell, born in New York August 21, 1824, and to them were born six children—Edwin, Minerva J., Rachel A., Mary R., John C., and Samuel H. Mrs. Park died June 14, 1880, and our subject was married the second time to Miss Louisa C. Atwater in 1881. Mr. Park is vice president and director of the First National Bank of Niles, and his good judgment has done much toward the marked success of this institution. Socially Mr. P. is a member of the F. & A. M. of Niles. He favors protective tariff. Is a permanent friend of the laboring man and maintains that labor is the corner-stone of all our prosperity and great institutions.

PARK HOTEL LIVERY, Peck & Son, proprietors. This is one of the good liveries of Warren, the building being new and modern with all conveniences. Good rigs, courteous treatment, prompt response to calls from any portion of the city. Also feed stable in connection.

Aram F. Peck, the senior member of the firm, was born Aug. 11, 1833, in Lordstown, his parents being Caleb and Rebecca Porter Peck. Mr. Peck has resided in Warren over 63 years, his parents moving there when he was two years old. Caleb Peck was a grocer at the corner of Main and Franklin streets and our subject was in that business and also in the butcher business before taking up his present work. For the past six years he has bought and sold horses. In 1856 he was married to Miss Delilah Medley, by whom he has had seven children. He married his second wife, Miss Mary A. Gluth, in December, 1888. Three children have been born to this union. Mr. P. is a Jeffersonian democrat. The son and junior partner of the firm was born in Warren Jan. 7, 1862. He was engaged in drayage and express and continues it in connection with the livery.

PATTERSON, ALLEN, extensive lumber dealer and contractor, of Girard. The subject of this sketch was born in Hartford township, Dec. 31, 1839. He attended school, and later learned the carpenter's trade. In 1861 his spirit of patriotism induced him to enlist in Co. G, 6th Ohio Cav. He was honorably discharged the following year on account of sickness, having seen active service in the memorable campaign of Shenandoah Valley. After returning home, he followed his trade there and and at Sharon, Pa., removing in 1874 to Girard. Here he has gradually worked into the retail lumber business, in which he is now extensively engaged, also continuing his work as contractor and builder. Mr. P. was married Oct. 24, 1866, to Miss Margaret M. Shull of Hartford township. Three children have been born to them. Our subject is interested in all public affairs, has been a member of the Girard school board for nine years, also a member of the Relief Commission of Trumbull county, for indigent soldiers. The democratic party claims his vote, and McPherson Post, G. A. R., of Niles, enrolls him as a member. Mr. P. has three important elements that make for success in this world, viz., a good business, a good home, and a kind heart.

PELTON, JOHN SANDERSON. The aggregate history of individuals constitute the history of counties, states, or nations. In the history of this county the Pelton family and ancestors are a conspicuous landmark. The great-grandfather of our subject, Joseph De Wolf, a Revolutionary soldier, came from Granby, Conn., in 1799, to this township, and the following year his wife, Sarah Gibbons DeWolf, and their ten children made the journey. George K. Pelton, father of John S., was born in Gustavus township, April 12, 1818. April 27, 1845, he became owner of and moved to the land originally entered from the Connecticut Land Co. by Joseph DeWolf, remaining here until his death, which occurred Sept. 8, 1888. This farm is now the home of our subject and the place of his birth. Geo. K. Pelton married Mary N. King. She was born Jan. 9, 1821, in Kinsman, Ohio, and died at the old homestead Feb. 27, 1874. John S. Pelton was born May 21, 1859. On Aug. 25, 1887, he was united in marriage to Emily Orril Mason, the daughter of Ralph and Mary E. Bushnell. Mrs. Pelton was born Nov. 9, 1864, in Hartford and was educated in the Hartford Academic Institute. They are the parents of two children, George M., born June 8, 1890, and Mary E., born June 8, 1895. The republicans of Vernon township have favored Mr. Pelton with the office of township clerk since 1890.

PEARCE, BENJAMIN L. The livery firm of Sanford & Pearce, Niles, Ohio, of which our subject is a member, is a reliable and first-class establishment. Hacks meet all trains, carrying passengers to any part of the city. Also headquarters for stylish turnouts of all kinds. Weddings, parties, funerals, etc., receive the best of service. We heartily recommend this firm to the public. Mr. Pearce, who is the son of Joseph L. and Martha Lane Pearce, has been connected with this firm since 1872. He was born in Lordstown township, Nov. 21, 1841, and received his education in the common schools. Has been a member of the city council for one term, and belongs to the 171st Reg. U. S. Army. Our subject has been twice married; first to Miss Elizabeth McCollum, and after her death to Miss Mary Hoffman, who is also deceased. Socially Mr. P. is a member of K. of P. No. 138.

PENNELL, SYLVENUS, manufacturer of the Pennell Double Action Force Pump, and resident of Girard, is a native of Austintown, where he was born Feb. 19, 1841. His father came to this country from Ireland in infancy. At the breaking out of the Civil War our subject was a resident of Farmington. He enlisted first for three months, served four months, was discharged and again enlisted, this time serving till 1862, when he received an injury at Manassas Junction which compelled him to leave the service. He was in the battles of Rich Mountain and Second Bull Run. In 1863, on Sept. 12, Mr. Pennell married Miss Hester Ann Chalker, of Southington. Six children have been born to this union. Mr. and Mrs. P. were engaged in farming and teaching vocal music until 1878, when Mr. P. began the manufacture of pumps, and in 1884 removed to Girard. He is a member of Bell-Harmon Post, of Warren, and politically he is an independent republican with prohibition tendencies. From 1894 to 1896 he was president of the Girard council, and is greatly interested in public affairs.

PEW, H. S., merchant of Warren, retail dealer in crockery, glassware, lamp goods, wall paper, and silverware, with sewer pipe yards in connection, No. 25 Market street. Our subject comes from Trumbull county pioneer stock, his grandfather coming to the county early in the century and clearing up the Pew homestead just southeast of Warren. Here Mr. Horace Samuel Pew, our subject, was born, Feb. 13, 1841. Mr. Pew attended district schools and resided at home until twenty-two years of age, when he began clerking in Goldsteinz's clothing house at Warren. After serving two years in this capacity, Mr. Pew went on the road for John R. Wood's drug house, and later for Jas. B. Dunlap, grocer. In May, 1866, he started in the crockery business with Mr. Joseph Netterfield. Eighteen months later our subject's brother, Mr. John Pew, bought out Mr. Netterfield and for twenty-one years the business went under the firm name of Pew & Bro. Our subject then bought out his brother's interest and has since conducted the business alone. Mr. Pew is widely known as the president of the Savings Bank, having been elected to this position at its organization. He is also secretary and treasurer and general manager of Elastic Pulp Plaster Company. He was married April 18, 1865, to Miss Julia Elliott. They have three children, Kirt E., whose sketch appears below, Adelaide L. and Fred Cline.

PEW, KIRT E., son of H. S. Pew, whose sketch appears above, and general manager of his father's business, was born in Champion township, April 23, 1866. He attended Warren high school; also college at Chester, Pa., and graduated in 1885 from Cayuga Lake Military Academy of Aurora, N. Y. For a year after graduation he was employed with Kinney & Levan in the crockery business, at Cleveland. He then returned to Warren and accepted a position in his father's store. He was married July 29, 1897, to Miss Nettie L. Thayer of Warren. Mrs. Pew is a lady of intellect and refinement and was for fourteen years teacher in the schools of Warren. Mr. Pew is prominent as a church worker and is one of the directors of the Y. M. C. A.

PERRINE, GEO. B., is one of Hartford township's prosperous agriculturalists. His birth occurred March 23, 1860, in Sandy Lake township, Mercer county, Pa., but his parents moved to this township April 4, 1866, his education being obtained in the Hartford schools. Oliver P. Perrine, his father, was born Oct. 4, 1819. His mother, Sarah S. Bierce Perrine, April 6, 1831. A practical and progressive farmer, he has bred and handled graded horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. For fifteen consecutive years he has, with satisfaction to his constituents, filled the office of township clerk and the splendid showing of the township finances today is due to his business and executive ability. November 25, 1882, he married Ella M. Clark, who was born in Brookfield township Feb. 12, 1860, the daughter of Lewis W. and Helen M. Burton Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Perrine are the parents of seven children, two girls and five boys. In politics he is a republican from birth.

PICKERING, JOHN E., who, as Probate Judge of Trumbull county, has won the hearty approval of his constituents by his able administration of that office, was raised in Brookfield township. He is of English parentage, their home being near the Welsh border in Worcestershire. They settled near Pittsburg, moving subsequently to Sharon, Pa., and about the close of the Civil War came to Brookfield, this county. He entered the Western Reserve Seminary in 1872, graduating five years later, then took up the study of law, and was admitted to the bar in 1879, spending part of the time during these years in teaching school to obtain means for pursuing his studies, he was subsequently admitted to practice in the United States Courts. After a year or so of traveling, he settled down to practice in Warren. He served several years as Justice of the Peace, resigning that office to attend to his growing legal practice. He was elected city solicitor of Warren in 1891, and re-elected in 1893, serving another term and managing the legal affairs and controversies of the municipality with ability and signal success. In 1896 he was elected probate judge, which office he now holds. He married, in 1883, Miss Lizzie D., daughter of Samuel F. and Elizabeth Dickey of Warren. To this union three sons have been born, Edward, aged twelve years; Frank, aged ten years, and Samuel, five years. Fraternally Mr. Pickering is a member of the F. & A. M., Warren Commandery K. T., I. O. O. F., K. of P., and B. P. O. E. He is a republican in politics, taking an active part in its campaigns.

PIERCE, WILLIAM L., of Champion township, was born there October 27, 1836, the son of Joseph Pierce, who was born Sept. 12, 1808, and Sarah McKean Pierce, born in 1812. Our subject was born on the farm where he now lives and has been a farmer all his life. He enlisted as an artilleryman on July 13, 1863, and served till Aug. 23, 1865, when he received his discharge. He was married Nov. 7, 1866, to Mary Elgin, who was born Oct. 20, 1836, the daughter of Daniel and Rachel Elgin. To this union two sons have been born, both of whom are living. Mr. Pierce is one of the reliable farmers and business men of his township. He is a member of Bell-Harmon Post, G. A. R., and in politics a republican.

PIERCE, Edwin A., Merchant and Postmaster of North Bristol, is of sterling New England stock, having been born in Troy, Vermont, Nov. 8, 1841. He came with his parents to Trumbull county when twelve years of age, settling in Bristol. He attended district school and when about twenty years of age spent a year in the South, followed by two years in Iowa. Upon returning to Trumbull county, our subject was married Sept. 10, 1867, to Miss Minnie P. Hyde, of Farmington. For about two years after his marriage, Mr. Pierce followed the occupation of farming, when he removed to North Bristol and established himself in his present business, in which he has the deserved confidence and patronage of the community. Mr. P. is a staunch republican, and a member of F. & A. M., R. A. M., and K. T. Lodges. Mrs. Pierce is well known throughout the county as an enthusiastic White Ribboner.

PORTERFIELD, WILLIAM and J. M. are the sons of Robert and Hannah McMurray Porterfield. The former born in Westmoreland county, Pa., May 12, 1799; the latter in Ireland, Aug. 31, 1810. William Porterfield, the grandfather of our subjects, was born in Easter, Pa. He married Mary Shannon and they resided in Westmoreland county, Pa., but he died on this farm. Before leaving Eastern Pennsylvania, he served in the Revolutionary war. The brothers served their country in the late Civil War, both enlisting April 27, 1864, in Company C, 171st O. V. I., under Col. Joel F. Asper. Both received their education in the Hubbard high school. William H. was born on the old homestead Dec. 13, 1839; J. M. Dec. 11, 1844. Both selected agriculture as a vocation, but William H. engaged in teaching for eight years with success. On April 18, 1889, he married Hanah P. Noble, who was born in Niles, Ohio, July 3, 1855, and is the daughter of J. P. and Elizabeth Price Noble. William H. is an elder in the Presbyterian church of Hubbard. He graduated from Duff's Mercantile College in June, 1866. In politics he is a democrat of the Jeffersonian school, believing in equal and exact justice to all men, and the money of the Constitution. He loves his neighbors fully as well as he does the South Sea Islanders. The family enjoy the confidence of all those who know them.

POST, EPHRAIM, is well known as a prosperous and influential farmer, whose history and business interests have been closely identified with this township for a life time. He was born on the present farm Nov. 13, 1828, being the son of Munson and Elizabeth Cooper Post, the former born Jan. 24, 1785; the latter March 15, 1792. The opportunities for education in his youth were very limited, the father paying tuition for the son's attendance at the common schools. By perseverance and industry he has accumulated a valuable farm and home just north of Cortland, O. He is cutivating a vineyar dof seven acres, which is now yielding handsome returns. His first wife, Orpha Hawley, was born Feb. 14, 1826, in Fowler township. She was the daughter of Chandler and Rebecca Viets Hawley. To this union the following children were born: Jay H., born Oct. 7, 1856; Viets C., born Oct. 25, 1858; Loren E., born May 3, 1861, who is at present cultivating the father's farm; Harry S., born Aug. 28, 1864; Lizzie M., born Nov. 5, 1867. The second marriage of our subject occurred Sept. 11, 1872, to Emily Beach Trowbridge, who was born in Fowler township March 16, 1830, and was the daughter of Dr. Harry and Mary Chew Beach, who came in an early day from the east to Fowler township.

PREDMORE, GEORGE. The growth, welfare and prosperity of a municipality depends to a great extent upon the administration of its public affairs. The subject of this sketch is the efficient Mayor of the city of Warren, to which office he has been honored with a second term. He is a native of Youngstown, O., where he was born Oct. 29, 1849, the son of James and Harriett Seymour Predmore. Mr. Predmore was educated in the public schools of Youngstown, graduating from the high school. He was united in marriage to Miss Emily Min Young, daughter of Wm. and Delilah Min Young of Warren, Ohio, June 9, 1874. They are the parents of two children, Blanch and Helen, now grown to womanhood. At the age of seventeen Mr. Predmore entered as clerk the grocery store of his father in Youngstown, where he remained till 1871, when he became a partner in the business, which interest he retained till 1878, when he sold the same. He then erected a business house near the Erie depot, where he conducted a restaurant till 1886. In 1885, at the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Min Young, he removed to Warren and assumed control of the business at No. 20 Main street, which was established by Mr. Min Young in 1850. Here can be purchased flour, feed, lime, salt, plaster, cement, etc., and in the three articles of lime, plaster and cement, this firm has by far the largest business in Warren. Mr. Predmore is a republican and a loyal supporter of McKinleyism. He was elected to the office of Mayor first in 1895 and re-elected to a second term. He takes an active and leading part in the political issues and questions of the day, is chairman of the county republican executive committee and a man who has friends without number. B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 295 of Warren has his name enrolled as an honored member.

PRITCHARD, WILL H., senior partner in the firm of Pritchard & Naylor, shoe dealers of Niles. This firm was organized about 1894, and is doing a prosperous and increasing business. Anything in the line of fine footwear, for ladies, gentlemen or children, may be found in this store, and customers will receive prompt and courteous attention. Previous to his connection with the shoe business, Mr. Pritchard was employed in the rolling mill of Niles. He served fifteen years in this mill and at the time of leaving was shearman for sheet mill. Mr. P. boasts of Scotch blood, and was born in Scotland, Feb. 22, 1864. He came to Niles in 1879. His wife, Annie E., is the daughter of Theophilus Williams of Niles. Two children, a boy and a girl, have been born to them. P. H. C., Odd Fellows, and Elks are the social orders to which our subject belongs, while as a citizen he stands on the republican platform, and is now serving as a member of the board of education of Niles.

RAGER, JOHN S., was born in Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 6, 1838, and is the son of George Rager, born in Paris, France. After emigrating to America he married Christina Richard. Our subject is the only child of this union and both his parents are deceased, the father dying in Pittsburgh in 1839. He was a butcher by trade. In 1851 the mother and son removed to Niles, since the home of the family. She died in 1897. Our subject married, 1864, Lucinda A. Irvin, the daughter of William Irvin, formerly a citizen of Niles. Mr. Rager defended the flag of his country in the late Civil War. He enlisted in 1864 in Co. C, 84th O. V. I. and after this term of service expired, again enlisted in Co. B, 171st O. V. I. Fraternally he is a member of the G. A. R. of Niles, Ohio. Mr. Rager is one of the old and trusted employes of the Falcon mills and enjoys the confidence and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances.

RASOR, J. H., is the owner of one of Hartford township's best farms, the result of scientific and thoughtful cultivation of the soil. He bought this farm and removed to Trumbull county in 1884 from Wadsworth township, Medina county, O., where he was born April 5, 1853. He has devoted himself to grain farming and the growing of natural soil fertilizer, in this way year by year producing better crops. Politically he is a strong advocate of republicanism. Dec. 11, 1883, he married Clara C., the daughter of Jacob and Sarah Oberlin. She was born Nov. 29, 1858, and educated at Canton, O. John and Hannah Rasor, parents of our subject, were born respectively in 1814 and 1819.

RATLIFF, JAMES K., is one of the county's valuable men, being a prosperous farmer and lumberman. Mr. Ratliff was born and has always lived on the farm where he now resides. His birth occurred June 3, 1845. His parents were both natives of Howland township, his father, who is still living, having been born on the Ratliff farm, now the home of our subject. Mr. R. was married April 13, 1866, to Miss Barbara Snare, whose grandfather settled in Howland in 1799, being the earliest settler of the township. Five children have been born to them, only two of whom are now living. Mr. Ratliff is a staunch republican and a man of sterling worth. He has served his district as director many years.

REYNOLDS, JOB, JR., is one of the progressive farmers and stock raisers of Mesopotamia township, where he was born on the farm he now owns Sept. 6, 1837. His father, Job, Sr., was a native of Rhode Island, born on May 19, 1790. He was married to Elizabeth Arnold July 4, 1816, and to them were born eight children, our subject being the youngest. In 1817 he came to Trumbull county and settled on the farm our subject now owns. His wife died in 1874. Our subject was married July 17, 1864, to Altha Lewis, daughter of Silas Lewis. Her birth occurred April 26, 1841. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are the parents of five children; Dio Lewis, Lydia, Effie, Merl and Inez. Lydia is now Mrs. Verne Beardsley of Cleveland, and Miss Inez is at home. The others are deceased. Mr. R. enlisted in Co. D, Second Ohio Cavalry, and served one and one-half years. He has held various township offices, all of which he has ably filled. He is a member of Mesopotamia Lodge, No. 789, I. O. O. F.

REEKER, WILLIAM F., ticket clerk of the Erie R. R. at Leavittsburg. He was born Oct. 13, 1861, on part of the George Smith farm in Braceville township. His mother died when he was three days old and his father enlisted and was killed in the civil war at the battle of Perrysville, Ky. Our subject lived till he was thirteen with his grandfather on the farm where he was born. In 1874 he came to Leavittsburg and lived with his uncle, Mr. Gephart, working in his store and attending school. In 1880 he was employed in a store and grist mill at Hubbard, but returned in a year to Leavittsburg and accepted a position with the Erie R. R. in the freight house. He remained there for twelve years, but for the past seven years has held the position of ticket clerk. On May 24, 1880, Mr. R. was married to Miss Laura E. Powell. They have one child, J. W. Clifton, born March 19, 1889. Mr. Reeker is a republican and member of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M., also Mahoning Chapter, No. 66.

RICE, WARREN, proprietor and manager of Rice's Photograph Gallery at 27½ East Market street, Warren, O., is one of the leading artists in his line in this part of the state. He is prepared to promptly execute in first-class style all kinds of portrait and view photography. Enlarging and copying in crayon, ink and oil are also done in first-class style. Mr. Rice is well equipped for his profession, having a thorough knowledge of the details of his work and a long experience in its practice. He began work in the gallery of which he is now proprietor when eighteen years of age. The business was then conducted by his uncle, L. M. Rice, who became proprietor over thirty years ago. In 1891 Mr. Rice went West and for three years, mostly in Montana, followed his profession, giving special attention to view work. He then returned and became proprietor of his present business. Most of the photography for the views in this work were executed by Mr. Rice, and the excellent quality of the work is clearly distinguishable. His portrait work also ranks high among that of the best artists. His customers are always sure of good work, fair and courteous treatment. His gallery is equipped with all modern appliances and improvements, and nothing needed for doing first-class work is omitted.

RICE, B. F., is an active and energetic business man of Newton Falls, who, since 1883, has conducted his present business. He handles all kinds of drugs, medicines and toilet articles, groceries and table supplies. He was born at Frederick, Mahoning county, O., July 27, 1854, and removed with his parents to Braceville in 1857, where they remained till 1871, except a few years spent in Newton Falls. He took up his residence in Newton Falls in 1871 and has remained there since. His education was obtained in the schools of that village, Queen City Commercial College, and the Cincinnati College of Pharmacy. He has been a member of the board of education and township and village treasurer. His father, Newton J. Rice, M. D., was born March 6, 1829, and his mother, Emily F. Brown Rice, April 13, 1834. Our subject was married to Alice Hoyle, who was born Dec. 14, 1861, and to them have been born two children. Mrs. R. is a graduate of the Newton Falls Schools, and also took a course at Mount Union College. Her parents were Allen and Rachel Hoyle, who came from England in 1850. Mr. Rice is a member of Newton Falls Lodge, No. 462, F. & A. M., and has passed the chairs in this to the Blue Lodge.

RISLEY, S. H.. A successful, prosperous farmer of Johnston, was born in that township March 16, 1849. He is the son of Sylvester and Harriett Richard Risley. The former was born in Madison county, N. Y., Dec. 30, 1814, and died Sept. 24, 1880. The latter, born Nov. 15, 1810, and died July 30, 1886. She was the daughter of Charles and Abigail Richards. They were married Sept. 1, 1835, and came to Ohio Nov. 10, 1838, from Oneida county, N. Y. They were the parents of two sons, Sylvester and Charles, and eight girls; Laura, Roselia, Candace, Sarah, Elsie, Abbie, Harriett and Hannah. Our subject was joined in marriage on July 4, 1870, to Miss Jennie Stoddard, who was born July 14, 1848, at Kirk Merhill, Scotland. She was educated in the common schools. Mr. and Mrs. Risley are the parents of four children, as follows: Rosa, deceased; Arthur E., Mable J. and Jennie M. They are highly respected by a wide circle of friends. Mr. Risley is a supporter of the republican principles.

RITEZEL, WILLIAM. The well-known journalist and veteran editor of the Western Reserve Chronicle, and also the Warren Daily Chronicle, deserves the distinction of having been engaged in the newspaper business for a longer continuous period than any other man in Ohio. His steady rise and successful career of over forty-four years as editor and manager in newspaper work in Warren has placed him in the front rank as a journalist and business man. Mr. Ritezel was born in Washington county, Pa., July 11, 1828. His father, John Ritezel, was a native of Pennsylvania, and his mother, Martha Hodgens Ritesel, was of Scotch-Irish ancestry. At the age of seventeen our subject entered a printing office at Washington, Pa., fully determined to master all the details of the business. His success since then is conclusive evidence that he carried out that determination. In 1851 he established the Review of that place, and in 1854 sold it and moved to Warren, O., where he became editor and publisher of the Trumbull Democrat, which in 1862 was merged into the Western Reserve Chronicle, which has the distinction of being the oldest newspaper on the Western Reserve. The daily edition, known as the Warren Daily Chronicle, was started in 1877 and is still one of the most flourishing papers in the state. Mr. Ritezel served two terms as county treasurer, from 1861 to 1865. He was elected to the state legislature in 1868 and re-elected in 1870. His official career has been marked by good judgment and loyal devotion to the best interests of his constituents. He was united in marriage in May, 1851, to Miss A. E. White, of Washington, Pa. Three children have been born to this union; Franklin M., Mary and Annie E. Mr. Ritezel is still active in the editorial work of the Chronicle, and continues to wield the same potent influence for the right that has always characterized his career as a newspaper man and as a citizen.

RITEZEL, FANK M. Among the citizens of Warren city who take a just and honest pride in the advancement of the interests of the community, none rank higher than the subject of this sketch. He is a native of Washington, Pa., born Feb. 15, 1853, the son of William Ritezel, whose sketch appears elsewhere in this work. Our subject was educated in the Warren schools, graduating in 1870, and later graduating from Allegheny College in 1875. After his graduation he occupied a position on the editorial staff of the Akron Daily Beacon for two years when, in 1877, he became one of the founders of the Warren Daily Chronicle, with which he is still connected. He is secretary of the Ohio Centennial Commission and of the county republican executive committee, and a member of the advisory board of the Ohio Republican League, and state republican committee. Mr. R. is an ardent worker in the interest of the republican party, and stands high among its leaders. He was postmaster at Warren from 1892 to 1896, being elected by a majority over all of nine candidates. On Dec. 3, 1870, Mr. Ritzel was united in marriage to Miss Isabella Graeter. She is the daughter of Augustus and Sarah Graeter. She is a native of Warren and a graduate from the high school of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Ritezel have two children, William A., born Dec. 5, 1886, and Fritz G., born Dec. 6, 1890. Mr. Ritezel ranks very high among the fraternal orders of which he is a member, being past chancellor of the K. of P., for which lodge he was representative to the grand lodge for eighteen consecutive years. He is now serving his fifth year as a grand trustee of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., and captain of the U. R., K. of P., since its organization nine years ago. He is a member of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M., and captain general of Warren Commandeery. Also one of the organizers of the B. P. O. E. lodge a member of the same. At the beginning of the Spanish-American war he was commissioned a captain of volunteers and recruited a company which was mustered into service by the adjutant general of Ohio.

ROBERTS, E. E., prosecuting attorney, was elected in November, 1896, and assumed the duties of office Jan. 1, 1897.

ROBERTS, LORENZO W., who has been identified with the interests of Kinsman township since 1855, is ranked with our representative men. Lorenzo W. Roberts was born in Milton, Chittendon county, Vermont, April 5, 1833. His father, Hazen P. Roberts, a native of Vermont, was born Dec. 17, 1804. The family moved to Ohio in 1834 and settled in Lake county. The senior Roberts married Alvira Kemp, who was born July 24, 1811, in Massachusetts, after working at blacksmithing many years. In April, 1877 our subject purchased a farm in order to give his sons the training in thrift and industry incident to the life of the agriculturist. Mr. Roberts has practice law for a number of years and served as a notary for twelve years. At his country's call he enlisted Oct. 10, 1862, and was honorably discharged July 4, 1865. He was discharged with the rank of sergeant. His wife, Mary J., the daughter of Alexander and Ellen McConnell Ward, was born in Kinsman, O., July 31, 1834. They were married Sept. 16, 1857, and to this union five children have been born—James W., Harriett A., Frank A., Perry M., Arba L., all of whom are living.

ROE, H. H., is one of Bazetta township's substantial farmers. He was born in this township Feb. 9, 1841, and it has contiuously been his home. His father, Walter Roe, married Mary Blair. He was born Feb. 19, 1814. She was born Feb. 29, 1815. Mr. Roe's early life was spent on his father's farm, the winter months being improved in the school room, receiving his education chiefly in the Bloomfield schools. In the occupation of farming and accumulation of property he has been successful, and enjoys the confidence of the community in which he dwells. Both he and his wife are active members of the Christian church, he having been an elder for twenty-one years. He has been active in the republican political arena and at the present time is filling the office of justice of the peace. Fraternally he is a Past Grand of the Cortland Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 554. His wife is a member of the Rebecca Lodge No. 288. In Mecca township, Oct. 12, 1846, was born to John H. and Mary Post Casterline a daughter, Parmelia A., who became the wife of our subject Sept. 6, 1866. Edna B. Roe, the daughter, was born April 13, 1884. Mr. Roe numbers a wide circle of friends among his acquaintances.

ROGERS, JOSEPH W., a dealer in all kinds of flagstones and resident of Niles, was born in Vienna, Trumbull county, Oct. 23, 1846. His father, Loren Rogers, is one of the early pioneers of the county and was born in 1816. His mother, Betsey Chamberlain Rogers, was born in 1821, and died at the age of sixty-six years. His early education was obtained in Vienna and supplemented later by a course in Hiram College. Mr. Rogers has been established in his present business for the past twenty years, and has been especially successful. He has also paid considerable attention to farming, being the owner of a fine farm just north of the city, upon which is located his quarry, and has also raised a number of fast horses, notably Hugh Conway and Sally Bush, who has a record of 2:10¼. Mr. Rogers was married Oct. 23, 1872, to Miss Austia J. Bacon, of Vienna, the daughter of James F. and Sylvia Bacon. She was born in Vienna, Sept. 11, 1853, and was educated in the schools of that township. They have four daughters, all living. Our subject is socially a Mason, politically a republican, was a delegate to Columbus when McKinley was first nominated for governor. He is altogether a reliable and amiable gentleman, respected by a wide circle of friends.

ROSE, T. H., of Mecca township, is a native of Trumbull county, having been born on the farm where he now resides Aug. 2, 1841, the son of Jonathan and Anna Craft Rose. Mr. R. has resided here all his life with the exception of about three years spent in California and on the Pacific coast. He was united in marriage, March 7, 1867, to Miss Josephine Gridley, daughter of Albert and Maria Palmer Gridley, of Johnston township. To this union five children have been born, three of whom are living. For a number of years Mr. R. has operated a large number of cheese factories, doing over $150,000 worth of business in this line annually. In 1896 he was elected a member of the board of county commissioners and has proven himself fuly worthy of the confidence reposed in him by the people. As an official he is careful, conservative and courteous, placing the best interests of the county always i nthe foreground. His neighbors have shown their confiedence in him by electing him a school director for the past twenty-nine years. Socially he is a member of Cortland Lodge No. 529, F. & A. M., and Mahoning Chapter No. 66, R. A. M.

RUSSELL HOUSE, Warren, O. T. F. Russell, the proprietor, was born in Crosby county, Canada, Feb. 15, 1860. His parents were both from Scotland. When he was about six years old the family moved to New Castle, Pa., where our subject received a common school education. In 1880 he began his hotel experience as clerk, in 1885 starting in business for himself with the American House, in Enon Valley, Pa. Later he conducted the Central House in Harlansburg, Pa., and in 1894, with W. S. McKibben, opened the Knox house in New Castle, Pa. In April, 1897, he came to Warren, and in June, 1898, became proprietor of his present hotel, near the Erie Depot, which was formerly the Campbell House, where he is doing a good business. To them have been born the following children: Joseph E., Adrian H., Alice May, Lois and Herbert. Mr. Sibson has always been a staunch republican. He is one of the reliable and most respected citizens of the county.

SIGLER BROTHERS, successors to Sigler, Hathaway & Company, are proprietors of one of the solid and established business houses of Cortland, th ename being familiar to many people with which they have transacted business for so many years. The members of the firm, Eugene A. and Grant L. Sigler, have passed a goodly portion of their lives in this village, where they obtained their education and business training.

Eugene A. and Grant L. Sigler are the sons of Austin and Ellen Fowler Sigler. The father was born May 13, 1821; the mother April 12, 1830. The education of the brothers was obtained at the Cortland schools, the vacations being spent in the father's store.

Eugene A. Sigler, born at Fowler, O., Oct. 28, 1864, is recognized as a young man of sterling character and strong business qualifications, having attained to positions of trust and responsibility. He was treasurer of Bazetta township seven years; three years president of Trumbull County Sunday School Association; for eight years he has been superintendent of the M. E. Sunday School, and is a director of the First National Bank of Cortland; steward of the M. E. church, and master of the work in the K. of P. Lodge of Cortland, No. 318. He is a staunch republican. His wife, formerly Mary M. Mapes, was born in Cortland, Jan. 18, 1866, and is the daughter of Andrew and Joanna Mapes. Three children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Sigler in order as named: Ada E., Alice M. and Gladys L.

The birth of Grant L. Sigler occurred in Fowler, O., Dec. 29, 1866. He married Sarah M. Clawson, Dec. 28, 1892. She is the daughter of Allison and Harriett Clawson, and was born in Mercer, Pa., Jan. 6, 1872, where she received her education. A deceased infant, Pauline, and Helen have been born to this union. Our subject is Past Chancellor of Cortland Lodge, K. of P., No. 318, and belongs to U. R., K. of P., of Warren, No. 103. He is treasurer of the M. E. church, member of the Cortland board of education, and in politics a republican. He is recognized in the community as a solid business man.

SKELLY, JOHN C., is a native of Vienna township, this county, and has spent most of his life here. In 1886 he founde dthe business now conducted by him at No. 121 Main street, Warren, O. He conducted a retail establishment until 1897, when the wholesale department was added and it has already reached large proportions. Mr. Skelly handles all the leading brands of whiskies, beers, brandies, gins, rums and wines, both domestic and imported, and has become one of the most popular and leading dealers in the county. He is general agent and bottler of Bartholomay's Rochester Beer—Standard, Bohemian, Bavarian, Export and Rienzi. The business is personally superintended and managed by Mr. Skelly, and the success from the start shows his superior business sagacity. In connection with his other retail trade he handles all the leading brands of cigars and smokers' supplies. The wholsale as well as the retail trade is under his personal management and all orders by mail will be promptly filled. Those doing business with Mr. Skelly will find him prompt, reliable and a thorough business man.

SLOAN, MERRICK J. This gentleman is well known as one of the leading attorneys and business men of Trumbull county, where he has lived all his life, having been born in Greene township Sept. 23, 1844. He is the son of Isaac and Martha Cooley Sloan. His early education was received in the district schools and Orwelle Academy, and later he took a scientific course in Oberlin College. In June, 1863, he enlisted in the 86th O. V. I. and served in that and the 177th O. V. I. until the close of the war. He served in the 9th and 23d corps under Burnside, Thomas, Schofield and Sherman. He read law with Hon. J. C. Hale, and in 1872 was admitted to practice in the state and in 1875 to the United States courts. He then taught school in Lorain and Trumbull counties till 1875, when he located at Niles, O., and began the practice of law, in which he has been very successful. In 1880 he removed to Warren, where he still lives. Mr. Sloan has served as city solicitor of Warren four terms and during that time rendered the city much valuable legal service. His marriage to Stella S. Fisk took place April 4, 1871. She was born July 27, 1844. Her education was acquired in Syracuse, N. Y., and Oberlin College. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan have one daughter, Miss Lillian W., who is now a teacher in the Warren Kindergarten. Mr. Sloan is an active member of the G. A. R., a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., and Warren Council of American Mechanics.

SMILEY, W. H., of Niles, O., is a graduate of the law school of Columbian University, Washington, D. C., and was admitted to the bar of Ohio in 1889. In his law practice he is associated with Hon. E. B. Taylor, of Warren, O.

SMITH, JOHN L., a prominent and influential citizen of Warren, O., son of Johnson and Susan Smith, was born in Scotland, Aug. 31, 1841. The father died in 1848, and in 1852 the mother and family came to America and settled in Cleveland, where he learned the trade of stone cutting. Aug. 31, 1862, John L. enlisted at Warren in Co. C., 19th O. V. I., and served during the remainder of the war, being mustered out June 12, 1865. He was wounded and captured at the battle of Chickamauga and experienced all the horrors of war, being in many hard fought battles and spending fifteen months in Libby and Andersonville prisons. He was one of two of said company of whom special mention for bravery was made at the battle of Stone River. After the war he returned to Warren and engaged in contracting and building, in which he did a large business. In 1879 he was elected county commissioner and served six years. In 1887 he was elected mayor of the city, serving two terms, and he is now a member of the city council, having been elected in 1897. He still holds his membership in the Warren fire department, of which he has been a member for thirty-eight years and was chief for over twenty years. Mr. S. was married March 25, 1869, to Carrie G. Tovey, of Cleveland, and she died March 1, 1892. To this union three boys were born, Albert C. and William T., and George T., the latter of which died in infancy. On Dec. 13, 1893, our subject was united in marriage to Mrs. Laura A. Schofield, daughter of Samuel Woolford, of Warren. To this marriage one son has been born, John L. W., born June 19, 1895. Mr. Smith is a member of the G. A. R., of Independence Lodge No. 90, K. of P., treasurer of U. R., K. of P., member of I. O. O. F., B. P. O. E., and Royal Arcanum He has now retired from Active business.

SMITH, DENNIS T., the subject of this sketch was born Sept. 27, 1833, in Mesopotamia township on the farm where he now resides and which his grandfather, Gager Smith, took up and settled in 1805. Mr. Smith was brought up on the farm and attended the district school. His father was born April 29, 1800, in Oneida county, N. Y., and came with his parents to Mesopotamia. His mother was Polly Lee and was born in Montgomery county, N. Y., and came with her parents to Farmington in 1818. Our subject has always resided on his present home except two years spent in California. He was married Jan. 1, 1855, to Artalissa, daughter of Albert and Emily Ensign, of Mesopotamia. Mrs. S. was born Aug. 9, 1833. Mr. Smith has held various township offices and in 1890 was elected a member of the board of county commissioners, serving until Sept. 20, 1897, and to him belongs a large share of the credit for the erection of the new and commodious court house. As an officer he is careful, painstaking and ably discharges the trust reposed in him. He is an ardent republican and has done much for his party. Is a member of Western Reserve Lodge No. 507, F. & A. M., of West Farmington; Mahoning Chapter No. 66, and Warren Commandery No. 39. He is Past Master of Farmington Lodge, and Rural Lodge No. 328, of Bloomfield. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are the parents of one daughter, Emily, now Mrs. H. E. Gates, whose husband carries on the home farm.

SMITH, JOSEPH, attorney at law and justice of the peace, located at the corner of Main and Mill streets, Niles, O. Mr. Smith was born in Stourport, England, Dec. 25, 1870. He came to America when nine years of age and lived at Troy, N. Y., until coming to Niles in April, 1885. Here he was for a year employed on C. Easthope's dairy farm. Feeling the need of more education, our subject began attending the public schools of Niles, supporting himself by working out of school hours at various vocations. By diligent application he was enabled to do six years' work in four years and graduated from the Niles High School in 1890. For a year and three months he was yard clerk for the Erie R. R. Co. at Niles. After attending the Ohio State University for a year our subject began the study of law in the office of Hon. C. H. Strock. He was admitted to the bar in 1895. At the age of twenty-three Mr. Smith was elected justice of the peace and is now filling his second term. He has also been clerk of the Niles board of health since 1894. Mr. S. is a prominent Mason and K. of P., and is also noted for his ability as an orator, having delivered eloquent addresses on various public occasions. Of one of these the "Youngstown Telegram" says: "Mr. Smith's oration would have done credit to a speaker of note." He is a republican and has served two years on the Trumbull county executive committee. He is an active member of the Presbyterian church. Being still young, we are able to predict for Mr. Smith a useful life and success in any line he may undertake.

SMITH, H. C., dentist, has been identified with Cortland in a professional capacity for many years. His office is located on the north side of Main street and is supplied with improved apparatus and appliances for dental work. He is a native of Fowler township, where he was born July 10, 1845, and the son of A. J. and Phoebe Baldwin Smith. He marrie dMay 3, 1874, Corra E. Post, who was born in Cortland Aug. 17, 1857, the daughter of M. C. and Elvyla Freer Post. Our subject's children are named in order of birth: Philip Ray, born Sept. 17, 1875, deceased March 31, 1883; Alta Belle, Feb. 13, 1879, and Wade, Aug. 13, 1882. He is a republican in politics and has aided in the success of his party. As a professional man he is well and favorably known in Trumbull county.

SMITH, A. A., is one of Bazetta township's enterprising and successful agriculturists, as his home and farm indicate. He was born in Vienna township, Feb. 5, 1847, and is the son of Isaac and Laura Woodford Smith. Feb. 25, 1817, the father was born; the mother Nov. 24, 1823. Mr. Smith received a good education in the Cortland and Warren city schools, which has served him well as the foundation for a practical education gained in the actual experience of life. For a life partner he selected Emma E. Caldwell, who received her education in the Western Reserve Seminary, the daughter of David and Eliza Christy Caldwell. They were married Nov. 11, 1874. Their eldest son, Cloyd C., is deceased. Beulah B. and Romain R. are living. As a family they are esteemed and respected.

SMITH, S. F., is one of Mecca township's solid and successful farmers. He was born in this township Dec. 15, 1855, his father coming to this country from Connecticut in its earlier history. The parents braved the hardships and vicissitudes of pioneer life, and lived to see the wilderness transformed into homes and farms. The father, Joseph W. Smith, was born in Connecticut Nov. 22, 1814; the mother, Belinda Smith, nee Wolkely, was born in Bristol township Dec. 25, 1818. Our subject is engaged in mixed and dairy farming, having one of the largest herds of dairy cows in the township. He filled the office of justice of the peace six years in Mecca township. In politics he has always bee na republican. He is a thoroughly reliable citizen.

SMOUT, ARTHUR L., is a farmer of Vernon township, and was born March 10, 1860, at Vernon, O. His father was a native of Montgomeryshire, Wales, and his mother of Kinsman, O. Mr. S. attended school at Ada, O., and also completed a business course at Meadville, Pa. He then secured a position as stenographer in the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Fort Wayne, Ind., where he was employed two years. Since his return home he has devoted his attention to farming. He is one of the wide-awake, hustling young business men of his locality. He is a democrat in politics, but opposed the doctrine of "free silver" at the last election.

SNYDER, C. B., a prosperous and influential farmer, dairyman and stock dealer of Bloomfield township, is descended from one of the oldest and best known families in Trumbull county, Ohio. His ancestors were hardy New Englanders, his father, Thomas Snyder, coming to Hartford township in 1808. He was a man of unswerved energy, an ideal pioneer, and bravely faced the hardships and vicissitudes of the early settlers. His son, David Snyder, the father of our subject, was born in Perry county, Pa., Jan. 12, 1805, being little more than an infant when the family adopted the Buckeye state for their home. He married, Nov. 7, 1827, Mary Ann Comes, born in Brookfield township, Dec. 3, 1807, the daughter of Ebenezer M. Comes. C. B. Snyder, son of David, was born in Brookfield township June 1, 1830. Since the early age of eighteen years he has been constantly engaged in dealing in cattle, and during an active lifetime has bought and sold a great many thousand head, and to-day is one of the largest ranch and cattle owners in the Lone Star state. With remarkable business foresight, years ago when cattle and land were cheap in Texas, he invested a few thousand in that state. This investment has increased in value with the rise in prices of cattle and the advancement and development of civilization in that state, until to-day it is acknowledged by all to have been a shrewd and foresighted business investment. In Shackeldord county, Texas, Mr. Snyder owns 4,640 acres, and his son, C. B., Jr., who is now in active charge of this property, 2,400 acres, and in Mothey county, Texas, our subject owns 640 acres. For a number of years father and son have in addition to their own land leased over 20,000 acres of ranch land adjoining. To-day they own over 3,500 head of cattle on these ranches. Mr. Snyder is known all over the state of Texas as a successful "cow man." He is a director in the Second National Bank of Warren, O., and is one of Trumbull county's solid financial men. For his first wife he married Sept. 21, 1851, Miss Mary Clark. She died April 19, 1859. One daughter, Lovina, was born to this union April 26, 1853. She is the wife of H. F. Griffith, a prosperous farmer and cattle dealer. Sept. 19, 1860, he married Miss Mary J. Bugby, of Orwell, O. Below we mention the children of this union: Elva I., born Nov. 17, 1861, the wife of S. E. Yoder, surgeon of the Burlington Railway; Clara B., born June 18, 1863; she married Rev. C. W. Hollister; she died Jan. 26, 1893; Gertrude L., born July 23, 1866, the wife of Rev. S. S. Marques, of Bridgewater, Mass.; C. Byron, Jr., born Nov. 26, 1869. Few men in Trumbull county are better known than C. B. Snyder.

SNIDER & CAMPBELL, clothiers, Franklin block, Warren, O. This business was established in March, 1896, and has steadily improved and increased in popularity since that time. This firm carry a most complete and extensive line of clothing, gents' furnishings, hats, caps, everything new and up-to-date. Prompt, polite, an dhonest service guaranteed to all customers.

Eli D. Snider is well known in Warren, having been engaged in business there since 1880. He was born on a farm in Jackson township, Mahoning county, Feb. 10, 1860. His parents, Owen and Elizabeth Snider, were both natives of Pennsylvania. His early education was obtained in district, select schools and Poland Union Seminary. At the age of sixteen our subject began teaching school, which profession he followed till he came to Warren, where he took a position in the dry goods store of A. Wentz, remaining there seven years. Two years were then spent in the same business with H. Stiles, Sons & Company and five years with Pond, Camp & Company, clothiers, when our subject began his present business in March, 1896. Mr. Snider was married to Miss Ida P. Shively, April 27, 1884. Mrs. S. is the daughter of Andrew and Priscilla Shively and was born Nov. 8, 1861, receiving her education in district, select schools and at Mineral Ridge. One child has blessed this union, Harry DeWitt, born Jan. 17, 1887. Mr. S. is a republican.

David W. Campbell is the son of Alexander Campbell, hardware dealer of this city, and Hannah Campbell. He was born Sept. 28, 1856, in Fowler township. Mr. Campbell's father is double cousin to President McKinley and was formerly engaged in lumbering and saw mill business, in which vocation David's life was spent till 1882, when he came to Warren. For fifteen years he was engaged here with the hardware firm of Kirk, Christy & Co. and S. W. Park & Co. He then formed his present association with Mr. Snider in the clothing business. Mr. Campbell married Miss Mary L. Kingsley, daughter of John and Caroline Kingsley, Dec. 25, 1877. She was born Sept. 25, 1857, in Fowler township, and educated in district and select schools. Two sons have been born to this union, the eldest of whom, Clyde A., is now employed in the store with his father. Mr. C. is a prominent Mason and K. of P. and a firm republican. All who know our subject recognize his sterling worth and business ability and regard him as one of Warren's strong business citizens.

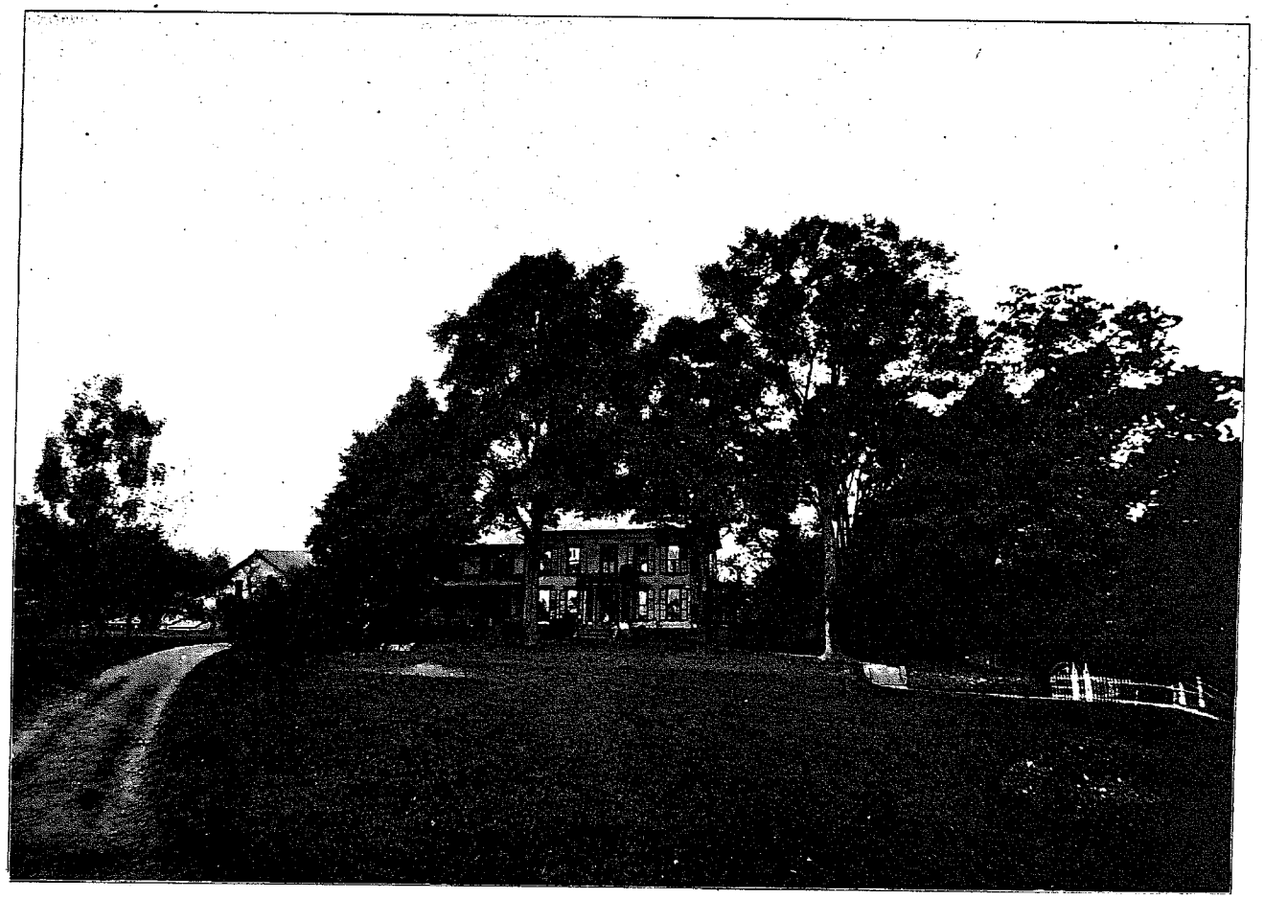

SOUDER, C. P., lumber merchant and architect, is a native of Beaver county, Pa., where he was born Feb. 23, 1852, coming to Trumbull county in April, 1867. He is connected with the firm of Allison & Co., Niles, O., whose sketch appears elsewhere in this work. In addition to his connection with the above firm, Mr. Souder is a practical architect, making plans and specifications of all kinds, and is a busy man in both fields of labor. He was married to Miss Mary Erwin, Dec. 24, 1874. She was born at Mineral Ridge March 15, 1853, and is the daughter of David and Ellen Erwin. To this union two daughters have been born. Mr. Souder is at present president of the board of education, with which he has been connected for six years. Socially he is Deputy Grand Chancellor of the K. of P. Lodge No. 138, of Niles. Politically he is a republican.

SPENCER, LLOYD G., is recognized as one of Hartford township's enterprising and progressive farmers, his home being one of the neatest and best residences in that section of the country, and the appearance of his farm denoting thrift. For a number of years he has been a successful grower of small fruit. He is a native of Hartford township, where he was born May 5, 1851. After attending the Hartford schools, he entered Grand River Institute, Austinburg, O., graduating in 1877, after which he taught school for several years in this state and in Nebraska. In politics Mr. Spencer is an independent, but is in favor of bimetallism. He is a member of the Grange. Helen L. Foote was born in Fowler township Aug. 24, 1852, and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer were married June 1, 1872. Her father, Asa Foote, was born Aug. 31, 1807, and her mother, Mary Dickinson Foote, was born April 22, 1817. Horace Spencer and Caroline Jones Spencer, parents of our subject, were born, the former in 1813, the latter Aug. 20, 1822.

SPILL, WILLIAM, one of Warren's oldest and best-known citizens, was born at Grovesend, near Thornberry, Gloucestershire, England, Nov. 5, 1822. The parish register of Thornberry Parish, signed by "T. DeArville, Curate," evidences the fact of his christening according to the rites and ceremonies of the Anglican church on Dec. 28 of the same year. His father was a shoemaker, but as a lad he evinced a decided antipathy to that trade and ran away and hired out to farmers. From this he went into coal mining. This business led him to Wales, where on Oct. 2, 1844, he was married to Miss Kate Hanson, the daughter of a coal inspector. Three children, George, Jane and Thomas, were the result of this union, which was terminated in 1851 by the death of his wife, shortly followed by that of the daughter, Jane. May 10, 1852, found Mr. Spill in this country. He lived first at Frostburg, Md., moving from there in 1854 to Weathersfield in this county, where he alternated between coal mining and farming until 1855-6, where he, with the late David Davis, of Mineral Ridge, and Col. Evan Morris, of Girard, were in the business of coal mining as operators. April 21, 1868, he married again, his wife being a Mrs. Mary Williams. In 1867 the firm of Wm. Spill & Son was established at Mineral Ridge, George Spill, who was his oldest son, being the junior partner. The firm weathered the panic of 1873, doing business up to June, 1880, when the business had to be given up on account of the son's ill health. Mr. Spill then moved to Warren, where he has since resided.

SPILL, W. A., one of the rising young lawyers of the Trumbull county bar, is a native of Mineral Ridge, Weathersfield township, in this county. He received a common school education in the public schools of Warren, of which he is a graduate. After graduation he was employed for a time on the staff of the Warren Tribune. Mr. Spill resigned this position to enter the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Mich., where he eventually successfully passed his examinations and graduated from the law department with the degree of LL. B. He was also a student in the office of Hon. F. E. Hutchins, now assistant attorney general of the United States. In 1896, after passing the required examination, he was admitted to practice in the courts of Michigan with the intention of locating there, but later made a change to his native state, where he was admitted in 1897. Mr. Spill at once opened an office in the Second National Building, but shortly after moved to the fine rooms over the First National Bank, where he now has his office. Being careful and energetic, Mr. Spill has been almost uniformly successful in his conduct of his cases, which has naturally resulted in making his law practice a rapidly increasing one. Added to a general practice Mr. Spill is the local attorney for a number of responsible corporations doing business in this vicinity. He is an Odd Fellow and a Mason and a Knight Templar. For a long time he has been a member of the Disciples church, in whose welfare he takes a deep interest.

STEWART, HOMER E., attorney at law, with office in court house, is one of the leading attorneys of Trumbull county, where for thirty years he has practiced his profession. He was born in Coitsville, Mahoning (then Trumbull) county, O., May 21, 1845. His father, Col. John Stewart, was born in the same township May 27, 1807. His mother was Mary Y. Walker, of Poland, the same county. She was born in February, 1813. Homer E. received his early education in the district schools, taught school, worked on the farm, and in 1867 graduated from Westminster College. He then began the study of law in Warren with the Hon. Milton Sutliff, of the supreme court. In 1869 he graduated from the Albany, N. Y., Law School, and was admitted to practice in that state in June and in Ohio the following September. He practiced with Judge Sutliff as Sutliff & Stewart until the death of the former in 1878, and since then alone. Mr. S. was a member of the city council four years. Sept. 7, 1870, he was married to Miss Kate L. Sutliff, who was born in Warren April 14, 1847, and educated in Warren schools and Grove Hall Seminary, of New Haven, Conn. She is the daughter of Calvin G. and Hannah Bennett Sutliff. Mr. and Mrs. S. are the parents of three children, Milton S., aged twenty-two, graduate of Case School of Cleveland, now with the Third U. S. V. Engineers in Cuba; Helen D., aged twenty, at Vassar College, and Homer E., Jr., aged thirteen. Mr. Stewart is a republican and a member of the Presbyterian church.

STEELE, CHESTER FITCH, was born in Berlin township, Mahoning county, Nov. 4, 1834. His grandfather, Wm. Steele, came from Ireland and settled in Pennsylvania, where Mathew, the father of our subject, was born in 1812. His mother was Charity Picket. When Mr. S. was four years old his parents settled on a farm in Southington township, where they stayed eight years, then returning to the old farm in Berlin. They then moved to Portage county, and again to southern Farmington, where our subject made his home till he was married to Sarah Moore, which occurred May 8, 1858. Mrs. S. was born Sept. 9, 1841, the daughter of John and Mary Moore. They lived for six years at Farmington Center, in 1865 coming to their present home in eastern Farmington. They have two children, Irene, now the wife of R. T. Johnston, treasurer of Mahoning county, and H. B., of Farmington township, who was married to Lettie J., daughter of Wm. D. Hickox, of this township. They have two children, Edna and Chester. H. B. Steele, after a course in the common schools, attended the Western Reserve Seminary and also the Grand River Institute, Austinburg, O., in both of which he taught writing. He has considerable talent for music and is leader of the Farmington Band and a composer of music. His home is with his father, where he conducts the farm. Our subject and wife are member sof the M. E. church, and he is a member of the Hall Post, G. A. R., of West Farmington. Mr. S. is a republican in politics and has served as trustee of his township. He has the esteem and confidence of those who know him.

STILES, H., SONS & COMPANY. This business, which is the oldest in the county, was founded in 1837 by Henry Stiles in a small frame building where the drug store of McClure & Voit now stands on North Park avenue. A general stock was carried as was used in those days. In 1848 the firm changed to H. Stiles & Son, the latter being T. M. Stiles. In 1858 Wm. R. Stiles became a partner in the firm and the name changed to H. Stiles & Sons. In 1869 Henry Stiles died and his son George became interested, the name remaining the same. This continued till 1882, when T. M. Stiles withdrew and E. A. Palmer and J. J. Jones became interested and the name changed to H. Stiles' Sons & Co. Ten years later Messrs. Palmer and Jones withdrew from active financial interest. In 1882 Wm. R. Stiles, the present cashier of the First National Bank, while retaining the financial control of the business, withdrew from the active business management. The store is now under the management of H. O. Stiles and E. A. Palmer. The building which they occupy on the corner of Park avenue and Market street, was erected in 1868. This firm carries a large and complete stock of dry goods, cloaks, carpets, oilcloths, etc., and can safely be classed as one of the most reliable and popular firms in his part of the state.

Henry Q. Stiles, of the above firm, is a native of Warren, where he was born May 19, 1870. He is the son of William R. and Elizabeth Quinby Stiles. His early education was acquired in the Warren city schools. He later attended one year at Peekskill Military Academy, and then took a course in Eastman's Business College, which he finished in 1890. He then entered the dry goods business, where he still remains. He was married June 8, 1892, to Miss Belle Thayer, daughter of Dr. I. A. and Laura Thayer, then pastor of the Disciple church and now of New Castle, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Stiles are the parents of one child, Wm. R., Jr., born April 19, 1893, and died Feb. 25, 1895. Mrs. Stiles was born in Southington township July 25, 1869. Mr. Stiles is a member of Old Erie Lodge No. 3, F. & A. M. and the Royal Arcanum. He is one of the rising young business men of the town and will make a success in whatever line he engages.

E. A. Palmer, of the above firm, is the son of Nathan W. and Lucretia Able Palmer, both natives of Connecticut. He was born in Mecca township Nov. 14, 1843, and remained on the farm until eighteen years of age, when he became clerk in a general store at East Mecca. His education was acquired in the Mecca, Greensburg and Kingsville schools. After staying six months at East Mecca he went to West Mecca, where he had charge of a store for a year during the oil boom. After this he attended Kingsville school a year, then, at the age of twenty-one, he accepted a position with H. Stiles & Son, since which time he has been connected with this firm. Mr. Palmer is a member of the Royal Arcanum and of the Baptist church. He was married Jan. 24, 1867, to Helen M., daughter of Avery and Maria Bennett Bromley. Mrs. Palmer is a native of Norwich, Conn. They have one child, Isabel, now Mrs. F. J. Tyler, of Boston.

STILES, WILLIAM R. The gentleman whose name heads this sketch is one of the prominent and substantial business men who have made Trumbull county one of the finest counties in the state. The energy, integrity and good judgment of this class of citizens have founded and sustained the worthy institutions of which this county feels proud. Willia mR. is the son of Henry and Mary Reeves Stiles. The father was a native of Danbury, Conn., born in 1798, and came to Warren when fourteen years of age; the mother a native of West Moreland county, Pa., and came to this county in 1819. Our subject was born in Warren April 29, 1827, and attended the Warren district school and the private schools of Junius Dana and Daniel Jagger. At the age of fifteen he began clerking in his father's store and in 1858 became a partner in the same and until 1882 was actively engaged in the business, retiring then from active management he still remained the principal owner. In September, 1876, he was elected a director of the First National Bank of Warren, having been a stockholder since 1869, and in 1887 he became cashier to succedd J. H. McCombs, deceased. He is largely interested in other financial institutions of Warren, among which are the following: President of the Park Hotel and Cold Storage Company, president of the Warren Paint Company, director in the Warren Marble and Granite Company and also the Winfield Manufacturing Company.

He is a staunch supporter of republican principles, though not actively engaged in politics. Mr. Stiles was united in marriage to Elizabeth Quinby June 15, 1853. To this union two children were born, viz.: Lucy P., now Mrs. R. A. Cobb of Warren, and Henry Q. Mrs. Stiles was the daughter of Samuel Quinby, one of the early pioneers of the Western Reserve. She passed from this life in March, 1893. Mr. Stiles has been a member of the I. O. O. F. since 1849.

STILLWAGON, SAMUEL H., is a farmer and dairyman of Weathersfield township. Our subject was born in Butler county, Pa., Dec. 26, 1850, coming with is mother to his present home in 1865. He attended the country schools, also spending one winter in Girard, and six months at Hiram College. June 11, 1872, he was married to Miss Kittie Hake, and to this union were born five children, all boys. Mr. Stillwagon's farm of 270 acres is one of the best in the township, having a good house and one of the largest barns in the county, splendidly arranged for hay, feed and stock. Besides his dairy interests he is an extensive sheep-raiser. He is a member of the Royal Arcanum, and a director of the Trumbull County Agricultural Association, also a director of the City National Bank of Niles. In politics he is a republican.

STONE, F. T. Our subject is one of Warren's successful merchants and carries a varied line of goods, including books, stationery, wall paper, news depot, musical instruments, New Home sewing machines, crockery, glassware, pictures and frames. We recommend all desiring any one of the above lines to patronize Mr. Stone. Mr. Stone was born Aug. 11, 1863, on a farm in Warren township. His educational advantages included the district schools and two years at Hiram College. In 1882 he went into the drug business at Burton, where he remained two years, when he became bookkeeper for the American Cereal Company of Akron, O. Here he remained one year, leaving to accept a position with Kneeland Brothers of Warren. In October, 1894, he left this firm and engaged in his present business on Park avenue, then moved two years later to Market street. Our subject was married to Miss Carrie Silliman, daughter of A. R. Silliman of this city.

STONE, W. B. & CO. (Ward B. Stone and George B. DeVoe.) This firm opened up their present business in the spring of 1897, having formerly carried a large boot and shoe stock. The recent change to gents' furnishing goods, clothing, hats, caps, etc., is a decided hit, and in this new line we are sure they will be patronized by all of their old customers, besides many new ones. Their stock is all new and they carry the very latest things devised in the way of gents' furnishings at most economical prices.

Ward B. Stone is a native of Orwell, O., where he was born in 1855, on the 30th of July. He came to Trumbull county in the spring of 1895. He was educated at the Orwell Normal Institute. Until about 1880 he was engaged with his father in a grocery, changing from that to the drug business for two or three years; then selling out, he was associated with DeVoe Bros. & Co. in the general merchandise business until 1895, when he withdrew and came to Warren. Here, with George B. DeVoe, he purchased the Gloeckle boot and shoe stock, carrying on the business under the firm name of W. B. Stone & Co., and entering in 1897 upon their present line of trade. Mr. Stone affiliates with Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M., and B. P. O. E., No. 295. Mrs. Stone was formerly Miss Emma H. DeVoe, and was educated at Orwell Normal Institute. She was married to Mr. S. June 22, 1881, and two children, Leila D. and Etta B., compose the family.

George B. DeVoe, of the above firm, was born in Greenville, N. Y., June 15, 1855. His father was also from New York, his mother from New Jersey. In 1861 the family moved to Orwell, Ashtabula county, where he attended the Orwell Normal School, and afterward took a course in Grand River Institute, at Austinburg. For eighteen years Mr. DeVoe engaged in general merchandizing at Orwell, coming to Warren in January, 1892, where with J. B. Graham and E. E. Nash he engaged in the wholesale grocery business under the firm name of Graham, Nash & DeVoe, with which firm he is still connected in the capacity of vice president and director. Mr. DeVoe holds important positions in various financial enterprises, being vice president and director of the Citizens' Savings Bank Company, also a director in the Warren Rubber Company and director of the Orwell Banking Company of Orwell, O. Mrs. DeVoe was formerly Miss Hattie Watters of Beverly, O. She was educated in Columbus, O., and married Mr. DeVoe Oct. 17, 1878. They have five children, the eldest of whom is now deceased. In a social way our subject is a K. T. of Warren Commandery, No. 39, member of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, also Mahoning Chapter, No. 66, and B. P. O. E. He is an ardent republican.

STODDARD, W. G., of Johnston township is the son of Walter and Jane Stoddard, and was born and reared on the farm where he resides. After completing the work in the common schools he attended West Farmington Academy one year. He married Cornelia Dugan, who was born in Hickory Corners, Mercer county, Pa. They were married July 4, 1875, and she died July 14, 1890. Four children were born to this union, Walter W., Jeannie M., Laura E. and George A., the latter deceased. Mr. Stoddard is a republican in politics. His farm is one of the best improved in the township, showing conclusively the enterprise of the owner. He is engaged in both farming and stock raising and owns one of the largest stock barns in his neighborhood. He is well posted on the live questions of the day, in which he manifests considerable interest.

STRUBLE, C. H., is one of the most prominent real estate dealers in Trumbull county. His office is conveniently located in the court house. He not only buys and sells real estate for himself extensively, but also acts as agent for others. If desired he will take entire charge of your property, renting the same and taking full care of collection of rent. If you have money to invest or property to sell he will do it for you and thus afford you the immense benefit of his wide experience and knowledge of the business. His range of property for sale is from the humble dwelling to the costly residence, and the small farm to the broad expanse of acres. He also has many vacant lots at prices to suit the purchaser. His honesty, integrity and fair dealing in the past are a safe guarantee of the fair and honorable treatment the public can expect from him. He makes a specialty of loans and investments. He has the sole agency of the J. B. Perkins and C. H. Struble allotments in North Warren, and has already sold many of these valuable lots. Mr. Struble was born in Mecca township May 6, 1868, and has lived in Girard, Bazetta, Cortland and Fowler, having spent some time in Michigan and Minnesota. In 1888 he located in Warren, where he still continues to reside. He is a director in the Trumbull Building and Loan Association and president of the Cereal Supply Company of Warren. As councilman from the Fourth ward he has taken an active interest in the welfare of the city, and has shown himself a supporter of all worthy enterprises that tend to benefit the community. In 1888 he was married to Helen B., the daughter of Jacob L. and Alvina Fauss. She was born in Mesopotamia township Oct. 18, 1868. Mr. Struble is the son of Jasper and Alverine Bush Struble. Fraternally he is a Mason, and Odd Fellow and an Elk.

STROUP, WESLEY O. The subject of this sketch is a trusty employe of the Erie railroad and resides in East Leavittsburg, being engaged in firing on an extra supply engine on that road. This position he has held since 1887. He first became connected with the road at the age of fourteen, as freight transfer man. He was subsequently employed as section hand, then in blacksmith shops, then as night baggagemaster, then as yard fireman, and in 1887 he came into his present position. Mr. Stroup was born in Leavittsburg Oct. 1, 1858, where he has since resided. His parents were John and Lovina Stroup, the former born in Pennsylvania May 26, 1822, and the latter in the same state Nov. 20, 1825. On May 28, 1884, he was married to Miss Bertha Lane of Warren city. She is the daughter of Enoch C. and Lucy Lane, the father a native of Weathersfield, born Jan. 7, 1827, and the mother of Lordstown, born April 8, 1828. Mr. and Mrs. S. have one child, Hazel L., born Aug. 15, 1885. Mr. Stroup is socially inclined and is a member of Independence Lodge, No. 90, K. of P., of Warren. Also a member of Forest City Lodge, No. 10, Brotherhood of Locomotive Fremen. Politically our subject is a republican.

STRAIN, MARY W., a daughter of one of the pioneers of this state, furnishes us with the following brief account of the life of her brave father and his experience in pioneer life: Darius Woodford was born Sept. 12, 1780, at Avon, Hartford county, Conn. He was one of a family of ten, and as was often the case in large families in those dayes, he was impressed with the spirit of adventure and a desire to try what experience might await him in the far West. Accordingly he set out with two companions and traveled on foot a distance of 600 miles to Vienna township. Here he selected a farm of 800 acres for himself at what is known as Woodfords corners, and also one for his brother in the southwest part of the township. He then returned to Connecticut for the girl of his choice, Miss Bethiah Bass, to whom he was married Jan. 1, 1805, and in September of the same year they set out together in a covered wagon for their western home. Their history is much the same as that of the other pioneers of those days, and included many dangers and hardships, in all of which both Mr. and Mrs. Woodford showed themselves to be of undaunted courage and perseverance. But their labors received due reward and they were prospered in every way. Ten children blessed their union, four of whom died in infancy. Mr. Woodford lived at the old homestead till his death, March 28, 1868. Mrs. W. survived him eleven years, dying at the ripe old age of 93 years. It is from such sturdy stock as this that Ohio's strong men and women have sprung, and the estimable lady who furnished the above interesting data is an honor to the family name.

STULL, JOHN M., a well-known attorney-at-law, and one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Trumbull county, is a native of Liberty township, where he began life May 16, 1823. He is the son of James and Catherine Stull. The former a native of Pennsylvania and the latter of Glasgow, Scotland. They came to this county and settled in Liberty township before their marriage, about 1802. Mr. Stull's parents moved to Farmington when he was eight years old, where he lived until sixteen years of age, attending school winters, when he went to Iowa, walking the entire distance, remaining but a few months, and then walking nearly all the way back. He then became an apprentice in the blacksmith's trade at Farmington, working two years, after which he began business for himself at the same place, working at his trade for about two and one-half years, when, being injured by a horse, he was obliged to quit the business. For the next eight years he attended Western Reserve Seminary summers and taught school winters. In 1853 he was admitted to the bar and began practice in Warren, where he still resides. During this time he has been associated with Judges Glidden, Sutliff and Tuttle, and Hon. F. E. Hutchins, men noted for their legal ability. From 1858 to 1860 and from 1866 to 1870 our subjetc filled the office of prosecuting attorney. He has at various times been a member of the state and county republican committees. State Senator from 1888 to 1889. Although a very busy man, Mr. Stull has found some time for travel, making several trips to the Southern and Pacific states and Canada.

In 1895 he crossed the Atlantic and visited London, Paris, Florence, Venice, Rome, Naples, Athens, Constantinople, Jerusalem, and Egypt. Financially he is interested in numerous enterprises in the county. He is a director in each of the following: Warren Paint Co., Warren Packard Co., Trumbull Building and Loan Association, Western Reserve National Bank, also a truste of the Western Reserve Seminary, Mt. Union and Allegheny Colleges, trustee and president of the Ohio Masonic Home. Fraternally he is a Master Mason, Sir Knight, and member of Lake Erie Consistatory of Cleveland, also a 33rd degree Mason, and Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. Our subject, on May 11, 1853, was united in marriage to Florilla W. Wolcott, a native of Farmington township. She was called from earth July 21, 1885 Her parents were Captain Lewis and Mary Wolcott of Farmington, O. To Mr. and Mrs. Stull were born three children, viz., Minnie L., now Mrs. A. F. Harris of Warren; Carrie, who was drowned while bathing in Chautauqua Lake Aug. 7, 1876, and Harry, also deceased. Mr. Stull has been a member of the M. E. Church for over twenty-four years. He is an honorable attorney, a safe counsellor, a sound financial manager and a good citizen, always ready to lend a helping hand to any worthy public enterprise.

SULLIVAN, HON. JOHN J. Hon. John J. Sullivan, the senator from the Twenty-third district, composed of the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, was born in the city of New York Oct. 25, 1860. His parents died at an early age and he was taken West by the Children's Aid Society and adopted when about ten years of age by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pelton of Gustavus, Trumbull county, O. He was raised on a farm in that county and went to the common schools. He later graduated at the Gustavus Academy, a famous institution in its time, and taught school thereafter for about five years. On Oct. 26, 1885, he was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of of Ohio, standing high in his class. He immediately began the practice of law at Warren, O., which practice has grown to be lucrative and extensive. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Trumbull county in 1890 and was re-elected in 1893, which office he resigned in 1895 upon receiving the unanimous nomination as senator for the Twenty-third district of Ohio upon a republican platform. He served with distinction in the 72nd General Assembly and the 73rd General Assembly. In the former, by request of ex-Gov. J. B. Foraker, he placed his name in nomination before the State Senate for the office of United States Senator from Ohio in a speech that has been characterized as the most brilliant and able effort ever delivered in the Ohio Senate, and stamped him throughout Ohio as an orator without a peer. In the 73rd General Assembly, at the request of Hon. M. A. Hanna, he presented his name to the Senate of the state as a candidate for the office of United States Senator from Ohio, and his speech has been referred to as a model, unexcelled. He has thus had the distinction, perhaps conferred upon no other man in the United States, of having placed in nomination for the high office of United States Senator two distinguished candidates who were elected to the upper branch of Congress. In February of 1897, at the city of Zanesville, O., he received the unanimous nomination for the presidency of the Ohio Republican League, and held that office for one year. In the Senate he is a leader, on the stump he is in universal demand, and is a prominent figure as a delegate to republican party conventions. He is a Scottish Rite Mason, a Knight of Pythias, an Elk, an Odd Fellow, a Mystic Shriner and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was married in December of 1887 to Miss Olive S. Tayler, the daughter of Mathew B. Tayler, a prominent banker of Warren, O. They have two children, Adaline and Mary.

SWAGER, WARREN B., who since 1897 has filled the office of clerk of courts of Trumbull county, is classed as one of the most efficient and able county officials of the county. He was born in Bazetta township Dec. 2, 1846. His parents are John and Mary Swager. He attended the district schools, graduated from the Cortland High School and in 1863 entered Oberlin College, where he remained until 1865, when his father's death made it necessary for him to come home and take charge of the farm, which he conducted till 1869. He then purchased a farm in Mecca township, where he lived four years, and he then worked several years in the flouring mill for J. H. & M. C. Post of Cortland. Later he and Lewis Hutton became proprietors of the mill, which they conducted till 1890, when it was destroyed by fire. Our subject then became general agent for the National Life Insurance Company, which business he followed till he assumed the duties of his present office. He was a member of the Cortland council for ten years, and of the school board for a number of years. He was married Sept. 29, 1868, to Orpha A., daughter of Moses C. and Elvila Post. She was born Sept. 29, 1849, at Cortland. To them were born three children; Warren L., Watson B. and Rubia E. Mr. Swager is a member of I. O. O. F., F. & A. M. and B. P. O. E. In politics he is a loyal republican.

SWAGER, WARREN L. The gentleman whose name heads this sketch became deputy clerk of courts for Trumbull county in October, 1897. He is the son of W. B. Swager, whose sketch appears in this work. Our subject began life in Cortland July 28, 1871. He graduated from the Cortland schools in 1889, and then taught in the schools of Trumbull county till 1893, when he accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Phœnix Electric Co. of Youngstown, with whom he remained over a year. Mr. Swager has proven himself a careful and capable deputy clerk. He takes an active part in politics and has done much good work for the principles of the republican party. He is a member of the J. O. U. A. M., and also of the now widely known Ohio State Band. Mr. Swager is a charter member and has been its vice president since it was incorporated in 1896. He is a natural musician, and at the age of sixteen was a member of the Cortland Grey Band. His ability as a solo cornetist is well known, he having played various special engagements at Lake Chautauqua with the Broadhead Band in 1894, also with the Fifttenth Regiment Band, of which he is an honorary member.

SWEET, SILAS JEROME, farmer of Mesopotamia, was born July 13, 1841, in Cherry Valley township, Ashtabula county, O. Mr. Sweet is the son of Silas E. and Henrietta Wakeman Sweet. The father born in New York state April 5, 1814, and died in June, 1895; and the mother born in Ohio, April 17, 1819, and didied Dec. 23, 1894. They were married April 5, 1838. Our subject was married Sept. 1, 1864, to Miss Leah Smith. She is the daughter of Benjamin and Hannah Byers Smith, and was born Sept. 11, 1837, on the farm where she now resides. The father was born in York county, Pa., June 3, 1815, and died Jan. 24, 1892. The mother was born in York county, Pa., July 26, 1816, and died July 16, 1882. They were married Oct. 6, 1836 Her grandfather, Martin Smith, moved from York county, Pa., to the farm where our subject now resides in 1834, where they remained till 1841, when Mrs. Sweet's father took charge of the farm where he lived the remainder of his life.

SYKES, RAYMOND G., president of the First National Bank of Niles, and proprietor of the Sykes Iron Roofing Co. of Niles and Chicago, was born at Canfield, O., April 29, 1849. His father, Saxon Sykes, was the first recorder of Mahoning county. His mother was Rachel Gilson. Our subject was educated in Mahoning Academy, Canfield, O. Mr. Sykes is possessed of superior business ability, which has been much appreciated in his connection with the bank and other financial enterprises with which he has been connected. This has brought him increasing prosperity in his own particular interests and has also added to the prosperity of others. The Sykes Roofing Company is largely known and ships its products to all parts of the country. Mr. Sykes was united in marriage to Miss Clara Luse on the 30th of May, 1871. She was born in Niles and is the daughter of Warren and Hannah Luse. Their family consists of one girl and two boys, all living. Mr. Sykes is a 32nd degree Mason, a Shriner, and Elk, and a member of the Royal Arcanum. Mr. Syke's business interests in the Corning Steel Co. called him to Chicago. He now resides at 4523 Ellis avenue in that city, having moved his family there in September, 1898.

TAYLER, GEORGE H. Among the business men of Warren city none stand higher in the estimation of the people than the subject of this sketch. He was born in Warren May 5, 1847, and with the exception of a few years has lived here all his life. He is the son of Matthew B. and Adaline Hapgood Tayler. The father was born March 17, 1815, and died Nov. 23, 1880. For sixteen years previous to his death he was cashier of the First National Bank. The mother was born Jan. 18, 1821, and died May 22, 1885. After graduation from the Warren schools in 1865 our subject took a course in Allegheny College, graduating in 1869 with the degree of A. B., and three years later received the degree of A. M. After leaving college he spent three months as clerk in a dry goods store in Warren.

In 1870 he went West and engaged with an engineering corps in construction of the M., K. & T. R. R., through Missouri, Kansas, Indian Territory and into Texas, where he spent four years. Returning to Warren he was employed for a time as bookkeeper for the Warren Gas Light Co., and then for a time as clerk in a shoe store. In 1879 he again went West and as assistant engineer was engaged on the Kansas branch of the U. P. R. R. in northern Kansas, and the C., M. & St. P. R. R. in Wisconsin. Upon the death of his father in the fall of 1880 he returned to settle up the estate, having been appointed administrator of the same. In February, 1881, he became secretary, treasurer and superintendent of the Warren Gas Light Company, which position he still holds. Mr. Tayler is connected with numerous other financial enterprises, among which might be mentioned director of the First National Bank, the Warren Paint Company, the New Philadelphia Iron and Steel Company, the Bostwick Steel Lath Company, and the Warren Opera House Company. He is also president of the Oakwood Cemetery Association. In 1864 he enlisted as a member of Co. A, 171st O. N. G., and served during the term of the regiment. He was married Feb. 23, 1888, to Roxa Wilcox, a native of Livingston, N. Y. She was educated at the Seminary at Lima, N. Y. Her parents were Ezekiel and Alathea Lovejoy Wilcox. Mr. Tayler is a 32nd degree Mason, past master of Old Erie Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M., past eminent commander of Warren Commandery, No. 39, K. T., and member of the A. A. S. R. Valley of Cleveland, O. In politics he is an ardent republican.

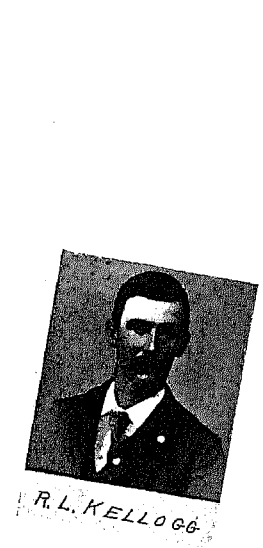

TAYLER, MATTHEW B., is a native of Warren, O., where he still resides. He was born Sept. 17, 1862, and is the son of Matthew B. and Adaline Hapgood Tayler. At the time of his death the senior Matthew B. had been cashier of the First National Bank for sixteen years. The subject of this sketch was educated in the Warren public schools and also took a course in Allegheny College. In 1883 he accepted a position in the First National Bank and has been connected with that institution ever since. He was united in marriage Sept. 23, 1891, to Mary R. Shields. She is a native of Warren and was educated in Cleveland. To this marriage one son has been born, Matthew B., now six years old. Mr. Tayler is a prominent member of Old Erie Lodge, F. & A. M., past eminent commander of Warren Commandery, No. 39, member of Lake Erie Consistory and Alkoran Temple of Cleveland. He is past chancellor, K. of P., member U. R., K. of P., and B. P. O. E. As a business man and citizen Mr. Tayler is held in high regard by those who know him.

TAYLOR, BENJAMIN J. The force of perseverence and determination, intelligently directed, in an effort to attain to honorable rank among men are fully shown in the life and work of the subject of this sketch. On a farm, in the county of Leeds, on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence river, in a commodious hewed-log house built by his father, Benjamin J. Taylor was born April 27, 1848, of Irish parentage. His father's name was Thomas Taylor, and his mother's Margaret Foster Taylor. In 1852 they removed to Ohio, settling in North Bloomfield, Trumbull county. Both parents were deeply imbued with American ideas, and, on coming to the United States, became ardently devoted to the republican principles of this country, especially so to its public school educational system, and prized the religious freedom enjoyed by the people. These progressive American ideas were inculcated into the minds of their children and formed a part of their home education, ever afterward influencing for good their thoughts and actions. Mr. Taylor was scarcely past the age of babyhood when his parents settled in North Bloomfield, where he spent his early days and attended district school during the winter months until he attained the age of fifteen. At this early age he found it necessary to rely upon his own resources, and in March, 1863, he went to Warren, O., to learn the printer's trade, entering the office of the "Western Reserve Chronicle." The editors and proprietors at that time were George N. Hapgood, Comfort A. Adams and William Ritezel. Before young Taylor's apprenticeship of three years had expired Mr. Adams had retired from the firm and Mr. Hapgood had died, leaving Mr. Ritezel the sole owner and proprietor. In those days it was customary to deliver the "Western Reserve Chronicle" to city subscribers by carrier, and older subscribers of that paper will remember the annual visit, on the first day of the year, of the carrier boy, with his handsome, and always original, New Year's Address to his patrons. Young Taylor filled this important position with honor and fidelity, and to this day enjoys the distinction of having, when a carrier boy, delivered the "Chronicle" from week to week into the hands of its founder and its first editor, the venerable and honored Thomas D. Webb, who established the paper in 1812. After finishing his term as an apprentice and becoming a practical printer, he continued his connection with the office and filled all the positions from "devil" to editor. In April, 1877, he purchased an interest in the paper and became one of its editors and proprietors. Since the organization of the firm of William Ritezel & Co., twenty-two years ago, of which Mr. Taylor is still a member, he has given his attntion more particularly to the business management of the concern, and the steady growth and prosperity of the plant are a sufficient comment on his ability, progressiveness and integrity. July 25, 1877, Mr. Taylor was married, in Warren, to Gertrude Tayler, daughter of the late Matthew B. and Adaline Hapgood Tayler, and they have two sons; Dean and Alfred Wheeler.

Politically, Mr. Taylor is a sound republican and takes commendable interest in public affairs. He is a member and an ex-president of the Giddings Republican Club, which represents the younger element of the republican party in the Nineteenth district, and is a charter member of the Garfield Republican Club.

Religiously, Mr. Taylor is a prominent and influential member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and for more than twenty years has been a member ofthe official board as trustee or steward, and for a number of years has been recording steward of that honorable body. He is now preparing for the press an illustrated history of Methodism in Warren which will soon be published in book form.

Fraternally, he is a member of the Masonic order, and has passed the three principal chairs in Old Erie, No. 3, serving two terms as worshipful master. He is also a Knight Templar, and is senior warden of Warren Commandery, No. 39.

He is a supporter of all things tending to advance the intellectual and moral conditions of his fellow men, and for nearly a quarter of a century he has been identified with business interests in Warren. He was one of the founders of the Warren Public Library, an institution in which he has always taken the deepest interest, and has been a large contributor to its welfare. He was one of the incorporators of the Library Association, and has always been one of the trustees and a member of the executive board. In 1895 he was elected president of the association, which office he still holds.

TAYLOR, GEORGE J. Taylor's insurance and real estate agency of Niles is one of the live, hustling concerns of that thriving city. Our subject was born Feb. 10, 1849, the son of Thomas and Margaret Foster Taylor, at Smith Falls, Canada, and came to Trumbull county in 1852, receiving his education in North Bloomfield. In 1870 he was engaged in the hardware business in Niles, O., and is at present secretary of the Home Building and Loan Association of that place. Feb. 17, 1876, he was married to Hannah M. Harris. Her parents are James and Hannah Harris. She was born Oct. 27, 1855, at Covington, Ky., and was educated in the schools of Youngstown and Niles, O. Five children, three boys and two girls, bless this union, all living. He is a member of F. & A. M., I. O. O. F. and K. of P., and is an active and progressive citizen.

THE CHURCH OF OUR LADY, Warren, was organized in 1850, and was a mission station from that time until 1864, and a mission church until 1874, during which time it was under the pastorate of Youngstown and Niles. From 1874 to Aug. 1, 1886, it had regular pastors at intervals. At the last named date Father A. A Weber became the regular resident pastor, whose pastoral charge still continues. The present church building was purchased in 1864, and remodeled and enlarged in 1873. The parsonage was built by Father Conway in 1868. Membership 165 families, or a total of 735 souls. The church owns a lot at the corner of High and Seneca streets where it expects soon to erect a church. The lot is 71½ feet front by 204 feet deep. Regular Sunday services, 7:30 and 10 a. m.; Christian doctrine, 1:30 and 2:15 p. m.; usually an evening service at 7 p. m. On the third Sundays the 10 o'clock service is omitted, the time being given to the mission church at Mantua. A number of stations are attended from Warren for week-day services, those in Trumbull county being Kinsman, Leavittsburg, Newton Falls, Orangeville, West Farmington, Phalanx, Cortland, Braceville, and in Portage county Aurora, Garrettsville, Mahoning and Windham, as well as Solon, Chagrin Falls and Bainbridge in Cuyahoga and Geauga counties. The present council consists of D. K. Moser, Thomas Murray, John Langhorn and Peter Fleming.

THE CEREAL SUPPLY COMPANY of Warren, O., was incorporated in April, 1897, with a capital stock of $20,000, to succeed the Warren Milling Company. President, C. H. Struble; vice president, William H. Peffer; secretary and treasurer, William E. Peffer; general manager, William Coale. The office and salesroom of the company are at 22 Main street. During the last season it has erected, near the Erie depot, a three-story stone, tile and hardwood elevator and storeroom. Milling, jobbing and wholesaling flour a specialty, grain and feed. General agents for Pillsbury's flour, both at Warren and at Erie, Pa., where they also have a mill and salesroom. The president, Mr. Struble, is Warren's well-known real estate man; the vice president has been connected with the old Warren Mill for years, in which business his son, secretary and treasurer of the company, was associated four years. Mr. Coale, the general manager, has been identified with the grain, feed and building material business for the past eight years. He was born in New Brighton, Pa., in 1870. He is a member of the M. E. Church, subordinate and uniform rank K. of P., Maccabees and Modern Woodmen; also vice president of the Elastic Pulp Plaster Company.

THE F. KREHL & SONS LEATHER CO. One of the largest leather plants in the state of Ohio is that owned by the F. Krehl & Sons Co. of Girard, O. It was established in 1860, and has been enlarged as the calls of business demanded till at the present ime the plant consists of a main building 124x150 feet and three stories high, fronting on Basin street, a beam and hide house, two bark storage sheds and a leach house. Employment is furnished for one hundred and fifty men and the present capacity is two thousand sides of harness and saddler's leather per week, which finds a market from coast to coast. The business was inaugurated by Frederick Krehl, with one assistant. In 1869 Louis Hauser became connected with the business, and later Mr. J. F. Krehl In 1886, both these gentlemen having retired, Mr. Krehl took his two sons, J. C. and W. F. Krehl, as partners, and in 1894 the firm was incorporated under its present name, with Frederick Krehl as president and J. C. Krehl as secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Frederick Krehl was born in Germany and came to America at the age of thirteen, settling first at Canfield, and coming to Girard in 1860. Mr. K. has been twice married; first to Miss Christina Barbara Sanzenbacher, by whom he had three children, and the second time to Miss Mary M. Krehl, by whom he had seven children. The Krehl residence is a fine modern house situated on the corner of State and Basin streets, a cut of which appears on another page of this work. Besides this Mr. K. has a farm of one hundred acres just east of the village. Politically Mr. K. is a democrat and one of the responsible men of the town, having been a member of the council at the time Girard was incorporated. Mr. K. is an elder in the Lutheran Church.

THE HUBBARD BANKING COMPANY was organized by R. H. Jewell and G. M. Dill in 1873 and commenced business Nov. 3, 1873, incorporated under state law with the title of The Hubbard Savings Bank, with a paid up capital of $25,000, which was increased in 1874 to $50,000. In 1878 the bank converted into the national system under the name of "The Hubbard National Bank," and continued under the national system until 1886, when it again returned to the state system. Its officers have been as follows: Presidents—A. M. Jewell, 1873 to 1886; R. H. Jewell, 1886 to 1891; D. G. Dennison, 1891 to 1895; S. L. Kerr, since 1895. Cashiers—G. M. Dill, 1873 to 1875; R. H. Jewell, 1875 to 1886; S. Q. March, since 1886. Its deposits now average about $110,000. Its paid in capital is $50,000, and its undivided profits and surplus is $14,000. During the twenty-five years of its existence the bank has never passed a year without paying dividends. The aim has constantly been to meet the demands and convenience of the community and do a safe and conservative banking business, and the success achieved and the high esteem in which the institution is held fully vindicate the wisdom of its management.

THE NEWTON FALLS BASKET COMPANY. This is one of the live, hustling business concerns of the town and certainly deserves the large measure of success which it has attained. The company was incorporated in 1886 with a capital of $6,000. The officers are John H. Park, of Niles, president; F. W. Cory, vice president, and Edwin Park, treasurer and secretary. They deal in lumber, lath, shingles and other building material, such as sash, doors, blinds and white oak sawed to order. They manufacture large quantities of market and berry baskets, most of which are shipped to Pittsburg. Thousands of nail keg staves are also manufactured and shipped to various large towns. Their machinery and equipment for first-class work is complete and they have the energy and ability to fill all orders without delay. The secretary, Mr. Edwin Park, is also a member of the firm of Park Bros. of Lordstown, manufacturers of staves for nail kegs, lumber and saw-mill supplies; they also manufacture cider, jelly and sorghum molasses in season.

THE TRI-COUNTY NEWS, Francis H. Mattes, publisher, was established in 1881, as the Newton Falls Echo. It has been in existence under the present management but little over ayear, yet in that length of time has been converted from a semi-newspaper to one of which many towns of several thousand population might feel justly proud. Its circulation has more than doubled and the people of smaller towns around Newton Falls are taking up the "News" as their home paper and take pride in calling it so. The present publisher was born in Newton Falls March 10, 1875; was educated in the Newton Falls public schools and graduated with honors in the class of '92. Over two years of his life was spent in the drug business with B. F. Rice, after which he started a small job printing office in his native town, and acquired his knowledge of printing from his own practical experience. By afterward being connected with the "Echo" he gradually worked himself up to the head and in September, 1897, came in possession of the entire business. Under his management the name was changed and it has prospered as never before.

THE WARREN MANUFACTURING COMPANY, manufacturers of tables and dealers in all kinds of lumber, lath, shingles, sash, door and building material. Organized in May, 1890, with a capital stock of $20,000, fully paid. Officers and directors: D. R. Gilbert, president; P. L. Webb, secretary, treasurer and general manager; F. E. Glasser, superintendent; William Wallace, W. N. Clark. This company is one of the substantial enterprises of Warren, and is composed of some of the best business men of the city. Besides a large amount of building material handled they manufacture all kinds of tables, making a specialty of first-class extension tables. The office and manufactory are located at No. 531 North Park avenue, with good connections with the main line of the Erie railroad. TelephoneNo. 63.

THE SANFORD HOUSE, Niles, O., Chas. S. Pew, proprietor. The tide of travelers that are attracted to Niles can do no better than to drop anchor at the Sanford House. The hotel has been a popular one for many years, and never more so than under its present management. The house is centrally located on the main thoroughfare, convenient to all roads. The hotel is well furnished and arranged, the commodious office being light and cheerful. The parlors and reception rooms leave nothing to be desired, and there are about twenty-six well-furnished and comfortable sleeping rooms. The house is supplied with all modern improvements, heated by hot water, and lighted with electric lights. The tables are bountifully spread, and the most exacting can find an ample supply of all luxuries and the delicacies of the season at their proper time. The service is excellent; rates, $2 per day. This is one of the old landmarks of Nileys, having been erected the year after the laying out of the town, in 1837, and occupied by Kingsley & Woodruff Under the present owner the house has been thoroughly repaired, enlarged and furnished, and its present management reflects credit on this flourishing trade and railroad center. The sleeping apartments and commercial men's sample rooms are finely furnished, and are kept in the most cleanly condition, while the culinary department is presided over by an accomplished cook, and the spacious dining hall presents in its furnishings and table equipments as inviting features as any hotel in this section of the state. A first-class livery stable is kept in connection, and carriages run to and from all trains for the accommodation of guests. This house was under the management of Mr. Sanford for twenty-seven and one-half years, and will bear favorable comparison with the hotels of our more pretentious cities. In 1895 Mr. Pew purchased the property, and has added to its popularity, as shown by the large list of guests who daily register here. Chas. S. Pew is a native of Niles, and a son of Horace S. Pew, and prior to purchasing the Sandford House, ran the Pew House in Hubbard, this county, for thirteen years. Mr. Pew is a member of the Royal Arcanum, and has always been a respected and enterprising member of this community.

THE WESTERN RESERVE DEMOCRAT, published at No. 26 Main street, Warren, O., by The Western Reserve Democrat Publishing Company, was established in 1883. The first number appeared Friday morning, March 30, of that year, and it is the boast of the proprietor that the paper has not missed an issue since. The Democrat succeeded the Warren Record. Among the stockholders were J. W. Klumpp, of Mecca; Dr. John R. Wood, of Warren, now both deceased; D. R. Byard, J. R. Lamb, S. Q. March and others. The first editor was A. F. Moore. In 1885 the Democrat absorbed the Warren Constitution, then published by Col W. A. Burchard. Editor Moore's health failed in 1885 and he was succeeded by C. D. Lane, who had from the first issue of the paper been its business manager. 1887 Mr. Lane was succeeded by the late Dr. Woods, who died in a few months. Then R. W. Paden as editor and T. J. Lamb as manager took charge of the paper. They have placed the Democrat on a sound financial basis and it is now one of the best newspaper properties in Northeastern Ohio.

THE WESTERN RESERVE LUMBER CO., Warren, O., was incorporated and began business in the early part of 1899. The directors are W. D. Packard, president; John M. Stull, vice president; C. B. Loveless, secretary; C. L. Wood, treasurer, and E. D. Kennedy. As soon as organized this company purchased the plant and lumber business of Wood & Loveless, and the retail and manufacturing part of the business of the Warren Packard Co., and now have their office located at the former office of the Warren Packard C. on W. Dawson street. Three of these men have been for some time connected with the Warren Packard Co., and the other two were the proprietors of the Wood & Loveless business. This combination of experience and business ability makes a company second to none in the county and one which will be crowned with abundant success. This company now owns and operates the large planing mill and factory on West Dawson street, and manufacture sash, doors, blinds, casings, moldings, etc., etc. The machinery and equipment are modern and up to date, with the best of facilities for turning out first-class work. They also handle all kinds of hard and soft lumber, lath, shingles, pickets, posts, building paper, etc. Gentlemen C. L. Wood and C. B. Loveless will have personal charge of the mill and retail business, and from their past record their patrons are assured of fair and courteous treatment. Both have been in the lumber business for the past ten years and are thoroughly conversant with the needs of the public in all details of the trade. These gentlemen have been deservedly popular in their dealings with the public and they will render the new company valuable service in theih new positions. Gentlemen W. D. Packard, John M. Stull and E. D. Kennedy are well known business men of Warren, whose business ability is recognized by their connection with some of the most prominent financial institutions of the county.

THE WARREN TRIBUNE, an influential newspaper and a strong business institution. In August, 1876, the same year that our country was celebrating its centennial anniversary, and adapting itself to new life and new ideas following the war and its attending vexatious problems, W. S. Peterson, as fearless and as able a man as ever wielded a pen in Ohio, founded The Weekly Tribune. Within twelve months 1,000 bona fide names were upon his list, and within three years the number reached 2,000 and is now over 3,000, the largest of any paper in Trumbull county, indeed the largest of any in the old Nineteenth Congressional district. W. H. Smiley, of Washington, D. C., a brilliant newspaper writer and correspondent for metropolitan newspapers, succeeded Mr. Peterson early in the '80s. The close confinement proving too much for him, Mr. Smiley sold the paper to R. D. Lampson, of Ashtabula. Mr. Lampson proved to be a successful newspaper man, and, in 1891, the success of the weekly being already assured, he founded the Daily Tribune as a morning paper, and it at once met with great favor in Warren and neighboring towns. Under Mr. Lampson's immediate successor the daily declined somewhat, but was improved by Messrs. C. H. Newell and H. F. Harris in 1892-3. But it was not until the formation of the Tribune Company in March, 1894, that the Daily Tribune arose to a commanding position in this section. Backed by sufficient capital to place the plant in the best possible position to do business, the daily began a period of prosperity, popularity and success, which has been most gratifying to its friends and highly satisfactory to the stockholders. W. C. Deming, a young man of quite exetnsive newspaper experience, became editor, and marked out for the paper a policy of dignity, enterprise and literary finish which commanded attention all over the state, and made the Tribune the best paying newspaper of its class in Ohio. The style of corporation is "The Warren Tribune Company," and the capital stock is 10,000. W. C. Deming is president of the company, and Messrs. W. C. Deming, G. C.
