IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation: We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is the right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurrepations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation by the Assent of Congress, which is invested in the People, or by a Majority of them, a judgment probably correct, in the opinion of mankind, that a Government deranged by other means than death, or the consent of the governed, becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness.

Telegraphic Advertiser

Important advertising of needful things. News by telegraphic means while it is current. Right thinking ideas.

We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the redress of our grievances, have, in the most solemn manner, declared and made known our firm resolution to maintain, extend, and defend, the rights and liberties of the colonies in North America, for our selves, our Posterity, and all those who shall by any pretended right, claim or demand a right thereto.

We therefore, mutually pledge to each other our lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the redress of our grievances, have, in the most solemn manner, declared and made known our firm resolution to maintain, extend, and defend, the rights and liberties of the colonies in North America, for our selves, our Posterity, and all those who shall by any pretended right, claim or demand a right thereto.

We therefore, mutually pledge to each other our lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

Vote!

Cast your ballots Saturday and Sunday. Three candidates are running for two open positions on town council. The three candidates are Mr. Bill Wurst, Mrs. Alberta Adams, and Dr. James Huss. The Marshal's position is up for grabs, but Harold Morgan is running unopposed. We will also have a vote on whether to allow legalized gambling in the village.

Sugar Social Winners

Many villagers and guests shared in the fun of our monthly Sugar Social last Saturday. The winners were:

1st. Mrs. Catherine Walk's Caramel Squares
2nd. Mrs. Ada Hoffman's Blueberry Buckle
3rd. Miss Elizabeth Huss's Savoy Cake
4th. Dr. James Huss's Orange Drop Candies

Congratulations to these local patissiers. The real winners here may have been the judges. Plan on joining us for next month's contest.

Ohio News Items

Akron—A shaving contest for the championship of Ohio will be held at Kent's Grove, Geauga Lake. The contest is for the championship of the state and a gold medal. The contest will be decided by points. Competent judges will decide the contest. The winner must shave his victim neatly and do the job in the shortest time. If a barber draws blood by cutting or shaving too close, he will be declared out of the contest. The victims will be selected by the judges from the crowd.

Cleveland—Rains of last Monday softened the soil and caused a cave-in on the Doan Street sewer in Glenville. Late in the afternoon a mass of earth slipped into a trench which is being dug 15 feet below the street level and buried a number of workmen, one man was dead and another seriously injured. The dead man was Louie Alupp, he was 50 years old and from Italy.

Cincinnati—Small pox has been discovered at Loveland in Clermont County, on the Little Miami Railroad. The doctors thought it was chicken pox. The traveler is in quarantine and authorities hope they have stopped a serious outbreak.

Measurement Confusion

In our quaint village, we have the supreme luck to have a certified tailor employed at our clothing store. As a certified tailor, Mr. Zachary Mendenhall is able to take the measures of any person wanting properly fit ready-made clothing and then draft patterns for any seeking tailor-made clothing. Many of the members of our community have begun to take advantage of the presence of said tailor for said fittings. For this, he is eternally grateful. Mr. Mendenhall's concern is that these community members have on their first visit confusingly begun to disrobe, seemingly under the impression that measures are taken from their underclothing. This is not needed for either tailor-made nor ready-made clothing. Both the manner of drafting a pattern, and the standardized clothing, take the additional bulk of the customer's self-worn clothing into account. For a customer to come to McKeen's and have your clothing and the tailor's virtues intact while visiting.

Base Ball

A lively game of base ball will be contested on Sunday July 3rd on Muffin Field at the Ohio Village. This will be club match to demonstrate the skills of our local heroes the Muffins and the lady Diamonds. Unlike many of the professional teams that have emerged in the big cities, the Muffins are an amateur team. They still play by the old civilized rules that emphasize the fun of the game and good sportsmanship. The professional attitude of winning at all costs will not be on display here. The starting time is 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Rest at ease this is an event that is safe for the entire family to enjoy. A good time should be had by all. Come out and cheer the boys on.

Humor

She-I am so worried about my aunt. She is at the point of death.
He-Is that your wealthy aunt?
She-Yes.
He-Well, never mind, dearest. You have my love, which is greater than ever.

“Have you noticed anything peculiar about that new man?” said the cashier of the bank to the bookkeeper.
“Yes I have.”
“Do you think his mind is unbalanced?”
“No. But his accounts are.”

Jameson-Are you going to refurnish your house?
Fitz-No.
Jameson-Well, I saw your wife in a furniture store the other day pricing different articles.
Fitz-Yes, she did that so as to find out what Mrs. Brown's new furniture cost.
